ON THE COVER—National Coach of the Year for 1966, Adolph Rupp, poses proudly with his "Dynamic Duo"—returning All-Americans Pat Riley (No. 42) and Louie Dampier (No. 10).

THE MIDDLE EAST TOUR — 1966

Baron Adolph Rupp's crowd-pleasing Kentucky Wildcats, accorded No. 1 position in the cage world last season before becoming victims of a near miss in their bid for an unprecedented fifth NCAA crown, won the United States many new friends overseas as the result of a post-season good will tour last summer.

Sponsored by the U.S. State Department under a cultural exchange program, the tour presented the colorful Kentuckians in three Middle East nations—Greece, Israel and Iran—for a series of 17 exhibitions, clinics, intra-squad scrimmages and a featured participation in the first International University Tournament. For five weeks, the Wildcats represented their native country as sports ambassadors.

The winningest combination in the history of basketball carried out its public relations mission well both on the court, where they lost only once, and off—when they made numerous public appearances and visited local officials and American diplomatic personnel.

Highlight of the interesting but tring tour was the International University Tournament in Yad Elihau Stadium at Tel Aviv, Israel. Kentucky swept impressively past five foreign foes to capture the title. Rupp's Runts coped with the adversities of outdoor courts, rubber balls, heat, lack of proper food and unfamiliar rules to top Warsaw in the champion contest, 87-57. Earlier, the 'Cats measured Warsaw, Cambridge, Salonika and Istanbul. Other participants in the Olympics-flavored tournament included host Tel Aviv, Heidelberg, and Rome. UK's lone defeat came in a post-tournament exhibition with the Israeli National All-Stars. The All-Stars, featuring a 6-11 standout center and many Olympic team candidates, won by a score of 81-76.

Although nine of the ten members of the team that made the trip will be back this season, Coach Rupp discounts the competitive experience gained. "With the necessity of playing under a strange set of rules at odd hours on dust-swept outdoor courts, I just don't think we gained much additional knowledge about our boys," he declared. "However, I do value the experience in a cultural way and I feel we made many friends for our country."

Rupp explained further that the overseas games did not succeed in pointing up positively the prospective replacements for graduated stars Larry Conley and Tommy Kron. One of the top choices to step into Kron's shoes at guard, Bob Tallent, looked good as a scorer at times—particularly against Warsaw—but the team's most consistent threats continued to be Pat Riley, who averaged 22 during the tournament, and little Louie Dampier—impressive in both scoring (17.2) and rebounding despite a sprained ankle. Tallent averaged 12.4 while center-forward Thad Jaracz had nine points a game, Larry Conley six and Cliff Berger, destined for experimental duty as the regular center, averaged just 5.8. As a team, Kentucky posted 86.2 points a game in beating five straight opponents who combined to tally an average of 51.2 points.

Additional Wildcats making the tour were Jim LeMaster, Gary Gamble, Tommy Porter and Steve Clevenger. They were accompanied by Coach Rupp, Coach Lancaster and Athletic Director Bernie A. Shively.

SERVICES—Working press and radio will be furnished game programs, brochures, running play-by-play, halftime quickie box and final statistics in the form of a complete, seven-column dittoed box score.

University of Kentucky's Basketball Brochure, edited by Sports Information Director Ken Kuhn, again last year was cited as the best in the nation. Repeating the citation first accorded the brochure five years ago, the U.S. Basketball Writers Association selected UK's booklet best in the major college division after examining entries from schools all over the country. Making a unique "clean sweep" of facts book judging, Kuhn also was commended by the Football Writers Association of America for editing the best Football Brochure in the nation in 1965.

THE UNIVERSITY OF KENTUCKY

. . . The State Is Our Campus

Located in Lexington, an urban community of over 150,000 population in the heart of Kentucky's famed Blue Grass region, University of Kentucky is a state-supported, land-grant institution which celebrated its centennial year in 1965.

The present school, which currently enrolls about 18,000 students and offers instruction in 10 academic colleges plus a Graduate School and a division of Extended Programs, had its beginnings in 1865 when it was established as a part of old Kentucky University. This action by the State Legislature united sectarian and public education under one organization for the first time. Federal funds authorized under the Morrill Act were used to develop agriculture and mechanical arts within KU and, in 1878, A&M College was separated from KU to become a separate state institution on the general site of what is now the 706-acre main campus. Name changes in 1908 and 1916 resulted in the title by which the school is now known.

A new chief administrative officer, Dr. John W. Oswald, took over reins of the University at the beginning of the 1963-64 school year. The 49-year-old new president, who succeeded Dr. Frank Dickey, has an athletic background including collegiate football play at DePauw and letters in basketball and track. He was selected on the Sports Illustrated Silver Anniversary All-America Team in 1962. Dr. Oswald, whose special field is plant pathology, came to Kentucky from a position as vice-president-administration, Statewide University, University of California.

The University is on the approved list of the Association of American Universities and is a member of the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools. It is fully accredited in its respective colleges and departments by all of the major professional societies and educational organizations.

ATHLETICS AT KENTUCKY

Kentucky's athletic program, a well-balanced and ambitious activity featuring inter-collegiate competition in ten different sports, is organized under the Department of Athletics and a corporation known as the University of Kentucky Athletics Association.

The program is conducted without overemphasis or sacrifice of educational objectives and in strict compliance with the rules of the University, the Southeastern Conference and the National Collegiate Association.

A board of directors, headed by University President John W. Oswald in the capacity of chairman, maintains overall policy supervision of the athletic program. In addition to the UK President, board officers include Robert Johnson as vice-chairman and Dr. W. L. Matthews in the capacity of secretary. Fourteen other men, drawn from the University faculty and the general public, also serve on the board as appointees of the president as does a student representative.

Supervising the steady growth and balanced development of one of the nation's top athletic programs is Bernie A. Shively, a former Illinois grid All-American and a veteran of over 25 years in the post of Director of Athletics.

The Association's Board of Directors is composed of the following:

Dr. John W. Oswald, Chairman	Dr. Loren Carlson	Douglas Parrish
Robert Johnson,	Dr. Glen Creech	Carson Porter
Vice-Chairman	Dr. Thomas Clark	(Student)
Dr. W. L. Matthews, Jr., Secretary	Dr. John Douglas	Dr. Douglas Schwartz
Dr. Ralph Angelucci	Dr. Lyman Ginger	James H. Pence
Prof. David Blythe	Dr. A. D. Kirwan	Floyd Wright
Dr. Aubrey J. Brown

University of Kentucky is able to boast proudly of having one of the nation's most harmonious and well-balanced athletic programs—September to June activity in 10 different sports featuring more than 500 athletes in action before audiences that exceed a half million persons and involving use of facilities valued at several million dollars.

Supervising the steady growth and balanced development of one of the top intercollegiate athletic programs in the country today is a tall, silver-haired, former gridiron All-American known familiarly to thousands of UK sport fans as "Shive."

He is, by name, Bernie A. Shively. In his position as Kentucky's Director of Athletics since 1938, this gentleman of many talents has been largely responsible for guiding the University to increasing prominence in the athletic world.

In addition to a fair-minded policy direction that has resulted in "big time" stature for the school's athletic teams, Shively during his 28-year tenure has directly supervised major expansions in the physical plant designed to keep pace with the growing patronage by a sports-minded public. Among these have been the doubling of the seating capacity of Stoll Field, and preparation of a spacious sports center to provide top facilities for spring sports teams and football practice.

The seating capacity of Kentucky's football stadium, McLean Stadium on Stoll Field, has been doubled to bring the current number of seats to approximately 37,500 and on par with most other schools located in heavier-populated areas. Powerful lighting equipment also was installed during the 1948-49 construction and a new-type "iodized" light put up in 1961 to bring night football into new popularity. Partly to satisfy the overwhelming number of basketball devotees, who could not squeeze into the 2,800-seat Alumni Gymnasium, a long-planned Memorial Coliseum was completed in 1950. Seating 11,500 persons for cage contests, the four-million dollar Coliseum also houses the Athletic Department. More recently, Shively directed the acquisition of a pair of modern, ranch-style living units which have served as the home of the football team since 1954. "Wildcat Manor" and "Kitten Lodge" replaced three frame houses which the gridgers had occupied since 1949.

Plans Spacious New Sports Center

A large dressing room building and football practice field, used since 1955, was abandoned in 1959 to make way for a huge new men's dorm. Under Shively's supervision, a spacious new Sports Center was prepared a short distance away on the University farm to take even better care of the footballers and spring sports teams. The Sports Center is generally regarded as one of the finest sports facilities in the nation.

Stoll Field has undergone, with Shively's supervision, a major "face-lifting" to improve its playing surface and the view of the fans sitting in the lower rows of the stands.

Born in Oliver, Ill., May 26, 1903, Shively attended Paris (Ill.) High school and there began his athletic career by participating in track and football. Although he was considered an outstanding backfield man in high school, Shively didn't attract the serious attention of collegiate scouts. He entered Illinois and tried out for the football team on his own. From that humble beginning, Shively went on to become a great guard under Coach Bob Zuppke on the same Illini team made famous by the immortal Red Grange.

Shive played two years with Grange, running interference for the "Galloping Ghost" and made All-America in 1926 as a senior despite a bad knee that handicapped his playing. He also won the heavyweight wrestling championship of the Big 10 and was a standout in track to rank as one of the finest all-around athletes in Illinois' history.

Shively came to Kentucky in 1927 as line coach of football under Harry Gamage and six years later was named head of the UK Physical Education Department. He succeeded Chet Wynne as Athletic Director in 1938. During this period and the years following, he also served as track and baseball coach for several seasons and continued to assist the football staff as line coach until 1944. The next year, 1945, he assumed full charge of the grid squad for one season before turning the job over to mentor Paul (Bear) Bryant in 1946.

The Kentucky Athletic Director is a past chairman of the NCAA Basketball Tournament Committee and for the past 13 years has been president of the Southeastern Conference Coaches and Athletic Directors Association. He served as chairman of the SEC Basketball Committee for a number of years and is a past chairman of the NCAA summer baseball group. Shively also has found time to be active in civic and alumni affairs.

Shively and his wife, Ruth, have two children. Doug was a star end on the UK grid team for three years ending in 1958 and is now coaching at UK after a six-year stint at Virginia Tech, while daughter Suzanne was a Phi Beta Kappa graduate in 1957.

CAGEDOM'S MOST HONORED COACH—Kentucky's inimitable Baron of Basketball, Adolph Rupp, shows off a sampling of the awards and trophies that came his way last season when he was the unanimous choice as national Coach of the Year—a distinction he has won four times in his fabulous career. Clockwise, the awards are Philadelphia Sports Writers Basketball Club, Coach and Athlete magazine, United Press International, the Metropolitan Award, UK Basketball Writers Association, and Metropolitan Writers of New York City.

ADOLPH FREDERICK RUPP

"Nation's Winningest Basketball Coach"

36 Years — Won 752, Lost 152 — 83.1%

For almost four decades, the sports world has watched an amazing record being forged with near perfection out of raw material by a colorful figure in the Blue Grass country of Kentucky known familiarly to hundreds of thousands as the "Man in the Brown Suit."

He is Adolph Rupp of Kentucky and when the sport of basketball is mentioned today, a direct chain of thought brings out the name of this maker of champions who holds undisputed rank as the "Nation's Winningest Basketball Coach." The name of Rupp, feared and respected in opponents' hearts and beloved by the millions who have witnessed the remarkable success of his Wildcat cage teams, has become synonymous with the game of basketball.

Such unprecedented recognition for the fabulous mentor is only natural since his success in the past 36 years as head man of the fabled Kentucky cage thoroughbreds has been nothing short of phenomenal. It would take a book longer than his own technical best-seller, "Championship Basketball," to recite the record completely. Briefly, however, that record includes:

- An amazing 752 victories out of 904 starts for an unparalleled winning percentage of better than 83 percent against major competition.
- One of only two still-active major college coaches with 700 career victories to his credit.
- Certification by the NCAA Service Bureau as the nation's most successful collegiate basketball coach, both for the decade ending in 1961 and at the 20-year level.
- Selection as the unanimous national "Coach of the Year" in 1966 for the fourth time in his career and runner-up for the 1957 and 1964 seasons.
- An unprecedented honor roll of four NCAA Tournament championships picked up by his Wildcats who hold the all-time record of 15 appearances in the national classic and can claim more victories in NCAA play (26) than any other team.
- Coach of the International Universities Tournament champions in 1966.
- A nominal world championship as co-coach of the successful USA entry in the 1948 Olympic Games which included members of Kentucky's NCAA champions.
- Producer of more Olympic gold medallion winners (7) than any other cage coach.
- An all-time record total of 22 Southeastern Conference titles since the league was organized in 1933.
- Election to the Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Fame in 1959 and previous selection (in 1946) by Helms Athletic Foundation as a member of their exclusive Hall of Fame.
- Trustee and member of selection and honors committees of Basketball Hall of Fame. Also chairman NABC Hall of Fame Committee and heads the group that selects players to appear in East-West All-Star Game benefitting the Hall of Fame.
- Recipient of the Governor's Medallion in 1959 for meritorious service to the Commonwealth of Kentucky and plaques of appreciation from the U.S. Air Force (1959) and Sugar Bowl committee (1951).
- Election to the Kentucky Hall of Fame (1945), outstanding citizen of Lexington (1949) and twice honorary citizen of the City of New Orleans. Enrolled in the Kentucky Athletic Hall of Fame in 1965.

- Five Sugar Bowl Tournament championships, a National Invitation Tournament title and eight trophies from the 13 previous UK Invitational Tournaments.
- Membership on the NCAA Basketball Rules Committee.

Rupp's Teams Play In Most Tournaments

Tournament invitations in pre-Rupp years were almost unheard of—Kentucky played in only seven sectional eliminations. In contrast, the Rupp-led Wildcats have the distinction of playing in more tournaments of all types than any other team. All told, his Bluegrass fives have achieved the unequalled feat of 154 victories against only 42 defeats, covering action in 44 national classics plus 29 conference meets, the '48 Olympics and the International Universities Tournament of 1966.

Although the competition was nowhere near as rugged as the schedules played by today's nationally-recognized Wildcat brigades, Rupp's very first team compiled a highly-successful, 15-3 record and Kentucky basketball has been on a winning plane ever since. The most games lost in a single season since Rupp added his touch were ten in 1964-65. The remarkably low average number of losses per season in the Rupp Era is three and he can boast of never having a losing season.

Rupp's teams have finished as national champion in the press association polls five times in the last 17 years. They were unranked in the top 20 only in the 1952-53 campaign, when they were idle, and in two other seasons. Possibly his greatest achievement came in the 1953-54 season when the Wildcats rolled unchecked through a 25-game schedule of top-flight opposition to become the biggest-winning, perfect-record unit in all basketball history up to that time.

