SISTERHOOD INSTITUTE ON JUDAISM

Under the chairmanship of Mrs. Hugo Bloomfield, the Sisterhood Interfaith Committee is presenting an Institute on Judaism for Churchwomen in the Lexington vicinity. Rabbi Ballon and Rabbi Herbert Waller of Louisville will lecture. Dr. Clayton T. Bower, retired University of Chicago professor and part-time professor at the University of Kentucky, will speak at the luncheon on "Making the Most of Our Differences". Mrs. Louis Egelson of Cincinnati, Immediate Past Chairman of the Committee on Interfaith of the National Federation of Temple Sisterhoods will preside. The opening prayer will be offered by Mrs. Herman Donovan. Mrs. Sherman Miller, President of the Sisterhood, will welcome the guests. The luncheon invocation will be given by Mrs. T. B. Cowan and the closing prayer by Mrs. Raymond McClain. The greetings of the Federation of Churchwomen will be presented by Mrs. E. Cronly Elliott.

Stanley Rose and Matt Barrett and Dr. Charles Schwartz were the committee on arrangements and Mr. Arthur Reinhart of Cincinnati, Executive Secretary of the Federation of Temple Brotherhoods, addressed the group. Suggestions as to a constitution were presented by a committee composed of James Frankel, Herbert Dreyfuss and Harry Miller.

SISTERHOOD GALA PURIM PARTY

The time is getting closer for our Purim Dance to be held at Boiling Springs Country Club on Saturday, March 4. Casting is complete and rehearsals are in progress for that masterpiece of entertainment, "South Prolific", the crowning achievement from the pen of that most talented couple, the Irving Gails. Thru its side-splitting pages we learn a lot about the Battle of Lexington, the new American currency and just incidentally, life in the South (prolific). The menu is set for the midnight supper which is included in the price of your tickets.

Our goal is a high one but it is not out of reach and the uses to which the money will be put are worthy and important ones. The first $500 collected will go to fill Sisterhood's yearly pledge to the Sunday School; after that obligation is covered we hope to fill our 1951 Convention fund, expenses for which will be kept to a minimum. Any and all money over these two projects will be given to the Sisterhood for use in its other philanthropic endeavors.

REMEMBER OUR THREE-FOLD PURPOSE!

1. The Sunday School!
2. The Convention Fund!
3. A wonderful time for everyone!

THE INADEQUATE RABBI
(Adapted from the Bulletin of Temple
Beth-El in Flint, Mich.)

A rabbi could spend twelve hours a day, seven days a week, calling on strangers in the community and the unaffiliated. OR, he could spend those hours, calling on his members, comforting the sick, rousing the inactive, pacifying those who indulge in petty grievances. OR, he might spend his waking hours in organization work with the Religious School or youth group and other organizations connected with the Temple and Jewish community. OR, he might spend his time representing the Jew to the community at large and participating in civic life. OR, he might spend twelve hours a day in his study enriching his knowledge of Judaism with profit to himself and to his congregation.

So, a rabbi - any rabbi - must remain forever inadequate. He can attempt to cover all five fields of endeavor, in part, devoting about twenty percent of his time to each, leaving each job 80% undone. Hence, the term "Inadequate".

Do not pity the Rabbi. He is having the best time of anyone on earth, doing work he loves. He spends six nights (sometimes even seven) a week away from home by choice. Inadequate, desperately busy, the rabbi thinks his job is the best on earth! Pray for him and bear with him; he is the only member of the Congregation who has no Rabbi!

GREETINGS!

As we are about to begin the activities of a new year, we again greet the members of the congregation and all who read our Bulletin. We hope the summer has been a restful one and that you are well prepared to assume the responsibilities ahead.

We are particularly happy to note at this time that our new religious school building is ready for use. Your children will no longer have to work in cramped quarters, but will be in bright sizeable rooms where they will be able to study in greater comfort and in greater dignity.

It is necessary however to remind the congregation that new classrooms alone will be insufficient in accomplishing our task. The interest of every member of the congregation is essential. We look to you to encourage your children to take their work seriously. We look to you for help in furnishing our classrooms properly so that we take full advantage of them. We look to you for your financial help in easing the burden of debt which the congregation has assumed. Temple Adath Israel has taken tremendous forward strides in the past few months. We ask each member of the congregation to accept his share of responsibility in seeing that we maintain our pace.

We also call your attention to the fact that the Temple itself has been repainted and that the kitchen and vestry are in the process of being renovated. The Max Ber- man Memorial Library will shortly be completed. May the added beauty and convenience of our congregational facilities be a stimulus to each of you to be with us in all activities and to participate fully in the program of the congregation.

