IN THIS CORNER

I want to begin this article by thanking all of you who supported me in my words spoken before the Kentucky State Senate. At a time when life becomes hectic, it is wonderful to look around and feel a sense of security recognizing that you, my friends share my thoughts and support my actions.

Many of you who called mentioned the words courageous or brave. I thank you for your kind words, but the truth is that I followed my convictions. I was angry over our State's traversing beyond the wall of separation between church and state. The catalyst behind of building of the creche scene at the state capital in Frankfort was the government. Religion is not the role of government.

I appreciate the support of the Herald-Leader in the editorials written about the First Amendment to the U.S. Constitution. The local news coverage has been fair even though the popular feeling is very much against my convictions and my feelings and my beliefs.

All of us have convictions, areas in which we feel we must contribute or participate in order to achieve a better life and a better world. When we act on those convictions, we do justice to our Jewish values of justice and righteousness (tzedakkah) and compassion (rachmanut). Recently, Gail Cohen, president of CKJF, invited me to represent Lexington by sitting on the national board of the National Conference on Soviet Jewry. This term of one or two years will allow me to follow my conviction of getting Jewish refuseniks out of the Soviet Union. I am also part of the national Hineinu program which is starting to unite Jews and Jewish communities on behalf of Ethiopian Jews. I continue to support "Mazon: A Jewish response to hunger." This national organization raises and distributes money to organizations helping the needy throughout America.

Reform Judaism demands that we get involved in the social issues of our time. You can start by joining our Temple Social Action committee, offer to serve at the Community Kitchen, volunteer to work on behalf of Oppresses Jews through the world.

Rabbi Tarphon said, "It is not for us to finish the task, nor are we to refrain from helping." Follow your convictions, our community will support you too.

NOTES FROM THE BOARD OF TRUSTEES MEETING

The December 6, 1988 Board of Trustees meeting reviewed the standing committee's reports. Ken Freedman presented the monthly financial reports. The next meeting of the Dues Review and Building Fund Committee will discuss those members who have not made a pledge to the Building Fund.

The Board passed a resolution by unanimous vote regarding current attempts to amend the Law of Return and the Rabbinic Courts Bill in Israel. The resolution will be sent to ARZA and Israel's governmental leaders.

The Board acknowledged the $8,200 pledged in the Deficit Retirement drive and thanked all members who have participated, and request those who have not to do as much as they can to help.

Jo Belin's College Committee sent 22 Hanukah packages to TAI college students. She has received many notes of appreciation.

Rabbi Adland discussed the urgency and need to rescue the Ethiopian and Sudanese Jews.

TAI President Ira Mersack was recently elected to the ARZA National Board.

All members are welcome to attend the Board meetings and get involved in Temple Committees and activities. We can be very successful when the membership is involved in Temple life.

Secretary

KINDERGARTEN CLASS

Elayne Crystal, Teacher

Sunday, December 18th was a fun-filled morning for all of the Sunday School classes. Rabbi Adland suggested we all work and share in learning about one main theme... Tzedakah/Mitzvot.

The Kindergarten children spent the first hour discussing ways in which we, here at Temple Adath Israel, demonstrate Mitzvot and care for others. We read a story about this and played Tzedakah Concentration. The second half of the morning all of the classes met and did arts and craft projects. We then shared our projects with each other.

The end of our Tzedakah day was complete when the fire department came to collect all the toys the children donated for needy children here in Lexington. We certainly had a wonderful response and may toys were brought in.

The Kindergarten class made people representing various Temple members who perform Mitzvot (good deeds).

I feel we all learned a lot from the day and want to share a sampling of their ideas with you.

Question: Give an example of a Mitzvot someone does?

Answers: Lindsey Goldfarb - I help my mom at home.

Rachel Haggin - A person can visit someone who is sick and make him happy.

David Eidelson - I sing in the Temple choir and Mrs. Adland says that's a Mitzvot.

Jonathan Friedman - Bringing Keren Ami (Tzedakah) money each Sunday for the poor people is a Mitzvot.

Ben Potter - Rabbi Adland does good deeds when he helps people.

Absent - David Ravwin and Errol Strauss.

Thank you to Stephanie Russell for helping during the crafts session.

SEVENTH GRADE CLASS

Roy Meckler, Teacher

The Seventh Grade is busy learning about Judaism and Christianity. We started out this year learning about the differences between Reform, Conservative, and Orthodox Jews - their laws, historical roots, philosophy, and their current practices. We visited Hebrew Union College in Cincinnati. We learned that all Reform rabbis must attend this college or one in Los Angeles to be ordained a rabbi. We also found that anyone who is interested in scholarly pursuits concerning Judaism and Biblical history can also attend HUC. We visited the museum which is entered as though one were entering an archaeological dig in Israel. We really enjoyed our visit to HUC and hope to return there in the future to see the rare book section in the library and to talk with some of the teachers at this special place. Currently we are studying the life of Jesus from a Jewish perspective to see how the early development of Christianity grew out of Jewish traditions during the time of the Romans in Israel. We have seen a video called Jesus of Nazareth which has a long presentation of Jesus as a young boy. After the holidays we will be visiting various Christian churches in the Lexington area. Please feel free to join us on any of our visits. We will post a schedule on our door and on the main bulletin board in the lobby.

SENIOR BLOCK

Howard Kemp, Teacher

RELATIONSHIPS: A Jewish View

Our six week course was fun but serious as we examined our roles in the relationships we participate in - such as friendship, dating and love, marriage, and family. We identified with Jewish perspectives and compared and contrasted our relationships today with those of Biblical and Medieval times.

Through exercises and role playing, we became aware of our knowledge and attitudes on moral values, traditional Jewish wisdom, and our hopes and aspirations for future relationships. It was very evident that our expression of thoughts and feelings in the class demonstrated that we all have different views.

DATELINE: NEW YORK; NOVEMBER 14, 1988

STATEMENT ON LAW OF RETURN AND RABBINICAL COURTS BILL ISSUED NOVEMBER 11, 1988 BY A COALITION OF ALL THE SIGNED ORGANIZATIONS

We reaffirm our devotion to the State and the people of Israel. We are one people, with a single destiny. We reject any effort to divide our people by legislative action of the Knesset. All Jews, including those of us who are not citizens of Israel, are affected by the possibility of a change in the definition of who is a Jew under Israeli law, either through amending the Law of Return or adoption of the Rabbinical Courts bill.

Both Prime Minister Shamir and Foreign Minister Peres, as heads of their respective political parties, have repeatedly made clear that the issue of "Who is a Jew" should be removed from the political arena. Mr. Peres has called for a moratorium on any political action on this question for at least ten years, and Mr. Shamir has stated publicly on numerous occasions in the United States that the question of "Who is a Jew" should be decided by the Jewish people, and not by a political body such as the Knesset.

In this spirit, we appeal to the political leaders of Israel to heed the overwhelming voice of Diaspora Jewry. Changing the definition of "Who is a Jew," through amending the Law of Return or other legislative means, would inflict enormous damage, actual and symbolic, on the Jews of the Diaspora. The unique partnership between the Jewish people and the State of Israel must be preserved.

IN THIS CORNER

As a result of an appointment by the Central Kentucky Jewish Federation, I am now a delegate on the Board of Governors of the National Conference on Soviet Jewry. I represent our local Federation. On February 1 & 2, I attended my first Board meeting which was held in Washington, D.C.

The situation for Soviet Jewish refuseniks is changing. In 1988, nearly 19,000 Jews emigrated from the Soviet Union. This is the most since 1980, though far short of the 51,000 who left in 1979. The Soviet Union relaxed their emigration rules last year allowing many of the long time refuseniks to leave. At the present time, only 625 refusenik families totalling 2,700 people are still waiting for their status to change and permission to leave. I believe most of these families will get out during the 1989 year.

Much of the success in the new emigration policy is a result of the application of the 15 year old Jackson-Vanik Amendment which tied U.S.-Soviet trade to improvement in Soviet human rights policies. The Soviet government is recognizing the benefits of the U.S. as a trading partner.

Even though 18 years of hard work by the National Conference on Soviet Jewry is finally being rewarded, it is not time to relax our vigilance on Soviet Jewry. There are other issues besides emigration that concerns the Soviet Jewish community, especially those Jews not yet ready to leave. First is recognition of the legitimate cultural ambitions and desires of Soviet Jews. Many other Soviet nationalities have had their language approved as a national language. Hebrew is not yet the official language of Soviet Jews despite their continued petitions. Second, according to the law, parents may not teach more than three of their own children at one time about religion. Even though this law is not being enforced at the present time, the Soviet Jewish community wants this law repealed which would allow Hebrew and Religious Schools to exist. Third, some refuseniks are placed in the category of refusenik as a result of their possession of State secrets. The Soviet government must identify how long someone may be refused permission to emigrate based on this knowledge. At this time there is no policy.

The National Conference on Soviet Jewry is interested in continued Jewish travel to the Soviet Union to visit Jews, but not necessarily only to visit refuseniks. Soviet Jews want and need Jewish education. Rabbis and educators should be sent to teach about Judaism and to teach Hebrew to this culturally neglected Jewish community.

Our support is still critical in the area of Soviet Jewry. We must continue to press for freedom for those who wish to leave and for education for those who wish to remain. Only a concerted effort by the entire Jewish community in America and abroad will insure the rights of our brothers and sisters. We must not only say "Let My people go," but we must add, "Let My people be Jews."

SAUDI ARMS SALE PROPOSAL EXPECTED

In spite of assurances that sales of advanced American arms to Saudi Arabia would not occur until Saudi Arabia joined the peace process, the Bush Administration is now considering a major arms sale to Saudi Arabia. Press reports suggest that the sale may include over 100 F-18 fighter aircraft which are among the most sophisticated fighters in the U.S. arsenal. These plans could seriously jeopardize Israel's security.

Although the actual size and scope of the sale is not yet known, it is imperative that elected officials now receive our message of opposition to any sale.

Saudi Arabia has not advanced the peace process. They still maintain a state of war with Israel by refusing to recognize Israel's right to exist, bankrolling the PLO, and continuing the Arab boycott.

In addition, at a time when the U.S. has opened formal diplomatic relations with the PLO, the U.S. should not take any action which might be interpreted as weakening support for our strongest ally in the Middle East -- Israel. On the other hand, strong congressional opposition to the proposed sale would send a clear message of ongoing U.S. support of Israel's right to exist.

Please write your members of Congress and urge their opposition to this sale. Write to senators at U.S. Senate, Washington, DC 20510; representatives at U. S. House of Representatives, Washington, DC 20515.

JEWISH HOME SERIES NOW IN ONE VOLUME

Beginning in 1974, the "Jewish Home" series in Reform Judaism magazine came into being. Many of us have followed this question and answer section of the magazine searching for answers as to the "how to" of Reform Jewish life. Now the series is available in one volume from the Union of American Hebrew Congregations. Contact the TAI gift shop for orders.

This book covers the holidays and life-cycle events we experience as Jews.

RELIGIOUS SCHOOL NEWS

Fourth Grade Class

Phyllis Russell, Teacher

Fourth Grade students have been engaged in a variety of stimulating activities as we cover the objectives of our curriculum.

At the beginning of the year, we toured our Temple and interviewed prominent people associated with the religious school. We also learned about the different services provided by our Temple.

We talked about how the Talmud is a Jewish classic and how its format differs from that of the Bible, the Torah, and a Siddur.

We discovered our Jewish identity in discussing group membership and Jewish life experiences. Mrs. DeBenedetti taught us a Yiddish song and a song in Ladino as we studied some differences of Ashkenazic and Sephardic Jews. And we found out that most of us are Ashkenazic.

We spent some time studying the meaning of Tzedakah and reported on Jewish people and Jewish organizations that exemplify Tzedakah. As part of the Mitzvot presentation which involved most of the religious school, fourth grade made a film strip depicting the eight steps of Tzedakah according to Maimonides.

We also worked on our Tu B'Shevat program that was presented at the Family Shabbat on January 20th.

Fifth Grade Class

Shlomit Elitzur, Teacher

The Fifth Grade class is doing a unit on the elderly. The class shared stories of grandparents and great-grandparents and will see the movie "Batteries Not Included" together. Two guest speakers, Mrs. Raven, who discussed Crystal Night, and Mrs. Fried, who discussed her son's Bar Mitzvah and was interviewed by her daughter, Emily, enlightened the class.

Sixth Grade Class

Jana DeBenedetti, Teacher

The sixth grade Sunday school class was polled to see how they felt about what they learned and how they learned it. When asked what they have learned so far in 5749, they enthusiastically recalled these topics: God, famous Jewish people, Hebrew words, Bible, life cycle, and Jewish identity.

They unanimously agreed that learning is fun this year, and they look forward to Sunday mornings. As a matter of fact, they said they feel more comfortable in the Temple than anywhere but home. So if you see a sixth grader around (you can look for them in the Temple), ask them about the topics they've learned or why it's fun in Sunday school -- maybe we'll print the results of your poll next time.

RELIGIOUS SCHOOL BOOKS TO BE AVAILABLE

During the month of February, the TAI Religious School will set out many of the old religious school textbooks for our members to inherit. These books contain accurate information and good stories, but are no longer used in religious school.

If you wish to make a contribution as remuneration for these books, the Religious School says THANK YOU.

TAI PRESCHOOL NEWS

TAI Preschool is pleased to announce that they will sponsor a class from Parent's Place again this year. The course will be "Parents of 3, 4 & 5 Year Olds." It will meet at Temple on Tuesdays, April 25th through May 30th from 9:30 A.M. to 11:30 A.M. The cost is $36 per person or $54 per couple. To register or receive further information, please call Parent's Place at 268-4292

Pre-registration for the 1989-90 school has been excellent. The three and four year olds classes are full; however, there are still some openings in the 2 1/2 year old class for next fall. If you would like further information, please call me at 269-2979. Again, I thank all of you who have supported the Preschool and made it the success it is.

Sally Kocen, Director

CONFIRMATION CLASS REQUEST

There are approximately fifteen thousand Jews living in Ethiopia who are threatened by war, disease and famine. They desperately want to be reunited with their relative in Israel. This year's Confirmation Class is seriously concerned about these problems.

We would like to sponsor the relocation of an Ethiopian Jewish child to Israel. In order to accomplish this, we require a minimum of $600. We appeal to all members of Temple Adath Israel to help us in our project. Please send all donations to the Confirmation Class Ethiopian Fund. Thank you.

