Honors Day Program Is Presented Jan. 16

Masque and Gavel

Initiates into the National Masque and Gavel for the first semester were Dudley Milward, Ernie Clarke, Lady Greenslit, Bethania Smith and Charley Turnbull. Masque and Gavel recognizes those students who excel in speech for use.

Already members of Masque and Gavel are Joe Curry, Bradley Switzer, John Howard Williams, Lindsay Nunn, Kitty Craig, Bob Sprague and Freda Grace Miller. Masque and Gavel will soon begin to plan for its spring Talent Show.

Double Trio

Try-outs for double trio were held two weeks ago after school. The Little Choir and Mrs. Fred Osborne selected the new members.

The sopranos are: Mary Frances Moore and Ruth Gaitskill. The second sopranos are: Virginia Prewitt and Puddin Newbury. The a'tos are: Lady Greenslit and Shelia Hargett.

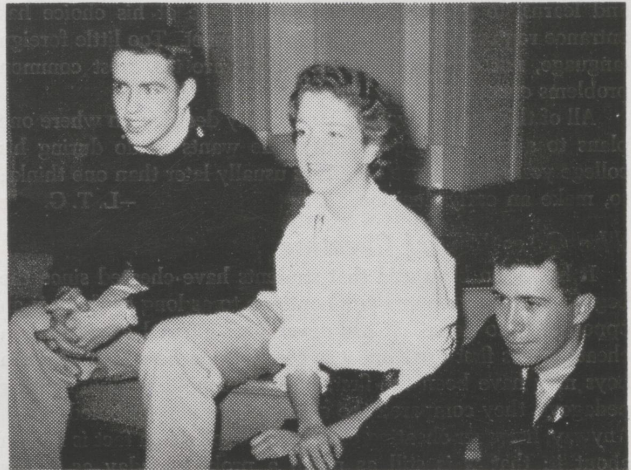

The Double Trio plans on doing one number in the Festival this year and two songs on the Spring Program.

Initiates into Masque and Gavel: Charley Turnbull, Ernie Clarke, Lady Greenslit, Bethania Smith and Dudley Milward

Initiates into Beta Club: Charley Turnbull, Chuck Maxson, Bill Combs, Virginia Prewitt, Malinda Clay, Helen Warren, Elsie Barr, Sara Byers, Lady Greenslit, Shelia Hargett, Freda Miller and Helen Hamilton.

Initiates into National Honor Society: Lanny Cox, Lindsay Nunn and Bradley Switzer.

Beta Club

On January 16, 1958, the U-High Beta Club tapped and initiated its twelve new members during the first semester Honors Day program held in the auditorium.

The new members are as follows: Elsie Barr, Sara Jane Byers, Malinda Clay, Bill Combs, Lady Greenslit, Helen Hamilton, Shelia Hargett, Chuck Maxson, Freda Miller, Virginia Prewitt, Charlie Turnbull.

National Honor Society

Each year on the first semester Honors Day, ten per cent of the senior class are eligible for membership to National Honor Society. These people have to be in the upper fourth of the class and are chosen on scholarship, leadership, character, and service. We want to congratulate the three new members, Lanny Cox, Bradley Switzer, and Lindsay Nunn for being elected.

Newly elected members of the Double Trio: Mary Frances Moore, Ruth Gaitskill, Puddin Newbury, Virginia Prewitt, Shelia Hargett, and Lady Greenslit.

College Preparatory

I am sure that the Seniors realize the importance of college preparation in advance but do the lower-classmen?

College preparation means choosing the subjects and activities which will be the most useful to one during his college life. This means that the earlier one decides which college he is going to attend and the curriculum he intends to study, the better opportunity he will have to spend his high school years in sound preparation.

Too often a student reaches his senior year in High School and learns, to his sorrow, that the college of his choice has entrance requirements which he cannot meet. Too little foreign language, not enough math or science are the most common problems encountered.

All of this can be avoided by an early decision on where one plans to attend college and what he wants to do during his college years and future life. It is usually later than one thinks; so, make an early decision.

