ABBEY OF GETHSEMANI
TRAPPIST, KENTUCKY

Sept. 15, 1960

Dear Victor:

Thanks for your note. It was as I thought. And I have an added complication, but I think it will prove an agreeable one. The 24th is certainly all right, but a little after that there is a man from New Directions coming down, Bob MacGregor, who is, I believe, J's chief man there. He very much wants to meet you and I have told him I would try to persuade you to come over while he is here. He is coming on the 4th, and perhaps you would like to come over on the 5th or 6th. Can we plan on this? I know it will be in the middle of the week, but perhaps on this occasion we could make it. I am sorry Clay Lancaster has gone. Perhaps some other time.

Yes, do please bring over the Chinese book.

To Carolyn: many thanks for the Gandhi. I am very interested in it and will try to make good use of it. I think it is very important.

If I think of some other book I might need between now and then I will send word. Meanwhile I am excited to hear about the ~~proof~~ proofs. I have seen the page proofs of the Wisdom of the Desert from Mardersteig and it is going to be very fine, very clear and chaste, and perfectly in keeping with the tone you have set, though different. Very classical. I am sending copies of Jubilee one of which has my article on Herakleitos.

With very best wishes always, and God bless you,

Cordially in Christ