Naomi Clewett, Nina Davidson, Ofer Elitzur, Josh Fried, Greg Freed, Jennifer Graff, Elizabeth Kessler, Melinda Mersack, Miriam Milch, Nikki Silverman and Tammy Wachtel, Confirmation Class of 1989.

ETHIOPIAN JEWS CONTINUE TO SUFFER

Our Ethiopian Jewish brothers and sisters continue to suffer terribly in their native land. Without help from the worldwide Jewish community, the remaining 15,000 Jews will suffer in their poverty and most likely perish. These Jews are the remains of what was once a powerful Jewish community. Their treasures and customs are part of our Jewish consciousness.

The cost of rescue are staggering. Both our Religious School and the Confirmation class are trying to raise $600 each to rescue just one Ethiopian Jewish child. If you can help, then contact Rabbi Adland. It is imperative that we do what we can to save these lives.

LYDIA KUKOFF'S VISIT POSTPONED UNTIL SEPTEMBER 15TH

With deep regrets, Lydia Kukoff must postpone her Lexington visit with us until the fall. Ms. Kukoff promises that there will not be another postponement. She anticipates sharing her work in the UAHC Outreach program as well as insights into new directions that Outreach will move in the coming years.

50 GATES OF REPENTANCE PURCHASED

As a result of the generosity of the many people who contributed to the Prayerbook fund in memory of Hillard Aberson, 50 Gates of Repentance, the High Holy Day Mahzor, are now ordered. A shortfall was noticed at the last High Holy Days. We believe that 50 copies will make-up the difference.

SISTERHOOD SABBATH

TAI Sisterhood will be held this year on February 24th at 8 P.M. There will be a special worship service, and in place of the sermon, past Sisterhood presidents will speak and reminisce on local sisterhood history. (Few of us realize what a long and glorious history our Sisterhood has. Its forerunner was founded in 1901, pre-dating the forming of this Temple congregation by several years.)

Following the service there will be a special oneg honoring the past presidents. Babysitting will be available. We are looking forward to having Temple members join us in celebrating 87 years of Lexington Sisterhood.

SISTERHOOD APRIL MEETING

TAI Sisterhood's April 12th meeting will take place in the Temple kitchen, beginning at 12:30 P.M. This meeting will be a little different from the others - there will be no lunch provided and no speaker. As Sisterhood will be preparing the Passover Seder the following week, we've decided to turn this month's meeting into a cook-in for the Seder. Unusual? Yes, but look at it as an opportunity to learn to make special Passover dishes, and to join in the fun of preparing for the Temple Seder. No RSVP needed.

CENTRAL KENTUCKY JEWISH SINGLES - CKJS

After a fall hiatus, the Central Kentucky Jewish Singles organization is undertaking a membership drive as well as planning our February activities. The CKJS enables all Jewish singles to enjoy one another's company in both religious and social settings. We are not a dating service nor a "lonely hearts club" but merely allow Jewish singles an opportunity to meet others with similar backgrounds and heritage. We are open to all singles 18 or older.

The CKJS currently has a mailing list of approximately 150 names with about 15 "active" members. Jewish singles affiliated with all three Lexington congregations, as well as those unaffiliated, from a seven county area are members of the CKJS, although our funding from the Temple is especially appreciated. We welcome and encourage new members (and there are no dues!). Those who are interested in being put on the mailing list or have any questions about the CKJS should feel free to contact Chas Hite, 929 Aurora Ave., Lexington, KY 40502 (266-0246); Nancy Azbel (266-0246); or the Havurah, the Synagogue, the Temple, or the Central Kentucky Jewish Federation (252-7622).

Throughout the year CKJS activities include Shabbat dinners, leading services, a Passover Seder, a Keeneland Day, Spring Dance evening, swimming and lake parties, High Holy Day services, UK football tailgating, Hanukah party, progressive dinners, evenings at Comedy on Broadway, religious and current event discussion groups, Sunday bagel brunches and community service projects. With expressed interest, future events may include bridge, trivia or scrabble nights, horseback riding, or anything else that membership comes up with. We are also informed of singles events in Columbus, Cincinnati, Nashville and Louisville and our members attend events in these cities as well as hosting Jewish singles from those surrounding areas at our spring dance.

Lexington's singles next event is:

Saturday, February 18th
8:30 P.M. - Get together party and election of new officers at Chas Hite's place - 929 Aurora Ave.
Please come!

For any questions about this event, contact Nancy or Chas at the numbers listed above.

GOLDMAN UNION CAMP INSTITUTE: JEWISH SUMMER CAMP AT ITS FINEST

Our regional Reform Jewish camp, Goldman Union Camp Institute in Zionsville, IN, is still accepting camper applications for the summer of 1989. Temple Adath Israel has been well represented in recent years by an ever-increasing number of youth attending the camp. This summer Rabbi Adland will be spending the first two weeks of the first session at the camp, participating in the activities which are taking place.

A typical day at G.U.C.I. includes swimming, Hebrew, athletics, shiur, and arts and crafts, dance, photography, or drama. Meal times are filled with food and song.

If you are considering summer camp for your child or if you're still considering options for this summer, consider Goldman Union Camp Institute. Your child will say thank you. For more information about the camp or financial aid, contact Rabbi Adland at TAI.

BAR/BAT MITZVAH DATE SETTING FOR CHILDREN BORN IN 1978

On February 28, at 7:30 P.M., Rabbi Adland will set Bar and Bat Mitzvah dates for those children born during the calendar year 1978. These Bar and Bat Mitzvahs will occur during the 1991 calendar year. It is important that at least one parent of each child be at the meeting. Besides setting dates, we will go over the program of Bar/Bat Mitzvah and answer any questions.

COMMUNITY KITCHEN RECEIVES SECOND MAZON GRANT

Mazon: A Jewish Response to Hunger, recently awarded $3,000 to Community Kitchen. This is Mazon's second grant to Community Kitchen.

Temple Adath Israel continues to support both Mazon and the Community Kitchen. On Monday, January 30, our Social Action Committee helped prepare and serve dinner at the Horizon Center of the Community Kitchen. (Our congregation serves whenever there is a fifth Monday in a month. The next date is May 29th.) Anyone interested in participating in this important worthwhile project should contact TAI or Bruce Engel. The response from interested volunteers is overwhelming. You will be contacted when you are needed.

Mazon began several years ago as an idea by one man. His idea was that we self-impose a 3% tax on the cost of celebrating positive life-cycle events such as Bar/Bat Mitzvah, Wedding, Brit Milah or baby naming, or a wedding anniversary celebration. Therefore, our joy is increased by sharing it with those in need of food or shelter. Mazon receives the contributions and semi-annually makes allocations based on money available and money requested. This year's January allocations totalled $330,000, up from $250,000 last July. "Mazon: A Jewish Response to Hunger" is working. Its success depends on your good will. Please remember Mazon during your family celebrations. Those less fortunate than ourselves will say thank you.

RECENT ACTIONS BY THE TAI WORSHIP COMMITTEE

At a recent meeting of the TAI Worship Committee, the following actions were taken or noted:

1. On March 31, Rabbi Adland and Rabbi Slaton (OZS) will exchange pulpits. This is an opportunity to see and hear Rabbi Slaton at TAI and Rabbi Adland at OZS.

2. On Tuesday, May 2, TAI and OZS will hold a joint Yom HaShoa Service (Holocaust Memorial Service) at the Temple. The service will be written by the Rabbis Adland and Slaton. This an opportunity for the two congregational communities to remember and to pray together at this moment of Jewish sorrow.

3. After a successful trial last summer, we will move to an expanded summer service schedule. Summer services will begin the Shabbat following Shavuot, June 9 and continue through the Shabbat of Labor Day weekend, September 1. The time is 6:00 P.M. Services conclude at approximately 6:45 P.M.

4. Also, the last two Shabbat of December 1989 and the first two in January 1990 will begin at 6:30 P.M. They will follow the format of the summer service.

5. Selichot services in September 1989 will be held jointly with OZS at the Synagogue. Study sessions led by the rabbis will precede the midnight service.

CAN YOU HELP US LOCATE THESE CONFIRMANDS?

A PERSONAL REQUEST FROM RABBI ADLAND

March 4, is the annual Sisterhood Donor Affair. This important annual event raises money to help in sustaining our Religious School. The support of this program by every person in the congregation is crucial to the continued success of our Religious School. Last year's triumphant Donor Affair allowed the Religious School to update and expand its audio/visual resources, as well as expand the Teacher's Resource Center.

Members of the congregation, parents of Religious School students past and present, are asked to contribute to the donor affair at whatever level you feel comfortable. Come to Temple March 4. Join with the community in the fun and good-feeling this evening creates. Let us look to the future of our children's religious education by providing for it now. Thank you, Rabbi Jon Adland

ARZA NEWS

Orthodox extremism threatens Israel's democratic traditions and the unity of the Jewish people. American contacts with the PLO create both diplomatic opportunities and diplomatic perils. Israel is in crisis. How should Reform Jews respond? What more can we do to build a progressive and tolerant Israel, where all religious streams have equal rights? How can we help those who are seeking a positive and constructive way to relate to Israel in these difficult times?

For answers to these questions, attend the ARZA National Assembly, which will take place in Boston on March 24-27. Israeli and American political leaders, outstanding journalists, leading academics, and representatives of the Israel Progressive Movement will speak. Learn about the Israel Religious Action Center, and the many accomplishments of Reform Judaism in Israel. For registration information, contact Nat Sandler at 269-1150 or ARZA, 838 Fifth Avenue, NY, NY 10021, phone 212-249-1011 Ext. 421.

Background

A CRISIS OF OPPORTUNITY

Dramatic International Realignment Could Help Save Thousands of Jews

Congressional Advisors Urge An Immediate Response

1. The Soviet Union is withdrawing aid from North African countries including Ethiopia. Ethiopia which was never strongly ideologically aligned with the Soviet Union is turning to the West for aid.
2. Within the last four months agricultural ministers from Ethiopia have visited Israel. Israel is now providing Ethiopia with agricultural aid and technology and other assistance.
3. Ethiopian Prime Minister Mengistu is making unprecedented overtures to the United States for improved ties with the hope of bringing war torn, famine stricken Ethiopia vitally needed food and technology.
4. Previously, through Operations Moses and Joshua, our Congress has demonstrated its willingness to both help initiate the rescue of Ethiopian Jewry and financially support it by paying over 34 million dollars towards the effort.
5. Grassroots activity on behalf of rescue virtually ceased after Operation Moses because the majority of American Jews falsely believed that all the Jews were airlifted to Israel.

For these reasons the leadership of the US Congressional Caucus for Ethiopian Jewry strongly urges American Jewry to:

"...immediately mobilize a massive expression of grassroots support asking Congress for its help in reuniting the 15,000 Jews in Ethiopia with their families in Israel."

PETITION TO UNITED STATES GOVERNMENT

Dear President Bush, Secretary of State Baker and Members of the One Hundred and First Congress.

My family and I are truly grateful for the strong support given by our government in conjunction with Israel to save Ethiopian Jewry through Operations Moses and Joshua/Sheba in 1984 and 1985. Without the support of Congress, thousands of Jews may have perished.

However, 15,000 Jews still languish in famine stricken Ethiopia. They desperately want to rejoin their families in Israel.

We urge you to:

Do everything in your power to encourage the Ethiopian government to establish a Family Reunification Program for those Jews who are separated from their families.

We urge you, our Senators and Representatives to:

Join the United States Congressional Caucus for Ethiopian Jewry if you are not already a member.

Thank you for your consideration.

IN THIS CORNER

As we approach the uplifting holiday of Purim, it is important that we take time to remember the lessons of this story which are taught not only to children, but to teenagers and adults as well. As we all recall this story, Mordecai and Esther foiled the plot of the evil, wicked Haman who wanted to destroy the Jewish community of Shushan and all of the Jews of Persia. Haman had gallows built to hang the Jews, but the evil, wicked Haman ended up hanging from his own rope. We celebrate this victory of righteousness over anti-Semitism by wearing festive costumes, listening to the story read from the megillah, the scroll of Esther, and affirming our right to exist as Jews living freely wherever we choose.

As Jews living within a small Jewish community, the scroll of Esther holds particular significance. Like Esther, we are quite proud of our Jewish heritage and identity. Many of us have homes filled with Jewish objects, symbols, and Jewish art. We come to Temple and participate in the activities; but to reveal our Jewish self in public could result in subtle forms of anti-Semitism such as social ostracization. In Esther's case, she might have faced death.

I believe that our young adults are affected to the greatest extent. Often these young people are the only Jews in their class or in their school. At certain times of the year, our Jewish youth must find that extra measure of inner strength to explain their Jewish religion, defend themselves from verbal attacks, and overcome the emotional trauma of exclusion. We know that our children should not be fearful. We want to believe that the freedom we fought for in this society exists for our children among their friends.

What if it doesn't? What if some of our youth are afraid to be identified by their friends as a Jew. How painful it must be to hide such an important part of oneself. We must fulfill our obligation as adults and parents to instill a sense of pride and depth of courage so that when our children face the ignorant and hateful people of the world they are sure who they are, no matter what anyone says or does. Being alone is a terrible feeling. Our youth must know that we

Queen Esther was a brave woman. She summoned that special inner strength to face death in order to reveal that she was a Jew. She knew her community cared and supported her actions. Queen Esther set an example for us all. Let us celebrate her wonderful example and our proud Jewish identity.

ARZA NEWS

The recent, nearly successful effort to amend the Law of Return was the result of an intensive lobbying campaign by the Lubavitcher Rebbe and the Lubavitch/Habad movement. Lubavitch is active in communities throughout the United States, and often cultivates good relations with Reform leaders, who provide much of the movement's financial support. What these leaders do not know, however, is that in Israel, Habad is the leading advocate of amending the Law of Return, which would be, in effect, a public proclamation by the State of Israel that Reform and Conservative Judaism are illegitimate. As part of its campaign to gain support for the amendment, Habad representatives in Israel have for years conducted a vicious, anti-Reform campaign.