The Question Of Cheating

It has often been said that students have cheated since the beginning of schools and will continue to as long as there is an opportunity to do so. It has never been proved exactly when cheating was first used but it is certainly no new idea. Roman boys may have been the first, when successfully eluding their pedagogs, they compared the answers on their scribbled slates. Anyway, however cheating originated, one certain fact is known about it; that it is still as much a problem today as it has ever been, and perhaps more.

Let us look at cheating from an objective viewpoint. What purposes does it serve? Is its chief service only that of getting something for nothing, or is there another hidden deeper meaning behind it? Is there a social concept of acceptance pushing it on? Does a person feel that to be accepted, he must conform to the standards of others, even if they disagree with his own code of morals? Then, again, a person may have discovered that cheating is just a part of school life, and may truly see nothing wrong in it. He may see it as the easiest path to a goal. And is he wrong? Has it ever been proved that knowledge taken from a source other than your own does not remain with you as long as knowledge that is unquestionably your own?

Let us look at the person that is constantly motivated toward achievements that he is not capable of reaching. Doesn't he have an excuse to "borrow" what he cannot attain himself? And if he doesn't, what can be the solution to his problem? Cheating is considered by some to be a constant vicious circle. And that is true, for when a person becomes entangled in the web of cheating, it soon becomes almost impossible to set himself free. What then is the cause and the answer to this growing problem? It can not easily be found.

Trip To Europe

The Lexington Womans Club will have tours during K.E.A. vacation to places of educational interest in the state, and will again have a student tour to Europe. Mrs. R. B. Reed, manager of the tours, took twenty-three people to ten countries last year.

Dr. Webb, of the University of Kentucky History Department, will accompany this group. Credit of six hours of European history will be received and can be transferred to any college.

Y-Teen Swimming Meet

On January 16, the Y-Teens held their first swimming team practice at the YMCA. Practices were held on Friday, January 24, and Monday, January 27. Other practices will be held on January 30, February 3 and 5. The meet will be on February 6, at the YWCA. Lafayette and Henry Clay Y-Teens will also compete.

Some of the events are: diving, underwater swimming, freestyle for speed, breast stroke, butterfly and elementary backstroke for speed, and side-stroke for form.

The Talking Radiators

Not the least of our advantages as students of our esteemed home of learning is the chance to become acquainted with some of the most personable radiators in the city. For the first winter in years, the University maintenance staff has discovered that the radiators are capable of putting forth some heat during the coldest days, not much heat, but some. It was previously thought the machines could only function in the summer months, and they were put to vigorous use at that time. The University is to be commended for this observation. The radiators that deign to work are of a most unique nature. Not content merely to stand in stony silence, they communicate with each other in a glorious cacophony of varied clanks and bangs.

There is at least one radiator which even has its own private ghost. This ghost's sole purpose is to run an imaginary stick along the corrugated surface of the radiator. This produces a not-so-imaginary noise. Another, has a voice like gravel being shaken around in a coffee can. The rest of the clamor is no doubt provided by some good soul who situates himself in the basement and raps gently on the pipes with a sledge hammer.

With a little perseverance you will find that you can come to understand the language spoken by our friendly little heating system. Learn to do so, for listening to a stimulating radiator conversation will prove to be an intriguing diversion in class.

Valentine's Day

Saint Valentine's Day was named after not one, but three saints. They were all three martyrs and their feast days happened to fall at about the same time. There was also a pagan festival on February 15. The most famous Saint Valentine was a Roman Priest and doctor who was beheaded about the year 269 A.D. He is regarded as the patron saint of unhappy lovers. The second martyr, beheaded in 273 A.D., was also a Roman bishop. The little-known third saint was from Africa.

Many customs have grown up around Valentine's Day. One practice was that of drawing lots to pair off young men and women who would be each others "Valentines" for a year. Sometimes these couples would be married. In the United States, cards, flowers, and candy, are occasionally given on Valentines Day. Great Britain does not particularly observe the holiday; in fact, it is generally reserved to the children in the United States.

