DEDICATION

To Miss Vella B. Karrick, who for two years has been our strongest aid in making the Mohian a success, and who has so loyally supported every interest of our school, this issue of The Mohian is dedicated.

MISS VELLA B. KARRICK

FOREWORD

W^E can't attain perfection
And we don't pretend to try
But to do our best in everything
And to raise our standard high—
To make a school from which
We are proud to let our colors fly
And to keep whose honor lifted
We would gladly "Do or Die"
Is the goal for which we are working
At Kentucky Model High.

Revery

As the fog was closing in,
Soft and dim and white,
Every ship that ever sailed
Sails the sea tonight.
Ships whose crews are long since dead,
Ships that sank to ocean's bed,
Ships whose memory has fled—
Schooners out of Marblehead,
Frigates, galleons and sloops,
Misty figures on their poops,
Ships that go with sails and oar,
Ships that creep along the shore,
Not a single one has failed;
Ever ship that ever sailed
Sails the sea tonight.

For we sail not as before
On the sea tonight,
When the fog is closing in,
Soft and dim and white,
We are on the mistic sea
With the ships that used to be,
English, French and Portugee,
Laden down with silks and tea,
Men-O'-War and Chinese junks,
Dead men in their ghostly bunks,
Ships from all across the world,
Ships with every flag unfurled,
Strange and unheard of things begins
When the fog comes closing in,
Soft and dim and white.

—GIRDLER G. FITCH.

NANCY BYRAN BEARD

"And her face so fair
Stirred with her dream
As rose leaves with the air."

Gentle! sweet, and affectionate, Nancy has a smile and a bit of kindness for every one. She is a number one student in English and has written many editorials for the Mohian and the Index in flourishing style.

Index '22; Mohian '21.

JOSEPH J. BRADLEY

"We grant altho he has much wit,
He's very shy of using it."

"Red" has always been a favorite among both girls and boys and it is not puzzling to us because we are so well acquainted with his dry humor and good disposition. He plays football and is interested in all athletics. Model High will miss him very much.

Capt. Football '20; Football '19; '21.

Athletic Editor of Mohian '21; '22.

Treasurer of Class '21.

22 THE MOHIAN 22

CAROLYN GREATHOUSE

"Bright was her face with smiles, and words of welcome and gladness
Fell from her beautiful lips."

Was there ever another like Carrie? Energetic and pretty, with an everlasting smile and inexhaustable source of humor. To Carrie is due the success of all dances gotten up, given this year and she has taken a prominent part in all of the school activities. She has been the outstanding star of the girls athletics for the past two years and has made a record that will stand out on the pages of Model High's basket ball for many years to come. Now do you wonder at the unlimited number of friends and admirers she has made for herself?

TALBERT HOPKINS

"He was a valiant youth and his face
like the face of the morning,
Gladdened the earth with its light."

"Hop" always has a remark to take the solemnity out of every occasion. He is the most lively and most popular masculine member of his class. He is unusually good at dancing and playing basket ball and takes an important part in most all athletics.

22 THE MOHIAN 22

BLANCHE SPENCER

"A perfect woman, nobly planned
To warm, to comfort, and command."

"Blondie" has been called a heart-breaker but we know of one heart that she keeps safely. She has been a remarkable influence in all of our school activities and her sunny disposition is equaled only by her high intellectuality. To her in great part is due the success of the annual this year. Besides being very talented in music and art, Blanche is an active participant in athletics. This all insures for her extreme popularity.

Art Editor for Mohian '22; Basket Ball '22
Index Staff '22; Dramatic Club '22.
Attended Nazareth Academy five years.

ERNEST M. REYNOLDS

"I dare do all that may become a man,
Who dares do more is none."

It must be a great consolation to "Bernie" to know that he will never be imposed upon. He has been accused of being lazy, but we know that isn't that so much as the fact that he loves liberty and comfort. "Bernie" has distinguished himself with suprising ability on the basket ball floor and we will miss him in the years to come.

22 THE MOHIAN 22

ELIZABETH DALE

"A face of lily beauty with a form of airy grace."

It is a well known feature of the Senior Class that Betty is the beauty of the school. Her dainty mannerisms and sweet composure has won for her much admiration from all the school. Betty has made for herself the reputation of a star in "Nothing but the Truth" as "Gwen."

Dramatic Club '22.

Treasurer of Senior Class.

Assistant Manager Mohian '22

GUS SMITH

"A man he seems of cheerful yesterdays and confident tomorrows."

When it comes to good looks and good nature Gus just naturally stands in the front ranks. He came to us four years ago, but it did not take him long to familiarize himself with the curriculum of M. H. S. The girls—at one time or another have all fallen for him. Gus is good at anything he undertakes, but as President of the Senior Class he is the best.

President of Senior Class.

22 THE MOHIAN 22

MARTHA MITCHELL MATHEWS

"In fact, to speak in earnest, I believe
it adds a charm,
To spice the good a trifle, with a tiny dust of harm."

Little "Mitch" is the smallest, but most active member of the class. She has never been seen twice in the same place. It is not strange to us that the French teacher is inclined to show partiality, for we all know how well she can "parlezvous." We all predict for "Mitcy" a brilliant and delightful future.

Index '22; Dramatic Club '22.

HAMILTON RICE

"He talks as familiarly of roaring lions as maids of thirteen do of puppy dogs."

Three cheers for the "Cap'n!" Can there be anyone whose admiration has not been won by Ham's reserve manner and wonderful ability as a student and athlete? We are sure there can not be and we furthermore realize that old Model will not be the same without him. We expect to hear great things of him in the future and we are confident that he will not dissappoint us.

22 THE MOHIAN 22

CHRISTINE SHOUSE

"Ripe in wisdom was she, but patient and simple and child-like."

Christine is envied by many for her fine ability as a student and her unusually sweet disposition. She has been a great help for some time in preparing our annual, but this year we are proud to say she is our editor in chief.

Assistant Junior Editor Mohian '21.

Editor in chief Mohian '22.

S. B. TRIPLETT

"And even though vanquished he could argue still."

We have never been able to find anyone who could convince him that he was beaten. He is one of those kind that make history in Athletics, and has the peculiar habit of making all the teams. "Bony" is a consistent, all-round worker, and deserves all the credit we can give him.

22 THE MOHIAN 22

JANET McVEY

"Heart on her lips, and soul within her eyes of blue."

Janet is the youngest and one of the prettiest members of the class. Her gentle nature and sweet disposition have won for her numerous friends. She is an unusually good student and is very loyal in all of the school activities. Altho we are very proud that she completes the high school in such a short time, we are indeed very sorry she cannot be with us longer.

ARCHIE D. SCHULAR

"On with the dance
Let joy be unconfined."

Archie cannot be given too much credit for his broad views and kindness. No one has ever heard of him having an enemy and those of his special friends will vouch for any good thing said about him. He has been faithful to all school activities and his support is greatly appreciated. We are sure he will further pursue his education and then who knows what may be his success.

Football '19; '20; '21.

Mohian '22. Dramatic Club '22.

MARCIA LAMPERT

"Never a gay flirt will she be,
But in fame will have her part."

Marcia has a kind word for every one and was never known to be pessimistic. She is a very enthusiastic student and possesses unusual musical talent. From these facts we realize that she will meet with great success at the university, altho Model High will be the loser.

Orchestra '19; '21 Dramatic Club '22.

JOHN SUTTON

"Life is a jest, and all things show it;..
I thought so once, but now I know it."

Altho the "Edison of Model High" finds it very hard to be serious, he works as faithfully as he plays. John is gifted with a brilliant mind and energetic enthusiam, and the Radio Club feels sure that their work would have been incomplete without him as Vice-president.

Football '19; '20.

Vice-president Radio Club '22.

22 THE MOHIAN 22

ROWENA NOE

"Thy modesty is a candle to thy merit."

"Rippy" is a friend to every one in the class and all who know her. Model is known to have many good sports and she is one of them. She is always interested in having a good time and is very kind and considerate of others. She left us at mid-year to attend the University of Kentucky and we feel the loss of her greatly.

Basket Ball '19; '20; '22.

Class Secretary '19. Dramatic Club '22.

JOHN OTT

"I am as sober as a judge."

"Spotty" is usually very quiet at school, but we have evidence that he is a "devil" among the "Wimmen." Since he came back even Josephine carries a powder puff. Hal Steele and lots of the other boys are awfully jealous, but since he is such a good sport they keep quiet.

22 THE MOHIAN 22

IRENE KENDALL

"Be secret and discreet, the fairy favors
Are lost, when not concealed."

Of a gentle and quiet manner she says but little, yet that little is listened to attentively. Irene has proven herself a student of ability, and has made an excellent record in Model High school. Owing to these facts we regret that she has been with us such a short time.

Dramatic '22.

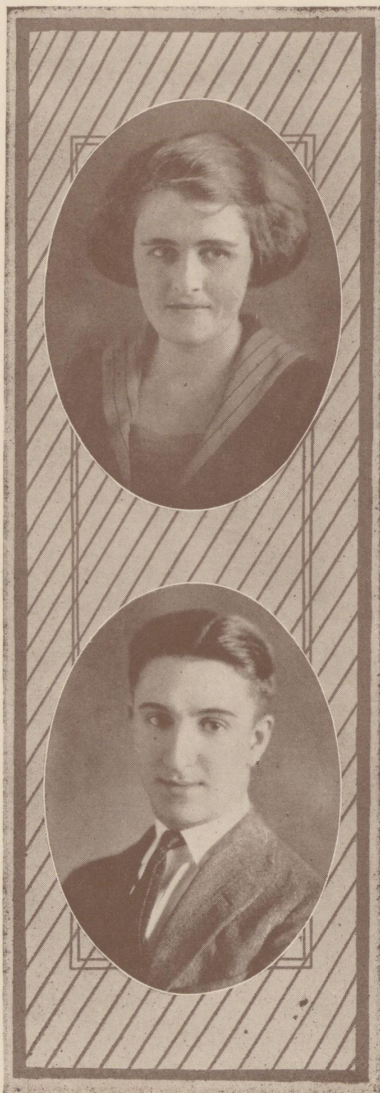

BURNLEY THOMPSON

"Stood like a man who fain would speak, but findeth no language."

Burnley is so quiet, that no one ever knows he is around. We have striven in vain to make him talk. Since Archie is the only other quiet member of the class, we have about come to the conclusion that, Burnley also might have been disappointed in love.

Football '21.

22 THE MOHIAN 22

NANCY FEATHERSTONE

"Here's to the love that lies in a woman's eyes
And lies and lies and lies."

Nancy is noted for her sweet personality and good looks. Altho she has been attending school at Model High for three years her heart has never left Georgetown. She says it isn't such a dead old town after all. May be she is right, but all the "Squirrels" seem to think she's made a mistake.

