PFLAG Revival

Mary Lou Wallner will be the keynote speaker at the "revival" of PFLAG chapter in Lexington. This initial meeting will be on Thursday, November 8, at 7 p.m. at Chapel Hill Presbyterian Church, 3534 Tates Creek Road in Lexington.

PFLAG is a national organization that supports family and friends of gay, lesbian, bisexual, and transgender individuals. A local chapter was active in the early 1990's and is now being revitalized. The PFLAG mission states: "We believe homophobia, not homosexuality, threatens our families and society. Through support, education, and advocacy PFLAG acts to create a society that is health and respectful to human diversity."

At this first meeting, Mrs. Wallner will share her struggle to come to terms with the suicide of her lesbian daughter Anna, in February 1997. Mary Lou Wallner was trapped by her own judgmental and homophobic religious beliefs. In her grief, she was willing to confront the spiritual implications of her refusal to accept Anna's homosexuality. She will speak about her spiritual journey towards understanding ....Continued on page 2

COMEDIAN DAVID SEDARIS

WUKY (FM 91.3) will presents noted gay author/comedian David Sedaris on Wed., Nov. 14 at 7:30 pm at the Kentucky Theatre in downtown Lexington. Sedaris has been a regular contributor to National Public Radio's Morning Edition, and to Public Radio International's This American Life.

Sedaris made his comic debut recounting his strange-but-true experiences of being a Macy's elf clad in green tights, reading his Santa Land Diaries on Morning Edition. Sedaris' sardonic humor and incisive social critique have since made him one of NPR's most popular and humorous commentators.

David Sedaris is the author of the best sellers Barrel Fever and Naked. David and his sister, Amy Sedaris, have collaborated under the name The Talent Family and written several plays which have been produced in New York City. His most recent book is Me Talk Pretty One Day. A film version is currently being made by director Wayne Wang.

the impact of religious intolerance on her daughter Ann and on herself.

The video Family Stories: Journeys of Spirit in Mixed Orientation Families, which includes Mary Lou's story as well as others, will be available for purchase. The video documents the transition of Mary Lou from devastation to empowerment. She is now active in a faith which promotes acceptance and understanding of GLBT individuals, and offer hope to a community that has been condemned by religious organizations and leaders.

The video can be purchased at www.EmpoweringDiversity.com for $29.95 and comes with a study guide. Mary Lou's website is <http://empoweringdiversity.com/anna>. (GLSO will purchase a copy of the video and make it available through the Pride Center Library.)

Please RSVP for the PFLAG meeting on the 8th to Dotti Berry: Dotti@EmpoweringDiversity.com Questions about PFLAG can be directed to Dotti at 859-489-4791.

Ms. Hampton's composition "At the Same Time" was recorded by Barbra Streisand for the CD, Higher Ground. Babs asked Ann to compose the lyrics to "I've Dreamed of You," the song she sang to James Brolin at their wedding. She is currently performing her cabaret act at Michael Feinstein's new nightclub in NYC. Ann has performed with many gay and lesbian choruses around the country and we are lucky indeed that she could fit us into her busy schedule.

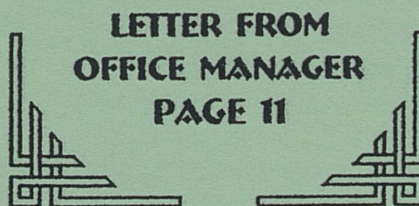

LMC will perform five selections with Ms. Callaway including "Winter Wonderland" and "Have Yourself a Merry Little Christmas." Look for LMC's traditional holiday selections as well as a solo set by Ms. Callaway.

The concert is sponsored by Republic Bank and Trust, Geddes Pools, and Hawks Management Services as well as a grant from the Lexington Arts and Cultural Council Community Arts Development Program.

Tickets are $50, $25 and $18 and are available from members or by calling the ticket office at 257-4929.

Femme Fatale launches November 28th!

The Imperial Court of Kentucky has teamed with Artist/Photographer Kurt Gohde of Transylvania University to produce a series of photographs of Kentucky's favorite drag divas depicting some of the most beloved and intriguing women of the 20th century to be published as a calendar entitled Femme Fatale. The calendar will go on sale at a launch party to be held at The Bar Complex, 121 East Main Street in Lexington on Wednesday November 28th.