We send our best wishes to all the congregation for a Happy New Year. May the coming year be a good one for all of us!

STORK STORIES

National Federation-Temple Youth Camp

Alan Bloomfield has recently returned from a week of study at the National Federation of Temple Youth Institute at Lake-of-the-Woods, Wisconsin. He was quite enthusiastic about the new friendships formed and the inspiration and knowledge gained. Later in the year, he will report to the Sisterhood on his trip. He was the recipient of a scholarship which was offered jointly by Sisterhood and the Temple.

SUGGESTION

During the High Holyday Season, particularly in connection with the Memorial Service on Yom Kippur, many people like to make contributions to worthy causes. For your convenience, the following list of Temple Funds is published. Please give them your consideration. Your contributions will be deeply appreciated.

THE TEMPLE BUILDING FUND - used to pay obligations incurred by our expansion program.

The Temple Memorial Fund - used for emergency needs as they arise.

The Max Berman Library Fund - used for books and equipment for our Religious School Library.

The Religious School Fund - used for the needs of the Religious School.

The Rabbi's Fund - used at the discretion of the Rabbi when a need arises.

Contributions may also be made to the general funds of the Temple or the activities of the Sisterhood.

ANOTHER TIME TO CONSIDER THE TEMPLE IS WHEN MAKING OUT A WILL!

Thanks to Mrs. Hyman Shraberg for returning to our Temple Library a wandering Prayerbook. He noticed inside the cover the stamp of Temple Adath Israel, Lexington, Ky. The Prayerbook has notes in it in the handwriting of Rabbi Albert Lewis and was undoubtedly carried there by him.

WARREN ROSENTHAL, MRS. IRVIN STERN, JR., AND MRS. ROBERT MICKLER. Mr. Herschel Weil furnished the corn stalks and tobacco which were used so effectively.

There were some who thought our Sukos schedule impractical, but we are happy to report that attendance at Sukos Services was exceptionally gratifying. On Monday evening, the first night, approximately 90 people were present for our candlelight service and reception for new members. Mrs. Sidney Gall recited the candle blessing that evening. Dr. and Mrs. Charles Schwartz served as hosts on behalf of the Sisterhood. On Tuesday morning, the first morning of Sukos, more than 30 children and 15 adults enjoyed the service; and fruit from the Suko, Kiddush, and bread and honey were served them.

Rabbi Ballon welcomed the students to Hillel. Entertainment was provided by Stuart and Ivan Goldfarb, and Miss Sue Neuman conducted group games.

SISTERHOOD

The Sisterhood program presented Wed., Sept. 27th, was one of the most inspiring in many years. In their honor, it was voted that the Sisterhood undertake the decoration of the Rabbi's study.

Mrs. Edward Munich was elected unanimously to fill the unexpired term of Sisterhood Treasurer, due to the resignation of Mrs. Louis Ades.

USE OF THE TEMPLE

Because of many conflicting plans for use of the Temple, we are now keeping a Temple calendar. All meetings must be scheduled on the calendar and any unscheduled affair must take its chances! You may make reservations for any room by calling the Temple office, 2-4606. We suggest that you check with us before announcing the place of your meeting!

TEMPLE'S NEWEST ADDITION

The Teen-Agers of the Congregation, although few in number, are considering affiliation with the National Federation of Temple Youth. At a recent meeting, Alan Bloomfield was named temporary President and Allen Levy, temporary Secretary. They are scheduled to meet Wednesday night at the Rabbi's home where they will be addressed by Rabbi Samuel Cook, National Director of N.F.T. Y. Rabbi Cook was also to address the Sisterhood on Wednesday afternoon with regard to the National Youth Program and Alan Bloomfield, recipient of the Sisterhood - Temple Camp Scholarship was to report on his stay at Youth Camp last summer.

PUNCTUALITY

Please bring your children to Religious School on time and call for them on time. We have been experiencing some tardiness on both ends of the morning schedule. Late arrival disturbs the class and shortens the available instruction time. When parents call for their children too late, they run the risk of having their children left alone outside of the Temple, waiting for them. The Temple must be closed and the faculty cannot be expected to wait indefinitely for late parents.

SISTERHOOD

A major project of the Sisterhood this year will be its Tea for Teachers of the Public Schools. All teachers of children of our Religious School will be invited to Tea at the Temple on Nov. 29. At that time, by means of talks and displays, the religious background of their Jewish pupils will be explained to them. The superintendants of both country and city schools have given the project an enthusiastic endorsement. Mrs. Sidney Ballon is chairman of Arrangements.

