El
A heavy snow storm
and at home a
terrible headache
so we can't go to church again today
too bad.

MONDAY, JANUARY 21, 1867.

TUESDAY, JANUARY 22, 1867.

WEDNESDAY, JANUARY 23, 1867.

Today is my first anniversary, the short
year of the life spent in the army. My bedding, table and
sewing, & handsome
pictures of Davies & General Robt. Lee
handsomely framed
of them are with me
I forgets me by Mother
and one from Lena

THURSDAY, JANUARY 24, 1867.

To night our Spenser House party came off and it was very pleasant indeed &
only some gentlemen
of my invited ^{company}
came. Mr Bishop
Mr Childs & Mr Donney

and took tea with
us, we had such
a pleasant time.
I was invited to a
party on the bay floor
tonight.

Miss Mary Pagan called
this afternoon.

THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 28, 1867.

Spent all morning
to go up home
it began to rain
about noon
still raining when
we got home
all I had to see us

FRIDAY, MARCH 1, 1867.

Cloudy and disagreeable all day

Lena came down this afternoon and brought her work and remained till after supper commenced raining again to night

Genl. Wm Logan went to Georgetown

SATURDAY, MARCH 2, 1867.

A miserable rainy day

William Noble & Lena wanted me to come and help make the Davies carpet but it was too disagreeable for me to go out.

I am content to be at home as the roads being

SUNDAY, MARCH 3, 1867.

A terrible pleasant
snow. Sister &
Sally Lintell & I
went up to the walk like the children
of Israel through the red sea & immense
stream of snow I could not see the dip.

The University had
the use of the Church at a time
before we got home
saw Mrs Logan a moment

MONDAY, MARCH 4, 1867.

I never saw
such a snow
storm but it
not very cold
snowed hard all
day till eleven o'clock at night it is
1/2 inches deep

Coast day
I went to bed
after breakfast
with neuralgia

this week

Tom is right - sick
to night I think
it is a deep cold

SATURDAY, MARCH 23, 1867.

Tom is quite sick this morning the Dr
ordered him to bed

He can sleep today
something unusual

SUNDAY, MARCH 24, 1867.

Another of looney men
I think Tom is better
this morn but not able to sit up

No church going today
again too black, but does seem I am to spend the most of my Sunday's at Spencer
I am pious
