

Dedication

We, the mothers of Bourbon County men of World War II, who gave their lives or years of their youth in a crusade for the preservation of democratic principles, dedicate this record of their valiant deeds to their memory in the hope that it may be one more incentive to future generations to guard that liberty so deeply cherished by them and by all freedom loving peoples.

Foreword

LEST WE FORGET!

Those who read the service records compiled and collected in this little booklet will understand readily the tremendous amount of work involved, the difficulties of securing and checking the thousands of records needed. Those who know the red tape surrounding organizations as large as the Army and Navy of the United States, will smile knowingly when we apologize for the omissions and errors which our records undoubtedly will reveal.

To the best of our ability, we have included all of the vital facts we could obtain from every known source. Should there be names omitted or additional information concerning the service men and women who are listed, we call your attention to the opposite page and ask that you record your information there. Then, in the years to come, your War History may better serve you when you stop to remember the Bourbon Countians who served you and our country in World War II.

War History Committee

The American Legion Auxiliary

Dedicates this space to the heroic dead
and living of Bourbon County World War II who illuminated with their lives the paths to freedom and hope.