Rivalling that achievement, in the opinion of the sportswriters and broadcasters, is the tremendous coaching jobs turned in by the basketball miracle man in more recent seasons. Ten years ago, Rupp guided a moderately talented club to an 18th SEC title, third place in the polls and a ninth NCAA Tournament appearance while achieving a 23-5 record. The surprised experts, who had predicted UK would not win its own conference, voted Coach Rupp the runner-up spot as 1957 "Coach of the Year."

Even that effort went by the boards in 1958, however, as Kentucky's talentless wonders copped the NCAA title for an unprecedented fourth time. The Wildcats were unsung and almost unknown except by reputation and heritage. Not a single man had been honored on the All-Conference fives selected before tournament time and they had lost more games (6) in regular season play than any UK team in 17 years.

Wins National 'Coach of Year' Honor

If the experts thought that was tops in miracles, they reckoned without the amazing drive of this man Rupp. With four-fifths of his starting lineup gone, he re-built shattered foundations in such an astonishing fashion that the Wildcats rolled through the 1959 season almost unchecked. Although they failed to win the title in their increasingly-tough Southeastern Conference for only the third time since 1943, UK was generally conceded to be the nation's top team. Most experts agreed that the Kentuckians, who finished with a 24-3 record and ranked second nationally, missed a golden opportunity to pick up a fifth NCAA crown as they were upset by Louisville in the tourney opener. This feeling was given meaning as Rupp was accorded "Coach of the Year" honor by United Press International.

The 1959-60 season admittedly was not a great one as the UKats chalked up only an 18-7 mark—second worst season of the Rupp Era. However, many experts considered the outcome to be a tribute to one of the greatest coaching efforts ever turned in. Plagued from the beginning of the season to the end by adversity (sickness, injuries, eligibility difficulties and personnel problems), complete disaster was always imminent and avoided only by masterful juggling (16 different starting combos) and artful strategy moves.

It was a similar story of great coaching technique against the heavy odds of personnel and schedule in 1960-61. Although the final record read only 19-9, a closer look reveals the touch of Rupp was there for the Wildcats were regrouped into a fearsome outfit after early troubles and rolled to 11 wins in their last 12 starts. Enroute they conquered eventual SEC champ Mississippi State on the road and demolished Vanderbilt in a SEC Playoff for an NCAA berth. They never ran out of gas until stopped by Ohio State in regional finals.

There was no way of anticipating the tremendous season that evolved in 1961-62 except to depend on the proven touch of master rebuilders Rupp. Minus four starters off the 19-9 outfit of the year before, Rupp guided his "Fearless Five" to victory in the UK Invitational and cornered a share of the league title for the 20th time. Finally, lack of bench strength and superior height caused the UKats' downfall in the NCAA regional finals and they stowed away their gear with a surprising, 23-3 mark.

Not much could be said for 1962-63, which resulted in the posting of the poorest record (16-9) of the Rupp Era up to that time, except that it easily could have been worse without a dedicated coaching effort. Although their surge fell disappointingly short in quest for a fifth NCAA title, the 1963-64 Ruppmen blazed a torrid path that led to high national ranking all season long. Before a critical lack of height and too demanding a schedule caught up with them, the Wildcats waltzed to titles in two major seasonal tournaments (UKIT and Sugar Bowl) and copped an unprecedented 21st SEC Championship. Again lacking the vital height to control the boards and missing bench strength, the 1964-65 Kentuckians suffered through the worst season in Rupp's 35 years of coaching—a 15-10 mark. The record failed to reflect that the 'Cats threw scares into a lot of good outfits and wound up strong, taking decisions in seven of their last 10 starts.

The 1965-66 season demanded that Rupp pull more miracles out of his seemingly bottomless "bag of tricks" and he did just that—guiding a rebound from the worst season of his career (15-10 in '65) to the second best. Without a starter taller than 6-5, Rupp's Runts astounded the cage world by rolling to a near-perfect season. Enroute to attaining runaway recognition by both polls as regular season National Champions, the Ruppmen were edged only once in 25 tests. Only the strain of battling a height disadvantage and sickness prevented a successful claim to a fifth NCAA title—which escaped them in the championship game.

For his obviously amazing coaching job, Rupp was chosen as national "Coach of the Year." The vote was a rare unanimous choice of the man whose critics only a year before had decided the "old man" was finally slipping.

Rupp Credited For Increasing Interest

Rupp is recognized by sports authorities with doing more than any other modern tutor to make basketball a national spectator sport. From the very outset of his career at Kentucky, which began in 1930, he has introduced or popularized many new and revised trends in the game that have aided materially in making the country basketball-minded. One such innovation was the controlled fast break offensive pattern that has since become the crowd-pleasing trademark of Wildcat cage teams.

As Baron Rupp begins his 37th year at the helm of Kentucky's heralded cage force, he is able to look back proudly over a success story that is not likely to be surpassed for many a season to come. Few major goals of the coaching profession have escaped his grasp down through the years and, as he approaches the twilight of a fabulous career, even former adversaries are readily attesting to his greatness. The "Man In The Brown Suit" is finally being given his due credit for building the game of basketball into the crowd-pleasing sport it is today.

In his own backyard (the Southeastern Conference) particularly, it is generally acknowledged that Rupp is the prime benefactor of Dixie basketball—having goaded loop schools into providing better places to play, recruiting better boys and giving more emphasis to the sport.

On the record, the Kentucky coach (65 years young) is off and running toward a unique goal of 800 coaching victories. He may never achieve it, but past experience indicates he will give it that "old college try" as long as he has the urge and as health permits.

The outstanding success of this man as a basketball coach is matched only by the personal fame he has attained off the court.

The masterful story-teller is equally renowned on the banquet and coaching clinic circuit and is in constant demand as a speaker in the off season. He annually appears in more than a dozen states to make speaking engagements and believes he has missed only Alaska in tours throughout the 50 states. Rupp undoubtedly has conducted more coaching clinics than any other tutor. Overseas assignments for the Army and Air Force have taken him in recent years to Europe three times (last, Germany 1961) and twice to Hawaii and the Far East (in 1962 and 1964). Several foreign olympic coaches have studied under Rupp at UK.

Last summer, Rupp took his Wildcats on a five-week tour of the Middle East (Greece, Israel and Iran) at the request of the U.S. State Department. The Kentucky good-will ambassadors won the International University Tournament in Tel Aviv.

Internationally recognized for his avocation as a registered Hereford breeder-enthusiast, Rupp is currently in his fourteenth term as president of the Kentucky Hereford Assn. He owns and operates one of the largest farms in the Bluegrass area and serves as a director of the Central District Warehousing Corp., world's largest tobacco marketing organization. The coach in 1962 was named to a five-year term on the Board of Governors of the Agricultural Hall of Fame and National Agricultural Center.

Coach Rupp is active in Shrine affairs, being chosen in 1950 as one of the 10 outstanding Shriners of the nation and holding honorary memberships in temples throughout the country. He is a Past Potentate of the Oleika (Lexington) Temple and serves as vice-chairman of the board for the Shrine Crippled Children's Hospital in Lexington.

He has his own television and radio shows during the season, has produced two film shorts ("Basketball: Individual Offense" for Coca-Cola Co. and "Parade to National Championship") and written books on virtually every phase of the game.

Born in Halstead, Kansas, Sept. 2, 1901, Rupp attended University of Kansas where he played guard under Phog Allen. Following graduation in 1923, he coached high school ball one year at Marshalltown, Iowa, and then at Freeport, Ill., four seasons before coming to Kentucky in 1930. His fame as "The Man in the Brown Suit" stems from his superstitious preference of brown as the color of his game-night wardrobe.

RUPP ENTERS EXCLUSIVE '700 CLUB'

Three seasons back, in 1964, Kentucky Coach Adolph Rupp attained a coveted goal—his 700th coaching career victory. The big win came on the road at the expense of Georgia—particularly fitting since the same club had handed him his first UK coaching loss at the same scene 34 years before. And it became singularly impressive since the UK tutor could point to achievement of the milestone at the earliest point in his career of any "member" of the club.

Only one other still-active coach and a pair who have now retired have attained the creditable feat. Forrest (Phog) Allen of Kansas became the first to pick up 700 career wins as he accomplished the aim in 1952—in the 42nd year of his coaching tenure. He stepped down after 46 years with a record of 770 wins and 233 losses. Western Kentucky's colorful Ed Diddle was in his 38th year of coaching in 1960 as he notched victory No. 700. And he retired after a 42nd campaign in 1963-64 that raised his record to 759-302. Still active at Oklahoma State after 36 years and a 700th victory recorded in the final game of 1963-64 is Henry (Hank) Iba. With 752 wins entering the 1966-67 campaign, Rupp is closing fast on the records of Diddle and Allen.

HARRY LANCASTER

Assistant Coach

When Harry Lancaster finds a spare moment to reflect on his days as an all-around star athlete at Georgetown (Ky.) College back in the early thirties, he can recall with a degree of dismay how close he came to never pursuing the "round ball" sport that in the days since has earned him a highly respected position in the basketball world.

An All-Conference halfback for three straight years and captain during his last two seasons, Lancaster's football career almost overshadowed his play on the basketball court. In the cage sport, he was equally successful—with three All-Conference nominations and two team captaincies to his credit—but considered himself a better football player than cager.

Born in Paris, Ky., Feb. 14, 1911, he attended Paris High School where he played four years in all sports. Following graduation in 1928, he continued his athletic career at Georgetown College and gained star recognition in football, basketball and baseball. As a cager, he played against Coach Rupp's first UK team in 1930. After finishing at Georgetown in '32, Harry remained on for the next school year as an assistant coach in both the grid and cage sports before moving into the high school field. He coached several sports, mostly basketball, for nine years and was a high school principal for six years before coming to the University of Kentucky in 1942 as an instructor in physical education. Soon thereafter, the war intervened and Lancaster saw 16 months' Navy duty, rising from apprentice seaman to Lieutenant (Senior Grade).

Returning to UK in March, 1946, he became a part-time assistant to the Wildcats' famous cage mentor, Adolph Rupp, in addition to carrying on his teaching duties and gaining his master's degree. Two years later, he became Coach Rupp's general right hand man in a full-time capacity. Lancaster also served as Kentucky's baseball coach for 17 seasons prior to relinquishing the post following the 1965 campaign.

In addition to his coaching duties, Lancaster manages to sandwich in a large slice of traveling. Besides checking on the nation's best high school cagers as potential material for future Wildcat national champion crews, his travel stems from a plan to extensively scout upcoming opponents. Coach Rupp was one of the first in the country to inaugurate this wide-spread scouting system in basketball and believes it has contributed materially to Kentucky's past success in carrying off championships with almost reckless abandon.

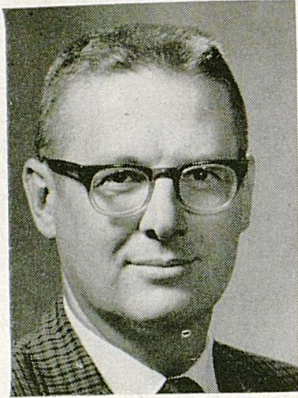

Lancaster also traveled to Greece in the summer of 1951 on a special athletic assignment for the U. S. State Department. The mission called for the Kentucky aide to act as an advisor to Greek Basketball Federation officials on Olympic procedure and other matters. He also conducted numerous clinics, coaching schools and gave public lectures on the cage sport as played in the U.S.A.

During the summer of 1962, he helped Coach Rupp conduct clinics for Army personnel in the Far East Theater and worked with Rupp on the team's Middle East Tour last summer.

Lancaster's coaching success with the freshman teams has been commendable. The yearlings have lost only 46 contests under his tutelage the past 16 seasons against formidable competition that included the more elite junior college clubs and top-notch service quintets. His record stands at 175 wins, 46 losses.

JOE HALL Assistant Coach

Former Kentucky basketballer Joe Hall enters his second season as an aide on the staff of Coach Adolph Rupp with ever-increasing prestige and, paradoxically, a burning ambition. The 37-year-old native Kentuckian from Cynthiana, who turned in the finest recruiting job in many a year as he lined up six All-Americans for the 1966-67 freshman team, would rather spend more time in coaching togs. He's not unappreciative of the opportunity to represent his Alma Mater in the recruiting wars, but coaching is in his blood and he aspires to learn more about the profession from his current boss.

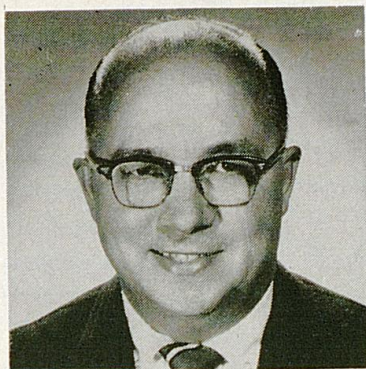

A successful coach for nine years prior to joining the Rupp staff in July, 1965, as coach, scout and recruiter, Hall transferred from Central Missouri State, where he spent the 1964-65 season as head coach—posting a 19-6 record and gaining CMS's first NIAA Conference championship since 1951. Hall, who was a 6-1 guard on the 1949 Wildcat team, entering coaching following graduation from UK in 1955. He spent two years at Shephardsville High, achieving Coach of the Year honor in the Mid-Kentucky Conference in both 1957 and 1958. Moving into the collegiate field, he served one season as freshman coach and then five years as head coach at Regis College in Denver, Colo. Among the team's top victories in his final season of 1963-64 were decisions over Denver University, Oklahoma State and Air Force Academy.

Hall, in 1964, also coached the Capital Federal Denver team in the AAU Tournament and later was honored by selection as head coach of the AAU Stripes in the Olympic Trials at Jamaica, N. Y. Joe is married to the former Katherine Dennis of Harrison County and they have three children—Judy 10, Kathy 9, and Stephen 6. In addition to his A.B. degree from UK, Hall holds a master's degree from Colorado State.

