

Whereas, The christian church on Main Street, in the city of Lexington, has recently been compelled, in what she believed to be her duty to the great Head of the church, to withdraw her fellowship from a number of the members of her body, for, producing disorder and seizure in that congregation; and, Whereas, all the churches founded on Jesus Christ, and built according to the teaching of his Apostles and Evangelists, should be united together in the strongest bonds of Love, Sympathy and Union, therefore Resolved. By the church at Providence, Jessamine county, Ky. that we are in full Sympathy with said Main Street Christian church, and do heartily approve its action.
