December 13th

The Faculty met as usual.

Cadet Capt. J. H. Radley having returned, asked a reconsideration of the action of the Faculty in his case at their last meeting. He stated that he had no motive in leaving except to avoid small-pox. After duly considering the case it was resolved that his punishment was no greater than his offence required, and it was therefore allowed to stand according to previous announcement. Furloughs were granted to Messrs H. J. and D. C. Lewis. Mr. J. D. Davidson was excused from drill and was also allowed to change his room.

Mr. H. V. Wilson was before the Faculty, charged with breaking a window in his club room. His case was referred to Col. Swigert. Several students having gone home without permission, on account of fear of having small-pox a resolution was passed reducing their general conduct 50% each instead of dismissing them as is customary under ordinary circumstances.

On motion the Faculty adjourned.