P.T.A.

The opening meeting of the PTA has been scheduled for Nov. 21. At that time, there will be the first of a series of discussions under the general heading, "Mental Health Begins in the Cradle", slogan of the State Department of Health. The first topic will be, "Rejection - How Your Attitudes Influence Your Child". An illustrative film will be shown and Dr. Irving Gail will speak. Future topics to be discussed are: "How the Child Fights Back"; "What Religion Means to the Jewish Child" and "The Mature Child".

Meetings will be held every two months. We are indebted to Dr. Gail for his help in arranging this program.

BROTHERHOOD

The next Brotherhood meeting will be on Wednesday, Nov. 1. It will be a social meeting to which all men in the Congregation and friends are invited.

HILLEL

Hillel met on Oct. 8 to hear Irving Goldstein tell of his experiences in Europe. Mrs. Sidney Ballon, Mrs. Al Strauss, Mrs. Theresa Blumenthal and Mrs. Hyman Shragberg were in charge of the supper for the Sisterhood. On Oct. 22, Hillel will again hear one of its own members, Irving Merlin, who has come from Israel. Mrs. Leo Michaels and Mrs. Sara Wish are in charge of the supper.

CONGRATULATIONS

TO: Mrs. Irving Gail, for her election to the Vice-Presidency of the Ky. Medical Auxiliary.

Mrs. Harold Baker, for her election to the National 2nd Vice-Presidency of Phi Beta, Music and Drama Fraternity.

While it is not the policy of the Temple Bulletin to recognize anniversaries and birthdays of our congregants, fearing to omit one thru error, we feel that the round-number or milestone events are too important for us not to extend our congratulations via the Bulletin. Therefore, our felicitations and good wishes go to:

Mr. and Mrs. Herschel Weil, on their fifteenth wedding anniversary.

Mr. and Mrs. Al Wenneker, on their twentieth wedding anniversary.

Mr. and Mrs. Milton Baer, on their twenty-fifth wedding anniversary.

Dr. and Mrs. Jacob Kaplan on their thirtieth wedding anniversary.

The regular meeting of the Brotherhood will take place on Wed., Dec. 6 at the Temple. Program will be announced in your Brotherhood Bulletin.

Teachers' Institute

The Sisterhood is about to take another step forward. Our Sisterhood has long been known for its excellent Interfaith endeavors and is now presenting the most important of these to date.

Under the general chairmanship of Mrs. Sidney Ballon, every member of the Sisterhood is having a part in the presentation of a TEA FOR TEACHERS.

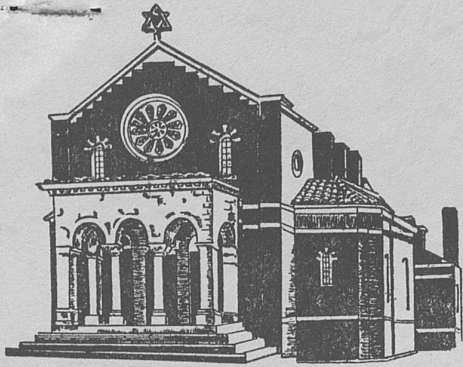

The guests include every teacher in the schools - classroom teachers, special teachers, supervisors and superintendants - who comes in contact in any way with the children of our Religious School. These ladies and gentlemen will be welcomed into the Temple, shown exhibits of the seven major Festivals of Jewish religious life, told the history and meaning of these Festivals, and treated to an elegant tea, consisting of some dishes which are specifically Jewish and of which they may have heard and never tasted.

All the talents of the Sisterhood are being called upon: Mrs. Irving Gail is in charge of Exhibits; Mrs. Charles Schwartz and Mrs. Ben Cohen are in charge of Refreshments; Mrs. David Paritz and Mrs. I. A. Paritz are in charge of Table Appointments and Service; and Mrs. I. Jay Miller and Mrs. Harold Baker are in charge of Invitations. All the members of the Sisterhood are to act as hostesses and are requested to make whatever special arrangements in their homes that are necessary so that they may remain at the Temple until all the guests have left, even if it is six o'clock. The Temple that day is our home and these are our honored guests!

Let's help to fulfill our purpose with this Tea - a better understanding of the Jewish child by his Gentile teachers.

