Acknowledgement.

WE desire to express our gratitude to a generous public for a liberal patronage as well as for an indulgent patience in the issuance of this Directory.

When we commenced the work we promised a "correct" Directory, this, we have the consciousness of having given, at least in so far as human effort could accomplish.

Many unforeseen difficulties were met and overcome, but each consumed more or less time, thus delaying the work much longer than we had anticipated.

To our artist, Mr. Mullen, great credit is due for the excellent work in our illustrated feature.

To our engravers, The Strobridge Lithographing Co., of Cincinnati, Ohio, too much praise cannot be awarded for their painstaking and care in furnishing the very best talent on the photo-lithographs.

There are in population 16,251 whites and 10,815 colored, making a total population of 27,066.

The Assembly is an institution endeavoring to bring the people together for intellectual, moral, and religious teaching. It aims to be popular in the best sense. It brings great teachers and speakers from all parts of the country, and enables the people to hear more celebrated speakers in two weeks than they otherwise would in years of ordinary life.

The Assembly is an auxiliary to the churches in conducting classes for instruction of Sunday-School teachers and providing lectures and addresses on subjects of popular, moral, and religious interest.

The Assembly is an adjunct to the school and college system. It provides a Normal Class for training teachers. It offers conferences for educators, and it wishes to become the center for the meetings of educational bodies.

It provides wise and healthful entertainment and recreation for all classes, and especially for the young. By humorous and dramatic readings, by music of high grade, by stereopticon and costume lectures, and by witty speakers, it offers delightful entertainment to all classes.

VANCE & FEENEY Roofing and Guttering a Specialty. 20 West Main Street.

to all parts of the world, being ten cents in addition to the regular rate of postage, to be paid in stamps; that is, stamps sufficient must be attached to letters or packages before presenting for registration. The name and postoffice address of sender must be endorsed on face of letter or package After a registered letter or package has been transmitted it cannot be recalled by the sender. No letter or package can be registered on Sunday. The Post Office Department, or its revenue, is not, by law, liable for the loss of any registered mail matter. Registered matter will not be delivered to any person but the one to whom it is addressed, or to a person whom the postmaster knows to be authorized to receive it.

Special Delivery Service—Charles C. Christian, messenger. This service requires that all special delivery letters or packages shall reach their addressees with the greatest possible expedition after receipt at any postoffice, between the hours of 7:00 A. M, and 12:00 midnight: Provided, the addressee's residence is within the carrier limit of a free delivery office, or within one mile of any other office.

A special stamp of the face value of ten cents can be purchased at any postoffice, which, when attached to a letter or package, in addition to the lawful postage, entitles such letter or package to the benefit of the Special Delivery Service.

It is important that special delivery letters or packages should be addressed plainly to street and number, but this is not required as a condition upon which immediate delivery will be made; however, it serves to prevent mistakes, as well as to facilitate delivery, therefore, street and number should always be given whenever practicable.

OHIO & MISSISSIPPI RAILWAY.

A well equipped and popular line connecting the three important Commercial Centers—Cincinnati, Louisville and St. Louis.

The Ohio & Mississippi was the first railway constructed Westward from Cincinnati, and its history of a third of a century is one of steady improvement in physical condition and traffic resources.

At the present time four through passenger trains each way between Cincinnati and St. Louis are necessary to accommodate its large and constantly increasing volume of travel; three between Cincinnati and Louisville, and two between Louisville and St. Louis.

The time of its fast daylight train between Cincinnati and St. Louis, a distance of 341 miles, is but ten hours, an average speed which is not surpassed by any railroad in the United States.

Its trains all enter Union Depots in Cincinnati, Louisville and St. Louis, conveniently near the business centers. Transfers to other lines are thus avoided. Through Sleeping Cars are run by this line between St. Louis, Cincinnati, Louisville, Washington, Baltimore and New York

Travelers going to any point, East, West, North or South, should make it their business to ask for tickets via the O. & M. Railway.

Further information in regard to the route, if not obtainable from the ticket agent, will be promptly furnished on application to the undersigned.

Live Stock Sale and Purchasing Agency,

R. S. STRADER, Lexington, Ky.

MR. STRADER announces to gentlemen who would purchase Horses of all classes, and other animals of all kinds, that he will receive orders for the transaction of such business for a commission of 10 per cent.

He will attend auction sales in the interest of his customers in Lexington and elsewhere, and he feels that his experience of twenty years in the

Purchase and Sale of Horses

Justifies him in offering his services to and in soliciting orders from all who would secure the Best Animals of whatever kind, for special purposes, but who do not possess the requisite knowledge and time to obtain what they desire.

He will also break youngsters to harness, train and develop speed: will take charge of brood mares or other stock on favorable terms.

Patronage solicited and satisfaction guaranteed. Particular attention shown visitors and strangers.

References in N. Y. City, Philadelphia, Boston, St. Louis, Chicago, and at home, to be furnished upon application. The following is from a well known stock paper:

Col. R. S. Strader for many years enjoyed the reputation of being one of the foremost breeders of trotting horses in Kentucky. He is not only a well-informed man in his calling, but has always been a reliable man. As such he is indorsed by the highest authorities. Col. Strader, through his live stock sale and purchasing agency, will execute orders to buy and sell trotting horses and stock of all classes for a commission of 10 per cent. He will attend auction sales in the interest of his customers at Lexington and elsewhere, and give them the benefit of his judgment and experience. He will undertake any order and will fill it to satisfaction, no matter what kind of stock is desired. Col. Strader is also prepared to take young trotters for breaking and development, and will care for brood mares and other stock on reasonable terms. He solicits patronage from those who cannot spare the time to go to Kentucky or nearby breeding sections, and will be pleased to show visitors to the Blue Grass region every attention. Col. Strader's representations are strictly reliable, and he may be treated with perfect confidence. His address is Lexington, Ky.

FAYETTE COUNTY.

County Seat Lexington, the Railroad Center of Kentucky,

Through which passes the Queen & Crescent and Cincinnati Southern and over which 4 passenger trains and 10 freight rains arrive and depart daily. Of this number there are two through trains having sleeping coaches attached.

The Louisville & Nashville Road have 3 passenger and 10 freight trains arriving and departing daily. Every convenience to the traveling and shipping public is given.

The Chesapeake & Ohio R. R. have 3 passenger and 13 freight trains arriving and departing daily, of which 2 through trains have sleepers attached. This road claims to do two thirds of the coal business of Lexington.

The K. C., one of Kentucky's oldest roads, leads the list in number of passenger trains arriving and departing, there being three to Cincinnati, two to Maysville and two to Richmond, arriving and departing daily—with one freight train each way. Every facility is offered the public for prompt and rapid transit. Making in the aggregate 102 trains daily passing through Lexington. Besides which the Kentucky Union and the Louisville Southern are fast nearing completion, which will, when completed, largely increase this number.

For the information of persons living at a distance who may desire to communicate by letter with the officers of the various associations which are devoted to the special interests of the im-
