motion that the regulation passed last year governing the election of the Curriculum Committee be modified in its entirety, so that the membership of the Curriculum Committee shall be named by the President. On motion by Professor Trimble, the Senate voted to pass on this substitute motion by secret ballot. By the vote of the Senate the motion was lost. The original motion by Dean Evans was then approved by the Senate, providing for the election of Professor Kuiper as Chairman of the Curriculum Committee for next year.

Dean Jones presented a report on the Student Loan Fund in which he pointed out that the Fund now has $35,000 in cash awaiting investment. The Fund is now set up as an endowment with only the income available for loans. Loans are made to juniors and seniors who are residents of Kentucky. On motion by Dean Evans, the Senate voted to commend Dean Jones for his work in administering the student loans and collections, and for bringing a report to the Senate.

On motion by Dean Funkhouser, the Senate voted to recommend to the Board of Trustees the granting of the honorary degree of Doctor of Laws to each of the following persons:

William James Hutchins
Stanley Forman Reed. not present. degree not granted.
Lena Madasin Phillips

These names had been presented to the Senate for its consideration at its previous meeting on February 13.

On recommendation of the College of Arts and Sciences, the following revised and new curricula in Journalism were approved by the Senate:
