

of a store of information that will increase so long as life shall last.

I do not know what your ambitions in life are - but I believe they are high and noble - because I feel sure you will aim to do your best - and that would make the most humble calling high in the Masters estimation at least. and I hope you may succeed and be a good, useful man.

Dayton, Ky. July 4 1915

My Dear Dallas -

I can scarcely realize that the little boy who, thirteen years ago today went on a little trip up the Licking river with his Grandpa "Doc" - and the "boys" (Geo and Floyd I think) is now a young man, a recent graduate, and the little "red" baby that was left behind to keep Grand ma "Doc" company is getting to be a big girl