T-VIEWING THE WILDCATS

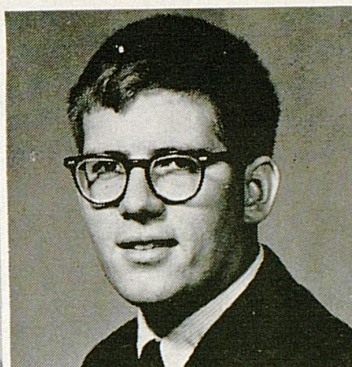

Kentucky's Wildcats have winning ways that make them particularly tough when in focus of the television cameras. In eight appearances during the past fifteen years before the national television audience, Coach Adolph Rupp's crew has come out victorious every time except in the NCAA championship game last season. Their first experience on television is believed to have been in the NCCA eastern finals at Madison Square Garden in 1951 when games with St. John's and Illinois were televised nationally. Portions of a game with Loyola in Chicago Stadium Feb. 15, 1957, were aired as part of a salute to Coach Rupp on the old "Tonight" show. NBC-TV's "Game of the Week" series in 1958-59 featured three UK wins at the expense of St. Louis, LSU and Tennessee and a similar series in 1960-61 carried by ABC-TV saw the Wildcats measure Georgia Tech in a Memorial Coliseum game. Several other Kentucky road games have been televised locally or regionally in recent years and this season Kentucky is scheduled to appear before the TV cameras four times on a Southeastern Conference "Game of the Week" series. The Wildcats are dated with Auburn at home and will meet Mississippi State, Alabama and Vanderbilt on the road. A pivotal battle with Vandy in Nashville last season was piped into Memorial Coliseum at Lexington via closed circuit television and a crowd of 7,500 fans—biggest ever to see such a cage telecast in the nation—saw the Wildcats win in one of their finest showings of the season.

KUHN

BAXTER

KEN KUHN, Sports Information Director—A veteran of 19 years in the post of directing the flow of information about the Wildcat cage team and other athletic activities, Kuhn is a graduate of Michigan State. He spent two years in general UK public relations before moving over to the Athletic Department in 1948. In addition to directing publicity, Kuhn also edits numerous UK sports publications such as the national-award-winning basketball and football brochures. He is a member of COSIDA—national organization of college sports information directors—and a past president of the SEC Sports Publicity Association.

RICHARD (Spike) KERNS, Trainer—Appointed basketball trainer in July, 1966, replacing four-year veteran Joe Brown, 28-year-old Spike Kerns came to UK from Southport High in Indianapolis where he worked for two years. Previously he was student trainer at Columbus (Ind.) High and Purdue University, where he received a bachelor's degree in 1963.

BILL BAXTER, Asst. Information Director—A veteran of journalistic work with two national wire services (AP and UPI), Baxter joined the UK sports information staff in 1965. He was born in Vanceburg, Ky., and raised in South Carolina. After a brief tour of duty with United Press International, Bill served as night editor of the Lexington bureau of the Associated Press—the position he left to come to UK. He has completed more than three years' undergraduate work at the University.

GEORGE HUKLE, Basketball Equip. Mgr. and Statistician—An invaluable aide to the Kentucky basketball team for longer than most people can remember, George Hukle has served as official statistician for the Wildcats for a great many years and is in his fifth year as cage equipment manager . . . Regarded as the dean of Southeastern Conference statisticians and one of the nation's veterans, Hukle has been keeping charts for Coach Rupp since 1933 . . . He is credited with popularizing the statistic of field goal attempts in collegiate basketball.

KENTUCKY BASKETBALL OUTLOOK — 1967

Kentucky's perennially tough Wildcats, surprise team of the year in 1966 as they forged a near perfect record (27-2) to rank No. 1 in the country and score a near miss in a bid for an unprecedented fifth NCAA crown, should be back snarling again in 1967.

There's no denying the supposition that Baron Adolph Rupp, the nation's unanimous Coach of the Year for 1966, will send out another potentially strong contender for sectional and national honors in view of past performance and what the future book holds.

Two of last season's regulars—floor leader Larry Conley at forward and defensive ace Tom Kron at guard—will be missing but opposing coaches are quick to point out what Coach Rupp has left. Still in the stable are two of the nation's finest cage thoroughbreds in the persons of All-Americans Pat Riley and Louie Dampier; the Southeastern Conference's Sophomore of the Year and third team All-American, center-forward Thad Jaracz; and seven other returning lettermen, headed by 6-8 Cliff Berger.

Only one new face joins the group after yearling training—guard Phil Argento, who broke the school's freshman scoring record four times and had a high point production of 50.

The personnel is there to form a talented nucleus again in '67. But the successors to "Rupp's Runts" still will be missing the really big man to help out on the boards and handle opposing giants defensively. Another advantage not accruing to this season's Ruppmen will be the psychological element of surprise that materially aided in getting them off to a fast start a year ago when nobody conceded them much of a chance. Furthermore, the adequate replacement of the talents of the two graduated starters will pose a major problem.

Experiment Fails To Work Out Satisfactorily

To help solve one obstacle in the path leading to his 37th straight winning campaign, Coach Rupp was expected to shift Jaracz from center (where he turned in a surprisingly helpful job last year despite being small at 6-5) over to the vacated forward spot. This experimental change would have made room for the biggest man on the height-shy roster, 6-8 Berger. Such a shift would provide five more inches along the front line since Conley manned the forward at just 6-3; however, the overall height problem will still be complicated by the absence of 6-5 Kron (number two rebounder) and the presence of a maximum of 6-2 height among possible replacements.

The proposed switch didn't work out, however, in experiments on a summer tour of the Middle East and during pre-season practice. "We discovered," Rupp explains, "that moving Berger to center did not give us the scoring and rebounding punch we had hoped to get. More than anything else it hurt our team speed."

Instead, Rupp plans to insert either Gene Stewart (6-2 senior non-letterman) or Tommy Porter (6-3 junior) at the vacant forward post and leave Jaracz in his familiar pivot position while working in Berger as much as possible. Stewart, who appears to have the inside track, is best on defense while Porter is the stronger scorer and rebounder.

At the guard position left open by Kron's graduation, the most likely choice is Bob Tallent, a six-footer with one year of experience and a hot shooting hand. He is classed as a better scorer than Kron and slightly faster, but he is not as good a defensive man, cannot rebound as well and does not quarterback the ball club with the efficiency of his predecessor.

Overall, it appears probable that Rupp will go to the post with a lineup even smaller than last season's "Runts." The UKats will drop five inches at guard and one inch at forward to average out to just 6-2. While amazingly height-shy, the Rupp-men will be faster and hopefully as good or better shots than last year's record-busting, 48.9 percent deadeyes.

"Rupp's Runts" got by amazingly well last season despite their handicap as one of the nation's smallest teams. Opponents took a rebounding advantage only six times in 29 games. But there is room to wonder if their successors can live up to this challenge.

"Jack of All Trades" Riley, who not only led the scoring parade but jumped center and paced all rebounders as well, will need more help and it is hoped that improvement of Jaracz and extensive use of Berger will provide it. Riley's tremendous contribution is partially reflected by the fact he lost the center jump only 12 times in 58 tries.

Bench strength should be one of Kentucky's strong points. Backing up the starting lineup will be six lettermen and the hot-shot sophomore, Argento.

One of the biggest problems will be anticipated toughness among the 17 teams to be met during the course of the season. Of particular worry will be the 18 SEC Round Robin engagements. As Rupp states it: "Everybody in the conference will be tough and laying for us. We got a lot of breaks last season and cashed in on surprise—nobody expected much from us early. We are going to have to play even better ball this time around to beat such obvious contenders as Mississippi State, Florida and Tennessee. You might say the race is wide open."

All in all, the Kentucky situation shapes up as once again potentially strong offensively with the "Dynamic Duo" of Riley and Dampier improved and looking to repeat 600-point productions of last season, possibly somewhat weaker or no stronger defensively due to Kron's absence, apparently a little weaker in the rebounding department, stepped up in speed and improved in ball handling—one of the main fortes of the amazing '66 National Champions.

KENTUCKY'S COLORS

The blue and white of the University of Kentucky are known to sports fans everywhere. Officially the colors are Yale blue and white, but in the beginning, when the Lexington institution was still known as the Agricultural and Mechanical College of Kentucky, the colors were "Stoll blue" and white. One day back in the 1890's a group of Kentucky football stalwarts met to choose their school colors. Someone suggested blue and white—"blue like Dick Stoll's necktie"—and those colors were immediately adopted. "Dick" Stoll was to become Judge Richard C. Stoll, distinguished public servant and, for more than fifty years before his death, a member of the U.K. board of trustees.

NEARLY PERFECT — RESUME OF 1965-66

You have the word of the man who fashioned it—"There will never be another one like it."

The speaker was Baron Adolph Rupp, whose amazing success as re-builder of basketball teams won him every national "Coach of the Year" honor passed out following last season.

The subject on which he spoke authoritatively was the Kentucky cage outfit of 1965-66 that rebounded from a "disastrous" campaign of the year before to wind up as National Champion by the polls, score a near miss in a bid for an unprecedented fifth NCAA title and go on to post season success in the International Universities Tournament.

Grounds for Coach Rupp's observation are many and varied. Uppermost in his mind doubtless was the fortitude displayed by his amazing team—virtually the same bunch that only 12 months before had faltered to a 15-10 record that distinguished itself as the worst ever in his coaching career of nearly four decades. Added to that was the supposed handicap of a lack of height—illustrated by the presence at center of a 6-5 sophomore and the nickname of "Rupp's Runts" that was bestowed on the team by sympathetic sports writers and announcers.

He could find no fault, even with the benefit of hindsight with the pre-season analysis of the experts who figured the short-handed Wildcats somewhere down the Southeastern Conference ladder below defending champion Vanderbilt and contenders Tennessee, Florida and Auburn and utterly ignored the Wildcats nationally. The wise men pointed to UK's "poor" record of '65 and apparent lack of outstanding help—particularly the big man that had been missing for several seasons. Lack of strength on the boards and reliance on virtually the same personnel were expected to offset the team's anticipated speed and shooting.

The analysis of Kentucky's weaknesses proved valid except for the conclusion that weak points would spell Kentucky's doom.

Rupp Turns In Greatest Coaching Job

The real story of Kentucky's rise above the doldrums predicted for it in 1965-66 is, most simply stated, a case of pulling one's self up by one's bootstraps. Holdover personnel improved tremendously and Rupp, enjoying his best state of health in many years, "mellowed" like an old razor blade to turn in the greatest coaching job of his 36-year illustrious career.

With the exception of a soph center, the lineup was virtually the same as a year ago. But the unselfish spirit, togetherness, deadly shooting accuracy, quickness, ball-handling finesse, hustle and surprising strength on the boards was new.

The surprised experts were particularly impressed at Kentucky's board work in view of the fact that the starting lineup—dubbed Rupp's Runts with nobody over 6-5—was one of the smallest in the nation. Averaging nearly 50 grabs a game, the UKats were usually 8 to 10 ahead of their opponents thanks to uncanny timing and sheer hustle. Only two teams—Florida (twice) and Tennessee in the season end upset—managed to out-rebound the 'Cats in regular season.

Less surprising and one of the chief success factors was the Wildcats' amazingly accurate shooting. Connecting at an accuracy clip of nearly 50 percent, the Kentucky Rifles ranked high nationally and rated "best I have ever had" with Rupp.

Most compliments, however, were lavished on the UK bunch for their teamwork. Often dubbed the "Unselfish Five," the band never let the ball "get sticky." Every player had admiration for and confidence in his teammate. If a teammate had a better shot, the man with the ball got it to him. Ball handling, too, was amazing all season long as the 'Cats worked for shots or set up the other guy. There were no superstars on the team. All five starters averaged in double figures. One could have an off night and the team still managed to win. This made it difficult for the honor team voters, who chose two UKats as All-Americans, added a third man as All-Conference and chose another as SEC Soph of the Year.

Making up one of the nation's smallest teams in size and biggest in will to win were 6-3 senior All-Conference forward Larry Conley, a magician at passing the ball and leader in assists; 6-3 junior All-American forward Pat Riley, leading scorer (21.9) and rebounder (8.9); 6-5 sophomore Thad Jaracz, too small to play center but a winner on hustle and strength; 6-5 senior guard Tommy Kron, offensive quarterback and defensive genius; and 6-0 junior All-America guard Louie Dampier, called by Rupp "the best shooter I have ever seen." The same starting combo opened all games.

Pinpointing the key stages of Kentucky's surge to an amazing campaign is difficult, but two big wins over then nationally third-ranked Vanderbilt (one a 15-point decision on the Commodores' home floor in late season) carried the 'Cats a long way down the road. With nearly a 20-point average win margin, the fast-breaking Wildcats were rarely extended. Only Tennessee managed to inflict defeat before tournament time—that coming in the semi-final game of the season a week after Kentucky trimmed the Voys by 14 in Lexington. More than the Tennesseans' prowess, it was a case of UK's own mistakes costing them a chance at a perfect season.

Most experts figured the loss took off a lot of pressure and would help the Wildcats' chances for a fifth NCAA crown.

It almost did as the Ruppmen showed tremendous poise and polish in overcoming tall and talented Dayton and Cazzie Russell's Michigan crew in the Mideast Regional. In the opening game of the final round, Kentucky—although weakened physically by bouts with the flu and under great mental strain from uphill battling with taller opponents—surged past nationally second ranked Duke in what many felt was the finest game ever seen. The final battle for the championship with Texas Western saw the Blue Grass five succumb to the physical and mental strain and lose to the No. 3 team of the nation, 72-65.

Rested a few months later, the Wildcats achieved all the lost prestige by sweeping to championship in the first International Universities Tournament in Tel Aviv, Israel. Kentucky downed the University of Warsaw by 30 points (87-57) in the title game.

'BANNER' AND NO. 6

According to tradition, Kentucky's basketballing Wildcats have a pet pattern that they execute the first time they get the ball in a game. The nationally-famous saying attributed to UK Coach Adolph Rupp is "Star Spangled Banner and then No. 6." This stems from Rupp's strategy of running the strategic guard-around play of Kentucky's repertoire and the reason, Rupp explains, is simple: "It tells us immediately if the opposing team is playing a zone defense against us." The basic-guard-around pattern has been employed by Kentucky as it raced to four national championships and has produced eight All-America guards during the Rupp Era.

The Wildcats have been unranked in top 10 of writers' poll only five times (1953-1960-1961-1963-1965) and finished out of the elite group in the coaches' ratings only in 1953 (no schedule played), 1956, 1958 (won NCAA), 1960, 1961, 1963 and 1965. They have been ranked in the top 20 of the nation annually except the suspension year of 1953 and the 1960, 1963 and 1965 seasons.)

WHO WERE THE 'FABULOUS FIVE'?

The most frequently asked question tossed at basketball historians and sports authorities is "Who were the 'Fabulous Five' of Kentucky?" The answer is Alex Groza (center), Ralph Beard and Kenny Rollins (guards), Wah Wah Jones and Cliff Barker (forwards). This famous 1948 team, captained by Rollins, won 36 and lost 3 while sweeping to Kentucky's first NCAA title and went on to participate as a unit in the Olympic Games—helping the USA team capture the world championship. Rollins graduated after the '48 season, but the remaining foursome continued to play havoc with collegiate basketball and copped another NCAA title for Kentucky in 1949 on a record of 36-2. Members of these two teams later gained fame in the pro ranks as they formed a unit known as the Indianapolis Olympians. And, along with contemporary Wildcats Adrian Smith and Billy Evans, who participated in the 1960 and 1956 Olympics, they give UK and Coach Rupp a unique standing of seven Olympic gold medal winners.