A reception will begin at 7 PM and the calendar will be unveiled at 8:30 followed by a performance in the Gilded Cage Show Room featuring models from the calendar. The project is partially funded by Roots On Tour and sales of Femme Fatale will benefit Moveable Feast Lexington. One calendar will be given for every donation of $12 or 10 calendars for $100.

Humor, glamour and high camp all describe Femme Fatale with its shots of Natalie Gaye and Marlon Austin as Mae West and W.C. Fields, Rayna Star as Billie Holiday, Chanda Lier as Gloria Swanson and Eden Towers as Veronica Lake. Cammie Dietrich and Chelsea Pearl delight as Lucy and Ricky Ricardo and go over the top as Bette Davis and Joan Crawford a la What Ever Happened to Baby Jane. Big cast and costuming are the order in an impression of Gone With the Wind, featuring J. D. Vaughn as Scarlett O'Hara, and, naturally, a tribute to The Wizard of Oz with Tracy Taylor as Dorothy.

Photos used in making the calendar will be on exhibit in the Living Room Lounge at the Bar Complex plus a Femme Fatale Extravaganza Show will be mounted in the Gilded Cage Showroom in April 2002 as part of the Roots On Tour Festival.

Upcoming events: On Nov. 7th at Club 141 the male line will be hosting "The Emperor's Turnabout". Come out and watch as the MEN of the court throw on the dresses and provide you with a fun-filled, exciting evening.

CHURCH

BULLETIN

Faith MCC

Faith Community Church. Metropolitan Church. announces its annual All Saints Day worship service Sunday, Nov. 4. All Saints Day is an opportunity to remember our loved ones who have gone on to be with God. It is our tradition that the roll of names is read on this Sunday.

This year, in light of the devastation and tragedies in our world, All Saints Day gives us the opportunity to come together as one family and search for answers to why these things have happened, just what do we do with our anger and hurt, and why are we the target of such hatred? While we won't find all the answers we're looking for, perhaps we can begin to ask the questions that will help us find peace and comfort.

Sunday, November 11, marks the Veteran's Day remembrance. It is a celebration of all who have served in the military and who serve today.

Sunday, November 25, is Pot Luck Sunday. Come join in the fun as we bring in our Thanksgiving leftovers. Just how much turkey can one person eat? All are invited.

Sunday morning worship begins at 10:30 a.m. at Faith

Metropolitan Community Church. The church is located at 145 Burt Road, Suite 7, in Zandale. Burt Road is just across from O'Charley's on Nicholasville Road.

Sunday evenings at 6:00 p.m. offers a more informal time of gathering and sharing. For more information, call (859) LEX-FMCC.

INTEGRITY

Integrity, a nationwide group supporting gay, lesbian, bisexual, and transgender people in the Episcopal church, is forming a chapter in Lexington. The nucleus of the group began meeting last year at St. Michael's Episcopal Church on Bellefonte Drive and is open to all who are interested-from any church in the area or those not members of a church. An important purpose of the group is mutual support-for instance, we are discussing what nourishes us spiritually. We also provide education and outreach within the Episcopal church in the Lexington Diocese.

At a recent meeting, the group approved the following mission statement for the chapter serves to reach out and welcome all who share a vision of inclusiveness. We are commanded by God to love one another, and we glorify God by doing so. We seek to provide a spiritual sanctuary, bringing people to God and God to people, so that Christ's nourishing gifts of love and hospitality may be given, received, and extended outward to the world. Integrity serves to fulfill this mission as a witness of lesbian, gay, bisexual, and transgender persons within the Episcopal Church and the community.

The group is meets on the second Sunday (Nov. 11, Dec. 9) at 4 p.m. For further information, contact either the Rev. David Boyd or the Rev. Sandy Stone at 277-7511, or email JBIntegrity@aol.com.

Charismatic Christians

There's a new group starting in Lexington for GLBT Christians who desire a more upbeat form of worship. This group is proof that gay and lesbian Charismatic Christians do exist! Eventually we hope to start a new church.

Come be a part of this exciting journey. Everyone is welcome to come and bring a friend. Great bible study, worship, music and excellent discussions. For more information please call 264-7006 or e-mail me at CWBM121893@aol.com. Ask for Beverly.

