

[Faint, illegible handwriting]

28 Oct 1845

Devonshire Terrace

My dear Stanley. Yes - at the Graig Inn coffee house with Mae and Tony. But come here, about 5, or a quarter before. We can have a cab down. - Which you are the best which is partial to Cals?

If not a ill. convenience,
bring the slip.

Kate confined. Thank God, at half-past ten this morning with what is usually called (I don't know why) a chopping Boy.

I am partial to suits, and had set my heart on one — but never could get.

She sends her love to Stanfield.

Her affectionate
D.

Lewis A. Hird

My Dear Stanny. Yes - at the Gray's Inn Coffee House with Mac and Tony. But come here about 5, or a quarter before. We can have a cab down. - I believe you are the Gent which is partial to cabs?

 If not an ill-convenience, bring the Scrip.

 Kate confined. Thank God, at half past ten this morning with what is usually called (I don't know why) a chopping Boy. I am partial to Girls, and had set my heart on one - but never mind me.

 She sends her love to Mrs. Stanfield.

 Ever affectionately

 C D.