KENTUCKY IN THE SEC

Perhaps the greatest supremacy enjoyed by any team in any sport is reflected by Kentucky's basketball success in the Southeastern Conference since 1933. Against SEC teams, UK has annexed a record of 375 victories and lost only 57—a winning average of over 86 per cent. They have annexed 22 league championships and own over 60 team and individual records from regular season and tournament play. Only Tennessee and Vanderbilt can boast of beating the Wildcats two in a row in the same season and only Mississippi State and Alabama are added to the exclusive club when the basis is widened to consecutive wins over two or more seasons. Kentucky's record against SEC teams, including non-conference games, is shown below.

Two of the nation's perennial basketball powers and another team making a fast rise in collegiate cage circles will join with the host Kentucky Wildcats to form the truly intersectional field bidding for the coveted title in the 14th renewal of the University of Kentucky Invitational Tournament to be staged in Memorial Coliseum on Dec. 22-23.

Kentucky Athletic Director Bernie A. Shively, who serves as the tournament manager, has announced the 1966 participants as Kansas State from the Midlands, Penn State from the East, Oregon State from the Far West and the host Wildcats of the Southeast section of the country. Both the K State Wildcats and the Beavers of Oregon State will be making a second try for the UKIT title while Penn State enters the high-calibre tourney for the first time.

Pairings for the nation's richest and most prestige-packed regular season cage classic, which features doubleheaders both nights leading to the championship and third place honors, will pit Kansas State against Penn State in the opener Thursday night followed by a contest involving Oregon State and Coach Adolph Rupp's defending UKIT champions. Losers play the first game on Friday night to settle third place while the two winners battle for the title and an imposing trophy (pictured) in the nightcap attraction. None of the contestants have previous competition against their first opponent.

Besides gaining victory for victory's sake alone and trying for the huge trophy that goes with the championship, the four clubs stand to pick up national-record-size shares of the net proceeds and highly important national prestige that has become associated with success in the tournament.

Often the winner of the UKIT has made a significant gain in the national poll rankings as the direct result of attention-grabbing early wins in the tourney over major intersectional powers. Twice in recent years, the UKIT champ has vaulted all the way to the top position in wire service polls and generally the champion has used its success in the Kentucky tournament as the springboard to a winning season. The Kentucky Wildcats, almost unheralded except by reputation before their successful sweep to UKIT top honors a year ago, moved up from 15th to ninth and went on to claim final regular season ranking of No. 1 plus winding up the campaign 32-2 following a near miss in the NCAA title game and success in the International Universities Tournament in Tel Aviv.

The monetary dividend has mounted steadily over the years since inception of the UK Invitational in 1953, increasing from $8,200 paid to the four participants the first year to a national record $15,420 picked up by each team in 1959. Last year, the equal share of the net gate receipts distributed to each of the four contestant schools amounted to $13,251.39. The two-night attendance total for the 1965 tournament was 21,069.

Patronage of the UKIT by the cage-conscious public is considered to be the direct result of the high-calibre fields lined up with far-sighted success by Athletic Director Shively and Coach Rupp. All told, 25 of the nation's leading basketball teams from every section of the country have made appearances in the previous 13 classics. The tournament was inaugurated in 1953 with the avowed aim of returning big-time basketball, beset by scandal hatched in big city arenas, to the campus and to provide the public with a view of top-flight basketball as it is played in different sections of the country. Furthering the high ideals of an on-campus tournament and rejecting over-commercialism, net proceeds are divided equally among the participants.

1966 UKIT Field Strongest Ever

The 1966 UKIT field should be one of the strongest ever, Shively believes. All three visiting teams are expected to floor big, veteran teams to vie with host Kentucky—which should be strong once again but probably take a back seat to the other three in the height department.

Kansas State, rebuilding after some great seasons, is figured a strong contender in the Big Eight this season. Improvement on its 14-11 accounting of last season seems certain to Coach Tex Winter, who first brought a team to the UKIT in 1961 only to lose the championship game to Kentucky. Height and firepower to "burn" are evident on the talented roster that includes 7-1 Nick Pino and 6-10 Roy Smith. Earl Seyfert (6-7), a returning starter, also fits in importantly after a strong finish last season. The Wildcats count on further help from junior college transfers.

Penn State, opening foe of the K-State Wildcats, are re-building this season after posting an 18-6 record a year ago and making a post-season try in the National Invitation Tournament. If Coach John Egli is successful early in his search for scoring punch, the Nittany Lions could be tough to handle in their initial UKIT competition. Help could be forthcoming from a pair of 6-7 sophs—Bill Stanfield and Bill Young. Returning to the Lions' den are 6-9 rebound specialist Paul Mackey and 6-3 experienced hand Jeff Persson.

Oregon State, nationally ranked last season and perpetrator of a surprise upset of UCLA, will be missing three starters this year but still figures capable of repeating its success in the AAWU Conference with a little luck. Victory over Kentucky in the opening round of their second UKIT visit could provide the lucky spark to carry Oregon State to the NCAA again. Coach Paul Valenti will have the services of his leading scorers (6-6 Loy Peterson) as well as 6-8 Gary Wilken and a trio of 6-6 operatives. Oregon State paced the nation last season in defense, allowing an average of only 54.5 points per game.

Kentucky, which surprised everyone last year by rebounding from a 15-10 record to a near-perfect campaign of 32-2, will lack vital height again this season but shows strength in other phases of play. Pacing the men of Baron Adolph Rupp will be returning All-Americans Pat Riley (6-3 F) and Louie Dampier (6-0 G) and SEC Soph of the Year Thad Jaracz—probably the nation's smallest major college center at 6-5. UK, dubbed Rupp's Runts last year, won its eighth UKIT title in 1965 at the expense of Indiana.

'THAT WAS NO ZONE DEFENSE!'—RUPP

Always ready with a colorful quip for doting members of the press-radio-TV corps, Kentucky Coach Adolph Rupp sent his listeners rushing to their dictionaries in 1963-64 when he came up with a colorful description of a new defense installed in early season. Sportswriters who witnessed the special 1-3-1 point defense for the first time against Tennessee in January were inclined to refer to it as a "zone." But Baron Rupp, to whom the term "zone defense" had long been one of the most abhorred in his vocabulary and a pattern never used by his Wildcats, cagily denied this. "We never have used the zone at Kentucky and never intend to," he declared with tongue in cheek. "That was no zone. It was simply a stratified, transitional, hyperbolic paraboloid." STHP or zone, whatever you called it, it carried the UKats to a successful quest of the conference title and an NCAA berth. They lost only once in regular season play using the special defense—that coming in the final game with St. Louis. In an earlier upset at the hands of Alabama, the UK defense had reverted to the familiar "Man-for-Man."

WILDCAT MASCOTS HAD COLORFUL NAMES

Over the years, Kentucky athletic teams have been spurred on in efforts toward victory by numerous colorfully-named wildcat mascots. Records indicate the first animal was given to the University in 1921. Named "Tom," this live Kentucky wildcat died quickly from being in captivity and was replaced with "TNT." Other live mascots followed—including "Whiskers," "Hot Tamale," and "Colonel"—only to pass from the scene due to death or being turned loose in the mountains after they did not thrive out of their native habitat. The current mascot, displayed at the football and basketball games by SUKY (student pep organization) is a stuffed Kentucky wildcat obtained in 1948 from a Brooklyn taxidermist.

GREATEST TEAM, PLAYER, THRILL?

Adolph Rupp's illustrious career as headmaster at Kentucky for almost four decades is certainly filled with a lot of memories for him and he's willing to share many of them with anyone who'll listen. But there are lines he will not cross, such as:

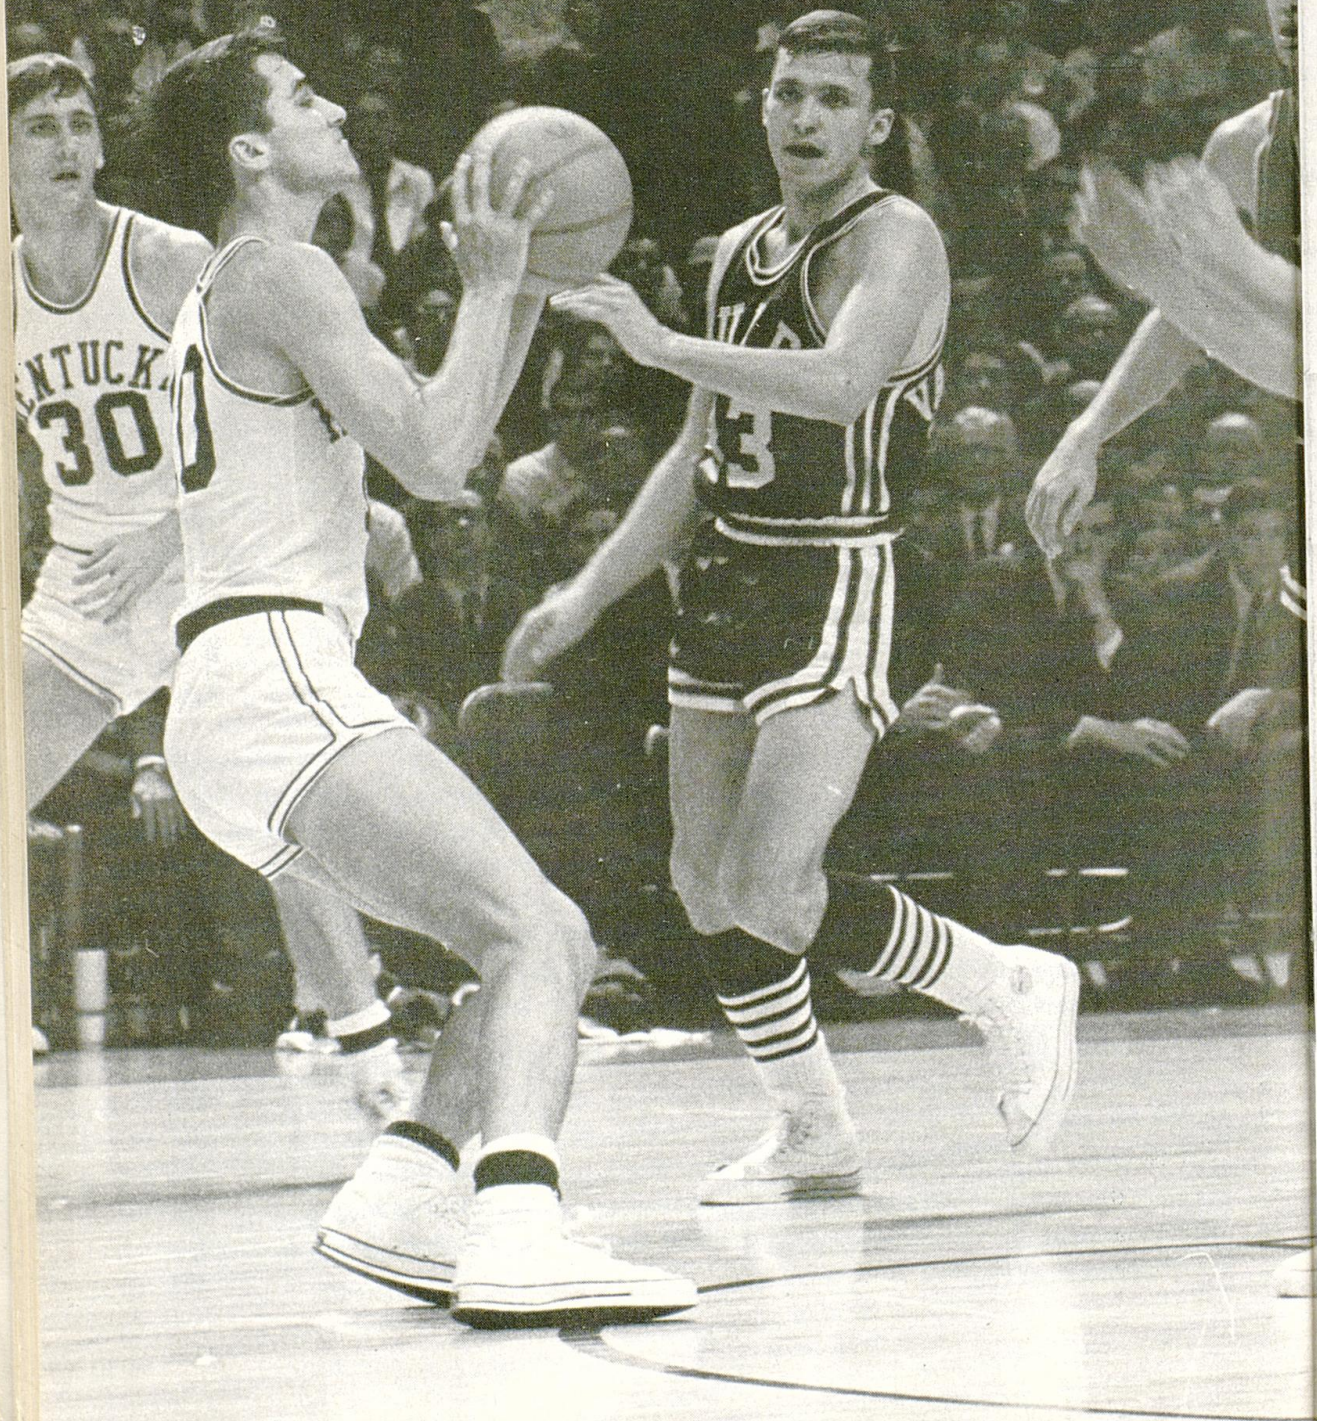

Greatest team?—Rupp points to four national champion outfits and an undefeated team that probably could have taken the national title if it had tried. Listeners get the impression that he would narrow the choice down to two—the "Fabulous Five" Olympic champions of '48 and the possibly even greater 1954 crew that went undefeated in 25 games to become the best perfect-record unit up to that time.

There's much suspicion that he was ready to bestow the accolade on "Rupp's Runts" of 1966 had they managed to win the NCAA title as the climax to a great comeback. Few doubt that the odds-defying "midgets" will always occupy a high spot in his estimation.

Greatest player?—Rupp steadfastly refuses to discuss personalities. "I'd just make one boy happy and hurt the feelings of a lot of other great ones that have played for me."

Greatest thrill?—"That's hard to say, but I guess three of my greatest were winning the '48 Olympics with my boys, going undefeated in '54 and getting that NCAA national championship trophy in 1958 with an unheralded bunch they called the 'Talentless Wonders'."

