

Pride Picnic

The Pride Picnic, the largest queer pot luck in Kentucky and our best attended pride event, will be Sunday, June 13 at Windy Knoll Farm, noon to 4, rain or shine. (Directions on page 5) Parking may be tight, so plan to come with friends.

Bring a dish to share using this division as a guide. If you have a favorite item you want to make that doesn't fit this list, go for it.

A-H SALAD OR BREAD

I-R MAIN DISH (can be veggie)

S-Z DESSERT

Cold soft drinks and water will be sold by GLSO to cover the costs of the picnic. Please do not bring alcohol. There are lots of expenses to putting on this event: renting sound equipment, tables, porta potties, buying paper plates and forks, etc. You can help by spending some money on cold drinks raffle tickets, t-shirts, or other pride items.

In addition to great food, we plan to provide a variety of local talent and a drag race open to all competitors. Entertainment starts at 12:30 so bring a lawn chair or blanket to make yourself comfortable. There is covered space in case of rain.

If you can donate a raffle item or would like to set up as a vendor, please call Kelly at 277-6168. We will also need volunteers on that day so if you could help out, give Kelly a call.

ACT OUT

ACT-OUT is producing Beyond Therapy, a comedy written by Christopher Durang and directed by Homer Tracy. It will be presented Thursday, Friday and Saturday nights, June 3, 4, and 5 at the downtown Lexington Public Library at 8 PM. Tickets are $7 and are available by calling 255-5469, and at the door. Free parking can be found behind the Library in their parking structure.

Beyond Therapy is a hilarious look at "relationships and how psychology and psychobabble hinder and help us", and is one of Durang's most endearing works. Bisexual Bruce (David Morrison) looks for the "perfect partner" in an innocent Prudence (Crystle Martin), much to the disapproval of his male lover, Bob (C.T. Reaves). Other cast members include Buzz Cornielson, Shannon Christy, and Bill Chandler.

Profits from the productions support the Pride Center. For more information, or to volunteer, contact Dave Morrison at (606) 879-9409 or email at terpbear@aol.com. Come celebrate the beginning of Pride month by attending this great play.

Kentucky Choruses "SING OUT!"

The Pride celebrations for Louisville and Lexington will soar with the music of all three fully inclusive choruses of Kentucky. The Lexington Men's Chorus, Voices of Kentuckiana (Louisville's community chorus) and SisterSound are combining their talents for the first time to perform concerts in both cities. On June 5th at the Clifton Center in Louisville and June 12th at the Singletary Center for the Arts in Lexington, more than 100 voices will "Sing Out!" Both concerts begin at 8pm. Tickets are available from chorus members or by calling 606-257-4929

The choruses, all members of GALA (the Gay and Lesbian Association of Choruses) will combine for 4 selections as well as present individual sets. The Lexington

Family Movies

Interweave and the Women's Spirituality Group of the UU Church are planning a series of videos for pride month. On Tuesday, June 8 and Wednesday June 9, from 7 to 9 we will be showing three videos that make up the Women and Spirituality Series. These films will be of particular interest to pagans, feminists, and anyone wanting to know more about the modern day pagan movement.

We will start with the first two films on Tuesday. Goddess Remembered weaves together the work of archaeologists such as Marija Gombutis, and art historian Merlin Stone with contemporary leaders in the women's spirituality movement to examine how ancient goddess centered cultures may have functioned. The Burning Times looks at the "witch burning" years of the European Inquisition through the eyes of historians and theologians (Starhawk, Matthew Fox). Although it is not specified in this film, lesbigaytrans people as well as women in general were targeted by the witch trials throughout Europe.

On Wednesday night, June 9, we will see the third in the series, Full Circle, which examines present day goddess beliefs and practices. A number of authors, social activists, and teachers are filmed in discussion about why earth based spirituality is of particular importance at this time. We will have an hour for discussing all three films on this evening.

On the remaining tuesday nights in June, Interweave will show gay themed videos at 7:00 in one of the air conditioned classrooms. We will put up a sign on the front door giving directions to the room in case you arrive late.

The video festival begins Tues. June 15 with Billy's Hollywood Screen Kiss. This independent film written and directed by Tommy O'Haver spoofs those 1950s melodramatic romances starring Doris Day. Only this time, the lead is gay photographer Billy, who has a crush on a sexually ambiguous new boy in town.

On the 22nd the festival turns to serious drama with the controversial Indian film, Fire. The renown Indian director Deepa Mehta wrote and directed this excellent film, which tells the story of the relationship that develops between two women, sisters-in-law trapped in loveless marriages. If you refuse to see foreign films because of subtitles, don't worry, Mehta filmed this one in English.

