Dear Victor

I have finally rewritten the bit on Sophia and here is the ms. It is a little long for a broadside but I think it needs at least this much length and I hope you will be able to make a small book out of it. It seems to me that it is a more complete statement than I made, or could have made, in the letter & I hope it is at least practically clear.

It is a pity I am not able to meet you & Carolyn & your friends this week. The card I sent to Carolyn should, I hope, have reached her in good time. I am to be busy with some publishing business these next few days. Perhaps towards the end of June we might be able to get together as she planned. I will write more about this.

David Howard came over with the cupboard which is very fine. I am sending him the clock which has been sitting here in this room for some days.

Very cordial good wishes & blessings to you
In Christ the Lord