Clues To Mystery Baby

Very considerate of others and always has a smile on face. Quite popular with a certain six girls. Good sense of humor. Teaches lower grades. We hope this faculty member will stay with us a long time. (Last Issue's Mystery Baby—Miss Roser.)

Going Steady

The Parent-Teacher Association sponsored a panel discussion given at school on the much-discussed problem of "Going Steady."

Bob Sprague, Ernest Clarke, Lindsay Nunn, all students of U-High, and Mary Bailey Fitts, a former student of U-High and now a sophomore at UK, were the panel members. They brought out all the pros and cons of "Going Steady."

The argument against "Going Steady," first was, that sometimes it is an outlet for a person being sure of having a date all the time, and that is one problem of the teenage girl. Secondly, after a couple breaks up, it is very hard to get back into circulation, socially. This is easier in most cases for the boy because socially he can be more aggressive than the girl. The girl is supposed to be more passive and receptive, so that she has less opportunity to make up for the lack of contacts which she has suffered while confining her activities for a boy.

The argument for "Going Steady" was first, it is a good preparation for marriage, if a couple believes that they are really in love, and that some day they will be married. "Going Steady" helps you to know a person's likes and dislikes, and his or her habits.

Exchange

My Creed
I want to live with myself and so I want to be fit for myself to know;
I want to be able as the days go by Always to look myself straight in the eye.
I don't want to stand with the setting sun
And hate myself for the things I've done.
I want to go out with my head erect.
I want to deserve all men's respect. But here in the struggle for fame and self,
I want to be able to like myself and know
That I'm not all bluster and bluff and an empty show.
I never can hide myself from me; I see what others may never see; I know what others may never know—
I never can fool myself—and so Whatever happens, I want to be Self-respecting and conscience-free.

Senior High Peek-A-Boo

Yes, many, many things have happened since we left school for Christmas holidays!

We have a new romance in the Senior class. The darling couple is Lanny and Lady. We are all very happy for them both.

News from Junior Class! Bethania and Bill, and Dudley and Jim both seem to be hitting it off very well. But! what's this between Mary Elizabeth and Mike?

If anyone wants to really be entertained, go find Lindsay and persuade her to talk about New Year's Eve in the windy city. You sure are in for a treat!

Pegsie and Lucy have a new crush! The only trouble seems to stem from the fact that it's on the same boy! What next?

Both Carolyns are On Cloud No. 7 now, one with Chuck, and the other with Ernie. They're both great guys, so hang on to them!

There's a familiar face around the halls every afternoon about two o'clock. What's the reason for all this, Martha? Could it be one of the senior boys again?

Last, but not least, go the congratulations to the long lasting couples! These are Puddin' and Bill, Bradley and Helen, Charlotte and Bill, Shelia and Pat, and Ma-linda and Whit.

PERSONALITY PARADE

JOHN HOWARD WILLIAMS and PERRY PATTERSON

John Howard Williams has been going to U-Hi since kindergarten. He is well liked by everyone which is shown by the number of organizations he is in. He is a member of the Beta Club, Masque and Gavel, Glee Club, Pep Club, and the boys singing group.

John Howard is very active in sports. He likes baseball, basketball, and swimming. He was a catcher on last year's baseball team where he proved he has a lot of ability.

He has reached heights in the field of journalism this year by being elected Sports Editor of the U-Hi Lights.

He is a lot of fun but he is also a very good worker. Whenever the school needs somebody to sell peanuts or apples John Howard is one who always helps.

John Howard is an active member of the band where he was elected president.

He also holds an office in the Masque and Gavel club as treasurer. John Howard is very interested in his church and takes part in the youth groups. He plans to attend Transylvania College where he will study for the ministry.

One of his hobbies is collecting records. He likes records by Pat Boone, Sam Cooke, and Jimmy Rodgers.

John Howard has interests in many girls. One of whom is a sophomore and well known to all.

John Howard is a great guy, friend to everybody, and always a lot of fun.

Ann Perry Patterson, hailed to us three years ago from Morton Junior High, has been a valuable member of her class ever since.

