Dear Sir:-

Several years ago, my brother Leonard rec'd a letter from you son William then at Chicago in which he stated that your father was William Lyue, whose father was Thomas, and whose father was also Thomas, and so on back for seven or eight generations. Also that you all were originally from Virginia and had settled near Lexington about the beginning of the nineteenth century. Now if there is any member of your family who has data upon your family history and can take the interest, time, and trouble to give me some information regarding same I will most gratefully appreciate it. I have spent many years in research into records of Public Liaisons, correspondence with relatives etc, and know authorities for many