Habad proclaims its love for all Jews. This is admirable in principle. But the protestations of love seem to mark a less noble agenda. Our money is kosher, but we are trefe. As Jews we are kosher, but our Judaism is trefe. This is the truth about Lubavitch, and every Reform Jew should be informed of the facts. ARZA is currently preparing a fact sheet on Habad, which may be obtained from the ARZA office, 838 Fifth Avenue, New York, NY 10021.

RELIGIOUS SCHOOL NEWS

THREE AND FOUR YEAR OLD CLASS

Debbie Davidson & Iris Silberman,
Teachers

The three and four year old class has been learning about Purim. We will be having our parents' day on Purim, which is March 19th.

Each week we have circle time, which is when each child has the opportunity to talk about what we have been learning. This is our favorite time.

We also say the blessing over the food and the Shema each week. Every time we say the blessing and the Shema we notice how well the children are remembering the words.

We do have a lot of fun and although on some Sunday mornings we have a few tears when moms and dads say goodbye, the children do say that they like to come to Religious School.

SECOND GRADE CLASS

Sandy Adland, Teacher

The second grade class has been busy exploring various aspects of Judaism. We spent several weeks defining and discussing human problems (poverty, homelessness, hunger, sickness, the uneducated) and learning of ways that the Jewish community reaches out to help those who face these problems. We are now in the midst of a unit regarding Jewish Literature. The students are learning about the Talmud, Mishnah, Siddur and Union Songster. They took a "tour" through the Tanach, and they even wrote their own Midrash. In our Bible People workbooks, we've learned about the lives of Adam and Eve, Noah, and we are currently learning about Abraham. Now, we are gearing up for Purim!

THIRD GRADE CLASS

Sheila Biel, Teacher

The third grade students have covered a variety of topics. One week was devoted to the topic of kindness. We explored the ways each of them demonstrated acts of kindness the previous week.

Over a few weeks the topic of Israel was discussed. This turned out to be a topic of intense student participation, as at least half of the class have been to Israel and had many things to share.

We also discussed the skills and responsibilities needed to participate in a worship service and how one is to act when sitting on the Bimah as well as exploring the Bimah itself.

JEWISH FOLK FESTIVAL IN CINCINNATI

The 13th Annual Cincinnati Jewish Folk Festival is to be held on Sunday, May 21 in the Burnet Woods Bandshell in Cincinnati from 1 to 6 P.M.

This is an annual celebration of Jewish culture; it brings together the best of the Jewish community's professional and amateur singers, dancers, and artists. The outdoor showcase includes five hours of continuous music and dance on a main stage, a children's stage, a hands-on children's area, an art fair, an ethnic food fair, organizational booths, and craft displays.

You are invited to participate in the festival sponsored by the Hillel Jewish Student Center. Demonstration of your art or craft is highly encouraged. Please contact Laura Kirschenbaum as soon as possible at Hillel: (502)221-6728.

COMMUNITY KITCHEN NEEDS OUR HELP

On Maimonides' eight steps of tzedakah, the highest level is helping people to help themselves. This allows the giver and the receiver to maintain a sense of dignity and at the same time to allow the receiver to become independent of public support and assistance.

The Community Kitchen of Lexington annually budgets money to assist individuals and families who need aid in making their rent and utility payments. This money allows an individual or family to remain in their housing instead of winding up on the street. This money also assists people in the transition from the street to an apartment. These are people who have found a job, but need help making their first month's rent.

This year's budget of $2,000 for this need (doubled from the 1987-88 budget) ran out a long time ago. The Community Kitchen has spent $10,500 during this fiscal year and anticipates the same, if not more, for the coming fiscal year 1989-90. The budget may not be increased for the coming year. THE COMMUNITY KITCHEN NEEDS OUR HELP!!

Jewish tradition and Jewish values teach us to remember the poor, the widow, and the orphan and in this day, the homeless. By making a contribution to The Community Kitchen EMERGENCY FINANCIAL ASSISTANCE FUND, we can aid citizens of the Lexington-Fayette County area be able to help themselves. With just the right amount of assistance, we can put some people back in homes, help them keep their jobs, and fulfill the mitzvah of tzedakah.

NO. 13

MARCH 31, 1989

24 ADAR II 5749

IN THIS CORNER

On March 8th, I attended the public meeting in Frankfort of the Kentucky State Board for Elementary and Secondary Education's Committee on Family Life Education. As vice-chairman of the Fayette County Family Planning Advisory Council, I testified before the committee advocating the inclusion in the Family Life Curriculum of information on contraception. I firmly believe that every student should be fully cognizant about contraception by the end of the Middle School years.

My opinion was only one of forty-five expressed during this raucous meeting. The opinions ranged from support of a much more conservative model curriculum as proposed by Dr. Brock to more realistic conclusions which favored the Task Force's recommendation. Supporters of Dr. Brock came in great numbers and used this majority to try and intimidate the committee into seeing that their view was the correct view. Those supporting the Task Force pointed again and again to the rising tide of teen pregnancy in Kentucky. It was noted that for white teens, we rank first in the country. A dubious distinction.

Our children's sexual activity does not begin because we have taken prayer out of schools, as some attending the meeting asserted, or because the Ten Commandments are not on the walls of our schools. The media, encompassing print and film, is rampant with unconcerned promiscuity; peer and social pressures are confusing; the break-up of the family forcing some children to look for love, and other indefinable areas, combine to teach or sway a child toward experimentation with sex. At the same time, our children ignore the medical world's warnings about the epidemic of sexually transmitted diseases and the spread of AIDS.

Those favoring the more conservative curriculum spoke about teaching our children to just say no and that by providing contraceptive information we will give our children a license to become sexually active. Though I want to believe that our children are strong enough to resist the potential disasters of early sexual activity, I know that we must provide our children with all the information and options available. As I said in my testimony, "[I believe] contraceptive information enhances a teenagers understanding of self, self-esteem, and responsibility, as long as the information is presented in a fair, honest, and factual manner without imposing the values of guilt or inadequacy."

Finally, I agree with the needed emphasis on pre-marital abstinence and on the insistence of fidelity within the marriage. These are the only sure ways not to continue the plagues of teen pregnancy, sexually transmitted disease, and AIDS. At the same time, just as we tell a child not to drink from a jar marked poison, we still give directions what to do if swallowed. Those fighting for the side of providing information are in an important battle. The world is sufficiently difficult without withholding from our children critical information at such a vulnerable time in their lives.

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

The 1988-89 Temple fiscal year is winding down. We have received our ballots for the Board of Trustees, and as usual everyone of the candidates would be an asset to the Board and our Congregation. I am sure that the people not elected will continue in other areas of Temple leadership.

Stanley May resigned as our Temple Administrator, effective this past January 1st. He and his wife, Helen will be missed by many of our members. We all wish them well. With Stan's resignation, the Executive Committee and the Temple Board of Trustees have re-evaluated our administrative needs and will seek a person to fill the role of an office manager, bookkeeper. Rabbi Adland does such a wonderful job with Temple programming, assisted by our various committees, we are able to modify the job description for what was formerly the role of Temple Administrator/Programmer.

A major portion of the recent Board of Trustees' meetings has been devoted to preparing the 1989-90 Temple budget which will be voted upon at our April Annual Congregational Dinner. Many difficult decisions are being made regarding program funding, salaries for all Temple personnel, and Temple maintenance. Please be generous when you make your yearly pledge. You will receive this bulletin after the date when pledge cards are to be returned, but Ken Freedman will be happy to receive your call or letter increasing your pledge.

Congratulations to Bobbi Fried, Ruth Baker, Cheri Rose and their Sisterhood members for providing such an enjoyable Temple function with the Sisterhood Casino Night. More than 125 people enjoyed each others company, and our Religious School will be the major beneficiary of the more than $5,500 raised.

We have continued to make progress as a Jewish community this past year, but we have chosen not to be satisfied with our efforts. Think of how the Temple can be a more meaningful part of your life in the coming year, and call or drop me a note with your ideas.

Sincerely,

Ira P. Mersack,
President

FAMILY LIFE TASK FORCE MEETING - APRIL 11

A newly formed Temple committee chaired by Bobbi Shain, Toni Reiss, and Steve Wides, will hold its first meeting at 7:30 P.M. on April 11th. The purpose of the Task Force is to analyze those areas of Family Life and Parenting which the Temple should be considering as part of its programming. If you have not yet been asked to serve on this Task Force and would like to do so, please call Rabbi Adland at 269-2979.

BOARD NOTES FROM MARCH MEETING

The March Board of Trustees meeting focused on the Temple's 1989-90 fiscal plan. Budget & Finance Committee Chairman, Alvin Goldman, reviewed proposals for use of funds which will be presented to the congregation at the Annual Meeting. One of the key focuses is the implementation of a Maintenance Contingency Fund for the Temple's long term facilities needs.

The Treasurer's Report indicated that dues income was down slightly from last year, but total income is up due to income received from the Deficit Retirement pledges paid. Treasurer, Ken Freedman, also advised the Trustees that we have received a number of dues pledges that have increased by the requested 15%.

The job description for the Temple Office Manager/Bookkeeper was reviewed and approved. A small committee will hopefully interview the candidates during this month. This position is being filled to replace the administrator's position vacancy created when Mr. May resigned.

A workshop is being planned for those congregants who will lead services while Rabbi Adland is on vacation and unavailable.

All ballots for the new Board of Trustees nominees have been distributed. All congregants are encouraged to cast and return their ballots. The future leadership depends on the votes.

A number of items were approved by the Board. A $100 donation from the Tzedakah Fund payable to the Winburn Baptist Church Relief Fund for the victims of the recent fire at Winburn Square Apts. was approved. Also, the Temple Board voted to participate in a fund drive for planting trees in the Ashland Avenue area near the Temple. The Temple will also join the Neighborhood Association.

Consideration of the Section 8 designation for the Temple's rental house at 125 N. Hanover is being reviewed. The Urban County Government designation enhances the opportunity to rent the property to a broader audience.

All members are encouraged to participate and attend your Temple's Board of Trustees and committee meetings. Your participation in Temple activities helps us all.

Steve E. Kocen, Secretary

ARZA NEWS

The ARZA-sponsored Israel Religious Action Center has won the right to establish Israel's first Reform cemetery. The cemetery will be open to all Israeli Jews, Reform or otherwise, and will permit families to select the religious ritual for the burial service.

Burial in Israel's cities is completely controlled by Orthodox burial societies, which give families little or no say in the funeral service, and compel burial in shrouds rather than caskets. Last year, the Israel Religious Action Center, sponsored by ARZA, established a Reform burial society. When its application for a permit was turned down, the Center appealed to the Israeli Supreme Court. The day before the Court was to hear the case, Orthodox authorities changes their position, and approved the license. It is expected that the cemetery will be operating later this year.

You can support the work of the Israel Religious Action Center by joining ARZA. For more information, contact Nat Sandler, your ARZA chairperson or the Temple office.

RELIGIOUS SCHOOL NEWS

FIRST GRADE

Anita Mersack, Teacher

The first grade class has just finished a unit on Shabbat. We learned why we have Shabbat, ways to celebrate it, made a kiddush cup and candlesticks, and interviewed people to find out what they like to do on Shabbat. We learned about Havdalah, the ceremony that marks the end of Shabbat, and made a spice box.

We are also studying mitzvot. We have discussed the following mitzvot: honoring your father and mother, emet - telling the truth, shalom bayit - a peaceful home, and returning lost property.

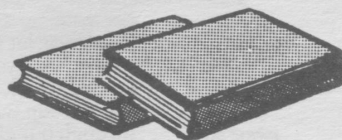

We try to read a Jewish book from our library as often as we can. When we finish a book, we add another section to our bookworm. Come and see how long our bookworm is!

(THIS PRAYER IS TO BE INSERTED IN THE PASSOVER SEDER BEFORE OPENING THE DOOR FOR ELIJAH.)

The Fifth Child

THE ONE WHO CANNOT ASK

On this night, we remember a fifth child.
This is a child of the Shoah (Holocaust), who did not survive to ask.

Therefore, we ask for that child – Why?

We are like the simple child. We have no answer.
We can only follow the footsteps of Rabbi Elazar ben Azariah, who could not bring himself to mention the Exodus at night until Ben Zoma explained it to him through the verse:

In order that you REMEMBER the day of your going out from Egypt, all the days of your life. (Deut. 16.3)

“The days of your life” indicates the daylight and the goodness of life. “All the days of your life” means even in the darkest nights when we have lost our firstborn, we must remember the Exodus.

We answer that child’s question with silence.

In silence, we remember that dark time.

In silence, we remember that Jews preserved their image of God in the struggle for life.

In silence, we remember the seder nights spent in the forests, ghettos, and camps; we remember that seder night when the Warsaw Ghetto rose in revolt.

(Ili the cup of Elijah)

In silence, let us pass the cup of Elijah, the cup of the final redemption yet-to-be. We remember our people’s return to the land of Israel, the beginning of that redemption. Let us each fill Elijah’s cup with some of our wine, expressing the hope that through our efforts, we will help bring closer that redemption.

We rise now and open our door to invite Elijah, the forerunner of the future which will bring an end to the nights of our people.

We sing as they did:

Ani Maamin

אני מאמין באמונה שלמה בביאת המשיח:
ואף על פי שיתמהמה, עם כל זה אני מאמין!

Ani maamin b'emunah shleimah, beviat Hamashiah, V'af al pi she yitmameah, im kol zeh ani maamin.

For I firmly believe in the coming of the Messiah, and even though the Messiah may tarry, in spite of this, I still believe.

THE MATZAH OF HOPE מִצָּה זוֹ—עַל שׁוֹם הַתְּקוּהָ

At an appropriate point during the Seder, the leader takes a matzah and says:

מִצָּה זוֹ, שְׂאֵנִי מִיְּהוּדִים, עַל שׁוֹם מָה?
עַל שׁוֹם הַתְּקוּהָ שֶׁיֵּשׁ לְאַחֵינוּ בְּנֵי יִשְׂרָאֵל, יְהוּדֵי
כְּרִית־הַמוֹצָצוֹת. מִצָּה זוֹ מַעֲלָה עַל לִבֵּנוּ אֶת
הַקֶּשֶׁר בֵּינֵינוּ לְבָנִים אֲשֶׁר כָּל יוֹתֵק לְעוֹלָם.
עֲתָה, בְּחַג הַפֶּסַח שֶׁהוּא זְמַן חֲרוּמֵנוּ, נִזְכֵּר
שֶׁיְהוּדֵי כְּרִית־הַמוֹצָצוֹת אֵינָם בְּנֵי חוּרִין.
אֵינָם בְּנֵי חוּרִין לְצֵאתָם וּלְעֵלוֹת צִיּוֹנָה. אֵינָם בְּנֵי
חוּרִין לְלַמֵּד מִסּוּרַת אֲבוֹתֵינוּ וּלְשׁוֹנָם. אֵינָם בְּנֵי
חוּרִין לְהַכְשִׁיר מוֹרִים וְרַבֵּי לְדוֹרוֹת הַבָּאִים.
אָנוּ עוֹמְדִים בְּעֶדְם, וְנַעֲמֵד יַחַד אִתָּם עַד שֶׁיִּקְרָא
אֶת הָאוֹר הַגָּדוֹל — אוֹר הַפְּרוֹת וְהַנְּאוּלָּה.

