"Colonel" of the Week

CARL CONNER

This week's "colonel" goes to Carl "Col. Carl T." Conner, Lexington, Junior '37 in the College of Arts and Sciences, member of the Pi Kappa Alpha social fraternity, and a member of the men's glee club.

Carl has been awarded this "colonelship" for consistently doing absolutely nothing. However, he has succeeded in doing nothing to a high degree of perfection and we feel justified in making this award.

To show our appreciation, come in and enjoy any two of the delicious dinners from our menu.

Gay-zing At Sports

By MARVIN GAY

KENTUCKY'S famous pool-less swimming team again has demonstrated its indomitable desire for victory. Monday night, while most students were cheering the Cats to victory, the team trekked to Richmond for a practice session in the Eastern pool. This, despite the fact that many of the matadors are net fans who keenly wished to witness the Marquette game.

When a pool is eventually secured for the University, much of the credit will be due these hard working lads who have refused to quit despite every imaginable obstruction.

Rupps Do Impossible

Without hesitation, we nominate Kentucky's Marquette victory as the most dramatic we have ever witnessed. In fact, we have seen hopes of ever seeing another contest so packed with thrills. Early in the game the fans' hopes soared skyward when the Cats jumped into a 7-point advantage, and then their courage commensured to ebb as the Avalanche rallied to tie the score at the half, 18-18.

Throughout the final period Kentucky retained in an animated sense of suspense, as the Rupps strained every fiber attempting to overhaul their opponents. With three minutes remaining, Opper turned the trick.

The remaining moments were played in a bedlam. How the fans suffered! How the players suffered! But, how both groups loved it!

When Hagan made his miraculous toss, the gym became the scene of a madhouse. Never did the Bacchic plausibility reverberate with such thunderous cheers as were heaped when the final whistle sounded above the uproar.

Even now, it all seems a wonderful dream from which we are fearful of awakening. It couldn't happen—but it did.

Fans, Players Are Happy

Never did we see a group so emotionally spent as were the Cats at the finish of this miracle. Many of joy coursed down drawn faces when, realizing they had done the impossible, they were thumped and mugged by the equally happy through Coach Rupps who left his bed to direct the Cats, never before so directed as overcome with emotional pride and bias.

Happy Drives Nail

The silence that enveloped the crowd when Hagan, the big bruising end, knelt and prayed during the final minute will forever be remembered by fans. Then, immediately afterward, the Red-head received the ball and connected with his game-winning toss. Governor Chandler, who had cheered manly during the later stages, rushed from his seat and drove a nail into the floor from the

INTRAMURAL

After a one-day delay due to the Kentucky-Marquette basketball game, the University Intramural basketball program opened Tuesday night with 6 B league tilts. The bid of the A league competition was tried off Wednesday night with another six game card.

All the A league games, with the exception of two contests, were close and well contested. Playing in the B loop will be resumed Tuesday night, with A league games starting Wednesday night and continuing through the remainder of the week.

The first game to be played in the A league was taken by Alpha Sigma Phi over Lambda Chi by a 31-7 score. The Lambda Chi team, hampered by lack of size, was never in the running and their ratings fore scored almost at will. Alpha Gamma Rho presented a well-rounded offense that clicked a 32-20 win over the Triangles.

The first upset of the play came when the defending champions, SAE, were downed by ATO, 19-16. SAE held goals by Garland and led at 13-11 with an early advantage on two of the half. The ATO's, with Jenkins and Myers taking the rebounds, kept the lead and despite an SAE bid in the closing minutes, finished on top.

TRACK SEASON WILL OPEN APRIL 16

By R. M. RANKIN
The University track team will open its season April 16 engaging the University of Vanderbilt at Nashville. Coach C. F. Striplin announced Thursday.

Striplin said that the outlook for a successful season was doubtful considering the loss of last year's stars, Ben Willis, Stan Nevers, and Ralph Carlisle. Willis was one of the outstanding track men in the Southeastern conference and usually ran four events for the Cats, including the hurdles and the dashes. Nevers put the shot and threw the discus, while Carlisle took part in the high and broad jumps.

These three men were good for 22 points in the meet with Vandy last year and their places will be hard to fill, Coach Striplin added. Coach Striplin said the varsity track practice would start on or about March first.

REG CARRINGTON ASKS COMMANDER ELLSBERG:

"Can you tell a Real Difference between Camels and other cigarettes?"

"Yes—absolutely!" says Commander Edward Ellsberg. And millions of other steady smokers know there is a distinct difference in Camels. That's why Camels are the largest-selling cigarette in the world.

REG CARRINGTON: "I see you're a steady Camel smoker, Commander. There really isn't any difference in cigarettes, is there?"

COMMANDER ELLSBERG: "You're dead wrong, Reg. The life of a deep-sea diver is tougher on a man than most work. Most of the divers I know are steady Camel smokers and, believe me, they know there's a difference. Take my own case, for example. I stick to Camels—have smoked them for ten years. They never get on my nerves. Smoking Camels, I feel that I enjoy life more. Camel is the cigarette that agrees with me."

CLUB-ROOM CONVERSATION (above) so often swings around to cigarettes—an interesting topic to smokers generally. "I can tell the difference in Camels," Commander Ellsberg says. "That famous saying, 'I'd walk a mile for a Camel' expresses how enthusiastic I am about Camels myself."

NEW DOUBLE-FEATURE CAMEL CARAVAN. Two great shows—"Jack O'Connell College" and Benny Goodman's "Swing School"—in one fun, fast-filled hour. On this day every Tuesday night at 9:30 pm E.S.T., 8:30 pm C.S.T., 7:30 pm M.S.T., 6:30 pm P.S.T., over WABC-CBS.

HIS FAVORITE sport—small-boat sailing, Camels are right beside him! "Camels fit in with my leisure hours, too," he says. "I've never known time to jangle my nerves. That wasn't a lot—because I smoke a lot!"