Background Briefs

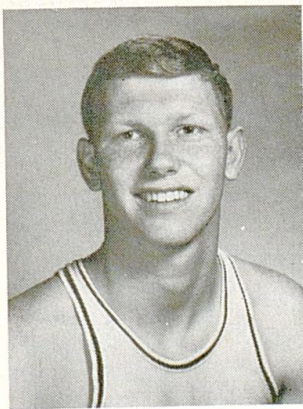

PHIL ARGENTO (No. 13)

6-0 Sophomore Guard
Cleveland, Ohio (2/22/47)

Moves up to the Wildcat varsity with an illustrious freshman record which saw him become the highest scoring yearling in school history . . . Phil broke the UK freshman single game point production mark four times and posted a high point total of 50 for his best effort . . . Scored 48 points on two occasions . . . He is the only "graduate" of a scholastically-depleted frosh club that won only five of 15 games . . . Wound up the season with 460 points and sporting a 30.7 average . . . Turned in creditable accuracy mark of 47 percent on 372 shots from the floor . . . Also chalked up 78 percent on free throw attempts . . . Voted winner of Jaycees Freshman Leadership Award, following in footsteps of Louie Dampier (1964) and Jim LeMaster (1965) . . . Although he proved himself a prolific scorer, Phil is not expected to win a starting job at the opening of the season . . . Coach Adolph Rupp is high on Argento's potential for greatness that should come with experience . . . Starred at West High School in Cleveland, Ohio, with 30.7 average in his final season . . . Posted a career total of 1,259 points in 50 schoolboy games . . . Total could have been higher except for his mid-year graduation . . . Put new marks in high school record books for scoring, rebounding, assists, field goal and free throw shooting . . . Twice All-State . . . Possesses fine touch and good eye for basket . . . Family nationality Italian and Irish.

CLIFF BERGER (No. 45)

6-8 Junior Center-Forward
Centralia, Ill. (9/25/46)

Central figure in an experiment by Coach Adolph Rupp to solve the Wildcats' height deficiency to some degree by moving the Illinois native to center and shifting '66 starter Thad Jaracz to forward . . . The move did not seem productive, however, and is not likely to come about until the smaller unit is thoroughly tested . . . Rupp assures he has confidence in Berger and will insert the blonde, young giant (6-8½) often to allow him to gain experience . . . Chief trouble with the Berger lineup was a sacrifice of team speed . . . Cliff is expected to move a bit better this season as the result of an off-season removal of a bone spur on his foot . . . Operated as the Wildcats' No. 6 man last season, scoring 84 points and hauling in 86 rebounds during 297 minutes of action in 25 games . . . Turned in his finest relief job in Kentucky's pivoted win over nationally third-ranked Vanderbilt . . . Academic All-SEC choice with B in Liberal Arts . . . Paced '65 frosh with 13 rebound average . . . At best when opposition is toughest . . . Berger was widely-sought prospect following sensational career at Centralia Township High . . . Cliff won All-America as team lost only twice in his final two seasons and was runner-up for the state crown in '64 . . . In senior year, Berger netted 796 points and 26.5 average plus 14 rebounds a game . . . At 6-8½, Cliff bids to become the Wildcats' biggest regular pivotman since 6-9 Ned Jennings in 1960-61.

BRAD BOUNDS (No. 44)

6-5 Senior Center
Bluffton, Ind. (4/18/45)

Brad saw only 58 minutes of action in his junior season last year but that was enough to convince his followers and coaches that he can be depended upon when the going gets "sticky" . . . He works in well with almost any lineup combination and unselfishly passes up shots he might take in order to set up others . . . His actions on the court last season made him a definite crowd favorite . . . Bounds saw brief reserve action in 12 of Kentucky's 29 games last season and contributed 25 points plus hauling in 18 rebounds . . . Not a great scorer, his high point effort on one night was six against LSU and Tulane . . . Brad did better in his sophomore, break-in season in 1964-65 . . . In his opening collegiate varsity appearance, he was impressive as he collected 13 big points against Dartmouth College . . . Although he never reached this peak again, his coaches have high hopes that Bounds can improve with experience and confidence to the point where he can put his size to good advantage in his final season . . . His development was slowed as he missed the final seven games of his freshman campaign due to academic difficulties . . . Brad could easily become the "darkhorse" of 1966-67 if his progress matches his determination first displayed as a freshman . . . Born in Detroit, but played high school ball at Bluffton, Ind.—near Ft. Wayne.

STEVE CLEVENGER (No. 32)

6-0 Junior Guard
Anderson, Ind. (7/29/46)

Hampered in both his freshman and sophomore campaigns by minor injuries and serious academic troubles, Steve hopes to get in a full season without trouble and should enter a strong bid for important duty at guard . . . The "Hoosier Hot Shot"—one of four Indiana products on the team—is not likely to get the starting nod in early season but definitely is ticketed for early reserve action on the strength of his good showing last season as a sophomore . . . Clevenger performed creditably in 11 games before breaking a small bone in his foot just prior to tournament time . . . Scored 24 points and showed promise as a playmaker . . . He was tenth with that point production but coaches liked his speed, floor work and 50 percent shooting eye . . . Clevenger ran into academic difficulties in his freshman year of 1964-65 and wound up ineligible in the second semester—causing him to miss three-fourths of the games (13 of 19) . . . At the time he was sidelined, Steve was running as an alternate guard starter and was connecting at a healthy clip of 11.8 points a game . . . All-State three straight years as a schoolboy at Anderson and Indiana's "Mr. Basketball" for the Kentucky-Indiana All-Star Series . . . Accounted for 1,298 points in high school play.

LOUIE DAMPIER (No. 10)

6-0 Senior Guard
Indianapolis, Ind. (11/20/44)

All-America as a junior and recipient of more honors than most men collect in a lifetime, Dampier faces the challenge to improve on near perfection this season . . . Coach Rupp, who claims flatly that Louie is one of college basketball's finest shooters, believes his star will improve if the Wildcats get the unselfish team play that carried them last season . . . Another 600-point year would establish Dampier as the third highest regular season scorer in UK history . . . Turned in consistently great performances as junior, scoring in double figures every time out except once (had only 5 in loss to Tennessee) . . . High point of the season came as he bombed Vanderbilt with 42 points to give UK a pivotal victory over the third-ranked Commodores . . . Most of his shots, typically, came from long range . . . For the season, Louie posted a 51.6 percent accuracy mark from the field to crack the school record of 51.2% that he had put in the books as a soph . . . Surprisingly, in view of his short stature, Dampier gets many rebounds . . . Collected 144 last season . . . Unselfish to the extent that he passes off to teammates in the interest of team play . . . Blessed with good speed and fine ball handler . . . Won MVP honor in '65 UK Invitational . . . Third in voting for national "Player of the Year" . . . Unanimous All-SEC . . . All-NCAA Tournament . . . Academic All-Conference choice . . . Typical of UK guards—10 of whom have won All-America recognition . . . Started fabulous career at Indianapolis Southport High where he scored 1,057 points in three years and led the state as a senior with 673.

GARY GAMBLE (No. 50)

6-4 Junior Forward
Earlington, Ky. (3/28/46)

Despite the lack of impressive statistics on the record books, Gary Gamble performed with credit in "fireman" roles last season as he broke into collegiate campaigning . . . He saw 67 minutes of important action in relief and contributed 15 points in addition to 18 rebounds . . . Only two other reserves collected more grabs off the boards last year . . . Gary got a good examination on the summer tour of the Middle East and in pre-season practice as a possible replacement at forward for graduated Larry Conley . . . Coach Rupp decided that Gary was not yet ready to step into a starting job, but could break in as the season progresses . . . Classed as a good rebounder and fine defender, but not offensively-minded enough to benefit the total team effort at the start . . . Caught the eye of his coaches as a freshman two seasons back when he impressed with his hustle and determination to improve . . . His height—tallest of the forward reserves at 6-4—could make Gary a handy man to have around . . . Came to Kentucky as something of a "darkhorse" since highest schoolboy honor at Earlington (in western part of state) was honorable mention All-State.

THAD JARACZ (No. 55)

6-5 Junior Center-Forward
Lexington, Ky. (12/15/46)

Attained the highest recognition of any sophomore in the land following a tremendous break-in year in 1965-66 . . . Honored by the Associated Press on its third team All-America selections (only soph among top 15 honorees) and chosen as Sophomore of the Year in the Southeastern Conference . . . Jaracz proved to be one of the key men in Kentucky's surprising surge to No. 1 position in the national polls and close miss in its bid for a fifth NCAA championship . . . Overcame the seeming handicap of lack of size (at 6-5, he was thought too small for a pivotman) to give the Wildcats vital strength in the middle . . . Posted a 13.2 scoring average and collected 218 rebounds despite battling taller opponents virtually every time out . . . The nifty port side operator had his best scoring night with 32 points against Illinois . . . Handled pivot like an experienced veteran . . . An anticipated shift out to forward to make way for 6-8 Cliff Berger in the pivot failed to work out as expected in pre-season practice, so Jaracz (pronounced Jair-as) is ticketed to hold the fort at center again this season when Rupp's Runts will be even smaller in the opening lineup (6-2 average) than they were in Thad's soph season . . . Lost about 20 pounds on team's summer overseas tour and moves better for it . . . Played high school at Lexington Lafayette . . . His father played football at UK in 1941-42.

JIM LeMASTER (No. 12)

6-2 Junior Guard
Lexington, Ky. (8/12/46)

Now calls Lexington home since his father is resident manager of Spindthrift Farm on the outskirts of the University city, but Jim is better known in Paris, Ky.—the same hometown as Kentucky's first cage All-America (Basil Haydon '21) . . . LeMaster is not hailed as an All-America candidate but figures strongly in the guard picture at UK this season . . . He's a prospect to fill the berth vacated by graduated Tommy Kron . . . Handles himself well on the court and can be expected to lock in a season-long battle (particularly with Bob Tallent) for a starting assignment . . . As freshmen two seasons back, the two staged a point battle while teaming up as regular guards . . . Tallent won that struggle but LeMaster was a close second with 287 points . . . Last season, the pair of soph guards went at their rivalry again with Tallent coming out on top in points although LeMaster saw action in one more game . . . Jim is classed as a fine floorman, the "take charge" type and fine passer, good shooter and strong defensive man . . . For his inspired play as a yearling in '65, Jim won the Jaycees Freshman Leadership Award . . . Picked up All-State honors in 1964 at Bourbon County High as a 24-point scorer . . . Registered 1,661 points in schoolboy career.

TOMMY PORTER (No. 25)

6-3 Junior Forward
Gracey, Ky. (10/17/45)

Blessed with about all the equipment needed for excellent cage performance, according to Coach Rupp, this youngster will bear watching this season . . . Expected to show definite improvement over freshman and soph campaigns with more action time coming his way . . . Barring the unforeseen, Tommy is not slated to fill the forward spot vacated by graduated Larry Conley but he could easily progress to a starting role—the race with teammates Gene Stewart and Gary Gamble is that close . . . His chances were improved when the experimental shift of Thad Jaracz from center to forward did not work out well . . . Tommy is a good shooter but does not fire it up often enough . . . Also fine rebounder and defensive man . . . Needs to develop more "meanness" in his court behavior . . . Coaches are hopeful Porter's true potential will be demonstrated as he sees more action this season . . . Played only 63 minutes in 14 games last winter . . . He is good student in Agriculture . . . In 1964, he was chosen from 400 candidates as Kentucky's Star Farmer . . . Past president of Kentucky Junior Hereford Association (Coach Rupp heads the senior cattle group) . . . Raised on 315-acre farm in Christian County, but has ambition to go into dentistry as a career . . . Scored 1,212 points in three years at Christian County High . . . All-State and All-America mention.

PAT RILEY (No. 42)

6-3 Senior Forward
Schenectady, N. Y. (3/20/45)

The honors that came Pat Riley's way last season would fill a book and likely would tempt a less fierce competitor to rest on his laurels . . . Besides almost unanimous selection as an All-America in his junior year, Pat walked off with the haloes of Most Valuable Player of the Southeastern Conference, MVP of the NCAA Mideast Regional Tournament, and MVP of the UK team for the second straight year (shared in '66 with Louie Dampier) . . . He won All-SEC mention unanimously . . . He led the team in scoring (21.9 average) and rebounding (259) as he started every game . . .

All-UK Invitational and All-NCAA Tournament (Regional and Finals) . . . Set record for best FG percent in regular season with 52.3 mark . . . In scoring 637 points, Riley pushed his two-year career total to 1,012 and assured ranking as one of Kentucky's top all-time scorers . . . 541 points in regular season last year was fourth highest in school records for the period . . . Riley scored in double figures every time out except once last season . . . Missed in Florida game as he slumped remarkably to one point . . . In other outings, he was never below 13 and posted high effort of 36 against Notre Dame . . . Demonstrating his all-around ability, the 6-3 Riley replaced 6-5 Jaracz to jump center during the '66 season and turned in an amazing job—failing to get the tip against opponents ranging up to seven feet only 12 times in 58 tries . . . Coach Rupp describes his star as "one of the most complete athletes I ever coached" . . . All-America in both basketball and football (QB) during sensational career at Linton High in Schenectady . . . Scored 1,000 points in three years.

GENE STEWART (No. 22)

6-2 Senior Forward
Brookville, Ind. (7/31/45)

Apparently due to be rewarded for his patience, senior non-letterman Gene Stewart is the tentative pre-season choice of Coach Rupp for the starting job at forward left open by the graduation of Larry Conley . . . The decision to give Stewart a shot at glory was one of the biggest (but welcome) surprises ever pulled off by master strategist Rupp . . . Everyone had it figured out that Rupp would fill the position and solve a height problem by shifting 6-5 Thad Jaracz from center to forward and moving in 6-8 Cliff Berger at the pivot . . . That experiment failed to get results Rupp hoped for . . . Still Stewart, who saw action in only six games last season and had been left at home when the Wildcats toured the Middle East last summer, seemed an unlikely choice . . . But Coach Rupp saw qualities he liked in "The Forgotten Man" . . . Stewart, he feels, could be most helpful to the team cause as a steadying influence and unselfish playmaker as well as a strong defensive operator . . . Gene is remembered best as a promising regular with the frosh three years back . . . He scored at an 11.8 clip and was second to Pat Riley in rebounding despite a lack of height . . . At Brookville High, Gene scored over 1,000 points in three years and served as team captain in four sports.