A. L. GINOCCHIO

"His life was gentle, and the elements..
So mixed in him, that nature might stand up
And say to all the world "This was a man."

So numerous are "Al's" abilities, that it is hard to give him due credit in such a small space. As managing Editor of the Mohian he has done his share, and some others too. He carried the Annual through in remarkable good order, which is scarcely necessary to say, seeing it as a proof. Al has been with us three years during which time he has lightened many a burden by his keen foresight of seeing and straightening out difficulties. We are proud to be able to say that Al was a member of the Class of '22.

Manager of Football '19; '20; '21.

President of athletic Association '20; '21.

Vice-president of Athletic Association '19.

Business Manager of Mohian '22.

22 THE MOHIAN 22

JOSEPHINE SHARPE

"I pin my faith to no man's sleeve.
Have I not two good eyes of my own?"

Josephine has tried unswervingly to have a team this year, but luck has been against her, and Joe finally gave it up as hopeless. While we do not predict for her an old maid future, we know Joe will believe in no man of the modern type. At any time you see Joe, she is generally whistling and looking straight ahead.

Basket Ball '19; '20; '21; '22.

JOHN BULLOCK

"Never let pleasure interfere with your studies.

John is the most studious member of our class, and we might add, a student surpassed by none. It has been said that all really great men are modest, and John is no exception to the rule. Above everything he stands for the highest and best things in this world, and we are not doubtful about the future of any man like this.

22 THE MOHIAN 22

MARGARET BAKER

"Even the light hair-bell raised its head Elastic from her airy tread."

For four years, Margaret has been with us, and though she is of a quiet disposition, she is well liked and greatly admired by all. "Boo" is noted for her fascinating manner of entertaining and kind hospitality. She graduated at the mid-semester and went to California.

Winner of Feature Section Mohian '21; '22.

JACK PATES

"Love is something we should all partake of sparingly, less we become intoxicated."

Day dreaming! O what bliss, if only it could last but some-how, somebody always takes the joy out of life. However Jack has decided that it is better to be a proverbial woman-hater than pursue her uncertainly when her own judgment with some "pain is fraught." We all have Jack's interest at heart, and hope his career will prove more consoling than formerly.

Mohian '22.

22 THE MOHIAN 22

LAWRENCE THOMAS

"To enumerate her good traits would be a task beyond measure,
She's beautiful, attractive, and for someone a treasure."

Another one of our class beauties is Lawrence, who joined with us in our Junior year. Needless to say she, has proven herself a loyal member to the class of '22 and the entire school as well. Lawrence's type is the true Oriental—black hair and dark vampy eyes—and altho during school hours she is the demure, quiet, studious kind, "you'd be suprised" if you really knew her out of school.

RALPH SINDELL

"There studious let me set,
And hold high converse with the mighty dead."

Almost before we could realize Ralph was here, he had gone. He is a fine student and made a splendid record in the short time he was with us. He is now attending the University of Kentucky and we hope he will do as well there as he did in Model.

"She moves a goddess and walks a queen."

Though "Dot" has been with us but a short while, she has made a lasting impression among her friends by her charming manners. "Dot" is a beautiful dancer and is rushed at all the dances. At the mid-semester she entered the University and from all appearances she is none the worse for the strain of study.

HAL STEELE

"None but himself can be his parallel!"

Yes! this is "Hal," the great student and lady-killer. He is so brilliant that he never looks at a book, in fact his very countenance portrays such singular intellectuality that the depth of his knowledge is not questioned in class. He may be seen strolling out South Lime any moonlight night, carrying a sweet and holy love for "Dot."

CLASS POEM

O H listen the while we relate you a story
That's filled with the greatest of all senior
glory,
It deals with the class of old two and twenty
A thing which itself recommends it
a plenty
We'll still love thee dear friend when our brows become wrinkled
When our hair with patches of grey is besprinkled
And we'll sigh, and we'll shake our heads then so hoary
As we think of the days of Model School
glory.
Oh, Model! We all take delight in thy praises
Some day we may sing them in high sounding phrases
Some day, Freshies, Juniors, and Sophs will discover
That a school like Model-there's never another.
And though we may leave thee, we'll never forget thee
When life gives experience we gladly will let thee
Be our guide till we've reached the end of our story
And look fondly back on commencement-day glory.

Prophecy

T WAS while promenading through The Mascara Villa on Bella Dona Avenue, Paris France, in the year of our Lord, 1944, that I chanced to meet with an old school chum of mine, now assuming with dignity, the name of Mrs. Inez Gacaffe. You can imagine my surprise and delight at seeing her, when I tell you how lonely I was in this foreign atmosphere, and the reason for my position. For some years I had been traveling for the E. H. Burnham people in Paris, as special agent for wigs and hairnets. Being an unmarried spinster, I naturally felt inclined to hold myself very much aloof from the Parisian folk, as a becoming dignity for one travelling unaccompanied. On this particular morning in question, I happened to be delivering some expensive wigs to the lodge keeper's wife at the villa, and in hurrying through the crowd, I was attracted by the violent wailing of a child. As I neared it and stooped to comfort the little one, it's Mother Carrie, rushed hysterically toward me, and it was then I remembered that she had moved to Paris some years before. The weeping baby Azurae, was her youngest of eight children, and what a dear little golden haired girl she was. When we had done our best to restore the child's good humor, we exchanged a few words by way of greeting, and after I accepted an invitation to dinner in her home that evening, on Pommade Drive, we both went our way.

