ABBAY OF GETHSEMANI
TRAPPIST, KENTUCKY

July 27, 1960

Dear Victor:

Fine-- I look forward to seeing you both Saturday at noon.

Would it be possible for Carolyn to take a look in the library for any books on ancient Cretan and Minoan civilization? I do not know of exact references, but one title has come my way: "The House of the Double Axe."

And - do they have in the library a book by Fenellosa on Chinese ideograms and poetry? This too is vague. I hope it is enough to be of some value. But she should not waste time looking too hard.

God bless you both

Very cordially in Christ

Jm Louis