This matzah, which we set aside as a symbol of hope for the Jews of the Soviet Union, reminds us of the indestructible links that exist between us.

As we observe this festival of freedom, we recall that Soviet Jews are not free to leave without harassment; to learn of their past; to pass on their religious traditions; to learn the language of their fathers; to train teachers and rabbis of future generations.

We will stand with them in their struggle until the light of freedom and redemption shines forth.

At the seder, we drink four cups of wine for the following expression of freedom declared to the Jewish People when we were slaves in Egypt.

"I will bring you out from under the burdens of Egypt and I will deliver you out of their bondage and I will redeem you with an outstretched arm and with great judgments; and I will take you to me for a people . . . and I will bring you in to the Land which I swore to give to Abraham, Isaac and Jacob." (Exodus 6:6-8)

Tonight, when we drink the four cups, let us dedicate our thoughts to Soviet Jews.

Our work will not cease until you are brought out from under the oppressive thumb of Soviet harassment.

Our hearts and our hands stretch out across the ocean in untiring efforts to redeem you.

We pray that our labor will take you from repression to liberty.

We anxiously await the day when the expression of freedom will be fulfilled— When the Jews of the Soviet Union are brought into the Land of our ancestors.

OUTREACH STUDIES THE SEDER

What is a Hillel sandwich? Do you really stick your finger in the wine? Why is this night different from all other nights? These and other questions will be answered at our next Outreach meeting, scheduled for 7:30 P.M., Thursday, April 6th at the home of Libby Older and David Green, 219 Tahoma Road.

The format will be a "practice" Pesach service during which we'll go through an abbreviated seder and discuss its meaning. Participants should bring their favorite Haggadah to read from and share with the group. And if you have a special Passover recipe you're willing to divulge, please bring that, too.

This Outreach meeting is aimed at helping participants have a better understanding of this very important family observance and make even novices comfortable with participating in or making their own seder. Join us for a fun evening.

TEMPLE ADATH ISRAEL BULLETIN

VOL. 56

NO. 14

APRIL 14, 1989

9 NISAN 5749

IN THIS CORNER

On Tuesday evening, May 2, Ohavay Zion Synagogue and Temple Adath Israel will join as one community to share in worship and thought as we commemorate Yom HaShoa. This is the day set aside by the world Jewish community to remember the victims of the greatest crime ever perpetrated against human beings: the Holocaust. Yom HaShoa falls about midway between the end of Pesach and Yom HaAtzmaut--Israel Independence Day. One could make the case that between the celebration of the miraculous liberation from slavery and the founding of the modern state of Israel, we pause to remember the Jews who dreamed of Israel during their modern slavery in the concentration camps.

Last November the Jewish community observed the 50th anniversary of Kristallnacht, the night of broken glass. In many ways, the vastness of this horrific pogrom against the Jewish community of Germany began the Holocaust. The preceding five years were filled with a tremendous amount of anti-Semitic propaganda, as well as laws designed to isolate and persecute German Jewry. But in November 1938, the fury and anger of the German regime, fueled by the propaganda, lashed out at the Jewish community in a vicious way.

This coming September we will note with solemnity the German invasion of Poland, the beginning of the end for 3,000,000 Polish Jews, men, women, and children. Over the next six years, we will experience any number of 50 year anniversaries as we reach back into our thoughts to a time that seemed without end, when the world was at war and Jews were being murdered by the thousands. In 1995, we will celebrate with the remembrances of liberation, but that is still many years away.

As the number of survivors of the Holocaust begins to decrease, with so few left to tell us their story, it is even more important that we, the next generation, come together as one Jewish community. It is imperative that we pray for the souls of those whose entire families were wiped out with no traces existing. It is our duty to the Jewish people to say never again will we let this happen to our people.

Recently, the Temple purchased a series of 20 posters from the Simon

ARE THEY MEMBERS OF OUR CONGREGATION?

This is a story about four people named Everybody, Somebody, Anybody and Nobody.

There was an important job to be done and Everybody was sure that Somebody would do it. Anybody could have done it but Nobody did it.

Somebody got angry about that, because it was Everybody's job! Everybody thought Anybody could do it, but Nobody realized Everybody wouldn't do it. It ended up that Everybody blamed Somebody when Nobody did what Anybody could have done!!!

Jewish History

Fannie Miller, Teacher

The students in the Senior Block course in Jewish History have completed Part II of their study. The text we used was My People, Abba Eban's History of the Jews.

This course began with Jewish History during the American Revolution and followed with a study of the Jews in Eastern Europe, the waves of immigration to the United States, the Jewish State reborn, and a review of American Jewry since World War II. Throughout this study we related Jewish History with World History.

We included in this course a study of what it means to be a good Jew in today's world and the special role Jews have played. Each week the students brought and discussed current events dealing with Jewry throughout the world.

The joy of sharing our good fortune with those who are hungry has resulted in the providing of $1,055,000 being distributed to respected agencies in our first three years. We share pride in this initial achievement with you.

PESACH 1989: Let One Who is Hungry Enter and Eat

In different times and in different places we have always read the words with which our seder meal opens – “Let all who are hungry enter and eat” – In those times and places we have always been called upon to reach out to those who are the most deprived among us – those who are hungry.

MAZON, A Jewish Response to Hunger, is a way in our time to respond to the scandal of hunger in our own country and around the world.

What we ask of you is quite simple and in keeping with our Jewish tradition. It is that you join with us by adding one more guest to your seder table. Through a gift of $18 – Chai – to Mazon, the ancient words will take on real meaning and will provide for those who suffer outside our doors.

Please join in this effort; let all who are compassionate join and redeem our invitation.

IN THIS CORNER

One of the most important values in Judaism is limud--study. Throughout our long history as a people, we have taken great pride in our accomplishments in the area of education. The persons from our Jewish past that we hold up as heroes are not people of war, but those who are learned: rabbis, sages, and scholars. Certainly, since the early rabbinic period, and most probably earlier, Jews have joined together in communal settings to search and attempt to discover the explicit and implicit meanings of our sacred texts, the role of God in this world, the daily lifestyle of a Jew, and so much more.

For some time now, continuing Jewish education for adults has become a lower priority in the life of the Jewish people. Temple Adath Israel offers many opportunities for Jewish study, but only a handful take advantage of the courses and classes. Obtaining a good secular education is significant in terms of achieving success in this society, but it is and will continue to be our religious education that helps determine our moral and ethical character.

On Friday, May 19th, at Temple, at 8:00 P.M., our second consecutive B'nai Mitzvah class will culminate its year long period of study by leading services and reading from the Torah. The eight adults who make up this years class are:

Bruce Gantz
Paula Harrison
Sharon Helfand
Marilyn Lieber
Anita Mersack
Freda Miller
Carol Pollock

As a congregation, a Jewish community, we applaud their accomplishments. Each of these people recognized that a part of their Jewish self was unfulfilled. By attending class, these eight Jewishly committed adults learned to read Hebrew and were introduced to Jewish texts and history. Most importantly, each of these individuals understood that a lifelong commitment to Jewish study is beneficial. We learn about our people's past, how to bring this rich history into harmony with the modern world, and how this harmony can let us feel a positive Jewish identity.

This year's B'nai Mitzvah class invites you to worship with them on May 19th, and to be part of their special moment. As our sages taught us, "Talmud Torah k'neged kulam--the study of Torah is equal to all because it leads to all.

A congregation was established in Cleveland. It was known as the Israelitic Society.

Society of concord Congregation was established in Syracuse.

Lewis Pollock was probably the first American Jew to settle in California. He lived in Yerba Buena, later San Francisco.

1889 ONE HUNDRED YEARS AGO

Death of Samuel Hirsch, rabbi of Congregation Keneseth Israel in Philadelphia, May 14. He was one of the founders of American Classical Reform.

The Huntington, West Virginia, Congregation Ohev Shalom, was established.

The first opera to be sung in English was heard in the Harlem Theatre established by Oscar Hammerstein.

The Central Conference of American Rabbis was established by Isaac Mayer Wise.

WHAT IS THE VALUE OF ONE MEMBER?

Ten Temple members standing in a line. One disliked the President, then there were nine.

Nine ambitious members offered to work late. One forgot his promise, then there were eight.

Eight creative members had ideas good as heaven, one lost enthusiasm, then there were seven.

Seven loyal members got into a fix. They quarreled over programs, and then there were six.

Six members remained with spirit and drive. One moved away, then there were five.

Five steadfast members wished there were more. One became indifferent, then there were four.

Four cheerful members who never disagree till one complained of meetings, then there were three.

Three eager members! What do they do? One got discouraged, then there were two.

Two lonely members; our rhyme is nearly done. One changed his golf game, and then there was one.

One faithful member was feeling rather blue--met with his schoolmate, and then there were two.

Two earnest members each enrolled one more--doubling their number, and then there were four.

Four determined members just couldn't wait--till each signed up another, and then there were eight!

Eight excited members signed up 16 more. In another six verses there'll be a thousand twenty-four!

SISTERHOOD BLOOD DONOR

1. When blood is used, please notify Blood Center 276-2534.
2. The blood replacement fee has been dropped because we have had a good response for blood donations by our group. It used to be $7.50 per unit, now it is free.
3. There is still a processing fee for blood collecting, testing, preparing components and delivery. Most insurance companies take care of this.
4. Each hospital has additional charges for cross-matching, testing, storage and administration of blood. Most insurance companies take care of this.
5. It is of great importance that we continue to donate blood, and to replace blood that has been used.

TEMPLE ADATH ISRAEL BULLETIN

VOL. 56 NO. 16

19 MAY 1989

14 IYAR 5749

IN THIS CORNER

After the Israelite community left Egypt and crossed the Red Sea, Moses led this group of recently freed slaves on a sojourn into the southern area of the Sinai Peninsula. After seven weeks of constant wandering, the Israelites, at times hungry and thirsty, often quite disgruntled, arrived at their special destination: Mt. Sinai. At this location, God told Moses to ascend the mountain.

We know what happened. Following the crash of thunder and the brilliance of lighting illuminating the sky, a sudden calm came across the land; a whisper could be heard. According to the Torah, "God spoke all these words saying, I am the Lord, your God, who led you out of the land of Egypt, from the house of bondage, to be your God. You shall have no other gods beside me." When God concluded giving these commandments to His people, they responded, "All that you say we will do and we will hearken--na'aseh v'nishmah."

Since that moment, seven weeks after the first day of Pesach, the Jewish community has observed the Festival of Shavuot. This festival reminds us of this awesome day of God when he offered to us the Ten Commandments and we accepted them. For the last 100 years, the Reform Jewish community has observed this festival through the ceremony of Confirmation, the culmination of our children's formal religious education which comes in tenth grade.

This is an important day for our Temple and even more so for the nine youth who will publicly affirm their commitment to the Jewish people just as their ancestors did at Sinai thousands of years ago. I hope that our congregational community will show the proper support for this important day by coming to the Confirmation ceremony and celebrating with our nine youths. They have worked hard studying theology, values, and holidays. They have spent years in Religious School learning about

WE HONOR OUR LONG STANDING MEMBERS

As we approach the end of our 85th Anniversary Celebration, we feel that it is appropriate to honor special members of our congregation. We are very fortunate to have many members who have been active and valuable members for a long time. At the Annual Meeting we recognized those members who have been members of Temple Adath Israel for a collective total of 85 years or an individual total of 42 1/2 years. This roster includes families who joined from anywhere before 1920 up to 1947. We honored these pathfinders of Temple Adath Israel with the gift of a special engraved Kiddush cup.

RELIGIOUS SCHOOL NEWS

Kindergarten Class

Elayne Crystal, Teacher

For the last three weeks of Sunday School, we are learning about Israel Independence Day, Shavuot, and Lag Ba'Omer. Because Israel is known as the land of milk and honey, we made milk and honey fruity milkshakes, and special arts and crafts projects. For Shavuot, we will make our own butter. For Lag Ba'Omer we will hear the story of the holiday, and as a culmination we are going to the Temple picnic (minus our bows and arrows.)

Senior Block - Jewish Holidays

Vicki Pettus, Teacher

Topics covered include: a discussion of the Jewish calendar and how Rosh Chodesh is the basis of our calendar. For Pesach, students saw a videotape on "Serafina" - the story of South African students who are fighting apartheid - and related this to our own oppression by Pharaoh. We also discussed the intifada in which Israel is currently involved. Students spent one class in the library researching other holidays and had to write their findings as if they were reporters doing a news story. Finally, we discussed the environment as so many of our holidays involve appreciation of the world and its resources.

ARZA DUES TO INCREASE ON JULY 1ST

Effective July 1, 1989, couple or individual membership in ARZA will be $20. Please send in membership dues prior to this date. All monies received before July 1st will only be charged $15 for their membership. This is the first dues increase in six years. ARZA activities have increased in all areas. The Israel Religious Action Center leads the fight for religious pluralism in Israel and is funded entirely by ARZA.

Send your dues to Nat Sandler or the Temple office today.

COMMUNITY KITCHEN

The Temple's next date for serving dinner at the Horizon Center is Memorial Day, Monday, May 29th from 4:45 to 7 PM.

Call the Temple office at 269-2979 or Bruce Engel at 266-4786 or 231-3225 if you want to help serve on Memorial Day, or if you cannot serve then, but want to serve sometime in the future. Either way, please leave your name and phone number.

Individual volunteers are also needed to serve at the Horizon Center on Tuesdays, Thursdays and early Sunday mornings. If interested, call Altha Pierce at 255-4557.