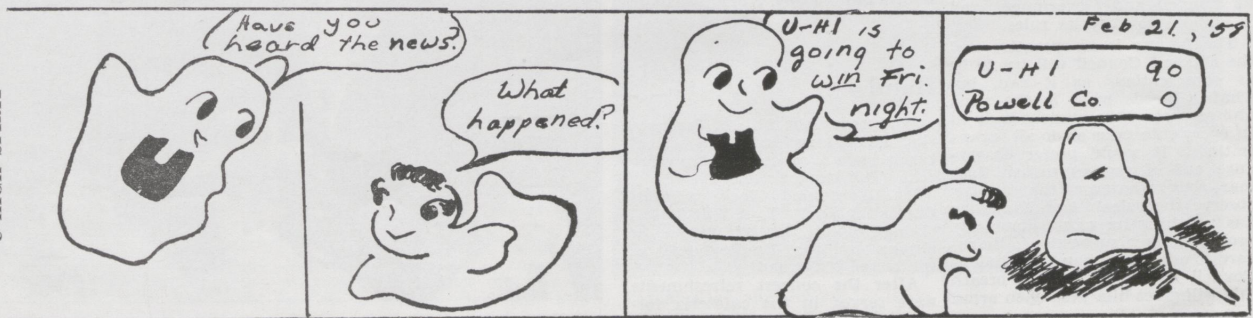

Perry has always been known to be a hard worker who sticks to the job. She holds some very important offices this year, such as: president of Y-Teens, and president of the National Honor Society. Among her other activities are: Glee Club, Pep Club, Beta Club and Student Government representative for the Senior Class. She is the recipient of the D.A.R. Good Citizenship Award and also a member of the Senior Play cast. Last year Perry was secretary-treasurer of the Glee Club and treasurer of the Band. In addition to these she is Exchange Editor for the U-Hi Lights.

Perry is very much interested in Chemistry as she hopes to become a doctor. Her preferences for college are Baylor and Duke. We know whatever she does and wherever she goes she will make good.

Perry's pet peeve is unorganized people. One of her favorite past-times is riding. "Pere" has several nicknames, two of which are: "Pee-ri" and "Miss N.H.S.D.A.R. P.B.R.V." Her favorite color is blue. She loves ketchup on everything, especially French fried onion rings from Lawrences'.

Besides having a high scholastic standing, Perry is very well liked by her classmates. A statement that one might hear about her is: "She is one of the nicest and most sincere girls I have ever known."

U-HIGH SPIRIT

Student Council

The Student Council of University High School is an organization created to give the student experience in governmental procedure as well as to promote the general welfare of the school. It has but two powers according to its constitution. First and foremost is its policy-making power. This is its power to make any needful rules and regulations concerning the school, subject to faculty approval, of course. This, however, is rarely used. It has been used once so far this year. It became necessary to publish regulations concerning conduct and procedure in the cafeteria. Its other constitutional power, definitely linked with the first, is to hear the grievances of the student body and try to correct them. I am not sure that the student body realizes its privilege to come to the Student Council with a problem for never has a person come to us, but we are always there ready.

Through the years and out of necessity for something to do, the Student Council has broadened these powers so that it now takes on other projects and activities. It is now an annual affair for the Student Council to put on the barbecue at the first of the year, to acquaint the new students with the old. Also it is becoming traditional for the Student Council to put on the carnival in the spring as this will be the second year it has done so. As another project it took on a clothing drive for the Save the Children Federation, but due to shipping difficulties the clothes have not yet reached their destination. This will be taken care of.

A good question which is often discussed at Student Council conventions is whether or not the Student Council is effective in school. There are a few necessary qualities for an effective Council. One is a conscientious Council body—one that enjoys or at least is willing and able to do its duty. This means that each and every member must be desirous of working for the Council and for the school. Another is a co-operative faculty that will pass Council suggestions and desires whenever it is at all possible. This gives the student body confidence in its own organization. This, of course, must stem from a trustworthy Council—one that does not ask unreasonable favors or charges of the faculty. A third is a co-operative student body—one that respects its Council and Government and is anxious to obey its rules.

