

EAST BRENT,

BRIDGWATER.

May 19. 89

Dear Sir Baldwin

I had to come home yesterday to deal with a very unhappy case in my Archdeaconry on Tuesday next.

I shall not be in London again till Saturday evening 25. 4 Hereford Gardens.

I shall be very thankful for the memoir.

I am just publishing myself and hope to send you a copy -

My dear nephew Henry, Sir Williams son has been my Curate here from 71 - an unspeakable strength and comfort to us - Always most truly

G. A. DENISON.