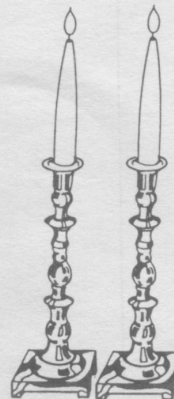

HIGH SCHOOL SENIORS

The Temple wants to keep in touch with you when you go to college. If you have been accepted to a college and have determined where you are going to attend, please call the Temple and let us know.

Our daughter, Melissa Ann, will be called to the Torah as a Bat Mitzvah Saturday, June 3, 1989 at 10:00 A.M. at Ohavay Zion Synagogue, 2048 Edgewater Ct. We would be honored to have you worship with us and join us for kiddush following the service.

Joan & Robert Flashman

85TH ANNIVERSARY BOOKLET CORRECTION

Jay D. Weil was the son of Simeon Weil, not Simon Weil. Bessie Weil and Jayne Weil Bolotin were the first mother-daughter Sisterhood presidents. The Temple thanks Jayne for this insight and information.

KING'S ISLAND FOR 6TH - 12TH GRADERS

This year's King's Island trip for present 6th-12th graders will be June 5th. All youth from OZS or TAI are eligible to go. The cost is $26 which includes the entrance ticket and bus transportation. We will leave the Temple parking lot at 8 A.M. sharp and leave King's Island at 7 P.M. to return home.

Seating on the bus is limited so reservations will be taken first come, first served. The deadline for reservations, which must be accompanied with the money, is May 31st. After that date, Temple or Synagogue members may invite friends to fill empty seats on the bus. Once the bus is full, no more reservations will be accepted. Please mail or bring your reservations to the Temple.

READING TORAH AGAIN

Many members of our Temple participated in a Bar or Bat Mitzvah ceremony when they were younger, reading from the Torah. Often this is the only time a person fulfills this exciting Mitzvah. If anyone is interested in reading a short section of the weekly Torah portion during an Erev Shabbat service, Rabbi Adland would be happy to help in preparation. Plenty of lead time will be given so that thorough study can be achieved.

If you are interested, contact Rabbi Adland at the Temple.

FROM THE LIBRARY

Tracy Peter has donated to the Temple library The Other Jews: the Sephardim Today. He describes it this way, The Other Jews, which will be of no small interest to anyone who bestirs himself to read it... It's far too sketchy to be scholarship but not lively or colorful enough to be good journalism. Nevertheless, the bibliography looks useful and the dust jacket is most attractive." We appreciate this generous donation to the Temple library.

SISTERHOOD NEWS

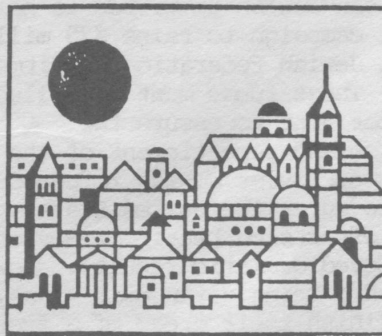

Passover Seder

A traditional Passover meal was served during the annual congregational seder on Thursday, April 20th and was attended by 110 people.

The following Sisterhood members prepared the entire meal: Ruth Baker, Edith Frankel, Bobbi Fried, Shlomit Elitzur, Sally Kocen, Connie Loventhal, Anita Mersack, Janet Scheeline, Ida Waldman, Betsy Wides, and Rose Rita Wurmser. Many thanks to all of them for their assistance at this holiday celebration.

The menu consisted of chicken soup with matzo balls, a seder plate (lettuce, parsley, egg, horseradish, charoset, and gefilte fish), baked chicken with apricot sauce, over-browned potatoes, glazed whole baby carrots, sponge cake with strawberries, wine, grape juice, and coffee.

Leona Stern
Seder Chairman

THE PROBLEM OF WORSHIP

"As we reconsider the problem of Jewish public worship, we realize that in the breakdown of Jewish loyalty a century and a half ago something was lost which we have been unable to recover. It was lost to all of Jewry and no Jewish group has been able to restore it. Historical Jewry looks upon worship, private and public, as a duty, a commandment, an obligation to God to utter his thanks and his petitions every day. To worship was a moral obligation and inescapable duty which had vanished from Jewish life."

"What we have restored is not the sense of duty but a feeling of interest. That is important, but not sufficient. We have made the service beautiful, we have added a relevant sermon, and people come because they are interested. They come in large numbers to hear a rabbi who is more interesting. They decide as to whether they should come at all, after weighing conflicting interests. In other words, the people ask the wrong question. "Will the service interest me." instead of "Is it not by obligation to be present?"

"To have made the Jewish service interesting and often inspiring to those who come is not an inconsiderable achievement, but that is the whole achievement of modernization of the worship, and it not enough. We must now work to reestablish the sense of mandate, of mitzvah, of unshakable obligation to prayer in the home and in the synagogue."

Rabbi Solomon B. Freehof

SOVIET JEWRY RESETTLEMENT

As a result of the dramatic increase of Soviet Jews leaving the Soviet Union and a cut off in U.S. resettlement funds, the American Jewish committee is holding a special campaign to raise $75 million. Our local Jewish Federation commitment is $25,000. These funds must be collected by December 31st to ensure the immigration and resettlement of the thousands of Soviet Jewish refugees waiting to enter the United States.

Our efforts on behalf of Soviet Jews have achieved dramatic results. Now that the Jews are being given exit visas, let us help finish their dream of a free life.

DON'T FORGET TO VOTE ON MAY 23RD

A native son of Temple Adath Israel, Rick Rose, will be on the ballot for Fayette District Judge. If elected, he would be Lexington's first Jewish judge. Anyone interested in helping get out the vote may call him days at 252-6384, or nights at 278-6149.

SISTERHOOD NEWS

Please mark your calendars now for November 11, 1989. This is the date we have set aside for the Sisterhood Donor Affair and it promises to be the best ever. Since everyone enjoys the Vegas Night, we are going to stay with this theme; however, we are going to have a cocktail party instead of dinner so we can continue to socialize as we play all the games offered. There will still be a silent auction and an "end of the evening" regular auction.

Further information will be sent out closer to the date of this affair and we'll have a few surprises along the way. We look forward to a fun evening with the major profits going to support our Religious School. See you there!

PROJECT REAP TO IMMUNIZE ETHIOPIAN JEWISH CHILDREN AGAINST DEADLY DISEASES

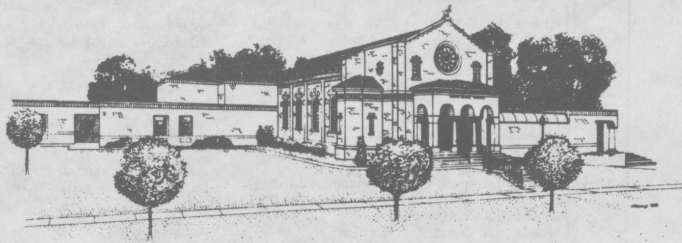

For much of this year northern Ethiopia, including the Jewish villages in Gondar, has been hit with a devastating Meningitis epidemic.
 Unfortunately, even though there were hopes that the disease would subside, the epidemic continues.
 Most medical experts fear that by late September,
 the epidemic will begin to grow at an even faster pace.

For several years our Movement's Religious Action Center in Washington, DC has been sending volunteer American doctors to Gondar, Ethiopia to provide direct medical care to the Jews and non-Jews in the area. This program is called Project REAP. Because of the tremendous need to combat the epidemic, the Center is now planning to send additional doctors to Ethiopia to assist the Ethiopian medical authorities in Gondar to initiate a large scale immunization program. This program will target the most vulnerable segment of the population -- all children under two years old and women of child bearing age.

Currently only 18% of the children under two in Gondar have been immunized. Young children have suffered the highest fatality rate (50%) of Meningitis-related deaths. The Center hopes to assist the Ethiopian authorities in immunizing the children of Gondar not only against Meningitis, tuberculosis, tetanus and diphtheria as well.

They must raise $50,000 to pay for this project. WE HOPE YOU WILL CONSIDER A CONTRIBUTION TO THIS URGENT UNDERLYING! Checks should be made payable to Project REAP and sent to the Religious Action Center, 2027 Massachusetts Ave., NW,
 Washington, DC 20036.

IN THIS CORNER

With the arrival of our new daughter Rachel Hannah, the summer of 1989 has been anything but dull for my family and me. The love showered on Sandy, Joshua, Rachel and me by our friends in this congregation reminded me how blessed we are to be part of this special community. This is truly a community of souls bound together by our tradition, heritage, common destiny, sharing, and love.

With the birth of a child, the role that Judaism plays in my life is sharpened. I think about my values as a Jew, the importance of Jewish holiday celebrations, the meaning of Jewish history, the function of the Jewish community in my life and how I want it to function in the life of my children, and creating a Jewish atmosphere in my home.

Judaism has the capacity to work in our lives on so many different levels and in so many different ways. I know that when many of us are asked to define or describe Judaism to someone not Jewish, we find difficulty in that request. This is because of the tremendous variety of Jewish experiences that exist for each Jew. In a way, when God spoke on Mt. Sinai for all to hear, not only those standing at the foot of the mountain, but for all generations to come, we each heard God in our own way. To some of us, Judaism is found through worship and prayer. For others, Judaism is how you live your life in relationship to others and the world. For others, Judaism is the mitzvot--God's commandments. And for others, Judaism is belonging to a people who share a common set of values and beliefs.

As you will see in the pages of this bulletin, our Temple tries to meet as many needs as possible. I hope that as this year progresses, I will have the opportunity to share Jewish experiences with many of you. Whether it is a life cycle event, a holiday celebration, a time of prayer or study, or something unforeseen, each is or can be a moment filled with Judaism in the life of the Jewish people and our Jewish community.

THANK YOU TO I. A. AND ALMA MILLER

Mr. & Mrs. I. A. Miller contributed a beautiful new lectern in memory of Ben and Catherine Miller. The lectern is made to match the Torah stand and Holocaust Torah case. The new lectern will be used on the pulpit and in the Social Hall for guest speakers.

Temple Adath Israel acknowledges the receipt of this gift with many thanks.

SUPPORT HOUSING FOR THE HOMELESS: JEWISH
NEW YEAR CARDS FOR CONGRESS

The Religious Action Center in Washington, DC has created unique Jewish New Year cards intended to be sent to members of Congress to urge support for housing for the homeless. A set of three cards (one for each senator one for our representative) is available to members of the congregation free of charge at the Temple office.

The text of the cards reads "Dear Senator, At this time of the Jewish New Year, I wanted to send a card to a homeless family, but they have no home and thus no address. Therefore, I am sending it to you with my prayer that next year every American will have a decent and affordable place to live. Then will our New Year be full of rejoicing. During this holy seasons I ask what the homeless ask for themselves: HOUSING NOW !"

These cards are part of the Jewish community's participation in HOUSING NOW, several days of activities during the High Holy Days, including a massive march in Washington, DC, urging that decent and affordable housing be made available for all Americans.

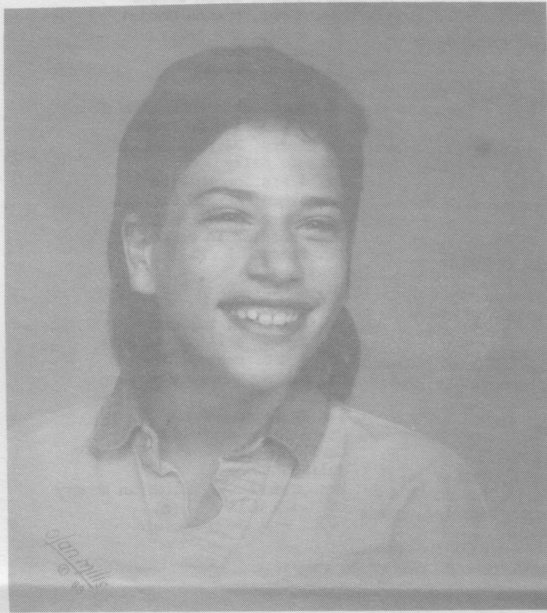

All congregants are urged to send copies of these cards to their elected officials.

BROTHERHOOD NEWS

The winner of the TV was Mr. Jerry Foster.

I would like to thank all of the members of Brotherhood who made the effort to sell chances on this very worthwhile program.

I would especially like to thank several people who put forth unusual efforts: Marc Silverman and Eugene Graff, Co-Chairs of the committee; and Jerry Wumser without whose super sales effort the final outcome would not have been nearly as successful as it was.

The Brotherhood made about $1500 and we hope to be able to come forth with the large TV by the High Holy Days.

IN THIS CORNER

As I write this message, it is August 31st. Tomorrow is September 1st. It is the 50th anniversary of the invasion of Poland by the German oppressors. Though I am much too young to have any first hand knowledge of World War II, as a student of history and even more so as a Jew, I note with great solemnity this particular September 1st.

To me, this date is not only the beginning of World War II, but the sad end of Polish Jewry. In my office is all that is left to me and my generation of life in Eastern Europe: the books and photographs of Roman Vishniac and others like him, who had the foresight to travel through the Pale of Settlement before WW II and capture a glimpse of what was to be a faded society. He photographed what was to be the end of a great Jewish culture.

Today I look at the pictures, at the faces of the Yeshiva students enmeshed in the study of Talmud Torah. The poverty of the Shtetl is written on their faces and seen in their clothes. They are happy despite the endlessness of their dismal situation. The pictures of the villages with their mud roads, always mud roads, as if it always rained in Poland and the sun never shone to dry up the rain. The rickety houses leaning to one side, almost ready to collapse, but propped up waiting for the celebration of one more simcha. The stores with the signs in Yiddish advertising tallesim, tefillin, books of Torah and Talmud and mysticism. I think of Tevye wanting to be a rich man. He wanted to be rich in wisdom so he could sit by the eastern wall.

Despite all the hardships our ancestors faced in Eastern Europe, in Poland, they rose above it all with a steadfast belief in God and an insistence on living a life filled with Judaism: mitzvot, good deeds, and love. The Polish Jewish community, like all Jewish communities, just wanted the opportunity to succeed in its quest for faith and spirituality; to be left alone by the negative outside forces constantly harassing Judaism, trying to destroy it. After hundreds of years fueled by scholars and peddlers, the Polish Jewish community was almost entirely wiped out because they were Jewish. Each September 1st, I think about the Jews who didn't get to celebrate life because it was unfairly taken from them.

As we approach this year's High Holy Days, let us remember the thirst for Judaism that drove our brothers and sisters to continue learning and living Jewish lives. Let us make a commitment to pick up where the martyrs left off. Let us learn to love and practice and internalize the Jewish search for life and love and good deeds that is our people's heritage. As a New Year's commitment, let us make Judaism come alive in our hearts and in our souls and in our minds.

Rabbi Jon Alpert

HOST FAMILIES FOR HOLY DAYS

At this season of the Jewish year, community is an important value for the Jewish people. Many of our community are without family or relatives in this area and would love to share the Holy Days with others. If you have room at your festival table or you would appreciate a family environment, please call the Temple office as soon as possible.

FROM THE LIBRARY

The Library Committee thanks Dorothy Halleck for her donation of books by I.B. Singer, Chiam Potak and Irving Wallace to the Temple library. These books will be a nice addition to our collection.

Thanks also to Mr. & Mrs. Eugene Straus for the donation of My Mother's Sabbath Days by Chaim Grade. Thanks for thinking of us.

Sisterhood and I thank the five July blood donors. From July 1981 to the present, we have had 345 blood donations. Just think about how many lives it might have saved and how many human beings were able to return to a "quality life."

On Friday, October 27, at 8 P.M., we will honor all blood donors of the past eight years. It will be "their" evening at Temple. Be there all donors!!!
WON'T YOU ADD YOUR NAME AS A DONOR TO BE HONORED October 27th? Com on, do it, it will make you feel good about yourself.

SISTERHOOD NEARLY NEW SHOP

Thanks to all of you who have recently donated items for the Nearly New Shop. Hopefully, we should get some money soon as the store manager said the items look to be in good shape and should sell easily. The store accepts clothing (in all sizes), small appliances, knick-knacks, purses, books, etc. If you want to take things directly to the store on S. Lime, just tell them the items are for the Temple's account. If you want to leave them in the cloak room here at Temple, Terry Goldfarb or I can then take them to the store for you. If you want a receipt for your income tax, call me at 273-6680. If I am not home, please your name and address on my answering machine and I will mail you the receipt.

Thanks again, for your generosity.

SISTERHOOD DONOR AFFAIR

Please set aside Saturday, November 11th, now! That's the evening for the Sisterhood Donor this year. We are going to have another Las Vegas Night with a few new twists.

First of all for those who don't enjoy playing craps, blackjack or poker, we will have tables set up for Trivial Pursuit, Scrabble, or Mah Jongg. Instead of a sit down dinner, we are going to have a cocktail buffet so you can eat, play games, eat, specialize, eat, bid on auction items, and end your evening with dessert.

Parties of 8 can reserve their own game table. In other words, if eight people who are donors want to be assured playing a game together, just send your list of names along with your check by October 31st and your game table will be reserved. In the next bulletin, we will tell you about some other surprises we have planned to make this the best Donor yet. Remember, the purpose of this evening is to benefit the students of our Religious School. We'll have even more fun knowing we're enhancing our children's Jewish education. We look forward to seeing you there.

CHILDREN'S PROGRAM FOR HIGH HOLY DAYS

The Worship Committee in conjunction with the Youth Education Committee is again offering Children's Programs and baby-sitting during the High Holy Days.

There are three distinct activities being provided:

- 1) At the evening service on Rosh HaShanah, 7 P.M. and the evening service on Yam Kippur, 6:45 P.M., babysitting will be provided by LEXTY, the Temple Youth Group.
- 2) A babysitting service for children up to the age of 3 will be available during the morning services if parents agree to share the responsibility of watching the children (one hour minimum obligation.)
- 3) A program for Three Year Olds through 3rd Grade is available from 10 A.M. to the conclusion of the worship on Rosh HaShanah and Yam Kippur.

Pre-registration is strongly requested in order to determine staff and supplies. Parents who neglect to pre-register their children) will be asked to assist the staff during the program if more help is required.

Plans can only be made for pre-registered children.

The program consists of learning about the High Holy Days through music, worship, art, stories and games.

A snack will be provided during the morning program on Rosh HaShanah.

There is no charge for any of the programs, in order that we can properly prepare we are requesting:

- a) one parent from each family to volunteer and work one of the classrooms for one hour and;
- b.) Please contact the Temple office by September 25th for further information.

Nancy Katoff is the Chair of the High Holy Days Children's Program Committee.

It will not be possible to use their lots on the evenings of Friday, September 29th or Sunday, October 8th, however, The Lexington Baptist College, 151 Walton Ave., has given us permission to use its parking lot on the evenings of September 29th and October 8th.

THE TEMPLE FAMILY LIFE TASK FORCE

"YOU SHALL LOVE YOUR NEIGHBOR AS YOURSELF"

Last April, 50 Temple members gathered to discuss areas in our community's life where the Temple can help, offer education, or assistance. The committee found areas of need for senior, single parents, youth and couples.

Over the next year, members of Task Force will solicit your help or information so that we grow as a nurturing congregation. The first task will be to determine needs of seniors concerning rides to and from Temple, and who among us can drive. Second, the Task Force is interested in methods of involving and welcoming new members. Finally, for married couples, we hope to have marriage communication workshops and a time management session.

Spotlight On

ADULT EDUCATION

By now you have received this year's Adult Education's Fall mailing. The Adult Education Committee is very excited to be bringing three major speakers (one for a weekend), conducting a Fall and Spring four-week, four-part series, and offering classes.

Below are a few of our initial offerings.

CLASS I - INTRODUCTION TO HEBREW

7 - 8 PM Cost $35

As many Jews desire to add depth to their Jewish soul, Introduction To Hebrew is a step in fulfilling this desire. This course will teach the Alef-Bet, beginning reading and introduce the student to prayer book Hebrew.

Introduction to Hebrew begins by teaching the Alef-Bet in an easy to learn method. No prior knowledge of Hebrew is required. The goal of the course is to bring the non-Hebrew reader into the world of the Hebrew reader. At the end of the eleven weeks, a graduate will be able to follow the Hebrew read at services.

Class dates are:

Sept. 25
Oct. 2, 16, 23, 30
Nov. 13, 20, 27
Dec. 4, 11, 18

CLASS II - BASIC JUDAISM

8:15 - 9:15 PM Cost $40 person
 $60 couple

Basic Judaism will introduce the student to Jewish concepts, ethics, values, holidays, worship, God, celebration, life cycle and history. This course is designed to refresh the Jewish memory of the Religious School graduate, teach those with no knowledge, and encourage further Jewish study in the areas covered.

Class dates are:

Sept. 25
Oct. 2, 16, 23, 30
Nov. 13, 20, 27
Dec. 4, 11, 18

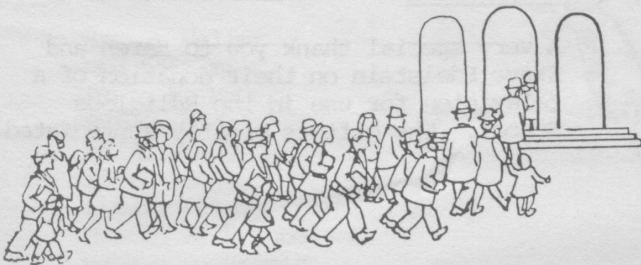

On the back of the Adult Education mailing were some questions. We are interested in your feedback. Please take the time to fill out and return to Temple.

WARMING UP THE CONGREGATION

How do you generate a little more warmth and friendliness in the congregation?

1. Greet the people whom you know, but spend time with those whom you do not know. Make a point of getting to know one or two people to whom you have never talked before.
2. If you are not certain whether a person is a visitor or an old member, a work of greeting usually brings out the fact very quickly.
3. Who breaks the ice? The chances are that if you do not know who he is, he doesn't have much of an idea who you are either. The best way is the direct way - ask for the person's name and give yours, and get acquainted.
4. Watch for unfamiliar faces standing around nursing a coffee cup and looking lost. If you show interest in meeting newcomers, they'll think we are warm to "outsiders."
5. Bring your newcomer over to meet the Rabbi, the Temple President, the President of one of the affiliate organizations - Sisterhood, Brotherhood, Temple Youth.
6. Tell the newcomer about the various activities of your congregation. This may be tough...you have to find out about them yourself first!
7. All of this is calculated to send people away with a sermon in their minds and a song in their hearts. A friendly congregation is not a happenstance; it is YOUR creation.

TIMES AND SEASONS

A JEWISH PERSPECTIVE FOR INTERFAITH COUPLES
TO EVERYTHING THERE IS A SEASON,
AND A TIME TO EVERY PURPOSE
UNDER THE HEAVEN

Every couple must deal with many issues as they build their life together. In a marriage between a Jew and one who is of another faith, such concerns as separating from family, establishing a home, working out a balance between the need for closeness and the need for individuation are often complicated by differences in background and experience.

We would like to invite you to participate in "THE TIMES AND SEASONS; A JEWISH PERSPECTIVE FOR INTERFAITH COUPLES". This is an innovative program which will serve as a framework for open discussion about concerns and issues in inter-faith marriage. You will come together with other inter-faith couples in a comfortable non-judgmental environment and share your personal concerns about children, families and expectations. During the course of our sessions together you will have the opportunity to clarify questions which you might have about Jewish traditions, beliefs and practices.

WEDNESDAYS - Beginning
October 11, 1989

(Six sessions) concluding with a Shabbat Celebration.

7:30 to 9:30 PM at Temple Adath Israel,
124 N. Ashland Ave.

For registration form, contact Rabbi Adland at Temple (269-2979).

TODAH RABAH

A very special thank you to Karen and Steve Edelman on their donation of a television for use in the Religious School. The gift is greatly appreciated.

IN THIS CORNER

The recent issue of Inside Reform Judaism, formerly Reform Judaism, dedicated a significant amount of space to "Choosing Judaism," and Reform Jewish Outreach. Among the several articles was one by Rabbi Steven E. Foster of Temple Emanuel, Denver, CO. In his column, Rabbi Foster discussed the extensive program in Denver that leads toward conversion.

At the conclusion of the article, a fascinating list appeared. This list contained what is expected of the would-be Jew-by-Choice to accept as a basis for entering communal Jewish life.

1. Lighting Shabbat and holiday candles.
2. Fasting on Yom Kippur
3. Placing a mezuzah on the doorpost of one's house.
4. Giving tzedakah.
5. Observing, at least partially, dietary laws. (For some converts, this may mean keeping a kosher home; for others, it may mean eating matzah on Passover.)

6. Affiliating with a synagogue.
7. Worshipping regularly.
8. Continuing Jewish study.
9. Supporting the State of Israel.
10. Raising children as Jews.

To the Jew-by-Choice, this list is real and alive. Many Jews-by-Choice hunger for a Jewish regimen to their life. These individuals want to act and think and feel Jewish, and this list provides the Jew-by-Choice with a method for being a Jew.

As I read the list though, I wondered how many of us born Jews would take this list seriously. We feel a part of the Jewish people as a birthright. Who needs to link themselves to the rest of the Jewish community through symbolic acts such as this list espouses. Yet, if we take time to look at these 10 commitments to Judaism, they are not burdensome or filled with affliction. Rather each of the 10 commitments is a positive way to identify oneself as Jewish.

Dear friend,

As we begin the New Year... Temple Adath Israel... one step to promote and... you will... to create a... will be... and support...

CELEBRATE EREV SHABBAT AT TEMPLE

Friday, October 13, we commence the yearly celebration of the Festival Sukkot. Sukkot symbolizes two important aspects of Judaism. First, we remember the forty years our ancestors wandered in the desert, moving from place to place. This is symbolized by the building a temporary dwelling called a sukka. We decorate the Sukka with fruits and vegetables harvested in this time of the year. Thus Sukkot, becomes our time of thanksgiving.

SHABBAT POT-LUCK FOR ALL TEMPLE MEMBERS

At 6:30 PM, we will hold the first of three Temple Pot-Luck Shabbat dinners. Bring a main course and side dish, and call the Temple office to let us know you'll attend. Pot-lucks are for all Temple members, not just those with children.

OCTOBER CANNED FOOD DRIVE

As is our custom in giving thanks, we turn to those less fortunate and offer help. Please, during October, bring a canned food or non-perishable food item to Temple. Let us make this year's collection the grandest ever.

MOSAIC DEDICATION ON OCTOBER 13TH

After our Sukkot worship service on October 13th, Dr. Harold Berg, the mosaicist of our new piece of art hanging in the Social Hall, will take time to explain its creation and meaning. We hope that this piece of art will inspire others to donate quality Judaica to our congregation as we build a house of living Judaism.

MAZON: A Jewish Response to Hunger

Yom Kippur 5750: If we are in a position to help, are we not in fact obliged to help?

As we experience a fast of choice that will end with certainty at sundown on Yom Kippur, we use that time for self-examination and reflection. We reflect not only on our past year and the one to come, but also on the world around us.

Tragically, that world contains one billion hungry people; 40,000 of whom die each and every day of starvation or hunger-related diseases. Their fast is involuntary: Its end is not in sight unless we help.

Does the question then not have an easy answer?

We ask that your reply be in the form of a contribution to MAZON, equal to the amount you would have spent on food for yourself and your family on our one day of voluntary fast.

Please send your tax-deductible check to

Dear Friend,

As we begin the New Year 5750, Temple Adath Israel Congregation is introducing many new programs to promote and instill a sense of "v'ahavta l're-ach-cha k'mocha" - "You will love your neighbor as yourself." In an attempt to create a whole and supportive Temple community, The Family Life Task Force is gathering information for a directory which will list each adult family member by his/her vocation and avocation. This will enable members of the congregation to seek aid and support from other Temple members. If you specialize in your vocation, please note this as well, (e.g. psychologists: marital, child, adult; doctors: ob-gyn, internal, pediatrician; lawyers, etc.)

Also, we have listed on this questionnaire a place for members who need rides to Temple programs and/or services, as well as those willing to drive for same.

IN THIS CORNER

Simchat Torah/Consecration is a wonderful opportunity for the congregation to celebrate the coming of age of this year's Kindergarten class. On Friday, October 20, at 7:30 P.M., we will rejoice as we conclude the yearly reading of the Torah with the final verse of Deuteronomy and begin reading the first verses of Genesis.

