Tuesday morning

Dear Stanley

You have not told me whether there are any friends whom you would like to be asked to see the Day. Will you let me know? We think it necessary to get the invitations out.

The Eastlakes, Davy, Keble, the Ludlows, and the Leslies, are already on our own list.

The Cardinals needn't care for such a thing, I suppose? How as Wm and Mrs Woodells - or your friend Mr Jackson - and Mrs Jones we think likely to come but can't remember. Only let me know, and we will do the rest.

Yours affectionately

Tuesday Morning

My Dear Stanny

You have not told me whether there are any friends whom you would like to be asked to see the Play. Will you let me know? We think it necessary to get the invitations out.

The Eastlakes, Davy, Maclise, the Landseers, and the Leslie's, are already on our list.

The Cardinal wouldn't care for such a thing, I suppose? How as to Mr. and Mrs Wardell - or your friend Mr. Jackson - and others whom we think likely but can't remember. Only let me know, and we will do the rest.

Ever affectionately

C D.
