ABOUT THE LIBRARIES

Shakertown Luncheon

The fall faculty meeting has been scheduled at Shakertown on Friday, September 8, 9 am - 4 pm. Please let Pat Lloyd know by Friday, August 25, if you wish to have lunch there. The cost will be $5.50 plus tax (total $5.78) and the menu is as follows: roast beef, served with three vegetables, salad, rolls, beverage, and choice of dessert. Checks should be made payable to Shakertown at Pleasant Hill, Inc., and given to Pat Lloyd at the meeting.

Open House in Government Publications Department

In compliance with the many requests GPD will institute a series of open houses in September on Tuesday afternoons, 3-4 pm. Anyone who wishes to learn something about the use, organization, or housing of documents is welcome. No advance registration is necessary but please sign the attendance sheet upon arrival so the lectures can take into account particular needs and interests.

The Department should like also to call attention to its circulation policy which will continue to be somewhat different from the new policy to be instituted at M. I. King on September 1. Those government documents which can be borrowed will circulate for 4 weeks to all patrons, faculty, staff, graduate and undergraduate students alike.

MURRAY STATE UNIVERSITY TO DEDICATE LIBRARY

Murray State University will dedicate the Harry Lee Waterfield Library on Saturday, September 2, 1978, at 2 o'clock central daylight time in the Lobby of the Harry Lee Waterfield Library, Murray, Kentucky.

FORTRAN COURSES OFFERED

Beginning September 25, an introductory course on FORTRAN programming language will be offered by the Computing Center. The Center is also conducting a class in IBM's Job Control Language. The first session will be September 11. Both classes are free, but pre-registration is required. For more information, contact Computing Center personnel, 72 McVey Hall.

ASSERTIVENESS TRAINING FOR MANAGERS

The Center for Professional and Executive Development is sponsoring a seminar on Assertiveness Training for Managers October 4-6 at a cost of $215. for UK employees. For further information, see Faith Harders.

AREA TO HOST ARLIS/NA

The fall session of the Kentucky/Tennessee Chapter of the Art Libraries Society of North America will meet at Berea College, September 16. The group will be conducted through the library, visit the Special Collections area, see the Art Department Library and Gallery, and have a guided tour of the Berea campus. Lunch at Boone Tavern will be featured. For reservations please contact Wanda Dole, Architecture Library, 200 Pence Hall, University of Kentucky.

SELA/SWLA JOINT MEETING

The Southeast/Southwest Library Association will meet in New Orleans, October 5-8. Featured speakers will be O. B. Hardison, Jr., Director of the Folger Shakespeare Library, and Eileen D. Cook, Director, ALA Washington office. For more specific information, see file in Director's Office.
