Dearest boy:-

It has been over a week since I wrote my sweetheart, and you know the reason was that you said not to write you again until you sent me your new address. Consequently they all came in a bunch and I have five from you to answer.

It is such good news, dear, to know that you are so comfortable and will be having such a good time in such pleasant surroundings. How I do wish I might be there to share all those wonderful experiences with you. But maybe you will take me abroad sometime when we get rich. You must have seen lots of fine things in Lyons, hope you will have the chance to see Paris before coming home.
