Hello Bub!

What is this I hear about you nudging the gals? I'm glad to hear that you are a st. X fan. That is a good school and go to it if you can. Maybe, when I come home, I'll take you up to X and show you around to the brothers.

Well, Bub, it won't be long before I fly over the big pond and go to the wars. I will get you some thing over there. How would you like a German burger or some thing like that?

Take good care of my wife for me and make her take you to a show for me. Write me a line real soon.
I'll be seeing you and will shoot a couple for you.

Your Brother
Jimmy

Dear Norman!

What do you know the egg head?
Are you taking care of my little wife for me? Cheer her up and all that sort of thing. I'm now in class and has a few spare minutes to write you. This course is very interesting and I like it very much. I can't tell you very much about it for we are sworn to secrecy.

Do you go to many shows like you use to do. I don't go very much any more for I am in school most of the time. Say by, I'll still take you for that plane ride as soon as I am out of the army. That is if you can't afford to go up with me on account of my crash up. I still can fly the hell out of any plane that is made.
Some day, I'm going to own my own ship and fly as much as I want to.

Tell your Mom hello and your dad also for me. I bet you were glad to see old John when he visited you all. He sure was lucky to get a few laughs. I sure hope that I can get one soon. By the way, thanks a lot for the Easter Card. You tell Peanuts to take you to a show for me and buy you a soda.
Remember, when you use to go to the show with us down town.

The Captain just came into the room and he is shorting his mouth off about air craft identification what he don't know about this would fill a book. You see I had all of this stuff up in the cockpit and know more about it than any of the instructors know about it. It is a good thing that I saved all of my books and notes from the cockpit for the jumb (Bombs) then you us ain't worth a damn.

Well, Bub, I have to pay attention to what the old bird is talking about. I'm depending on you to take care of my wife until I can come home again. Hope to see you all real soon. Tell your sister hello for me and kiss my wife for me. Also get Rex for me. So long for now and please write to me real soon.

Your Soldier Brother
G-2 - Sonny

P.S. I hear that you are a baby killer now. If you want a few pointers, I'll tell you a few.