The second in the series under the general heading, "Mental Health Begins in the Cradle", entitled, "How Your Child Fights Back", will be given on January 24 at 7:30 P.M. Since the response of the fathers to the evening meeting was so good, we shall continue to have these meetings at night and hope for even more fathers to attend in the future. Our sincere thanks to Dr. Gail for a most interesting lecture and for his cooperation in arranging the entire program.

The Sisterhood has been highly commended in a letter from the Commander of the Ky. Division of the American Cancer Society:

"We would like to pay a special tribute to you for conducting the surgical dressing unit at the Good Samaritan Hospital. During the past several years, many unfortunate cancer victims have been assisted immeasurably because of the surgical dressings which were sent and prepared by Adath Israel Sisterhood. You have performed a service that can not be praised as it should. We are also delighted to have Mrs. Barney Miller as Fayette County Chairman. We know she will do an outstanding job and we feel most fortunate to have her serve."

JEWISH NATIONAL FUND DINNER

Lexington Jewry is invited to the Dessert Banquet of the Jewish National Fund Council of Louisville on Sunday, Dec. 3 at 8 P.M. at the Kentucky Hotel, Louisville. BARTLEY C. CRUM will be the speaker. $1.00 per cover.

The unusual holiday displays which are being prepared for the Institute will be on exhibition Wednesday evening, Dec. 6 from 7 to 8 so that the entire Congregation will have the opportunity to see them.

BROTHERHOOD

The Brotherhood is to welcome as its speaker for its meeting Wednesday, Dec. 6 at 8:00 P.M., Mr. Sylvan Lebow, Exec. Director of the National Federation of Temple Brotherhoods, who will speak on the work of the Jewish Chautauqua Society. Mr. Lebow came here last year to help organize our Brotherhood and is of course interested in our progress. Let's have a healthy attendance at this meeting.

Also, Brotherhood members are urged to come early and see the display of holiday materials prepared by the Sisterhood for the Institute for Teachers, on exhibition from 7 to 8 that evening.

BIG WEEK

Three major Temple events were carried out with great success last week:

On Wednesday afternoon, almost 100 public school teachers attended the Sisterhood Institute and Tea, were greeted by Mrs. Sidney Ballon, Chairman of the event, and Mrs. Herschel Weil, Sisterhood President; listened to a lecture on Jewish Festivals by the Rabbi and some typical examples of Jewish music by Mrs. Stanley Rose; viewed the beautiful exhibits of Jewish Festivals arranged by the Sisterhood and the Festival paintings by Ada Gail; and lingered to enjoy Jewish delicacies and to chat with the parents of their Jewish pupils. This was the most unusual and most profitable interfaith activity ever attempted in the Temple and no one enjoyed it more than the Sisterhood members themselves who prepared the exhibits and the food.

Sisterhood!

Come to Temple

On Friday night, an extra large congregation attended our Chanuko Youth Service and enjoyed the warm Chanuko-Sabbath mood of the evening. Alan Bloomfield, President of the Temple Youth Group, read the greetings from the National Federation of Temple Youth. Following the Service, the Sisterhood tendered a reception, with Mrs. Hugo Bloomfield serving as hostess.

On Sunday, the Temple Brotherhood made its entree into the field of public activities with its Chanuko Fair, under the leadership of Stanley Rose, President. A large gathering of children and parents were present to enjoy the fun and to cash their Chanuko gelt for prizes. If the amount of food consumed is any index, there never was a more enjoyable event in the Temple.

The Brotherhood wishes to thank all those who participated to make this affair the success that it was, including the Sisterhood women whose assistance was invaluable, but it especially thanks four of the "younger men" who worked like beavers and whose efforts were most appreciated: Leslie Aberson, Bobby Miller, Jack Miller and Jonas Weil.

First Year Triumph!

We are happy over the success of all these events and extend our thanks and congratulations to everyone who had a part in our Chanuko festivities.

Sabbath Dinner

Again our Sisterhood is sponsoring something new for the Congregation! On Friday evening, January 5, the Sisterhood invites all families to have their Sabbath Dinner at the Temple. Children are also included in this invitation. A turkey dinner will be served at $1.00 per plate. Lighting of the Sabbath candles, recitation of the Kiddush, the singing of Sabbath melodies will create a genuine Sabbath atmosphere; and we shall all join in the regular Sabbath service in the Temple immediately following the dinner, instead of at 8 o'clock. Reservations may be made as indicated on the front page of this Bulletin.

The Sisterhood is sponsoring this dinner as the beginning of an effort to increase our attendance at Sabbath services. We hope that a large Congregation will be present and will also be moved to pick up the habit of regular Temple attendance.