My happiness was complete, when we together were seated in the drawing room after dinner discussing the others of that memorable class of '22.

It seems that Nancy Beard had gone to California soon after graduation, and was now writing comedies for the Selznick corporation.

Joe Bradley was situated in New York and enjoying the fame of a successful lawyer, whereas Nancy Featherstone was his wife and key to success.

And Al was at last realizing his aspirations as Editor-in-chief of the Pathfinder, exhibiting news throughout the United States, and all over the world under his supervision.

Rippy, dear old Rippy, now the Dean of Women at the University of Kentucky, was laboring hard to attain the height of dignity in order that she might better cope with the whims of the young ladies of the institution.

Spotty Ott, so Carrie told me, had been floor walker in Sears Roebuck's great bargain store for some years, and had grown to cherish his establishment next to his wife, Josephine.

THE MOHIAN

Marcia, little old energetic Marcia, was situated in a Chicago conservatory as instructor in music, while another prominent member of our class, John Sutton, was experiencing great fame in his new invention, which proved that a man in New York could have his trousers pressed in New Orleans by Radio, and receive them in fifteen minutes.

Mitchy, Dorothy, and Irene were located at Louisville in Keith's vodvil and were gaining much renown as Grecian toe dancers, while Boo, was president of Charity Workers Association in California, at this time financing the erection of a twenty-five thousand dollar orphan's home.

John Bullock had sailed to Halifax just recently to establish himself as teacher of Bugology, and Burnley our great class orator, was traveling for the Juicy Fruit Chewing Gum Corporation, both of them meeting with success.

Janet McVey, so I heard, was sojourning in Egypt, studying inscriptions etc., and Betty the class beauty, had been united by the bonds of matrimony some time before, and was located now at Pisgah, Kentucky.

Archie was dancing master and had lately given an exhibition in Marigold gardens. The new step he introduced is known as the Naughty Fling in which the right foot features foremost, and seemed to have made quite a hit among the younger folk of Chicago.

Christine Shouse had made herself prominent, by the late publication of twelve volumes entitled "Proper Manners For All Occasions," While Bony was engaged in staging acrobatic stunts, his last feat displaying unusual dexterity in that he could balance himself on his left ear for thirty seconds.

Hal and Gus, according to an uncertain report were playing the stock market in New York, and were happily married, while Talbert and Bernie had contented themselves with farm life, and the cultivation of beans.

Lawrence was at the head of the Marinelli Beauty Shop in Chicago, and had attained quite a little fortune, and Ham was commandeering a detective force in New York, according to a recent report.

Last, but not least, we heard that Jack Pates, our serious thinker and day dreamer, was revoking the theories established on "Pleides and Hyades."

With some disappointment and heart ache we reviewed the last history of our distinguished class members. When the fond reminiscences of these friends crowded my mind, and I realized the success the "Lucky Twenty Eight" had known, I utterly wept with joy and gratitude for the uplifting influence and knowledge which, through the unceasing labor and impending rules of the Model Hi faculty, had led us to celebrity.

Vanity Fair

Vanity Fair

The most beautiful object in the world, it will be allowed, is a beautiful woman.

In every annual there is always a special place set apart for the most esteemed and influential personalities that have featured in school life. In fact no annual would be complete without the distinct prominence of the sponsors of beauty and the distinguished representatives of its institution.

I would that I had the power of presenting with the brevity necessary for a sketch like this, a worthy note of introduction due six charming Kentucky belles who by their fascinating manners have won for themselves lasting admiration.

What pleasant memories will be ours in years to come when we look back in proud and loving retrospection over the pages of this book and still gaze into the faces of those, who in our cherished society, by their dignity and loveliness helped us realize our aspirations.

The chronicles of all ages record that woman's beauty and nobility have ever influenced men, and leaders of men, whether for good or evil, and until the end of time will they remain captives to these magnetic charms.

Alumni Notes

Model graduated her second Senior Class on June 10, 1921. It was a class of "twenty one" all good fellows, while the first graduating class had only three members.

The three members that graduated in the class of '20 are:

Elizabeth Vaught, who is attending Ward Belmont College in Tennessee.

William Shelby, has entered the University of Kentucky; and is very popular.

Dan Bowmar is also attending State and is taking a Journalism course.

The Class of '22 was a good Class and we still have quite a number of the members close to us at State.

Emmett Bradley, is attending State and is the Sport Editor of the "Kernel." He is well liked and is taking a Journalism course.

Mrs. Charles Walters, formally Margaret Smith, is living in Charlotte Virginia. Margaret entered the matrimonial state in October and we miss her very much.

Herman Michler is also attending the University and is enrolled in the College of Arts and Science.

Helen Wells is enrolled in State in the College of Arts and Science.

Melborne Mills, is a bright student at State, and is a thriving freshman engineer.

Dorothy Monroe, is attending State and is a shark in Psychology.

Rollin Curtis, is taking an A. B. course at State.

Elizabeth Greathouse was the mathematician of the class so she is majoring in Mathematics at State.

Tom Berry is enrolled in State as a student in the College of Arts and Science.

Edward Anglin, is trying out Industrial Chemistry at State and is also a member of the band.

Jeanette Lampert is enrolled in the College of Arts and Science and is a valued member of the orchestra.

Maurice Buckles is trying out a Pre-Medical course at State and seems to be doing well. "Buck" is also a member of the band.

John Webb is also one of the engineers at State. His Ford is still running and gets him to school usually in time for his third hour class.

