My Dear Sir:

You have my thanks for your recent favor - your Centennial Address, & the copy of Dr. Craik's excellent volume. I am grateful for them all.

I hope you may get out a fuller edition of your valuable & interesting Address, with the proposed additions of new matter. Sh^d. you fail to do so, I hope you may not - I shall be likely to ask, by & by, if these unpublished addenda have any reference to Gen. Clark this time. At all events, I hope to say you