The faculty is co-operative and the Student Council will try to be as conscientious as it can, but what it needs most is the trust and respect of the student body in its every enterprise as do all organizations. It would prefer observance out of respect rather than fear, but whatever the motive, observe the rules! And if anyone has anything he wants done, any problems, any suggestions, in regard to administration, his Student Council awaits with bated breath and will greet him with open arms.

Little Choir

The Little Choir has selected the songs which the members will perform for the music festival and the spring program. Several light numbers have been chosen, and invitations have been received by the Little Choir for various performances.

Paris Group

Various high schools all over Kentucky are going to take part in singing in Paris, Ky., on Feb. 15, 1958.

U-Hi has a very large group going to Paris and they are the following: Sopranos: Susan Steele, Mary F. Moore, Ruth Gaitskill, Margaret Ann Wyse, Virginia Prewitt, Puddin Newbury; Altos: Jeanie Rich, Nancy Cowden, Lady Greenslit, Shelia Hargett, and Betty Evans; Boys are: Lanny Cox, William Yousey, Allen Tolman, Bradley Switzer, Ernie Clarke, Sammy Adams, Charlie Turnbull, Mike Flynn, and John Howard Williams.

Double Quartet

At the first of the year Mrs. Osborne organized a quartet. It consisted of Susan Steele, Shelia Hargett, Ernie Clark, and Lanny Cox. It was decided that it would be a little more successful if four more members were added so more difficult songs could be done.

The four new people that were added are: Ruth Gaitskill, Lady Greenslit, Bradley Switzer, and William Yousey.

Boy's Group

There is in this school, a very fine group of miscellaneous male singers. This group is more commonly known as The Boy's Group. There are 13 members in this organization. This year the group will sing in the Regional and State Music Festivals as well as the Spring Music Program here at school. This year the Boy's Group will again sing the popular "Dry Bones" as well as several other selections on the spring program.

Band

Wednesday the 28th of January, the elementary and high school bands gave a concert for the parents. The band played "Pavanne," "The Syncopated Clock," "Hands Across the Sea," "To A Wild Rose," "Come Sweet Death" and as a closing number Bradley Switzer conducted "Myrmadon."

After the concert refreshments were served in the cafeteria followed by a meeting for the parents.

Y-Teen Dance

The Y-Teens of U-Hi are again planning their annual Y-Teen Dance. This dance is planned for the night of the first of March. It is to be given at the YWCA from 7:30 til 10:30 in their auditorium. This year's dance is to be a Burmuda Ball, and the theme is to be a surprise.

During the coming Y-Teen Dance, a Y-Teen King shall be crowned. There will also be a court composed of five couples in all.

The music for this dance will be provided either by records or a small band from UK.

To help organize the dance, a decoration committee has been chosen with Pegsie Lisle as chairman.

Speech Class Plays

The Speech Class gave two one-act plays in convocation Friday, January 31.

"Three on a Bench," one of the plays, was an hilarious comedy. The characters were: Mrs. Moore—Bethania Smith, Harry—Charley Turnbull, Betty—Mary Elizabeth Wylie and Officer Callahan—Tim Hanson.

It was an excellent play, immensely enjoyed by the audience.

"Fog on the Valley" was a serious drama. The characters were: Sara—Susan Steele, Reverend Hawkins—John Kaltenbrun, Judith—Rae Reed, Clem—Bill Bryan, Cathy—Dudley Milward, and Norman—Tommy Adams.

Cast of "Three on a Bench"

Fashions

After first semester exams, students begin looking forward to spring. Girls, especially, await the new spring fashions, which are shown in the magazines and stores.

The newest and most extreme style is the chemise, or "sack" dress. The girls who are going to France this summer should keep this dress in mind when planning their travel wardrobe because it is easy to pack. Another style which promises to be popular this year as well as last year is the overblouse. The practical shirt dress is back again this year also in dacron, cotton prints and oxford cloth.