Louise Smedly is taking a Domestic Science course at her home in Nashville Tennessee.

Holman Wilson is attending State, and is taking A. B. work.

George Michler another Freshman engineer is attending the U. of K.

Mrs. Beckham Stivers, nee Louise Foster is another of our class mates who married. They live in Lexington, and we see her quite often and she is mighty proud of Model High.

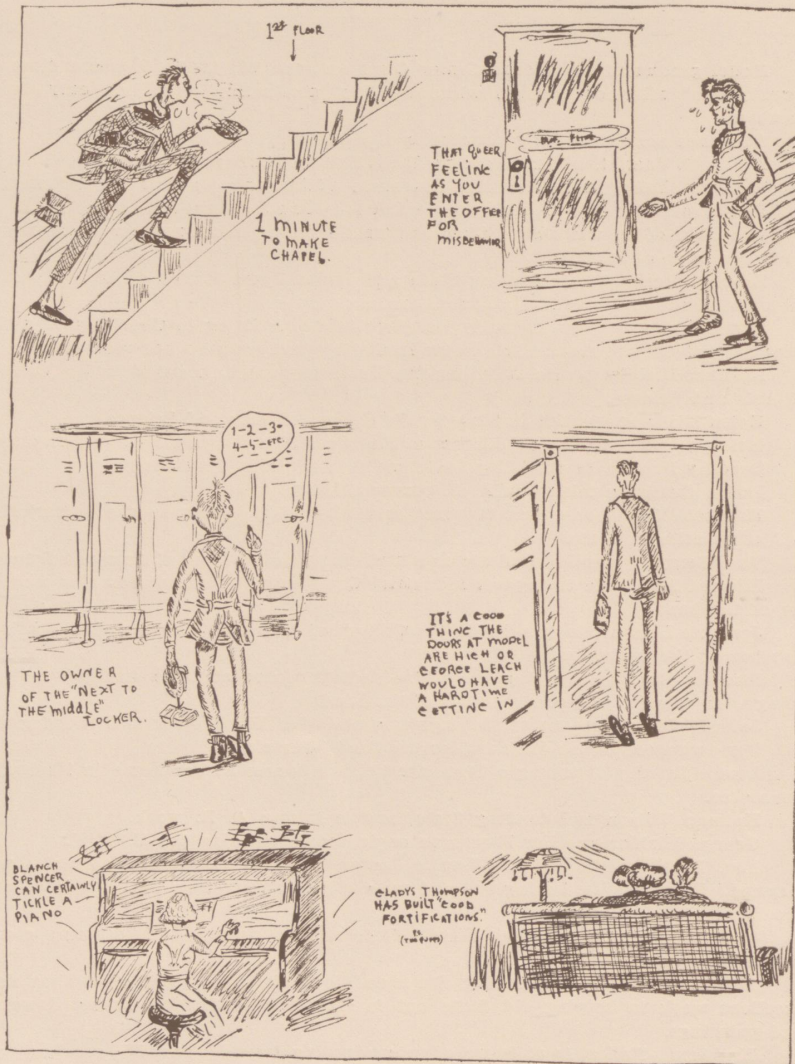

George Graves is attending Illinois State at Champaign and is taking a course in Business Administration.

Thomas Fennell is attending State and is majoring in Art. Tom has done excellent work in helping old State out in Dramatic production by his drawings and paintings.

Katherine Fuller, is at home after graduating from Model. We see her quite often and she is a frequent visitor at Model.

Frank McVey is attending the University of Michigan, at Ann Arbor, and is taking a course under the College of Arts and Science.

OFFICIAL PAPER OF KENTUCKY

Issued Whenever Thought Necessary

Archie Schular—Editor-in-chief

Blanche Spencer—Assistant Editor

Shorty—Janitor

M. H. S.

Miss. Karrick—"Ham, can you write some original poetry?"
Ham—"Yes'm."

The devil flew from North to South with Joe Bradley in his mouth.
But when he found he was a fool, he dropped him off at Model High School.

M. H. S.

Bernie—"May I have a no-break?"
Blanche—"Most assuredly; you may have number fourteen."
Bernie—"Thanks, but I will be gone by that time."
Blanche—"So will I."

M. H. S.

Clifford—"I certainly enjoyed that dance."
Miss. Hays—"I'm so glad; I feel now that I lost these slippers in a good cause."

M. H. S.

Saving Him Pain—Bernie to His Dad. "Papa, can you sign your name with your eyes shut?"
Mr. Reynolds—"Certainly."
Bernie—"Well, then, shut your eyes and sign my report card."

M. H. S.

Joe to Boney—"What an awful gash you have in your forehead."
"Oh, next to nothing-next to nothing."

Black Wolf's Last Howl

From Lone Star State came Texas Slim
And Jack the Katydid
With Lonesome Lou from Kalamozoo
Came the San Diego Kid.

And Denver Dan and Boston Red
Blew in with Hell Fire Jack
And Andy Lang from the Lake Shore Gang
Big Mac from Mackinack.

I saw some boys I never met
A guy called New York Spike
Con the Sneak from Battle Creek
And Mississippi Ike.

Old New York Bill dressed like a duke
Shook hands with Frisco Fred
And Half-Breed Joe from Mexico
Shot "craps" with Eastport Ed.

Buck the Lucky from Old Kentucky
And Bill the Two Gun Man
Long Tom Brate from the Hoosier State
And Also Fancy Dan.

