

A black and white photograph of a rectangular stone marker set in the ground. The marker has a dark, recessed rectangular area in the center, framed by a double-line border. Inside this frame, the text is inscribed in a serif font. The text reads: "SITE OF" on the first line, "FIRST BUILDING" on the second line, "OF" on the third line, "HAZEL GREEN ACADEMY" on the fourth line, and "1880" on the fifth line. There are small decorative dots on either side of the word "OF". The stone is set in a patch of dry, sparse grass and soil.