Finally on the 29th, we'll examine the newest trend in commercial films - the gay best friend of a straight woman. The Object of My Affection stars Jennifer Anniston as a woman who falls in love with her gay best friend and roommate played by Paul Rudd. We hope you'll join us Tuesday nights at the UU Church for this video festival. Best of all, it's free. Remember, these titles can change, depending upon availability of videos.

GLSO Board Elections

In June, five positions on the GLSO Board will be open and an election will be held at the picnic. The current members of the Board who are running for another term are Peter Taylor, Kelly O'Ferrell, and Terry Mullins. Other individuals running are Campbell Welsh, who is now serving the last months of a position left open, and Jeremy Farmer who has been leading the Discussion Group. If anyone else is interested, they should call Terry at (H)255-5469 or (w)252-2867.

Community News

Men's Chorus is proud to present selections from "Naked Man," a cycle of songs depicting gay lives and experiences composed by Robert Seely and Philip Littrell for the San Francisco Gay Men's Chorus.

SisterSound will be singing some favorites from previous concerts including Big Legged Woman, Marie, and Change of Heart.

Pride Reading

Local writers are invited to read their work at the Third Annual Working Class Kitchen Pride Reading on Sunday, June 20th. Joseph Beth Cafe will open for us at 8:30, readings will start at 8:45. Admission is $6-$10, sliding scale, which includes desert and coffee. There will be a cash bar available. Call Kelly at 277-6168 if you are interested in reading or for details.

Social Concepts

Some women in town are starting a social activity group for women which they hope will grow into something more. For example, they see a need for a support system for women who are just coming out, or perhaps just leaving their first relationship. They envision a mentoring program for women to help each other through the rough spots.

But for a start, they hope to stimulate interest in doing activities together such as movies, art shows, potlucks, or just hanging out and watching TV. "Social Concepts" is the name at this time, but as a group develops, their focus can determine a name.

To start gathering some women together, Ginger is organizing a social event for Friday, June 4th. She is planning to meet anybody interested at Topp 2's at 6:00 for dinner and then go to the play Beyond Therapy together. If you are interested in the play only, join us about 7:30 for the short walk to the Library.

We may plan to go together to the Wishing Chair, Mother Jane, Therapy Sisters concert June 16 if there is interest. We hope that this will be a way for lesbians to meet new people, to form friendships across differences, and to have a great time together. Call Ginger for more information (389-7698)

MCC

The Metropolitan Community Church is having a Mammoth Yard Sale on Saturday, June 12 from 9 am to 3 pm. We will be in the parking area in front of the Church which is located at 387 Waller Ave, next to Imperial Plaza. Our Pride Service will be on Sunday, June 27 at 11:30.

PROM

Be who you want to be, bring who you want to bring to the Gala Pride Prom, Sunday, June 13, from 8 pm to midnight. Sponsored by RSIC & Ebony Male, this fabulous prom will be at YATS (in South Hill Station under Laser Quest). That is at 200 Bolivar, between S.Upper and S. Broadway. Admission is $15 which includes food and open bar. Tickets available at the door. Vote for Prom King & Queen, watch a little Drag, take prom photos and dance the night away.

Interweave

Interweave is hosting a series of videos on Tuesday nights in June. See page 2 for details. We are also planning a potluck lunch at the UU Church after the service (about 12:15) on June 20.

GLSO Discussion Group

The GLSO discussion support group is starting up again in June. We meet every Wednesday night at 7:30 at the Pride Center, 387 Waller Ave. This is a lively group that anyone can join at any time. We have a lot of fun talking about everything under the sun...and moon.

Carnegie Songwriter Series

Announcing a concert series devoted to presenting local and national songwriters in an informal setting. The first concert will be held Wednesday, June 16 at 7:30 p.m. at the Carnegie Center for Literacy and Learning, 251 W. 2nd St. $5 suggested donation at the door.

Hosted by Lexington's own Wishing Chair, the show will begin with the popular local group, Mother Jane, and will be followed by The Therapy Sisters, from Austin, TX. Known for their sparkling wit and solid musicianship, The Therapy Sisters, Lisa Rogers and Maureen McLean, are a zany and eclectic duo, whose tunes inspire laughter right from the first drop. As they like to remind us all, "if you're not part of the problem, you're not part of the Family!" An open mic session is scheduled for 9:30. Songwriters may sign up for open mic at the event. For more information call (606) 254-4175 or visit us on the web at www.terrakin.com.

SO, I MET THIS GUY...

An original gay romantic comedy So, I Met This Guy..., by Dave Morrison will be presented at The Bar Complex on Friday and Saturday, June 18 & 19 at 9:00 PM. The night will kick off at 8:30 with show tunes by Gershwin, Sondheim and other favorites sung by local talents C.T. Reaves and Crystle Martin.