Silk Shirt Phil from Pittsburg
And Pete the cactus fed
Bad Mike Lavine from the State of Maine
And the Battling 'Frisco Ted.

M. H. S.

Dillon describing his girl.
Dillon—"Her teeth are like stars."
Al—"Why?"
Dillon—"They come out every night."

M. H. S.

Betty—"No, when I marry I want a man who is game from head to foot."
Joe—"Well, give me a chance; I've got a game leg already."

Gladys—"Did that bell mean class?"
Carrie—"That's what it said."
Hopkins—"You mean that's what it tolled."

M. H. S.

Doctor (to Mandt)—"It's nothing to worry about—just a boil on the back of your neck. But you must keep your eye on it."

M. H. S.

This poem was written in 1859 during the famous feud on Berkley Coast between "Smoky Sol" and the black wolf, Sol being somewhat of a poet describes the getting of his gang in this way:

M. H. S.

Taken from "Sol" Rice's famosu poem,
"The Black Wolf's Last Howl."

M. H. S.

Berry—"Do you think you could care for a chap like me?"
Carrie—"Oh, yes, I think so—if he wasn't too much like you."

M. H. S.

Blanche—"What makes the leaves turn red in the fall?"
Gus—"They are blushing to think how green they have been all summer."

M. H. S.

Ham—"Why was the corn shocked?"
Mitchy—"I don't Know, do you?"
Ham—"It saw the trees' in their bare limbs."

M. H. S.

"Boo"—"Rollie was the goal of my ambitions, but—"
Dot—"But what?"
"Boo"—"Father kicked the goal."

M. H. S.

The Telephone Monologue—

I am a telephone. While I am not broke, I am in the hands of a receiver. I have a mouthpiece, but unlike a woman I never use it. Fellows use me to make dates with girls and girls use me to break said dates. Husbands call their wives over me and wives call their husbands down over me. I never get to call anywhere, but sometimes the company comes to take me out. I am not a bee, but I often buzz. I am the "Bell" of the town, and while I do not get jewelry, I often get rings.

Nutology

I saw a gum drop on the street;
I saw a side walk without feet.

I heard a birch bark in the park;
I saw a moon light up the dark.

I saw a lamp post lots of mail;
And saw an air brake out of jail.

I saw a shoe that lost it's sole;
Where doughnuts came out hole.

I saw a cowslip on some peels;
And watched O'Sullivan Rubber Heels.

I saw a house fly off one day
And I think the chimney flew away.

I saw a tropical clime a tree
And felt the night fall down on me.

I saw Dickens turn Oliver Twist;
In deed there's little that I've missed.

Except one very peculiar thing;
I've never heard a wedding ring.

Just Imagine If You Can-

Al being untidy—
Betty not stringing people—
Gus not always cheerful—
Carrie not grinning—
Taly never dancing—
Blanche not cutting classes—
Jack not in love—
Christine being lazy—
Burnley not starrng—
Mitthy not sarcastic—
Bernie ambitious—
Janet sophisticated—
John Bullock not studios—

Nancy Beard being selfish—
Ham never reading Snappy Stories
Gladys without "puffs—
Bony in spectacles—
Catherine Smith skinny—
Clifford being serious—
Josephine being fat—
Hal being stupid—
"Dot" unattractive—
Joe without red-hair—
"Boo" undignified—
George being short—

The Electric Woman

When she talks too long—interrupter.
If her way of thinking is not yours—converter.
If she's willing to come half way—meeter.
If she wants to go farther—conductor.
If she wants to go still farther—dispatcher.
If she wants to be an angel—transformer.
When she is sulky and will not speak—exciter.
If she gets too excited—controler.
If she proves your fears are wrong—compensater.
If she goes up in the air—condenser.
If she wants chocolates—feeder.
If she sings false—tuner.
If she is in the country—telegrapher.

THE CADET

M. H. S.

Benham—"I asked if I could see her home."
Chester—"What did she say?"
Benham—"She said she woud send me a picture of it."

M. H. S.

Prof.—"Can you find for me the area of a triangle?"
Sims—"Aw! you can never remember where you put things."

M. H. S.

Hal—"Foot-ball is a rough game."
Gladys—"Do boys get killed very often in the game?"
Hal—"No, dear, only once."

M. H. S.

Miss Karrick—"Have you read Wordsworth?"
Bony—"Yes, great stuff. Lets see now, who wrote that?"

M. H. S.

Some say Webster got his vocabulary listening to men who were shaving with cold water.

M. H. S.

Mr. Fitch—"Who was Cyclos?"
Michy—"Oh! he's the guy that wrote the encyclopedia."

School Dictionary

Class Meeting—A collision of thoughts, resulting in spontaneous combustion, "with untoward results."

Class Picture—A beautiful work of art, portraying faithfully, the marvelous beauty of its subjects.

Yells—A series of Rah Rahs, and Yaw Yaws—An extract from the inmates of Lakeland Insane Asylum.

Flunk—Failure of a student to answer a teacher's question almost too frequently remarked upon.

Borrow—A form of expression requesting the loan of an instrument for time and eternity.

Quiz—That which the teachers enjoy and the students detest.

To Cut—Unnecessary absence from class.