Torah is part of the life of every Jew. In the narrower perspective, Torah is the first five books of TaNaCh, the Hebrew Scripture. These books teach us about creation, the patriarchs and matriarchs, the covenant, Moses, the Exodus, revelation, the wandering in the desert, and the laws, statutes, and ordinances as understood by the Jewish people in the earliest part of our history. In a much broader sense, Torah is all Jewish learning from Abraham to Buber, and Midrash, Mishnah, and Talmud. This understanding includes, rabbinic commentaries, liturgy, responsa, folktales, and fiction. This idea of Torah allows every Jew, of every age, of every period in Jewish history to participate in the progressive revelation of God's word.

The difficulty is not in God continuing to reveal God's self, but are we listening. Listening is an aspect of ourselves that we must develop. To hear someone's words is different than listening to what they are trying to say to us. Are we listening to their emotions? Are we understanding the subtle nuances of the words? As we listen to others, we learn more about ourselves.

As we prepare to celebrate this year's Consecration Class, we pray that they will be able to listen to the wise words of Jewish sages past and present. We hope that some day they too, will take their place in the Jewish tradition of adding wisdom to Torah.

ARZA NEWS

VICTORY ON LAW OF RETURN

Israel's Supreme Court ruled this summer that the Ministry of the Interior must enforce the Law of Return. The ruling, which came in response to a suit filed by the ARZA-sponsored Israel Religious Action Center, was a major victory for the Reform movement and for the rule of the law in the Jewish State.

Since 1984, Israel's Ministry of the Interior has ignored the Law of Return and has refused to register Reform and Conservative converts who immigrate to Israel as Jews. The Israel Religious Action Center, appealed to the Supreme Court on behalf of five Reform converts who were denied registration. In its ruling, the Court said that the Ministry must register as Jews all converts who come to Israel, and it has no power to make judgments on the validity of a conversion ceremony performed abroad.

Reform leaders hailed the decision as a major victory for religious liberty and religious pluralism in Israel. You can help further the cause of religious rights in Israel by joining ARZA, which is financing a series of court cases on behalf of Israel's Reform movement. Contact the Temple office for more information about ARZA membership.

COMMUNITY KITCHEN VOLUNTEERS

An ongoing program of our Social Action Committee is to help prepare and serve dinner at The Community Kitchen when there is a fifth Monday of the month and on Christmas. Call Temple and give us your name. The next serving date is October 30th. The time is 5-7 P.M., at the Horizon Center.

JUNIOR HIGH SCHOOL TEMPLE YOUTH GROUP!!

Bowling and ice cream at (where else) Dairy Queen is our first program on October 22nd. The cost is $6 per person. Bring a bag lunch to Temple (we'll supply liquid). After two games of bowling, we'll go to Dairy Queen on Lansdowne Dr. If parents notify the Temple office ahead of time, they may pick up their child there.

YIZKOR SERVICE TO BE PART OF WORSHIP ON OCTOBER 21ST

Since the Yizkor/Memorial Service that comes at the end of the Sukkot Holiday falls on Shabbat, it will be included as part of the 10:30 AM worship already scheduled for that day. We certainly invite everyone to join together at 9:30 AM in the library.

SISTERHOOD

SISTERHOOD DONOR AFFAIR

Reserve Saturday, November 11th to meet all your friends at Temple for the Sisterhood Donor. We are planning a delicious cocktail buffet, a scrumptious dessert table and a cash bar.

It should be a grand time for socializing and bidding on some fabulous prizes. We will have a silent auction as well as a live auction for all those people who win their "millions" beating the dealers at the game tables.

This is also a time we want to honor those special people who teach our children every Sunday. In fact, this year we are inviting all the teachers to come to the donor affair as our guests so we can show our appreciation. Please show them your support by being a donor and coming to the Vegas Night. See you there.....

Sisterhood is now sponsoring a one-hour workout, to be held at the Temple three times a week. The workout will include low-impact aerobics and muscle strengthening exercises. Classes meet on Mondays, Wednesdays, and Fridays, from 9-10 AM. The fee is $5 per class or $35 per month, and those attending should bring their own mats. Everyone is welcome.

SISTERHOOD OCTOBER MEETING

On October 17th, Sisterhood will be honoring new and potential new members with "Games Night." The meeting will be held at the Temple from 7-9 PM, and members should plan on bringing their favorite games (i.e. cards, Scrabble, Trivial Pursuit, etc.). A regular meeting will be held before the games begin and dessert will be served.

SPOTLIGHT ON ADULT EDUCATION

By now you will have received your adult education brochure. Please note the questionnaire section. If you are interested in learning Yiddish, please respond to the Temple office as soon as possible so that we may know if there is enough interest for a class.

Also, there are plans in the works for a possible Intermediate Hebrew class to be held with TAI and OZS. If you are interested in this class, please notify the Temple office as soon as possible.

OUTREACH NEWS

Besides serving Jews-by-Choice and interfaith couples, Reform Jewish Outreach groups across the country also sponsor programs for parents of intermarried children. Temple Adath Israel Outreach has scheduled a general discussion session titled "Issues for Parents of Intermarried Children" on Thursday, October 19, at 7:30 P.M. at the Temple. This meeting is meant to provide an opportunity for open discussion among congregation members who share this family situation. It also could provide topics for more in-depth consideration if members are interested in getting together occasionally in the future. Some subjects other groups have considered include: What Will Intermarriage Mean For Our Family's Future?, Will Our Grandchildren Be Jewish?, How Can We Share Our Feelings Without Making Demands?, How Can We Support conversion? The issues are not always easy to resolve. If you would like an opportunity to share the thinking of others whose children have intermarried, plan to attend this first meeting. If you have questions or would like more information, call Rose Rita and Jerry Wurmser at 277-0217 or Rabbi Adland at the Temple, 269-2979.

4TH & 5TH GRADERS TO EAT PIZZA & BOWL

IN THIS CORNER

Over the last several weeks, I received many requests for the name of a prayerbook for use in the home. As we begin to enhance our awareness of Jewish home life and celebration, there is a desire to supplement this experience with liturgy and ritual. In 1977, the Central Conference of American Rabbis, the national body of Reform Jewish rabbis, published Shaarei HaBayit, Gates of the House: The New Union Home Prayerbook. I highly recommend the purchase and use of this book. Copies are available in the gift shop.

Gates of the House is divided into eight sections which are easy to use and understand. The first section contains prayers and readings. This includes daily prayers, blessings recited around meals and in praise of life.

The second section is the most significant one in regards to the requests I have received. Holidays and Holy Day readings found in this section cover the areas of Shabbat, Yom Tov, Rosh HaShanah and Yom Kippur, Havdalah, Sukkot, Channukah, and Purim.

The remaining sections include readings for the cycle of life, weekday services, prayers for those in mourning, poetry, and a table of the scriptural readings.

The celebration of Jewish life in the house and home, is one the strongest areas in Jewish life. This is where Judaism begins; this is where Judaism endures; and this is where Judaism must continue to grow. During the lifetime of a child, only a minimal number of hours is spent in the Temple building. The Religious School tries to offer children the best Jewish education possible. Without the support and nurturing of a Jewish home, our children will walk away from here each Sunday morning storing Judaism away until the next week. Gates of the House, in its simple and beautiful manner, offers to each family a means into the world of Jewish home life.

This is only one of many books on Jewish life which I could recommend for the home. There are many others which

ARZA NEWS

ISRAEL REFORM YOUTH WORK FOR ARAB-JEWISH UNDERSTANDING

Tsofei Telem, Israel's Reform youth movement, is affiliated with the Israeli scouting movement, and has four scouting troops in cities throughout Israel. The group's study topic last year was relations between Jews and Arabs. The Reform scouts concluded their year of study by hosting a scout troop of Israeli Arabs for a three day seminar. The Arab and Jewish teenagers discussed the intifada and its implications for both groups. The sessions were tense and often heated, but all agreed they were also important and necessary and must continue. The seminar was subsidized by an $8,000 grant from ARZA. Support these efforts by joining ARZA -- the Association of Reform Zionists of America. Membership information is available from the Temple office, or from Nat Sandler, our ARZA Chairperson.

YOM KIPPUR FLOWERS

The beautiful flowers for Yom Kippur were donated by Mr. & Mrs. Harold Baker, Mr. & Mrs. Eugene Straus, and Mr. & Mrs. Maurice Hymson.

SISTERHOOD DONOR AFFAIR: A RABBI'S PLEA

On November 11th, 1989, The Temple Adath Israel Sisterhood will host the annual Donor Affair. Besides the fact that all who attend have a wonderful time, this evening is critical to our Temple Religious School. A significant portion of the money raised is contributed to the Religious School. This allows us to keep tuition costs constant from year to year, compensate the staff generously, and never say no to any request from any teacher for any material or special project. With the Donor Affair's recent success, we have built an incredible video tape library which is used constantly by our staff.

What is surprising to me is the number of Religious School parents who don't participate in this evening's excitement. For those of you new to Temple life, the Donor Affair provides an opportunity to meet many Temple members. For those only peripherally involved in Temple, the Donor Affair opens many doors and possibilities of becoming involved.

I urge everyone whether single or married, young or not-so-young, to join in one of Temple's most important non-religious functions. The success of this evening is not just the money raised, but the feeling of community which we can create together.

IN THIS CORNER

"YOU'LL HAVE THE TIME OF YOUR LIFE AT GOLDMAN UNION CAMP!" Our regional Reform Jewish camp, located in Zionsville, IN, (near Indianapolis), uses this slogan in its publicity. There is no question that it has every right to do so. The past successes of Goldman Union Camp are evident by the number of youth it encourages to seek further learning and study in Judaica. Many of our present rabbinical students were influenced at G.U.C.I. or at one of the other eight regional camps.

Goldman Union Camp Institute, G.U.C.I., is a shining star in the Reform Jewish experience in North America. Each year hundreds of Jewish children from the Midwest and Canada travel to Zionsville for four weeks of fun, friendship, and Judaism. Temple Adath Israel has watched more than 25 different youth grow and enrich their lives with this special opportunity. Each of these youth return from G.U.C.I. with their Jewish knowledge broadened, friendships enriched, and a new excitement in their soul about what it means to be Jewish.

We live in a complex, and rapidly moving and changing society. Judaism, though important to many of our Temple families, does not always excel to its place of priority as it should and once did. Our youth are confronted with so many opportunities in their secular lives that Jewish experiences suffer. A Jewish camping experience will bolster Jewish identities, shape Jewish commitment, add depth to living Judaism, and fill in the missing moments of our Jewish lives as celebrated throughout the year.

The success of the Jewish future depends on our commitment to the Jewish present. As adults we must be Jewish role models to our children and our relatives. To the next generation, we must underscore the importance of celebrating Jewish holidays, learning Jewish ethics and values, understanding Jewish history, and upholding Jewish ideals. Goldman Union Camp enables each youngster to do each of these things in a power-packed four week session. With the opportunities available, our youth explore what it means to be Jewish. For many, the one time camp experience or the often repeated summer camp experience stays with the child for a lifetime.

Please consider Goldman Union Camp for your child this year or remember it as an option for the years to come. I know that "YOU'LL HAVE THE TIME OF YOUR LIFE!"

ARZA NEWS

JERUSALEM REFORM SYNAGOGUE WINS RIGHT TO EXPAND

A Supreme Court suit brought by the ARZA-sponsored Israel Religious Action Center has brought to an end efforts by Interior Minister Arye Der'i to block expansion of a Reform synagogue in Jerusalem. The suit was filed on behalf of Congregation Kol Hanesama in the Bakaa neighborhood of Jerusalem, where 200 people regularly attend worship in a building that holds 85. The Municipality of Jerusalem agreed to lease the synagogue an adjoining lot for building expansion, but the papers required the signature of Der'i, who represents the ultra-Orthodox Shas party. When Der'i refused to sign without giving an explanation, the Israel Religious Action Center went to the Supreme Court. Der'i finally signed the day before the Court was to hear arguments, thus making the expansion possible; he obviously was aware that there was no legal basis for his refusal, and the judges would have ruled against him. As it was, they required him to pay the Center's court costs. ARZA leaders and Reform leaders in Israel expressed satisfaction with the victory. American Jews can support the Center and the struggle for Reform rights in Israel by joining ARZA. Membership information can be obtained from the Temple office.

In addition, as a Union of American Hebrew Congregations' camp, G.U.C.I. offers more. Join us in creating an exciting and dynamic Jewish community of young people. Come celebrate with us the joys of Reform Judaism. GET THE SPIRIT. GET G.U.C.I.

YOUTH GROUP ADVISORS SOUGHT

At the end of May 1990, Mark & Tina Simpson will conclude their third year as LEXTY advisors. Though it is soon to say good-bye, it is important to start the search for their successors. The job of LEXTY advisor requires attendance at meetings and programs, input into activities, guidance, direction, and love. If you or someone you know would fit this description, please contact Rabbi Adland.

WHAT IT MEANS TO BE A CONGREGATION

What does it mean to be a congregation? It means to care about each other. Pray? We can pray also at home. We come together as a congregation in order to share in our life as Jews, to be a part of the Community of Israel - past, present, and future.

Once the Gerer Rebbe decided to question one of his disciples: "How is Moshe Yaacov doing?" The disciple didn't know. "What!" said the Rebbe. "You don't know? You pray under the same roof, you study the same texts, you serve the same God, you sing the same songs - and yet you dare to tell me that you don't know whether Moshe Yaacov is in good health, whether he needs help, advice, or comforting?"

Here lies the very essence of our way of life: every human must share in every other human's life, and not leave him to himself, either in sorrow or in joy.

NO. 7

NOVEMBER 24, 1989

27 CHESHVAN 5750

IN THIS CORNER

All of us are aware that Temple Adath Israel is a Reform Jewish congregation. What many of us are not aware of is that our Temple is part of a much larger network of Reform congregations called the Union of American Hebrew Congregations. Established in 1873 by Rabbi Isaac Mayer Wise, the UAHC is now comprised of over 800 congregations representing 1.5 million Jews in North America.

Every other year, the UAHC holds a Biennial convention, inviting and encouraging member congregations to send delegates, alternates, and more to share and discuss issues of common concern. November 2-6, nine adult members and two high school youth traveled to New Orleans for the 1989 UAHC Biennial. While at the convention, we attended workshops, meetings, services, and programs designed to bring us more in touch with the direction of Reform Judaism.

