

Circuit Court of the United States
Kentucky District

Bela M Hughes } Plaintiff
Against } Answer of Thomas Horn
William Rice et al }

The Defendant Thomas Horn for his separate answer herein stated that he has no knowledge or sufficient information upon which to found a belief as to whether Andrew Hughes was a citizen of Ky on the day of 18 departed this life leaving one child the Plff his only heir at law. He therefore denies the same and says it is not true that on the day of 18 one Andrew Hughes a citizen of Kentucky departed this life leaving one child the Plff his only heir at law. He denies that the Plff is the only heir at law of Andrew Hughes. He denies and says it is not true that at the time of his Andrew Hughes death he was the owner or seized in fee simple of a certain tract of land containing 15000 acres situated within the present limits of Johnson & Magoffin Counties formerly Mason Co Ky. The same meted and bounded as in the petition. He says it is not true and he denies that the Plff is the owner of that boundary of land described as follows. Beginning at two white oaks and a hickory at the corner