Recovering Our History: Vice Versa by David Williams

Lisa Ben's "Vice Versa," was the world's very first lesbian periodical (1947). Lisa Ben (a pseudonym: acronym for "lesbian") typed the newsletter at work in great secrecy. She would make three or four carbon copies at a time, and then would have to re-type the entire newsletter, make more carbon copies, etc. (if you don't know what carbon paper is, hooray!) As a result, no issues of "Vice Versa" had more than nine or ten copies and they're extremely rare and very valuable today.

"Vice Versa" had some news but was mainly designed to connect one lesbian with another through personal ads. At the time, gay and lesbian bars in Los Angeles, as throughout the nation, were routinely raided by the police and shut down. It was illegal to serve homosexuals alcoholic beverages in many states. So it was difficult for lesbians to meet one another. "Vice Versa" served that purpose adequately for a short time. Each copy was passed around to numerous individuals. So while there were only a few copies of any issue, they got read by hundreds of women.

Unfortunately, because it took a lot of work and Lisa Ben (who is still alive) had to type it in secret, she typed out only nine issues of the publication before she gave it up. But it was a very valiant effort on the part of just one person and it helped lesbians in Los Angeles through a very trying time: the early years of what has since come to be called the McCarthy Era.

A full history of "Vice Versa" can be found in Unspeakable: The Rise of the Gay and Lesbian Press in America by Robert Streitmatter (Boston: Faber and Faber, 1995)

GSA Emergency Fund

Statistics show that queer youth make up a large percentage of homeless youth. There are also many living on the edge of homelessness whether that means living at home with parents who aren't supportive (or even abusive) or being pushed out of their homes as soon as they turn 18 with little help to get started.

The GLSO GSA was not meeting for many months before young people with minimal family support found their way to us. The Bookworm has made a generous donation that has enabled GLSO to set up a program that offers emergency help to GSA members who are in financial crisis. We are not offering ongoing support, but crisis intervention.

Youth can fill out a form to apply for support from the GLSO Emergency Fund. The GSA advisors will approve or disapprove the request and pass it on to a sub-committee of the GLSO for final approval. GLSO can also refer people to GOD's pantry for emergency food. The support will be kept confidential and youth will be asked to do some volunteer work at the Pride Center in exchange for the support.

The fund can also be used to assist youth who are in financial need to help pay for some of our field trips. They will have to give reasons why they can not come up with the funds at home or by working. GLSO also has some money for field trips and other GSA expenses.

We appreciated the donation from The Bookworm and know that it is appreciated by the youth who have already received help and those that will benefit from it in the future. If anyone else would like to contribute to this Emergency Fund or to help cover the general expenses of the GSA, your donations would be most welcomed.

YOUR PRIDE CENTER: A LETTER FROM GINGER MOORE

Hello Everyone! This is Ginger, your new Office Manager for GLSO and the Pride Center. I'd like to talk to you about some of the things I have seen, and how the Center has grown since it opened in June of this year.

The Pride Center is visited everyday by from one to five people. They come in for many different reasons, all important to their wellbeing. Teenager Paul* brought his mother and younger brother to show his Mom that the Center was a good place for him to spend his time. His Mom checked out a book about having a gay teenage son. Carter*, a local business man that had just moved into the area, wanted to look at the library and ask about events that are happening during the month. He got a subscription to the GLSO News and a copy of the Pink Pages. He was delighted to know there were things happening in the gay community in addition to the bar scene.

The most poignant visitors are the ones that come in, make a quick circle of the room, cannot be engaged in conversation, and have difficulty making eye contact. For some people, it is very frightening even to enter the Center. I have to give them credit for just trying. I hope they will come back when it is less scary for them.

Calls have increased from a few a month to 12-15 a day; a man wanting to know the name of a gay male therapist, a lesbian couple needing legal counseling, a public library wanting copies of the GLSO News. There are calls about the Discussion Group and Movie Nights, and from transgender persons inquiring about how to begin the long hormone and therapy process. They are all referred to the appropriate source and given support and encouragement. At least once a day, people just call, listen to my greeting and hang up.

The Center is being used more and more by the general public. The UK Anthropology Department is sending students to one of our events to learn about diversity. Recently, a graduate social work class, made up of mainly straight students, came to the Center to hear a presentation by classmates concerning our community and issues in working with GLBT clients. For some, it was the first time they would have the opportunity to speak to gays and lesbians openly and candidly about what it is like to be gay. Members of the GLSO Speakers Bureau and others participated. They had so many questions, they wanted to meet again.

