

Glasgow - Ky. Jan. 7th 1876
Mr. H. Troutman,

Dear Sir:

I sent the deed you sent down to Lealundus Miss.
and have all the signatures and acknowledgments required so the title, so far as we are concerned, is perfected.

I sent the money to Mr Grigsby to redeem the land from the sale made under the execution from the Court of Appeals and I suppose there is no further matters to ~~be~~ attended to.

What shall I do with the deed?

Are you ready to accept it and pay the money?