Flower prints are a refreshing new style not only in the dress department, but also in the sportswear department. For a very feminine outfit, select Bermuda shorts in a flower print with a matching blouse. If you are the sporty type, the ever popular checks and plaids will suit your taste.

The time for scanning magazines and visiting stores in search of a dress for the Sophomore Dance and the Junior Prom is not far away. Remember that net is not the only material for a formal, and that organdy is just as pretty. Lovely formals can be found in the fabrics of chiffon and taffeta also.

Awarded trophies for senior play: Ernie Clarke, best supporting actor; best supporting actress, Lady Greenslit; best actress, Lindsay Nunn; best actor, Bradley Switzer.

Trip To France

Mrs. Eleanor Evans is taking a group of 40 high school students to Deauville, France. The trip is in acceptance to the Mayor of Deauville's invitation. Monsieur le Mayor Robert Fossorier visited Lexington in October in connection with the twinning of Lexington and Deauville.

The students will be housed in dormitories. The price will be about $2.00 a day plus "first-rate instructions" in French and other subjects, if wanted, recreation and all costs of room and board.

The price of the whole trip, including passage, will be $600. This price will include a trip to Paris, France, a trip to St. Michel, famous French Monastery, and to the city of Rouen, famous for its cathedral. The students will have bicycle trips to neighboring French country sides and swimming in the English Channel. Credit will be given to the students and time taken out each day for instruction.

The chaperons for the trip are Dr. and Mrs. C. H. Evans, both teachers of French. Dr. Evans teaches at the University and Mrs. Evans at University High. Both Dr. and Mrs. Evans have resided in France.

Students will leave Lexington June 22, and board ship June 23, in New York City. They will anchor about five days later in Le Harve, France, just across the Bay from Deauville. The boat homeward will leave Rotterdam, Holland, approximately August 1, and anchor in New York August 9.

Mrs. Evans on Radio

Sunday, January 12, Mrs. Eleanor Evans and Mrs. Wagers were on WLEX Radio.

Mrs. Wagers spoke about the twinning of Deauville and Lexington, and told how the idea for a trip to France originated. Mrs. Evans spoke about the trip itself.

Freshman Sayings

- Betty—"I get all my clothes from Dallas!"
- Susanne—"Why won't she let Wm. and I sit together?"
- Melinda—"Guess what! Bradley called me five times yesterday!"
- Sam—"Of course I like Barbara. Quit pestering me!"
- Susan—"I'll have two Big Boys, an order of French Fries, and a milk shake."
- Coley—"That Betty makes me so mad!"
- Sammy—"Get that hair out of your eyes."
- Lee—"Is Bill here yet?"
- William—"Hey, Susanne, come here a minute."
- Glen—"Gee Dad!"
- Lloyd—"Girls are so stupid."
- Jack—"I'm going to win that bet, Lee."
- Johnny—"Oh, Miss Anderson, I'll sit over there by Andy."
- Sarah—"I couldn't get a ride."
- Barbara—"He plays for Catholic."
- Jessica—"I like the older boys."
- Bill—"Is Lee here yet?"

Peep-Eye

We want to pay tribute to some new couples. They are: Eloise and Clay, Sara and Coley, Barbara and Sam, Susanne and William, Lee and Bill T.

Congratulations to Pat, Malinda, and Anne for their basketballs! Jimmy S. has been making eyes at Jeanie Miles. Anyone know anything about it?

Betty has contracted the "Measles." It seems to be a contagious disease but strangely it only hits girls.

Heading the list of available boys is Robert Walker who is playing hard-to-get. Several Freshman girls think he is awfully cute.

The U. S. Weather Bureau predicts "Cooley" weather for Sara Thompson.

Buddy Bishop has his "Price." Eloise Cox has a sophomore admirer which leaves Shelby and Garland available.

Susanne has been uttering cries of "timber" lately.

Lee likes to catch all the "Bills" who come around. There are two more after her now.

Eighth Grade News

As a class project, the Eighth Grade took a trip to Frankfort January 23, 1958.

The first stop was at the Old Capitol where they saw the suit William Goebel was wearing at the time he was shot, several guns that had been used in different battles, and some old furniture that had been in the houses.

After visiting the Old Capitol, they visited the House of Representatives, the Senate, and last of all the Governor's Mansion where they were greeted by the governor. After this fulfilling trip, they boarded the bus for home.

—Jimmy Stapp

Seventh Grade News

The Seventh Grade Class went to Frankfort on January 21. The purpose of the trip was to learn more about Kentucky.

They visited the Old Capitol where they had a guide who showed them around.

From the Old Capitol the class went to the New Capitol. As they toured it, the guide told many interesting facts about it.

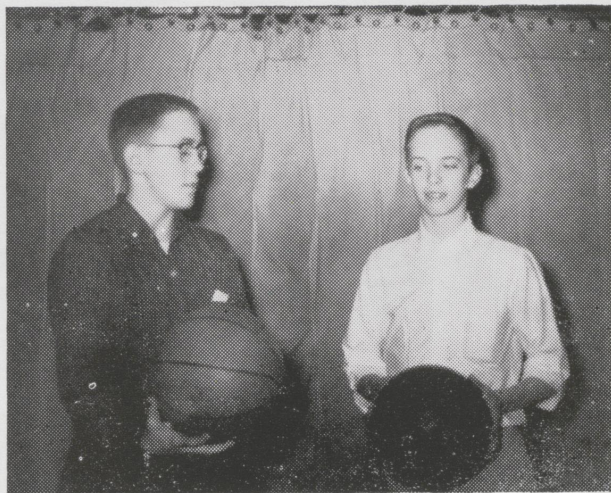

The Seventh Grade enjoyed their trip very much.

—Bari Lowenthal

Ninth Grade News

On January 28, 1958, the Ninth Grade elected new officers for the room. They had chosen earlier to have two sets of officers. The results were: William Wood, president; Coley Callaway, vice-president; Susan Hamilton, secretary; and Melinda Stivers, treasurer.

Captains of the University-High Junior High Basketball team are: Mike Cox and Frank Dickey.

The fifth and sixth games of the 1957-58 season ended with the Purples on the short end of the scoring column. In the fifth game the Purples faced the highly favored Walton-Verona but right from the first it looked as if the Purples meant business. They were ahead 14-11 at the first quarter, but after a poor second quarter were behind at the half 40-19. The second half showed real determination on the Purples team but the lead was too much to overtake, and the Purples lost 66-59. The top scorer was Lanny Cox with 19 points also Chuck Maxson with 13 points and Herky Rupp with 15 points. The sixth game was played against Georgetown and lost 51-41. The play by the Purples showed more and more that the Purples wanted to win.

The seventh game was to turn the tide; it was played on Friday the 13th and it was the first game on the new scoreboard, they had to win. And win they did, the Purples marched off the floor with a 50-40 victory over the Wilmore bears. It was through the efforts of the whole team that this victory took place and congratulations go to the coaches and boys. The game ended a 26-game losing journey for the Purples, the longest in the history of the school. High point man in this game was Lanny Cox with 16 points, the other 34 points were divided between: Rupp with 10, Clark with 6, Sprague with 1, Maxson with 12, and Switzer with 5. The Purples hit for a wonderful average of 67% in the game.

The Purples were downed by Nicholasville 53-32 on December 17, at a game played on Nicholasville's home court. The top scorer for the Purples was Chuck Maxson with 8 points. Athens followed Nicholasville to down the Purples 86-49 at Athens on January 8. The Purples' top scoring position was shared between captains, Lanny Cox and Herky Rupp.

The Purples bounced back after those two losses to win the most thrilling game of the Purples season that has been played. The Purples showed spirit and determination being downed 37-21 at the half and coming on in the second half to beat Midway. The Purples were down 19 points as they entered into the fourth period but the Purples couldn't loose spirit and the game being tied 63-63 with three seconds to go. Allen Tolman sunk a jump shot from about 20 feet to win it for the Purples, 65-63. The high scorer for the Purples in this game was Herky Rupp with 25 points.