People are coming in just to talk. It is not unusual for 2-5 people to sit in the foyer, have a cup of coffee or a Coke and discuss topics important to them. Each one comes in for their own reasons and makes new friends in the process. Sometimes they exchange numbers or make arrangements to meet at another time. At the very least they have found someone to talk to.

The Pride Center Library is popular, probably because it has books that cannot be found at any bookstore around here. People have donated as many non-fiction as fiction. It has grown from 200 books in June when we opened, to now almost a thousand. They are coming in faster than we can process them. And we are aching for more bookcases. It is not unusual to have 30-50 books out at a time. Our video, audio and CD collection is growing, too. The community has been very generous in donating all materials and the volunteers have done a wonderful job of getting it together.

Groups from our community, Fairness, the Imperial Court, the Men's Chorus, Sistah's in the Life, C.O.L.T.S., the Discussion Group and the Gay Straight Alliance, all find a home in the Center. They have been most generous in their financial and moral support of the Center. We, in turn, want them to feel welcome and that the Center is trying to meet their needs. There are nearly 30 different meetings a month at the Center and the groups are very accommodating about sharing the facility when necessary.

I hope that you feel that all these uses of the Pride Center are worthwhile. I do. If the Center can help make even one person's journey more joyful or less difficult, then it is important indeed. The Center needs your financial and volunteer help. Give me a call.

*Names have been changed to protect privacy.

WRITING PRACTICE FOR EVERYONE

Davina is also organizing a writing group the second Saturday of each month. If you're interested, meet at 10 a.m. Nov. 10th for Writing Practice (from Natalie Goldberg's Writing Down the Bones). Everyone is welcome. No writing experience necessary-- just bring a notebook, a pen and a desire to share with others. This is a fun activity and you really do not have to consider yourself a writer to have a good time with this.

PRIDE CENTER SCHEDULE

Discussion Group Every Wed 7-8:30
Classic Movie Night Second Sunday
Men's Night Out Third Tuesday
Lesbian Movie Night Second Friday

Relationship Group

Relationship Problems got you down? Do your issues get hooked as you become close to someone? Well if you are over 18, we have a support group to help. This group is open to single people as well as couples. We will continue to meet on Sunday afternoons, Nov. 4 and 11 at the Pride Center from 2:30-4:30 pm.

Two graduate students from the University of Kentucky are running the group as part of a class requirement. If you have any questions or concerns, contact Marilee at 323-7118 or email woogaa@hotmail.com.

This month the Lesbian Movie Night is returning to "lighter lesbian fare" with the romantic comedy, Bar Girls. (For some, October's showing of the vampire cult classic, The Hunger, made their "blood run cold.") Join us at the Pride Center on Friday, Nov. 9 at 7 p.m. for a fresh and funny comedy featuring a group of women "whose lives and loves intertwine against the backdrop of a Los Angeles lesbian bar." (wolfevideo.com). We will also be showing the behind-the-scenes documentary The Making of Bar Girls. Come out for some fun, bring a friend and a snack to share. For info call the Pride Center at 253-3233.

Men's Night Out

Join us on the 3rd Tuesday Nov 20th for In and Out. Welcome to Greenleaf, a picture postcard Indiana town where the High School is the focus of attention and "alternative lifestyle" means you bowl on alternate Tuesdays. But on the nights of the Oscars telecast the town's--and the world's--center of attention is Howard Brackett. A former student who's now a superstar actor tells an audience of millions that Howard is gay. Poor Howard, he's outted and he didn't even know he was in! With clever dialogue, antic situations and a stellar cast, In and out is out and out fun. Come join the fun and bring a snack to share..

Classic Movie Matinee presents:

On Sunday November 18th at 3:00pm. we will be showing Breakfast at Tiffany's starring Audrey Hepburn and George Peppard. Based on Truman Capote's novel, this is the story of a young, jet-setting woman in New York City who meets a young man when he moves into her apartment building. He is being kept by a wealthy, older woman, but wants to be a writer. She is working as a high-priced escort and searching for a rich, older man to marry. The opening scene has her window-shopping at Tiffany's at six in the morning, after being up all night on a date.

This eternally popular romantic comedy has a bitter-sweet flavour, perfectly captured by the yearning mood of Moon River, the Oscar-winning song written for Audrey Hepburn. The strains of Henry ...continued on page 14