So, I Met This Guy... is a hilarious look at Helen, a would-be romance writer, as she relives the tale of how she united Chase and Matt. The two men are forced to confront their hopes, fears and past relationship baggage while they struggle with the question, "Do I really want a boyfriend?". There will be three shows in June, Friday 18, Saturday 19, and Sat. 26. Show time is 8:30 pm at The Bar in Lexington. Tickets are $6.00 which includes admission to the Bar. Tickets are available at the door. The play is directed by Shannon Christy and stars C.T. Reaves, Sataysha Edwards and David Alan Morrison.

Movable Feast

Local area restaurants have agreed to share their profits for one night as a fund raiser for Movable Feast. Dining Out for Life will be on Thursday June 17 and will help fund their hot meals program. For a complete list of participating restaurants, contact Movable Feast after June 1 or watch for signs in your favorite restaurants.

Movable Feast is in great need of volunteers over the next few months. They generally have quite a few people from UK many of whom have left for the summer. There is a particular need for cooks and delivery drivers. Drivers show up about 5:15, pack up 5 or 6 dinners and deliver them in a particular area of town. The entire process takes only about an hour and once you have learned a route it is an easy task. Call 252-2867 to volunteer.

Entertainer of the Year

The sixth annual "Bluegrass Regional Entertainer of the Year" will be held on Sunday, June 6, 8 pm in the Ballroom of the Radisson Plaza Hotel. Advanced tickets may be purchased by calling Donnie Royse at (606) 321-205.

Eight Annual Volunteer Awards Banquet

The eighth annual Volunteer Awards Banquet will be on Sunday, June 27 at Ed and Fred's Desert Moon. The price has been lowered to $20 to make this event accessible to a greater number of people. Contact Terry (255-5469) for tickets.

One way we are cutting costs is by not purchasing trophies for the groups to present to their Volunteer of the Year. We are now asking that each group that presents an award, purchase an award that seems appropriate to them. This way there will be a variety of awards ranging from gift certificates to tiaras. Our community is imaginative and at times even OUTlandish so we believe this will add some spice to the dinner.

This year we are honored to have as our after-dinner speaker, Cathy Renna, Director of Community Relations for the Gay and Lesbian Alliance Against Defamation (GLAAD). Cathy started out volunteering for GLAAD nine years ago. She is a dynamic speaker and will share her experiences with us.

The highlight of the banquet is the presentation of the Wasson Award for the outstanding volunteer of our community for 1999 and the Rainbow Community Service Award for the group that has contributed most to our community. Nominations for the Wasson Award are Crissy Sexton, Carolyn Bratt, Mark Johnson, Bill Chandler, Keith Lovan, and Michael Thompson. Nominations for the Rainbow Award include The Lexington Men's Chorus, Lexington Fairness, and Movable Feast. Nominations will be accepted by Terry (255-5469) until June 5.

Summer Deadlines articles, announcements, and advertisements need to get to GLSO by June 17 and by July 17 for the next 2 issues. Please e-mail material to Marycrone@aol.com or snail mail it to Mary Crone (1630 Ashwood Rd. 40502). Calender information and mailing label corrections should be sent to Peter@QX.NET. It is sometimes possible to get items into the news after the deadline, but articles received first will be given priority.

GOSSIP REDEFINED

by Reinetta F. Jones

Loud talk in a restaurant is disrespectful to others. On the other hand, attentively listening to the loud talk is considered meddling. But, both are perfectly acceptable if you appear to be distracted while listening to someone else's conversation. The secret is not to let the talker see that you are REALLY interested in what is being said.

Think about it for less than a minute and the whole thing will make sense. Give it some deep thought and the equation won't tally. Loud talking (minus) meddling (plus) unapparent, but attentive listening (equals) a listener with good manners.

We all learned the equation during childhood. If a parent told you to "Stop Listening!", you would busy yourself with some other task. The conversation would then resume, and your parents would be convinced that they had total control of your hearing ability. (Researchers are still testing the validity of this phenomenon.) As long as you don't react to the words that you supposedly can no longer hear, then you will be rewarded with the town's best known secrets.

By the time you become an adult, the - not listening don't react - technique has been perfected. So, when the woman at the next table says that she plans to 'decoct' the butch seated at the back of the restaurant, you don't jerk your head around to see if the butter knife is missing. Nor do you turn around to ask if the 'de-cocking' could possibly take place after you have finished dessert. (for the puzzled: "decoct- to extract the flavor of by boiling.")

You do as your parents taught you, keep a straight face, quietly fill your mouth with more salad, and act as if you heard not a word. All the while you are poised to hear whatever else that woman has in mind for the intended victim.