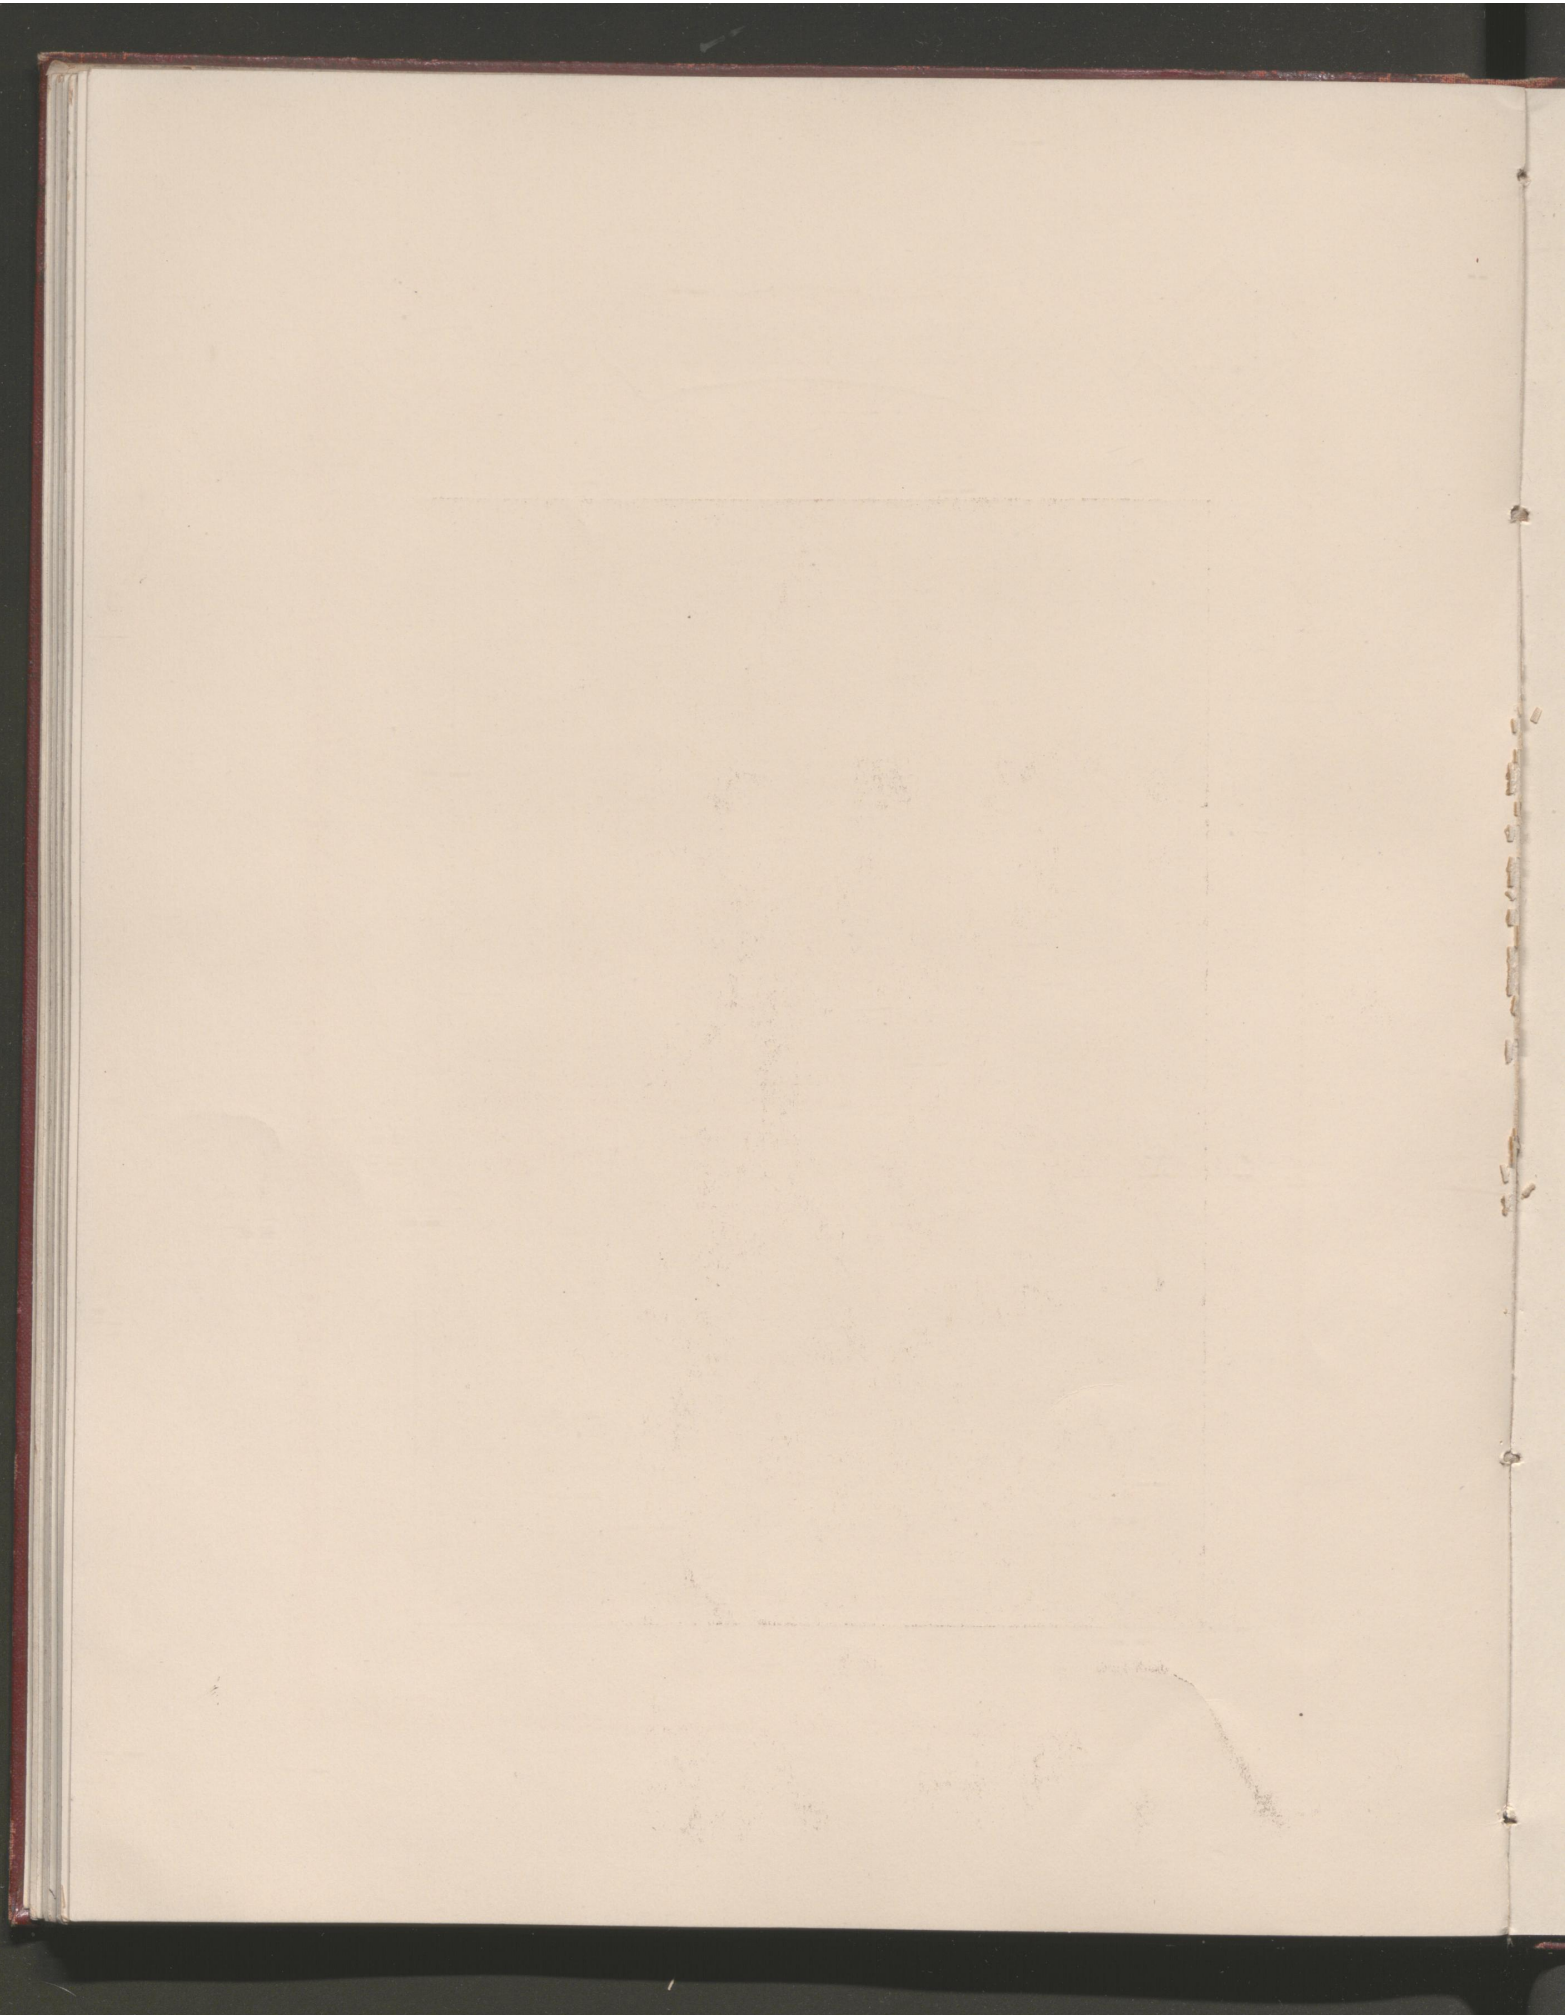

Swipe—A comprehensive term, which seems a convenient alley-way for conscience.

Study Hall—A poor place to study for the next recitation.

Pony—An aged adjunct of the institution—Well groomed but twice a year, but active and hard to catch.

IN SELECTING A UNIVERSITY

For a college education there are five things to be taken into consideration:

1. The men at the head of the Institution.
2. The scholastic standing and ability of the teaching staff.
3. The location and advantages of environment.
4. Equipment, buildings, laboratories and libraries.
5. Cost.

In all these respects the University of Kentucky commends itself to those seeking a higher institution in which to carry on their education.

All departments, including Liberal Arts, Sciences, Agriculture, Law, Education, Mining, Civil, Electrical and Mechanical Engineering.

The Government needs trained men and women; college training will bring the result.

Home, Home, Sweet, Sweet Home

A century has come and gone since our sentimental consul to Northern Africa sent his soul into these lines;

"An exile from home, splendor dazzles in vain,
Oh, give me my lowly thatched cottage again,
The birds singing gaily that come to my call,
Give me them and that peace of mine dearer than all.
Home, home, sweet, sweet home:
There's no place like home:"