BOB TALLENT (No. 24)

6-1 Junior Guard
Langley, Ky. (4/26/46)

Tabbed as the leading prospect to take over regular guard duty this season, replacing graduated Tommy Kron . . . The choice came as little surprise to most people who figured the former Maytown High luminary as the best guard reserve last season when he stood seventh in scoring with 54 points and demonstrated steady improvement . . . Coach Rupp picked Tallent for the job since he fitted in best with the overall team effort . . . Classed as a better scorer and faster afoot than Kron but he's four inches shorter and cannot rebound as effectively or set up plays as well . . . Capable as a defensive man . . . He will very likely shoot more than Kron did and can be expected to improve materially on his 3.0 sophomore scoring average . . . In making a bid for strating duty, Tallent averaged 12.4 for the five games UK played in the International University Tournament last summer in Israel . . . A good student, Bob was a second team Academic All-SEC choice last year when he had a B in engineering . . . Came to Kentucky with reputation as one of the state's most prolific scorers since "King" Kelly Coleman of the mid-fifties . . . Netted 2,337 points in four years, including fabulous 40.5 average for 891 points in 22 games as a senior . . . Captained the Kentucky freshmen in 1965 and led scoring with 19.8 average—showing no effects of knee cartilage operation a few months earlier . . . Top game last year was game-saving 13-point performance against Texas Tech on the road.

FRESHMAN SKETCHES

BILL BUSEY—5-10 Guard—Bagdad, Ky. (10/8/48)—Fits in as typical Kentucky guard with small stature, good speed and ball handling ability plus fine outside shooting accuracy . . . All-State at Shelby County High where he teamed with UK signee Mike Casey to aid Rockets in posting 33-1 record enroute to capturing state championship . . . Three-year regular in basketball, quarterback in football, outfielder in baseball, dashman and broad jumper on track team . . . Shelby Co. Coach Bill Harrell classes Busey as better playmaker than scorer but averaged 16.9 as senior.

TRAVIS BUTLER—6-4 Forward—Anderson, Ala. (11/30/47)—Rated by many qualified observers as Alabama's top schoolboy cager in history . . . Mentioned on most prep All-America squads . . . Two years as an All-State choice . . . Most valuable player in state senior year . . . Received his schoolboy training under Coach John Balentine at Lauderdale County High school in Rogersville, Ala. . . . Led state in scoring last two years . . . Posted 2,303 points in career of 76 games . . . Scored at 34-per-game clip as a senior in picking up 840 points . . . Set free throw record with 54 straight.

MIKE CASEY—6-3 Forward-Guard—Simpsonville, Ky. (5/26/48)—Most coaches and experts agreed this young man was one of the top schoolboy cagers in the land a year ago . . . Paced Shelby County High to state title on 33-1 record and personal 28.5 average . . . Honorary captain All-State team and Kentucky's "Mr. Basketball" for Kentucky-Indiana series . . . Headed Coach and Athlete Magazine's list of nation's top 10 prep All-Americans . . . Four-year point total 2,088 in 96 games . . . Has all the moves, including twisting left handed hook shot . . . Clutch shooter was lone unanimous choice on All-State Tournament team.

JIM DINWIDDIE—6-3 Guard—Leitchfield, Ky. (5/1/48)—Pushing 6-4, this blonde-haired whiz kid was a top playmaker for Leitchfield last year and furthers a trend to bigger back court men . . . Helped his high school team post 26-7 record senior year as he averaged 20 points and 15 rebounds a game . . . Made second and third team All-State but mentioned as high as second team All-America on some selections . . . Fourth in state in high jump senior year . . . Born Louisville . . . Scottish descent.

MORT FRALEY—6-5 Forward-Center — Lexington, Ky. (6/15/48) — Followed by scouts since he was a freshman, Mort was first prospect signed by Kentucky for 1966-67 . . . Reportedly 90 schools interested in All-Stater from Lexington Catholic High . . . Led the Catholic Knights in scoring with 22.6 average, rebounding at 18 per game and in assists as team advanced to state tournament . . . Graceful for size . . . Catholic Coach Tommy Starns claims Fraley has few superiors as a passer . . . Scored 1,800 points in career, including 585 last year.

DAN ISSEL—6-8 Center-Forward—Batavia, Ill. (10/25/48)—Everybody's prep All-America choice . . . Studied over 100 interested schools before deciding on Kentucky . . . Classed by Coach Rupp as "the best pivot prospect in the country" . . . Scouts called Dan one of the top three schoolboy cagers of the nation . . . Could well be the big man that UK has looked for in recent years . . . Blessed with fine speed, great agility and a bagful of moves near the basket . . . Scored 2,500 points in career of 106 games—725 for 25 average in senior season . . . Grew almost two inches last year . . . Excellent student.

TERRY MILLS—6-1 Guard—Barbourville, Ky. (8/15/48)—Described as the complete player who does everything well—scores inside or out, rebounds capably, effective defensively and team leader in assists . . . Caught eye of scouts as junior when he accumulated 43 points and 24 rebounds in two state tourney games . . . Prep All-America, All-State and All-Tournament . . . Called a sleeper by some . . . Contacted by more than 100 colleges . . . Scored 1,622 points in three-year career and had 682 in 31 games as senior . . . 279 rebounds.

RANDY POOL—6-7 Forward-Center—Oak Ridge, Tenn. (4/20/48)—When foes claimed Kentucky grabbed off the best boys in five states for this year's freshman team, this is the boy in mind as Tennessee's No. 1 prospect . . . Unanimous All-State and chosen as outstanding player of state tournament as team finished third . . . UPI picked Randy as top player in state last season . . . Coach and Athlete magazine selected him on their All-America team . . . 1,500 points in 63 career games and 700 last season alone . . . Also All-State as junior.

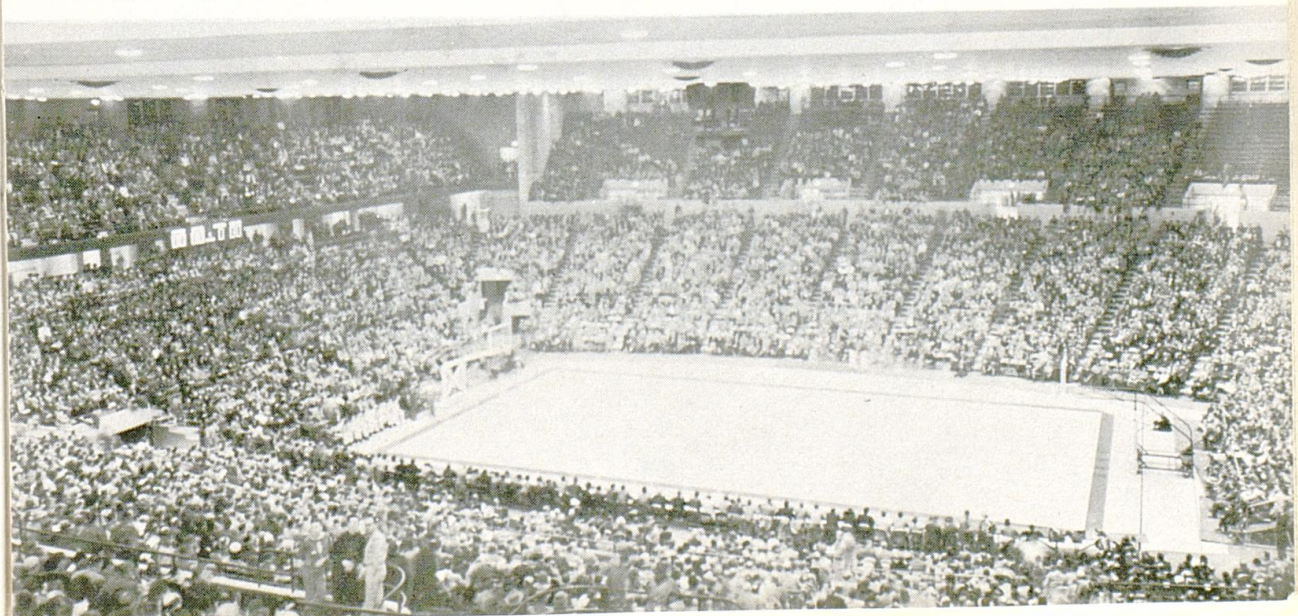

MIKE PRATT—6-3 Forward—Dayton, Ohio (8/4/48)—Broad shouldered and muscular, Mike makes his presence felt physically but opponents will have more reason than that to fear him . . . Rated one of the top schoolboy scorers in Buckeye State history . . . Held under double figures only twice in last three years and posted 24.9 average final season . . . Collected 1,396 points in 76 games of career for new Dayton-area record . . . Averaged 16 rebounds a game as senior . . . Blessed with good speed and quickness with deceptive first move . . . All-City football and baseball twice.

BENNY SPEARS—6-2 Guard—Ashland, Ky. (7/5/48)—Played high school ball at Blazer High in Ashland with Clint Wheeler and raised many an argument as to which was best . . . UK scouts saw potential in both and hope their collegiate play will follow similar pattern . . . Gained second team All-State notice following senior season in which his efforts helped school gain State Tournament berth . . . Broke school record in junior year with 44 points in one game . . . Born Pikeville . . . All-State in baseball 1965.

CLINT WHEELER—6-7 Forward-Center—Ashland, Ky. (7/13/48)—Along with teammates Dan Issel and Randy Pool, Clint lends hope for solution to height problems that have plagued UK in recent years . . . Praised for touch and excellent timing . . . Even though tall, he likes to shoot from outside . . . Hit with 50 percent accuracy in 32 games last year in helping Blazer High to state tournament . . . First team All-State by Lexington Herald-Leader . . . 1,300 points in career, 601 last season . . . Seventeen a game on rebounds . . . Brother, Bill, played football at UK 1952-56.

Memorial Coliseum

SUCCESSOR TO A 'WHITE ELEPHANT'

Only a little more than a quarter century ago, the University of Kentucky provided its basketball team with its second home—a magnificent new Alumni Gymnasium seating 2,800 spectators.

A great many persons freely suggested that the arena would prove to be a "white elephant" which would never be crowded to anywhere near capacity by the sport that then was considered little more than innocuous winter-months' pastime.

But the hardwood game blitzed the nation and Kentucky's teams forged to the national forefront in such a crowd-pleasing manner that the "huge" hall soon could not begin to accommodate the large number of fans seeking to whet their new-found interest. In fact, the situation soon developed to the point where only the student body and faculty were admitted and for several years about all that Kentuckians at large knew of their state university's famed cage teams consisted of information gleaned from the radio and newspapers.

In 1941, when Dr. H. L. Donovan became president of the University, one of his first recommendations was for a building "that will properly take care of our athletics, our health service, physical education, and recreation." From this beginning came the plan that culminated in the construction of 11,500-seat Memorial Coliseum, an unparalleled edifice costing $3,925,000 by the time it was completed in 1950.

The huge building, which serves as a memorial to the nearly 10,000 Kentucky heroes who lost their lives in World War II and the Korean conflict, covers an entire city block and contains as much space as a seven-story office building. Situated along Avenue of Champions, the Coliseum is used primarily for basketball games but also serves as the site of a sellout community concert and lecture series as well as numerous physical education classes and conventions.

In sharp contrast to the early days in Alumni Gym, the present hall plays host to more than 150,000 Kentuckians annually for appearances of the famous Wildcat cage teams alone and interest is increasing with such strides, as evidenced by sellout crowds throughout the 1964-65 season, that even this splendid arena may someday be outgrown.

THE NCAA IN MEMORIAL COLISEUM

University of Kentucky's spacious Memorial Coliseum, one of the largest and finest basketball arenas in the South, has been the site of portions of the NCAA Tournament six times since its completion in 1950. First round playoffs were staged in the UK Coliseum in 1955, 1959, 1960 and 1962 while regional tournaments were held in the building in 1957, 1958, and 1965. The Wildcats played in the two regional eliminations, being eliminated by Michigan State in '57 and defeating Miami (Ohio) and Notre Dame in '58 enroute to its fourth and last National Championship.

THE 1966-67 KENTUCKY WILDCATS

FOUR TELEVISION APPEARANCES SCHEDULED FOR UK IN SOUTHEASTERN SERIES

Paying tribute to the magic name of University of Kentucky in basketball, a Southeastern Conference television "Game of the Week" series again this season will feature Adolph Rupp's Wildcats four times.

The 10-week series over a regional network has been set up by TV Sports, Inc., of Patterson, N.J. Producer Eddie Einhorn announced that all games to be televised will be played on Saturday afternoons to avoid interference with non-televised conference games. There will be no area blackout on the TV games.

Kentucky's appearances before the live television cameras will come against four different foes this year, with three of the four meetings taking place on the road. In order, the TV opponents will be Auburn, Mississippi State, Alabama and Vanderbilt. Only the Auburn game is to take place in Lexington.

The Wildcats, who have been particularly tough when parading before the TV cameras, won all four TV games last season.