Every single word is mentally recorded and remains unuttered until you see friends the next day, then you repeat the entire conversation. You add your own emotions and personal knowledge about the act of women 'de-cocking' women. Overnight you will have managed to become an expert on the subject.

You tell a few more friends the enhanced version of the story. And they tell a few friends their version. Eventually the story gets back to the woman who originally spoke of 'decocting' the butch who now shares her home. Of course the loud talker doesn't recognize her own words because she is more concerned about the rumor of two women who were caught 'de-caulking' each other in the bathroom of her favorite restaurant. She is certain that she knows the culprits.

The restaurant owner denies any knowledge of the rumors, but it has been good for business. The lunch special for the month is 'De's Concoction' served with a shake and a shaggy side salad.

So do your part to support local restaurants. Help yourself to the variety of loud conversations. Remember to use good manners and keep a low profile so that you can hear every single word from the woman seated at the next table. It is ok to repeat what you hear, information dissemination is vital to the social conscious of the community.

Intercultural Lesbians!

PRIDE BOWLING

In celebration of Pride and in support of the efforts of the Lexington Fairness 99 Campaign, the Rainbow League, the Thoroughbred Invitational Tournament, Inc. and Lexington Fairness are jointly sponsoring the inaugural Rainbow City Scotch Doubles No-tap Bowling Competition.

The tournament will be held on Sunday, June 27, 1999, at Collins Southland Lanes, 205 Southland Drive, Lexington. The entry fee is $12.00 per person. Registration will begin 2:00. Bowling should be completed by 4:30. There will be cash prizes, as well as a chance to win a 50 \ 50 raffle.

Organizations can be represented by a team of six bowlers (3 doubles partners) Special recognition in the form of a plaque will be given to the organization that has the best overall score as a team and the name of the winning organization will be announced at the Pride Dinner, Sunday evening.

In Scotch Doubles No-tap, knocking down nine pins ( as opposed to ten) is scored as a strike and two people bowl each frame as a team in strict rotation. An established average is NOT required and NO experience in bowling is necessary. If you do not have a partner, we will find one for you during registration. All you need to do is bring yourself and have a good time bowling.

For further information, call Jim Dickinson at 252-5801 or Steve Rosenberg at 276-3058 or email Steve Rosenberg at LexRainbow@aol.com. We look forward to seeing you on Sunday, June 27th at 2:00. Good luck and good bowling.

In Business

From time to time, we like to highlight gay owned and gay friendly businesses in our community. Often we find out about these businesses when they advertise with us. Here are two businesses that would like to have your support.

Topp 2's

I have seen on the internet and heard women talking about the need for a place for lesbians to gather, a bar, a coffee house, or a club. A place that is gay friendly, or even better gay owned, where conversation is possible and the atmosphere welcoming to a variety of ages.

Topp 2's could be this place. This restaurant and bar, at 120 S. Upper, (Yes, where Joe's use to be) is open 6 days a week. (not on Mondays) You can come as early as 11 am for lunch, drop in for dinner or a late night drink, they are open until 1 am. There is a variety of delicious American food offered in an attractive dining area.

To make this into a special place for lesbians, we have to go there, have a good time, spend some money, and invite friends. The proprietor is interested in hearing from the community about what you would like to see happen here. There is a small stage; would you support musical groups or poetry readings? Would you like a place opened after hours? Many things are possible if we turn out and make this place successful. So, stop dreaming about a place for us and make it happen. See you there.

Lifeprints

Cheryl Clark and Tina Orr have started Lifeprints, a photography business specializing in on site photography. They will come to your home, to the arboretum, to your ball park, or other locations in Lexington to take pictures of individuals or family groups. Natural settings are particularly well suited for taking pictures of children and animals.

Think about the special occasions in your life that you would like to remember: graduation, union ceremonies, softball victories, businesses openings, coming out anniversaries, etc. There are many times when we don't think of celebrating and recording our lives, and we should. (My Aunt Mary and her lover Gertrude were together from the 1920's until 1960 when my aunt died and I have not one picture of them together.)

Cheryl has twenty years experience as a photographic artist. She is particularly proficient at handcoloring black and white photographs to obtain unique effects. They have reasonable rates. Give them a call to discuss the possibilities. In Lexington, their phone number is 455-9623.

Wright Way Transmissions

Located at 1009 New Circle Rd, NW, Wright Way Transmissions offers complete auto repair for foreign and domestic vehicles. They specialize in engine and transmission repair and will tow free with major repair jobs.

Greg Wright opened business at this location 1 1/2 year ago and has 23 years of experience working on cars. Free estimates will always be given before work is done. Prices are fair. They can be reached at 225-1419.