The Purples were downed by Falmouth January 16, here at U-Hi 63-53. Falmouth was shown a real fight by the Purples with the high scorer for the Purples being Lanny Cox with 22 points, leading the attack.

The Catholic game played here at U-Hi showed real fight on the part of the Purples, having Catholic 17-8 at the first quarter. The Purples held the lead until the fourth quarter and then Catholic caught up and went ahead. Catholic won 67-58, with top scoring honors going to Herky Rupp. The Purples have won two games now and still have that spirit to win.

Pep Club

The Executive Board of the University High School Pep Club had a business meeting on Tuesday, January 28, 1958. The subject discussed was programs for the district and regional basketball tournaments to be held here during March. The subject also arose that we might sell programs for the state tournament. The Pep Club also decided to take on some project this semester. A letter was written to the Plug Horse Derby thanking them for their donation toward the purchase of the new scoreboard in the school gym.

PERSONALITY PARADE

HERKY RUPP and RAE REED

Adolph F. Rupp, Jr., better-known to his friends and classmates as Herky, has been at our school since the beginning of his school career. Herky came to us in the kindergarten and progressed rapidly, along with his classmates, through the elementary grades.

While in elementary school Herky began to grow to towering heights until now he stands at 6 feet 4½ inches. Herky has been using his height to a great advantage on the basketball court since his Junior High school days.

As a junior, Herky was one of the mainstays of the Purple quintet. This year, as a senior, Herky has improved greatly and is perhaps the greatest single factor in the Purples' improvement. Herky was last year, and again this year, one of the co-captains of the team.

Herky, among other things, is the president of our Student Government. He has conducted the affairs of this organization very ably.

Among Herky's possessions is a new 1958 Chevrolet Impala. This car may be seen most anytime around school and anyone who would like to have a demonstration ride is asked to contact the owner.

When asked about his idea of the perfect girl, Herky was very obstinate and refused to comment.

Mr. Gardner Speaks on Cultural Advantages

On December 23, during the half time of the Kentucky-Georgia Tech game, Mr. Gardner was interviewed by "Wah Wah" Jones, in one of a series of twelve half-time interviews, sponsored by the University of Kentucky to acquaint the student to campus life and activity. The subject discussed concerned the cultural advantages open to the student. The Community Concerts, Blazer Lecture Series, Guignol Theater and musical opportunities are a few that students may benefit from.

It is not enough to say that "we are fortunate to have had Rae Reed with us since kindergarten." She is an indispensable part of the Senior class and of U-High. She has been an industrious worker and a helpful participant in all undertakings of the class.

Rachel's dramatic career has been an illustrious one. In the fourth grade she took the part of an Indian in our portrayal of pioneer history in Kentucky. She played well the part of Miss "Delaware Water Gap" in the Senior play, and she was also in one of the speech class plays.

She also takes an active part in music. She is an outstanding member of the Glee Club, and a mainstay of the soprano section of Little Choir of which she is vice-president, and she also participated in the fall chorus at Memorial Hall.

As far as positions of responsibility are concerned she is circulation manager of the Annual and a member of the Convocation committee. Last year she was on the Social committee and was elected member of the Prom Court.

As far as Rae's personal life is concerned she seems to have more than one interest. We'll just say she likes them all tall, dark and handsome.

Rae's good nature and friendly smile are pleasing to everyone and her witty remarks keep one in stitches. People say about her: "Great Girl," "Loads of Personality," "Sweet as she can be."

Rae intends to go into nursing, and for this we wish her all the luck in the world. Rae is an all-around great girl and this school will certainly miss her when she graduates this spring.

Peanuts For Polio

The Peanuts For Polio Sale was held on January 12. U-Hi participated, under the organization of the Beta Club, in the sale, taking the area from Maxwell Street out South Lime. Numerous students sold in two shifts: from 9:30 to 12:30, in the morning, and 12:30 to 2:30 in the afternoon.