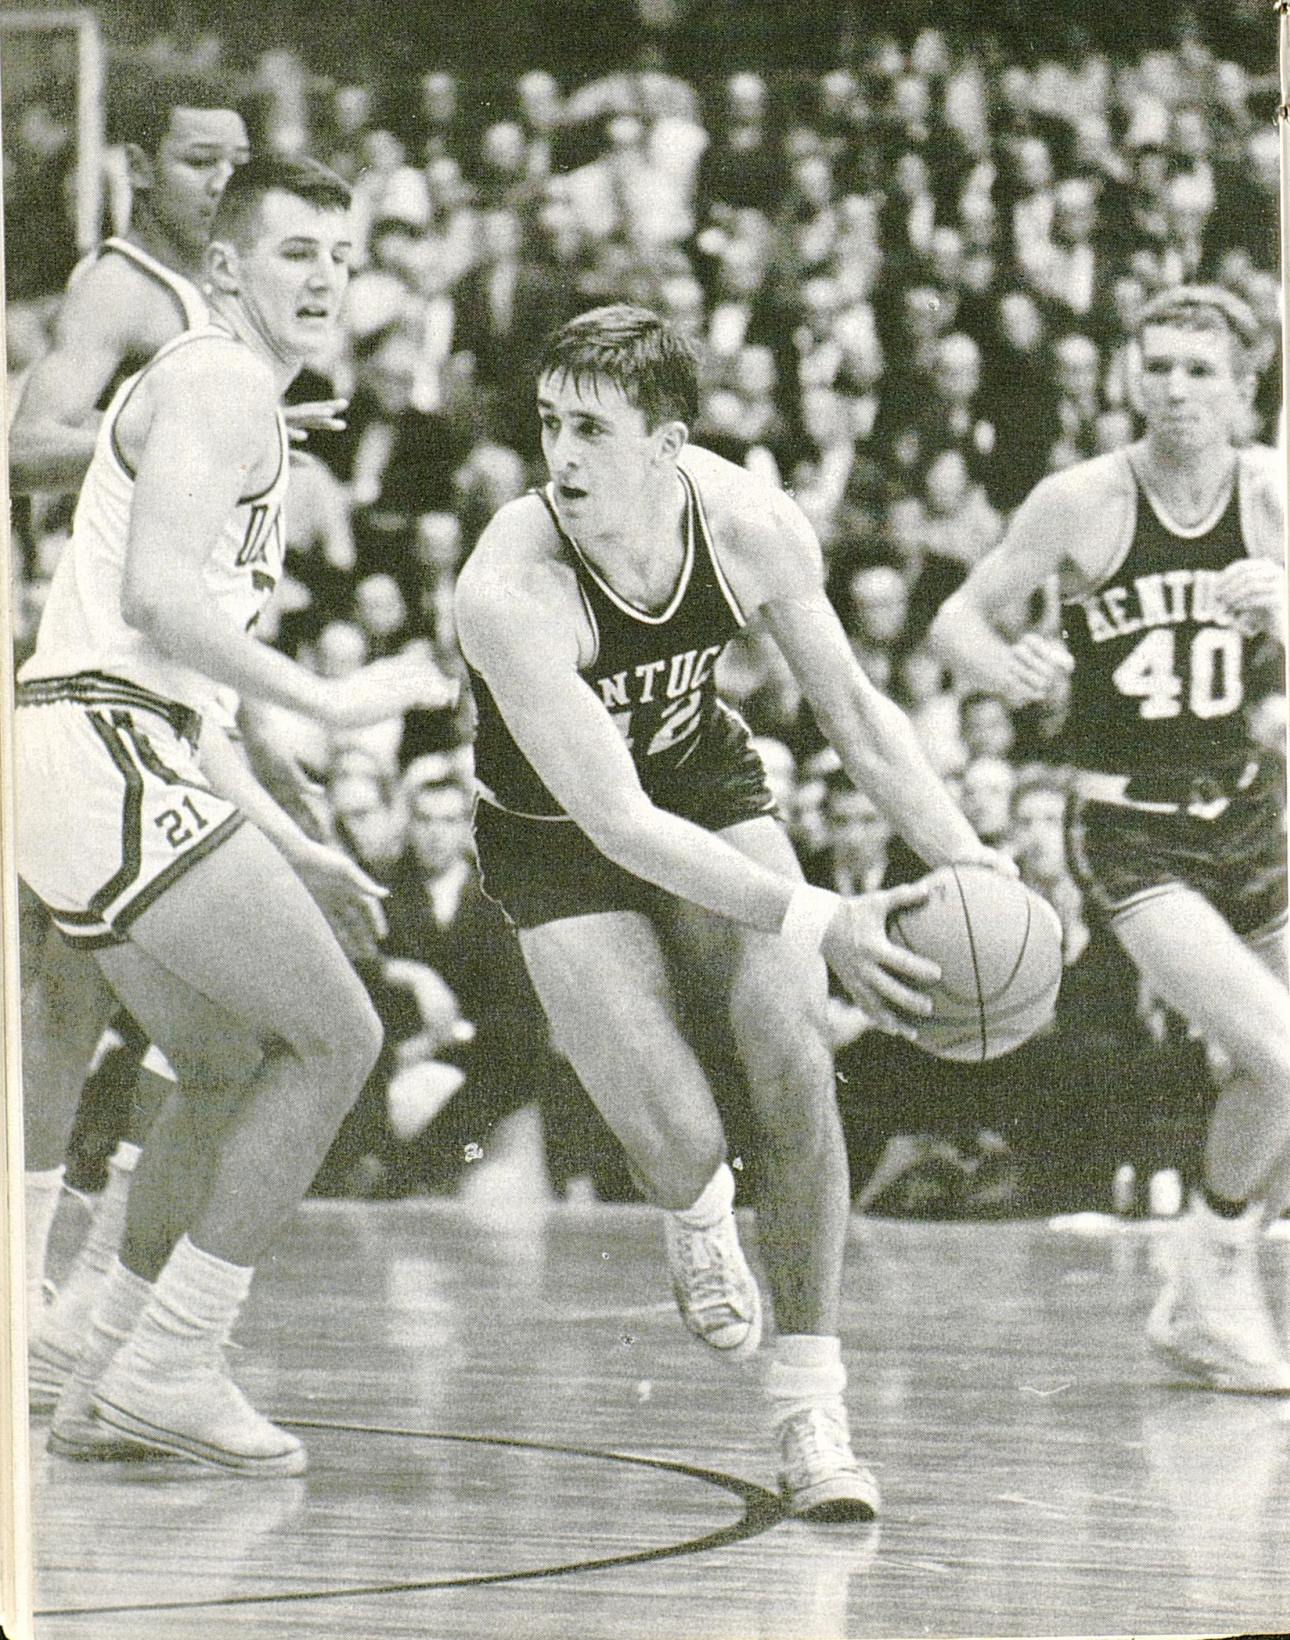

The complete SEC television schedule for 1966-67:

Dec. 31	Vanderbilt vs. Auburn at Auburn	2:12 p.m. CST
Jan. 7	Florida vs. LSU at Baton Rouge	2:12 p.m. CST
Jan. 14	Tennessee vs. Georgia at Athens	3:12 p.m. EST
Jan. 21	Kentucky vs. Auburn at Lexington	3:12 p.m. EST
Jan. 28	Miss. State vs. Vanderbilt at Nashville	2:12 p.m. CST
Feb. 4	Florida vs. Vanderbilt at Gainesville	3:12 p.m. EST
Feb. 11	Tennessee vs. Georgia at Knoxville	3:12 p.m. EST
Feb. 18	Kentucky vs. Miss. State at State College	2:12 p.m. CST
Feb. 25	Kentucky vs. Alabama at Tuscaloosa	2:12 p.m. CST
Mar. 4	Miss. State vs. Mississippi at Oxford	1:12 p.m. CST
(DH)	Kentucky vs. Vanderbilt at Nashville	3:15 p.m. CST

WILDCATS ARE POPULAR

At home or on the road, Baron Adolph Rupp and his colorful Kentucky Wildcats are one of college basketball's biggest drawing cards. The largest crowd ever to see the Kentuckians in action turned out on March 17, 1961, for the opening night of the NCAA Mideast Regional at Freedom Hall in Louisville. A tournament-record crowd of 18,833 witnessed Kentucky whip Morehead and Ohio State top Louisville. Another banner crowd of 17,494 the following night broke all existing NCAA records for two-night play. Other top crowds to see the Wildcats were 18,493 in Madison Square Garden for a St. John's game Dec. 21, 1946; 18,803 who witnessed the Kentucky-Seattle national championship match at Louisville March 22, 1958; and 18,274 attending a regular season clash between Kentucky and Illinois at Freedom Hall in Louisville Dec. 30, 1958. At their own Memorial Coliseum in Lexington, the Ruppmen play to virtual capacity crowds every time out. The record one-night crowd was the 12,891 who saw the Wildcats defeat the Vanderbilt Commodores, 104-73, on Feb. 17, 1964. This overflow crowd of spectators surpassed the previous high of 12,375 who saw Kentucky drop its season opener in 1962 to Virginia Tech. For the home season, the high total is 165,650 estimated to have witnessed the 14 Wildcat home games during 1963-64. Previously, the high was 165,495 in 16 games of the 1961-62 campaign. Again this season, as in 1965 and '66, sellouts are so certain that season book holders will get in to see the crowd-pleasing 'Cats. And this year, 600 tickets were taken away from season book holders to accommodate the larger student body and faculty.

Rupp record—Won 3 Lost 0

COACH—William J. (Bill) Gibson 4 Years at UVA, Won 22, Lost 49)

Offense—Shuffle

Defense—Zone

Chief Losses—Jerry Sanders (F) 9.5 and John Schroeder (F) 6.3

Top Returnees—Jim Connelly (6-3 F) 20.5, Mike Katos (6-5 F) 15.2, and Buddy Reams (6-4 F) 9.6

Best Newcomers—Chip Case (6-4 G), Steve Jackson (6-4 G), John Quinn (5-10 G), and Charlie Johnson (6-7 C)

OUTLOOK: Coach Adolph Rupp puts his 37th Kentucky team on the court for the 905th game of his illustrious career against a dangerous Virginia team no longer young and inexperienced. The Cavaliers, operating from a troublesome shuffle and zone defense, will feature capable strength up front and a pair of highly-explosive back court men. Key man in the Virginia plans will be 6-3 forward Jim Connelly, a 20.5 scorer a year ago and tabbed as the school's best point producer in history. A junior college transfer, John Quinn, is on hand to beef up guard play and 6-10 John Naponick returns at center and should get help from Charley Johnson, out last year with a knee injury.

2nd Game—ILLINOIS at Lexington—Monday, Dec. 5

Site—Memorial Coliseum (11,500)
Location—Champaign, Ill.
Enrollment—29,129
Conference—Big Ten
Nickname—Fighting Illini
Colors—Orange and Blue

COACH—Harry Combes (19 Years at Ill.—Won 304, Lost 138)

Offense—Pivot Post

Defense—Switching Man to Man

Chief Losses—Don Freeman (F) 27.8, Bob Brown (G) 7.5 and Larry Hinton (G) 1.6

Top Returnees—Rich Jones (6-7 F) 21.2, Jim Dawson (6-0 G) 15.3, Deon Flessner (6-4½ F) 5.6, Preston Pearson (6-1 G-F) 4.8, and Ron Dunlap (6-8 C) 3.8

Best Newcomers—Steve Kuberski (6-7 F), Dave Scholz (6-7 C), Dennis Pace (6-3 G) and Paul Nitz (6-6 F)

OUTLOOK: The Illini will miss the fine hand of Don Freeman (27.8) this season and supposedly are too inexperienced to rate a serious nod as a contender in the Big Ten race. But cagey veteran Harry Combs is not without help. Back in the fold is one of the league's stars in the person of 6-7 forward Rich Jones and most of the other hands who helped Illinois to third place in the league last season. And much dependence is bound to be placed on a fine sophomore band that ranked a year ago as the tallest frosh group in school history. Vanning the super soph contingent is 6-7 forward Steve Kuberski and 6-7 center Dave Scholz, who averaged 21 and 17.2 points a game respectively.

3rd Game—NORTHWESTERN at Evanston—Saturday, Dec. 10

Site—McGaw Hall (8,500)
 Location—Evanston, Ill.
 Enrollment—6,500
 Conference—Big Ten
 Nickname—Wildcats
 Colors—Purple and White
 Athletic Director—Stuart Holcomb
 Publicist—Walter Paulison
 1965-66 Record—Won 12, Lost 12
 (Conf. Finish—5th)

Tipoff—8:00 p.m. EST

 Records at site—
 UK 1-0 (Last win '63)
 NW 0-1 (No wins)
 Rupp record—Won 3, Lost 0

COACH—Larry Glass (3 Years at NW—Won 27, Lost 42)

Offense—2-3, Sometimes Break

Defense—Shifting Man for Man

Chief Losses—Jim Pitts (C) 12.4, Big Ten's leading rebounder

Top Returnees—Jim Burns (6-4 G) 20.2, Ron Kozlicki (6-6 C-F) 14.2, Mike Weaver (6-5 F) 12.4, and Walt Tiberi (6-1 G) 8.1

Best Newcomers—Terry Gamber (6-0 G), Terry Hurley (6-4 G), Sterling Burke (6-6 F-C) and Dan Davis (6-4 F)

OUTLOOK: The Wildcats are generally considered to have the horses to make a good race in the Big Ten this season. Four starters return, including guard Jim Burns—top returning scorer of the conference. Chief task facing Coach Larry Glass will be that of replacing rebounding and defensive standout Jim Pitts at center. The likely replacement seems to be Ron Kozlicki, who has been a two-year starter at center. The change figures to give Northwestern more prolific scoring at the position than the departed 6-8 rebounding ace. Due to press veteran guard Walt Tiberi for the playmaker role is soph Terry Gamber. Northwestern looks for its first win over Kentucky.

4th Game—NORTH CAROLINA at Lexington—Tuesday, Dec. 13

Site—Memorial Coliseum (11,500)
 Location—Chapel Hill, N. C.
 Enrollment—13,500
 Conference—Atlantic Coast
 Nickname—Tar Heels
 Colors—Carolina Blue and White
 Athletic Director—Charles P. Erickson
 Publicist—Jack Williams
 1965-66 Record—Won 16, Lost 11
 (Conf. Finish—Third)

Tipoff—8:00 p.m. EST
 Series—NC leads, 5-4 since '24
 Last Game—82-67 NC (N) '64
 Biggest win margin—
 UK 39 (83-44) in '50
 NC 21 (41-20) in '24
 Records at site—
 UK 3-2 (Last win '63)
 NC 2-3 (Last win '62)
 Rupp record—Won 4, Lost 3

COACH—Dean Smith (5 Years at UNC—Won 66, Lost 47)

Offense—Multiple—Single and Double Pivot Defense—Pressure Man-to-Man

Chief Losses—Bob Bennett (F) 8.3 and John Yokley (B) 6.4

Top Returnees—Bob Lewis (6-3 F-B) 27.4, Larry Miller (6-3 F-B) 20.9 and Tom Gauntlett (6-4 B) 9.8

Best Newcomers—Rusty Clark (6-10 F), Bill Bunting (6-8 F), Dick Grubar (6-3 B), Joe Brown (6-5 F) and Gerald Tuttle (6-0 B)

OUTLOOK: If anybody is going to challenge Duke's continued supremacy in the Atlantic Coast Conference, it very well may be North Carolina in '67. The Tar Heels, sporting All-America candidates Bob Lewis and Larry Miller plus a great supporting cast, are "loaded for bear" and should give any team a fine battle. All-America Lewis connected at a 27.4 clip a year ago while the beefy Miller averaged 20.9 and was the ACC's third leading rebounder. Tom Gauntlett, 6-4 senior, is another returning starter. Moving up from a frosh outfit that went 15-1 are super sophs like front court men Rusty Clark (6-10) and Bill Bunting (6-8).

COACH—Tommy Bartlett (1st Year at Florida)

Offense—Undecided

Defense—Undecided

Chief Losses—Paul Morton (F) 9.0 and Bob Hoffman (C) 3.3

Top Returnees—Gary Keller (6-9 F) 15.9, David Miller (6-5 F) 8.8, Jeff Ramsey (6-10 C) 8.7 and Skip Higley (6-0 G) 7.3

Best Newcomers—Neal Walk (6-10 C), Harry Dunn (6-3 G) and Andy Owens (6-5 F)

OUTLOOK: Tommy Bartlett, former Tennessee aide whose specialty was defense, has taken over the Gator coaching reins from Norm Sloan and has the rest of the league guessing how he can jack up Florida's fortunes. There's no lack of raw material with such returning veterans as 6-9 Gary Keller, 6-10 Jeff Ramsey and playmaking guard Skip Higley. The main job confronting Bartlett seems to be selecting the right combination of big men and deadeye guards to play with the accomplished Higley. If this good fortune comes about, Florida will step out of the darkhorse category into a leading contender role.

