CONGREGATIONAL MEETING

The change in procedure this year for the Congregational Meeting proved to be an excellent decision. With all business transacted after the dinner, a large gathering was assured to listen to the reports and participate in the business. This proved to be stimulating and educational to the members of the Congregation present. Those who did not attend missed a thrilling review of Congregational achievements and a spirited discussion.

Our thanks to the Temple Youth Group for serving at the Annual Dinner. We are happy to note the early development of a sense of responsibility and a desire to serve the Congregation.

Our thanks to Mrs. I. H. Stern for assuming the responsibility for the dinner and to Mr. and Mrs. I. A. Paritz for so beautifully decorating the Vestry.

New by-laws were adopted at the Congregational meeting last Sunday, the substance of which is as follows:

1. The Board was enlarged by increasing the elected membership to 10% of the membership of the Temple.
2. The election procedure for Board members was changed so as to provide for a primary ballot, which would determine nominees, numbering twice the vacancies to be filled, whose names would be resubmitted to the Congregation for a final vote.
3. The Temple Brotherhood was permitted to designate a representative on the Temple Board with the provision that this representative shall be a member of the Temple.

MESSAGE FROM THE BALLONS

LETTER FROM UAHG

I am certain that others of our colleagues will gain much from your imaginative, colorful display and I am anxious that they should see these pictures..... I will make certain that both you and your congregation receive credit lines. You are both to be commended for a splendid job. I read Mrs. Ballon's careful report of the Institute and I am going to circularize it as well..... It is this sort of creativity, I feel, which serves to enhance our congregational life. An extension phone to 3-0632 is being placed in the Library. Calls intended for someone attending meetings or for someone in the Religious School should be directed to that number.

The proposed change in bylaws concerns the election of delegates to conventions, both national and regional, and whether it is within the province of the body to instruct its delegates on the manner in which they should vote.

Only calls for the Rabbi or the office should be made to 2-4606.

Both numbers will be listed in the new telephone books.

DOCTORS, in particular, will find it more convenient to leave 30632 as their call number.

BEREA VISITORS

The Rabbi wishes to call the attention of the Congregation and particularly of Religious School parents to the following letter received from Mrs. Charles Drake of Berea, Ky. Mrs. Drake headed a group from Berea that visited the Temple during the last Children's Sabbath Morning Service.

"I write to tell you of the enthusiastic reaction of our young people and their advisers to our visit to Temple Adath Israel. We had talked, in our 8th grade studies, of the many great things that are shared in common by the Jewish and the Christian faiths. But, as you know, talk alone is pale and one real experience is worth hours of talk! I have an idea that some of our youngsters, with little experience outside their own town and group, somehow expected you and the synagogue and your young people to be somewhat strange or foreign. Then, when they arrived, you won their interest and admiration at once; and they found that they could participate in parts of the service, too. The bunch in my car talked about the visit all the way home. One of the things which most impressed them was that your young people spend three (or more) hours at the Synagogue a week - one on the Sabbath and two on Sunday morning, while they (my group) have sometimes felt hard pressed to give one or two hours. "We Protestant Christians don't know nearly so much about our faith", was one comment - and a true one. "Even the little children know some Hebrew and take part in their service," was mentioned. One effect - an unforeseen by-product of the trip has been a stimulation to clarify or think thru more carefully what he believes himself..... will you extend to your young people and their teachers our thanks for permitting us to share in their worship?"

The Rabbi wishes to compliment the parents of those children who attend on Saturday mornings and whose participation called forth this tribute. He hopes that those parents who, altho' living in town, have not sent their children or who have scheduled other things on Sat. morning will find something to think about in the above comments.

The following is an excerpt from the letter which accompanied the contribution:-

"I was very much impressed with the new library in the Sunday School Building I think the size of the room, the beauty and good taste of the furnishings are all conducive to thought and study and informal discussion, which are the things the library is meant to foster. The only thing lacking, it seemed to me was an adequate stock of books. So I am enclosing a check"

TO MRS. IRVING GAIL for the recognition being given to her painting "Still Life", selected along with the works of other recognized artists for exhibition this month in the Main Gallery of the Fine Arts Building at the University.

SHOVUOS SERVICE

Since we have no Confirmation Class this year, the entire Religious School will take part in our Shovuos Service.

