

The Answer of Thomas Manhall J to Interrogatories set forth in an Answer of John Taylor to a Bill in Chancery exhibited against him by the said Tho.
Manhall J in the Court of Quarter Sessions of Massachusetts the said Thomas Answering Says that it is not true that this Complainant has hired any of the defendant's Negroes out for his own employment or ever received any satisfaction in part or the whole of his demand against the Defendant. Some time in the Month of November or December last the Defendant was at the house of the Complainant and informed this Complainant that he should at about Christmas following break up at the Lake where he then resided and that he and his wife would then part and having previous by Deed out his plantation he would divide the property and allow a sufficient sum for the support of his wife and two of the Children that were to stay with her accordingly at or about Christmas the Complainant together with Mr. William Kennel went up to Salt Lake to see about moving Mrs Taylor & the Children away and do some thing with the property which should be given up for her support when the business was settled that Mr Taylor and two Children was to come down to Washington where a house was to be rented for them to live in, & the defendant was to send