KANSAS STATE

(Meets Penn State Opening Night)

Location—Manhattan, Kansas
Enrollment—11,000
Conference—Big Eight
Colors—Purple and White
Nickname—Wildcats

Athletic Director—Bebe Lee
Publicist—Dev Nelson
1965-66 Record: Won 14, Lost 11

UKIT Record—Won 1, Lost 1 in 1961

COACH—Tex Winter (13 Years at KS—Won 226, Lost 100)

Offense—Triple Post

Defense—Man-for-Man and Zone

Chief Losses—Sam Robinson (G) 9.0, Ron Paradis (G) 6.9, Dick Barnard (G) 3.4,
Roscoe Jackson (F) 3.8 and Jim Hoffman (F) 3.5

Top Returnees—Dennis Berkholtz (6-1 G) 7.9, Galen Frick (6-4 F) 5.0, Roy Smith
(6-10 C) 6.5, Bob George (5-11 G) 2.5, Nick Pino (7-1 C) 10.9, Earl Seyfert
(6-7 F) 8.8 and Larry Weigel (6-5 F) 7.3

Best Newcomers—Fred Arnold (6-7 F), Ray Willis (6-1 G), Steve Honeycutt (6-0 G)
and Dan Gaskin (6-3 F)

OUTLOOK: Well-balanced scoring and strong defensive play carried Kansas State to a winning campaign in 1966 and the Wildcats, minus only a handful of this talent, should be tough to handle this time around. Three starters return from the squad that forged a third-place finish in the tough Big Eight Conference and a pair of junior college grads has been imported to bolster the lineups of veterans. Kansas State will go to the post with what is undoubtedly one of the nation's tallest teams. Coach Tex Winter is able to call on 7-1 Nick Pino, 6-10 Roy Smith, 6-11 Mike Barber, 6-8 John Olson, 6-7 Fred Arnold and Earl Seyfert plus four others stretching 6-4 or better.

COACH—John Egli (12 Years at PSU—Won 167, Lost 111)

Offense—

Defense—Sliding Zone

Chief Losses—Carver Clinton (C) 18.9, Ray Saunders (F) 10.5 and Jim Reed (G) 11.9

Top Returnees—Jeff Persson (6-3 G) 13.7 and Paul Mickey (6-9 C) 10.0

Best Newcomers—Bill Stansfield (6-8 F), Bill Young (6-6 F), Galen Gadbey (6-5 F)
and Jim Linden (6-2 G)

OUTLOOK: If Coach John Egli is able to find some scoring strength, the Nittany Lions could make big noise in their first UK Invitational visit. Penn State is not without height. Vanning the Keystone State force in this department will be 6-9 pivotman Paul Mickey and sophomores Bill Stansfield (6-8), Bill Young (6-6) and Galen Godbey (6-5). Top returning, scoring threat of the team, which competed in the NIT last season, should be 6-3 guard Jeff Persson—a 13.7 scorer in 1966. Inexperience (three sophs may start) could be overcome by tournament time.

UKIT Record—Won 1, Lost 1 in 1962

COACH—Paul Valenti (2 Years at OSU—Won 37, Lost 17)

Offense—Ball Control

Defense—Man to Man

Chief Losses—Charlie White (F) 11.7, Scott Eaton (F) 9.9 and Rick Whelan (G) 7.8

Top Returnees—Loy Petersen (6-5 F) 12.8, Ed Fredenburg (6-6 C) 9.6, Karl Weide (6-6 F) 3.6 and Harry Gunner (6-6 F) 3.7

Best Newcomers—Vince Fritz (6-3 G)

OUTLOOK: Oregon State, defending Pacific-8 Conference champions and '66 NCAA participant, may be hard pressed to duplicate its surprising, 21-7 record of last year due to critical losses. Three regulars departed, but still on hand are key operatives Loy Petersen (No. 1 Scorer) and Ed Fredenburg (starting center past two years). Five other lettermen will be back and bolstered by prize soph Vince Fritz, a 6-3 guard. The Beavers are sure to be tough defensively once again and bothersome offensively with their ball-control style. A year ago, OSU shocked cagedom by beating UCLA in an upset. On their last UKIT visit, the Beavers took third place with help from seven-foot Mel Counts.

(Champions 1953, 1954, 1956, 1958, 1961, 1962, 1963, 1965)

COACH—Adolph Rupp (36 Years at UK—Won 752, Lost 152)

Offense—Controlled Fast Break

Defense—Basically Man to Man

Chief Losses—Starters Larry Conley (F) 11.5 and Tommy Kron (G) 10.2

Top Returnees—All Americans Pat Riley (6-3 F) and Louie Dampier (6-0 G), SEC Soph of Year Thad Jaracz (6-5 C)

Best Newcomer—Phil Argento (6-0 G)

OUTLOOK: Kentucky lost only two hands from the surprise team of the nation and bids for new national honors with a talented but height-shy band that hopes to offset lack of size with speed and deadly shooting. For openers, Coach of the Year sends two All-Americans to the post in the persons of 20-point producers Pat Riley and Louie Dampier. Backing them up will be 6-5 Thad Jaracz, who apparently will man the pivot again since an experimental shift to forward in favor of 6-8 Cliff Berger has not worked out. The Wildcats should have lineup problems worked out in time to make a strong bid for their ninth UKIT Title and hopefully use it as a stepping stone to repeat as No. 1 in the national polls.

Chief Losses—Steve Cram (C) 18.4, Bob DeLuca (G) 17.3 and Garry Munson (F) 13.9

Top Returnees—Gregg Morris (6-0 G) 10.8, Blaine Aston (6-0 G) 7.0 and Gabriel Durkac (6-3 F) 4.2

Best Newcomers—Hank South (6-3 F) and Walt Esdaile (6-5 C)

OUTLOOK: Despite the loss of four starters from last year's club that had a 15-9 record and tied for second in the Ivy League, Cornell Coach Sam MacNeil expects to have a stronger all-around first unit this season. Depended upon to give the Big Red improved offensive prowess are lettermen Blaine Aston and Gabe Durkac, guards, and forward Greg Morris plus outstanding sophs Hank South (6-3 F) and Walt Esdaile (6-5 pivotman). As yearlings, South averaged 25.3 points and 11.3 rebounds while his partner was credited with averages of 18.2 and 15.7 in the vital departments of play.

Defense—Pressing Man-to-Man

Chief Losses—Tom Bornhorst (C) 5.9 and Bucky McGann (G) 10.2

Top Returnees—Jim Monahan (6-3 F) 15.1, Brian Keller (6-5 F) 11.4, Tom Caldwell (6-5 C) 11.6 and George Restovich (6-2 G) 8.5

Best Newcomers—Bob Whitmore (6-8 C), Bob Arnzen (6-5 F), Dwight Murphy (6-4 G) and Jim Derrig (6-2 G)

OUTLOOK: Let the "Doubting Thomases" be forewarned. The head Irishman, colorful Johnny Dee, warns frankly that the 1966-67 edition of Notre Dame cagers will be stronger than the club of a year ago that finished only 5-21. Dee counts on the experience gained from playing a tough schedule and forecasts the Irish will have more speed, better height and improved depth. Losses were light—only three monogram men departed and only Bucky McGann will be missed. Heading the returnees will be 6-3 forward Jim Manahan (15.1 average last year). Three sophs are probable starters, including 6-7 center Bob Whitmore.

Top Returnees—Bo Wyenandt (6-4 F) 12.7, Kenny Gibbs (6-7 C) 3.5 and Jerry Southwood (6-2 G) 8.0

Best Newcomers—Tom Hagan (6-3 F) and Hal Bartch (6-5 F-C)

OUTLOOK: An All-America pivotman and All-SEC guard will not be around this season to boost the Commodores to the heights of No. 3 national ranking they attained before Kentucky administered a 105-90 licking last season. The void is sure to be a hard one to fill completely, but Coach Roy Skinner should show rebuilding progress this season with help from capable forward Bo Wyenandt, who impressed last year as a raw sophomore. He is expected to be the big gun in the scoring attack, improving on a 12.7 average, and is due to receive help from guard Jerry Southwood, 6-7 center Kenny Gibbs and a soph hot shot—6-3 Tom Hagan.

Best Newcomers—Mike Bracewell (6-6 F-C), Ken Brewer (6-0 G) and Mickey Wiles (5-10 G)

OUTLOOK: With the graduation loss of 6-7 pivotman Jerry Waller and guard Lee Martin, Georgia lost height, scoring punch and vital playmaking ability that is going to be difficult to replace. Second year Coach Ken Rosemond will be pinning much of his hopes for a successful campaign on 6-4 returnee Ray Jeffords, who performed capably at both forward and guard last season in recording a 13.8 average and near 50 percent accuracy. Reserve strength is not one of the Bulldogs' long suits, but the Bulldogs have potential in three bright young sophs—including 6-6 Mike Bracewell.

Best Newcomers—Tom Perry (6-3 G), Tim Christian (6-1 G) and Larry Cantrell 6-8 C)

OUTLOOK: Despite the loss of the SEC's leading scorer, Lee DeFore (23.7), Auburn should have a better balanced offense in 1966-67. The Tigers will have a more versatile attack, with more overall speed. Guard play should improve and more board help is anticipated from sophs Larry Cantrell, David Hurt and Rex Etheridge. Auburn led the nation in free throw accuracy last year, and the '67 Tigers should be another good shooting team. Defensively, Auburn will be quicker. The ability is there, but the Tigers may be a year away because of inexperience.

Top Returnees—All-SEC Ron Widby (6-4 F) 17.3 and Tom Hendrix (6-4 F) 7.6

Best Newcomers—Bill Hann (6-2 G), Bill Justus (6-1 G) and David Bell (6-7 F)

OUTLOOK: Tennessee's outlook is reasonably bright, despite loss of four of top six after last season. All-SEC Ron Widby, a 17.3 shooter, is counted on to provide scoring punch. Tom Hendrix, one of SEC's top sophomores last year, returns to give the Vols two experienced forwards. Guards, both sophomores, could be a strong pair in Bill Hann and Bill Young, quick as a cat twosome. Most likely candidate for center is Tom Boerwinkle, a seven-footer who played only briefly last year. The absence of any "Blues" singing on the part of Coach Ray Mears serves to strengthen opponents' worries. Expectations are that the Vols will be battling Kentucky (whose perfect season was spoiled last year in Knoxville) for the league title along with Mississippi State and Florida.

Best Newcomers—Dave Ramsden (6-7 C), Ralph Jukkola (6-3 F) and Rusty Bergman (6-2 G)

Defense—Pressure

OUTLOOK: With no where to go but up, Louisiana State could be a relaxed club that gives its opponents a strong battle in 1966-67. To accomplish the climb out of the league cellar and back up to the prominence of the Bob Pettit days the Tigers have a new mentor in the person of Press Maravich. He comes to LSU with exceptional credentials gained while guiding North Carolina State. Detrimental to the Tigers' chances of spectacular success is the prospect of home and home meetings with all the SEC's "biggies" plus the loss of last season's leading scorer, Harry Heroman (17.6). Hhhelp will come mainly from guards Kenny Drost and Brad Brian plus 6-5 center Tommy Thigpen.

Top Returnees—Chuck Burhorn (6-5 C) 11.8 and Lee Martindale (6-0 G) 8.2

Best Newcomers—Jerry Brawner (6-8 C) and Dale Stevens (6-6 F)

OUTLOOK: Coach Eddie Crawford is looking for no overnight miracles to happen that would catapult the Johnny Rebs to a top contender role. However, there's every indication that a building program, precipitated by the new Coliseum, will begin to show results this season in a talented sophomore crop headed by 6-8 Jerry Brawner and 6-6 Dale Stevens. Crawford feels the Rebels will be better shooters and better on the boards. He's also optimistic about bench potential—due to be deeper and more versatile. Inexperience will be a problem; only two starters and three other lettermen return.

John Sapen (6-4 F) 9.4 and Herb Biggs (6-9 C) 8.0

Best Newcomers—Glenn Hartley (6-6 C) and Manuel Washington (6-4 G)

OUTLOOK: Mississippi State, which surprised the experts by forging out a third place tie in the SEC last season in Joe Dan Gold's first year on the job, could be the team to beat in 1966-67. At the worst, the Bulldogs rate a big nod as one of the top three or four prospective powers of the league. The reason for optimism at Mississippi State is two-fold—only one man (guard Paul Smith) was lost off the '66 line-up and one of the returnees is All-Conference Dave Williams. The 6-7 junior forward, fifth in SEC scoring and rebounding as a soph, is highly regarded and could give the leadership that could carry State all the way. He will be backed up by 6-4 John Sapen, 6-3 Gary Washington and 6-9 Herb Biggs.

Best Newcomers—Burt Caldwell (6-8 F), Rich Deppe (6-7 C), R. G. Wilson (6-5 F) and Jerry Elliott (6-3 G)

OUTLOOK: Word is out in Dixie cage circles that the Crimson Tide could be the "sleeper" of this season's SEC race or possibly the "spoiler." Although Coach Hayden Riley does not have a single senior on his roster, Alabama does have some towering sophomores who could make the Tide a tough foe to handle if they came around as expected. New faces to watch include 6-8 Burt Caldwell at forward, 6-7 Rich Deppe at center, 6-3 guard Jerry Elliott and 6-5 forward R. G. Wilson. Elliott is a junior college transfer who laid out last year. Experience is available in southpaw guard Mike Nordholz (18.4) and three other returning regulars.

ORIGIN OF "WILDCATS" NICKNAME

Kentucky's athletic teams are known to sports fans as the Wildcats. This first and only nickname borne by University varsities had its origin in 1909 in a speech made by Commandant Corbusier, then head of the military department of old State College. Speaking to a chapel audience of students on the showing of the Kentucky football team in defeating Illinois six to two, the Commandant declared "they fought like Wildcats." The tag was popularized by word of mouth and by the press with the result that it has since become synonymous with all major Kentucky athletic teams.

While the name is old in origin, no claim is made regarding precedence over similar nicknames boasted by Northwestern, Villanova and about 10 other major athletic teams.

An alumnus in 1947 presented a live Kentucky Wildcat to SUKY, student pep organization. Named "The Colonel," the cat served as a live mascot for UK teams until his death in 1955. The current mascot is a stuffed wildcat obtained from a Brooklyn taxidermist just before the 1958 football season and named "Tucky."

UK RECORD 20-GAME WINNERS

Kentucky lives up completely to its billing as the all-time champion of major college basketball with its run of 14 straight 20-victory seasons beginning in 1945, according to Boston sports authority Bill Mokray. The Wildcats were not permitted to field a team in 1953, but made up for it with a perfect record (25-0) the following season and continued their streak through 1959. Baron Adolph Rupp's warriors also achieved the magic circle with a 20-3 record in 1933 and posted a 23-3 mark in 1962 and 21-6 in 1964. Only other major teams to boast of as many as ten straight 20-victory campaigns are North Carolina State and Western Kentucky—each showing 10-year runs.