An important part of the Service will be the formal acceptance by the Congregation for safekeeping of two ceremonial objects rescued from destruction in Europe. The Synagogue Council of America has supervised the distribution of a number of such objects rescued from Europe and brought to America. These have been allotted to Congregations throughout the country including our own. We shall on Shovuos acknowledge the Atozo and Besamim Box entrusted to us and receive them as symbols of our duties and obligations to our people.

At the same time we shall formally receive the certificate of membership in the Union of American Hebrew Congregations recently sent to us. Our congregation has been a member of the Union since 1907 but like other congregations never has received a certificate of membership until now.

Our post confirmation class will be in charge of these presentations.

THE CONGREGATION IS URGED NOT TO NEGLECT THIS MEANINGFUL OCCASION.

You who at this moment are reading this Bulletin, are the one the Rabbi would like most to see at the Shovuos service, Sunday morning, June 10!!!

RUTH GLEANING IN THE FIELD

THE RABBI

...addressed a visiting church class of the Frankfort Christian Church on the subject of Synagogue worship.
...will give the benediction at the graduation of Henry Clay High School and the invocation at the graduation of Lafayette High School.

...will attend the Rabbinical Summer Institute sponsored by the Hebrew Union College in New York City June 12-16 and the meeting of the Central Conference of American Rabbis in New London, Conn., June 19-25. At the Rabbinical Conference Rabbi Ballon will give the opening prayer for the Sabbath Morning Service. Following the conference the rabbi will be on vacation until about August 1.
...will participate in the Jewish Chautauqua Society Christian Summer Camp program with an assignment to the Louisville District Conference and Leadership Institute on the Kentucky State College Campus, August 5-10.

BOOK NOTES

In recent Bulletins we have called attention of the Congregation to "What We Jews Believe", Rabbi Philip Bernstein's article in Life in book form, and also the new publication by the C.C.A.R. entitled a "Book of Home Prayers". Both of these volumes may be ordered, it was suggested, thru the Temple office. The interest and response of the Congregation has been quite worthy of comment!!!!

MESSAGE FROM THE RABBI

The Congregation is to be complimented on the fact that the greatest number of them remained in the Temple for the Concluding Service on Yom Kippur. The declining sun shining through the Temple stained glass windows provided a fitting setting for this service, which is the most moving portion of the entire Yom Kippur liturgy. If you were not among those present, make a mental note to be there next year for a thrilling religious experience.

THANK YOU!

We gratefully acknowledge a contribution to the Rabbi's Fund by Mrs. Yetta Kravetz in memory of her daughters, Gertrude Goldsmith Fox and Celia Goldsmith.

Thanks to Mrs. Hillard Aberson and Mrs. Al Wenneker for arranging the beautiful reception in honor of new members on the eve of Sukos.

Thanks to Mrs. Warren Rosenthal and her committee for the attractive Suko which they built on the pulpit and which has been much enjoyed both by children and adults in the Congregation.

MAZEL TOV!

CONDOLENCES

The Congregation sends its sincere sympathy to the family of Mrs. Rubin Romer, who passed away this week.

From where I sit.....

by Rabbi Maurice Davis

It doesn't take any brains to be a parent! I thought about that last Sunday when I watched the youngsters plan, with such enthusiasm, for Chanukah. What would happen when they brought that enthusiasm home? Would they be confronted by parents who failed to appreciate how their children felt?

It is so easy to make little boys and girls miserable, not only by what we do, but, often, by what we fail to do. We love them, in a selfish sort of way. We give them everything money can buy, but what about all that money cannot buy?

This year, let's give our kids what they so desperately need. Along with the toys, and the gifts, and the gelt, let's give them companionship, and a sense of sharing in a common joy.

Let's make Chanukah a family project, a time when the hearts of the children will be truly turned to the parents, because the hearts of the parents are turned to the children.

Preparing the Hillel supper on Dec. 16 on behalf of the Sisterhood were Mrs. M. I. Barrett, Mrs. Herschel Weil and Mrs. David Weil. Thank you!

RELIGIOUS SCHOOL NOTES

There will be no Religious School on Sunday, December 30, in order that the Brotherhood may prepare for the gala Carnival that evening.

Please send 50¢ to School this Sunday, Dec. 23, with one of your children, if you want a box of Chanukah candles. We have ordered one box per family and will distribute them Sunday at School.