The first reaction by any delegate, especially those coming for the first time or those traveling from a small Jewish community is the incredible number of people, over 3,000 Reform Jews from all parts of the continent. The impact is felt the strongest at the Shabbat morning worship when all three thousand plus say the shema. At that moment time and space are suspended. We are all one: one people, one religion, one God. This impression is felt every time one walks into the lobby and almost everyone you see or meet is a Reform Jew.

Each of us attended several different workshops over the weekend. Members of the Temple Executive Committee went to workshops that dealt with Temple management and membership recruitment and retention. Others went to learn about program needs and developments. I observed several workshops. One considered the participation and integration of the non-Jewish spouse into the Temple. On December 13, the Temple Outreach program will spend an evening discussing this issue. I learned that some congregations have become more restrictive with regards to the non-Jewish spouse, while others, like ours, seem to be more flexible in their approach. The greatest areas of concern were Board participation, chairing committees, and aspects of ritual. I encourage you to attend the open Outreach meeting if you are interested or have some input into this important and delicate situation.

In the same vein, I listened to a presentation on inter-dating and intermarriage. I hope to use the new UAHC manual, "Reaching Adolescents" at the next senior block retreat. The manual talks about self-esteem and Jewish identity at a critical passage in a youth's life.

No matter what I saw or heard or did, I knew that I was surrounded by others who share my vision of Reform Judaism and its commitment to the future. The next convention is in Baltimore from Oct. 31-Nov. 4 of 1991. I hope that more of you will elect to participate in this memorable event.

WORSHIP DEC. 22, 29, & JAN. 5 AT 6:30 PM

In order to encourage Family Home Shabbat worship, and in recognition of the many families who travel at the Winter Break, the Worship Committee agreed to conduct services at this season at 6:30 PM. The service will last 45 minutes. Please note this change on your calendar.

TEMPLE BOOK CLUB TO MEET DECEMBER 12TH

The Temple Book Club will review Loving Kindness by Ann Roiphe at the home of Ethel Schwartz, 208 Culpepper Road on December 12th at 7:30 PM. Please call the Temple office for more information.

FROM THE LIBRARY

Our dedicated patron to the library has again given us three new books for the Temple. Tracy Peters has given The Krakow Ghetto And The Plaszow Camp by Malvina Graf, When Time Ran Out: Coming of Age in the Third Reich by Frederick Zello and Jerusalem: City of Mirrors by Amos Elon. We appreciate his donation and thoughtfulness.

SISTERHOOD LUNCHEON DEC. 20TH

Sisterhood's December 20th meeting will be a lunch time get together, beginning at 12 noon at the Temple. Featured speaker will be noted cookbook author Zell Shulman, who will discuss and demonstrate Hanukkah cooking and party planning. The meeting is open to all women members of the local Jewish community, and the charge will be $3 per person. Those attending should plan to bring a brown bag lunch, as the cooking demonstration will provide only enough food for "tasting". The meeting should be expected to last between 2 and 2 1/2 hours. Please RSVP to the Temple by December 15th. Babysitting will be available upon request.

TAI PRESCHOOL BOOK FAIR DECEMBER 10TH

Believe it or not, this will be the Preschool's fifth annual Bookfair. We hope this will be the best one yet. Our goal this year is to purchase some outdoor equipment which will benefit the religious school as well as the preschool. Again, we will have a variety of books for all ages and interests. There will be a carnival. Each game costs 25 cents and everyone gets a prize. There will be TAI Preschool balloons and sweatshirts for sale. There will also be delicious baked goods homemade by our very own preschool parents. Please plan to attend our annual Bookfair on Sunday, December 10, from 9:30 AM to 12:30 PM. Hope to see you there.

Sally Kocen, Director

GAN EDEN GARDENING CLUB

On January 10, at 7:30 PM, Temple Adath Israel will begin sponsorship of a new club called Gan Eden (Garden of Eden). The purpose of Gan Eden is for the many members of this congregation who are involved in home gardening (vegetables and flowers) to share their knowledge, their successes and failures, and their secrets about the soil and the green thumb.

Underlying the formation of Gan Eden is a way for creative gardeners to share their bounty with those less fortunate by contributing some of their produce to the hungry and homeless. Once this club is formed, we will bring in local experts on bugs, disease, soil, etc. to teach us better ways to overcome the bugs in our life.

Please join Rabbi (Farmer Jon) Adland on January 10, at 7:30 PM at Temple. As the first farmer said a long, long time ago, on a field far, far away, "May the soil be with you."

JHSTYG GOES ROLLER SKATING

On December 3, from 1:45 to 4:30, the Junior High School Temple Youth Group will go roller skating. We will meet at TAI at 1:45 PM, drive to Champs, skate until 4:15 PM and return to Temple at 4:30 PM. The cost is $3 per person. Bring your own spending money.

YOUNG COUPLES - "COMEDY ON BROADWAY" ON DECEMBER 9TH

Need a break from December dinners and cocktail parties (or maybe some new jokes for them)? Then plan to join us for an evening of laughs and entertainment at COMEDY ON BROADWAY followed by our after-the-show snack or dessert. Show time 7:00 PM. Plan to meet at TAI at 6:30 PM. We need to reserve seats, so please call Paula Harrison at 269-7323 or the Temple office by December 1st. Payment in advance is necessary. Tickets are $6 per person.

IN THIS CORNER

Hanuka is our festival of the internal spirit's quest for freedom in controlling all aspects of our lives: emotional, physical, and metaphysical. When Mattathias, his son Judah, and Judah's brothers rose up in revolt against the Syrian-Greeks, they fought for personal dignity and integrity. Through their actions they taught that our God is a God for all people, not something which can be imposed on another human being against their will. We learned that our ancestors felt compelled to display their Judaism by resting on Shabbat and praising God, and adhering to the rituals of our tradition.

Judah Maccabee and his followers believed, fought and died to affirm Judaism's authenticity in truth and righteousness, and they affirmed that Judaism was their path to God, even though it might not be the alternative for everyone.

The story of Hanuka continues to be our story today. Last year at this season, I spoke in front of our State's Senate pleading for religious pluralism and tolerance of minority religions. The creche standing in front of our State Capital building symbolized to me endorsement of Christianity as the State religion. By the time you read this article, we may be faced with the same issue again. When will others stop imposing their religious will on the minority? As Jews, for more than 2,000 years, we have faced this issue everywhere we lived.

Religious oppression manifests itself in many ways. The issue of pro-choice versus anti-abortion is partially an issue of religion and religious freedom. Many men and women base their choice position on religious teachings of their denomination. Since the question of when life begins and even more so when life begins to be human is a spiritual/metaphysical concern, one group attempting to impose its religious will on another through legislation is an attempt to deny religious freedom to groups which think differently.

The pro-choice position doesn't advocate abortion. The pro-choice position allows the individual to make a decision based on conscience, religion, philosophy, or any other factors which enter into a person's search. In an age of increasing personal restrictions on an individual's lifestyle, it is important to speak up now and let your elected officials know how you feel about the freedom to make private, personal decisions in matters of conscience and religion.

The Maccabees armed themselves with the weapons of the day and fought against their oppressors. It is now time for us to arm ourselves with the pen and voice, and fight against those who wish to restrict our freedoms.

"The Involvement of the non-Jewish Spouse in the Congregation"

The role of the non-Jewish spouse in Temple life will be the focus of the next Outreach meeting on Wednesday, December 13, at 7:30 PM at the Temple.

As a result of inter-marriage, participation by non-Jews in Temple rituals, education, and leadership have become more common place.

We will discuss way non-Jews participate in our congregation at this meeting, with the aim of helping everyone feel comfortable as an active Temple member.

CKJF/CRC EXHIBIT TO OPEN AT LEXINGTON PUBLIC LIBRARY

The CKJF/CRC exhibit, Jewish Life In Central Kentucky: Shalom Y'All, opens December 10th, 1989, at the Lexington Public Library, 140 East Main St., 2nd Floor, with a program by Dr. Lee Shai Weissbach of the University of Louisville. The exhibit will be on display from December 10, 1989 through January 5, 1990.

The exhibit and program are made possible through the auspices of the Central Kentucky Jewish Federation, the Kentucky Humanities Council and the Lexington Public Library.

FROM THE HALLS OF TAI RELIGIOUS SCHOOL

THREE AND FOUR YEAR OLD CLASS

Iris Silberman, Teacher
Debbie Davidson, Teacher

The class has been very busy this year. The beginning of the school year was spent learning about the holidays. We made New Year cards for Rosh HaShanah, cardboard Torahs with a Yom Kippur prayer, cardboard fruit to hand in the Sukkah for Sukkot, and we made flags for Simchat Torah. The children have learned about these holidays through stories, pictures, and crafts.

After the holidays we began learning about Bible stories. The children have watched the videos: The Creation, Noah's Ark, and David and Goliath. After watching each video, we color or paint pictures related to the Bible story. We also have circle time where the children talk about the story and tell what they liked about it.

The class has also learned about Tzedakah and we say the blessing over the bread and the Shema each week.

We have a lot of fun and plan on much more.

KINDERGARTEN CLASS

Elayne Crystal, Teacher

Kindergarten is a special time for our five year olds. This is the time that children are Consecrated and we had our ceremony and our class performance at the Simchat Torah service in October.

We have been studying Bible stories since the end of October. We have learned about the story of Creation and Noah and the Ark. Children brought in their favorite stuffed animal which they thought could have been on the Ark. Also, we tried to name one animal for each alphabet letter. With the help of parents we came up with the following different animals -- have you heard that a "newt", "Israeli runner snake", and "Xiphosuran" were on the Ark?

HANUKAH BLESSINGS

EACH DAY THESE TWO BLESSINGS ARE RECITED:

Ba-ruch a-tah A-doh-nai Eh-lo-hay-nu me-lech hah-oh-lahm ah-sheer kid-shah-nu b'mitz-voh-tav v-tsee-vah-nu l-had'leek nar shel Chan-nu-kah.

Blessed is the Lord our God, Ruler of the universe, Who hallows us with His Mitzvot, and commands us to kindle the Hanukah lights.

Ba-ruch a-tah A-doh-nai Eh-lo-hay-nu me-lech hah-oh-lahm she-ah-sah ni-seem lah-ah-vo-tay-nu bah-yah-meem ha-haym baz-man hah-zeh.

Blessed is the Lord our God, Ruler of the universe, Who performed wondrous deeds for our ancestors in days of old, at this season.

The Following blessing is added on the first night of Hanukah only:

Ba-ruch a-tah A-doh-nai Eh-lo-hay-nu me-lech hah-oh-lahm she-heh-cheyah-nu v-kee-y'mah-nu v-hi-gee-yah-nu lahz'mahn ha-zeh

Blessed is the Lord our God, Ruler of the universe, for giving us life, for sustaining us, and for enabling us to reach this season.

As the Shamash (servant) candle is kindled, we say each day:

As one candle may kindle many others and yet lose none of its own light, so Judaism has kindled the light of truth for many religions in many lands and still shines brightly through the ages.

First Night - FREEDOM

We kindle these Hanukah lights in memory of the dedication and courage of the Maccabees. Believing that they should be free to worship God as their hearts and minds dictated, they willingly gave their lives for freedom. Now, kindling these candles, we rededicate ourselves to work for the equal rights of all people, and for the realization of a society of democracy and freedom.

Second Night - FAMILY

Tonight as we celebrate Hanukah together we are conscious of our precious gift of family. So often we take one another for granted, forgetting to express our love and devotion. Let us, now, as we kindle these festive lights rededicate ourselves to sharing our interests and time with one another. Like the Maccabees of old, let us always face the tribulations and the joys of life united by our family bonds. Kindling these lights, we pray that through kindness and thoughtfulness, our love for one another will increase from strength to strength.

Third Night - TORAH

On this third night of Hanukah, we rededicate ourselves to the study of our tradition. As the Maccabees courageously fought to preserve our faith, we, too, are duty-bound to sustain our heritage by deepening our understanding of it through study. By increasing our knowledge of Judaism we have become more sensitive to its abiding values, more aware of our responsibility to realize these values in our society. Study opens our minds and fortifies us against tyranny. Learning secures our freedom. Let us, then, as we kindle these candles rededicate ourselves to the study of our tradition.

Fourth Night - HOPE

Our ancestors have taught us that in hope a person's future is illumined and made creative. Ours are times when many people live in fear and great despair. Like the Maccabees, we need to build our lives on hope. Hope that ultimately truth will triumph over superstition and confidence that trust and understanding will finally depose superstition and tyranny. Now as we kindle these Hanukah lights, may our eyes be directed to the loftiest visions of our faith.

Fifth Night - CHARITY

Our tradition tells us that during the Maccabean war for freedom, all Jews, both children and adults, contributed toward the cause of defeating the oppressor. There are many forms of oppression still existent in our world today. There are people afflicted by sickness, hunger, ignorance and prejudice. Tonight we, like our ancestors, put aside gifts of Tzedakah in order that we, too, may help to bring an end to oppression. We pray that the humble gifts we offer will provide food for the hungry, medicine for the sick, knowledge for the ignorant, and equal opportunity for those afflicted by prejudice. Now as we kindle our Hanukah lights, let us rededicate ourselves to the ideal of Tzedakah, righteousness and justice, found in our Jewish tradition.

Sixth Night - SHALOM

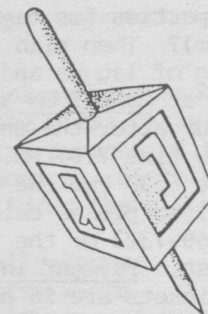

The candles of Hanukah remind us of our chosen mission as Jews. Like the Maccabees we seek to rededicate ourselves to the service of God. Today one of our foremost tasks is to secure peace in our troubled world. When we end disagreements through mutual understanding, when we seek to mend hurt and wounded feelings, we make peace a living idea. Then let us, as we kindle our Hanukah candles, rededicate ourselves with renewed strength to the task of securing peace.

Seventh Night - BROTHERHOOD

Brotherhood and Sisterhood is founded upon a total respect for the liberty and freedom of all people. The Maccabees of old sought to protect themselves when their rights were violated. Our Hanukah lights serve as a reminder that peace is secure only when we honor the precious liberty and property of our fellow neighbor. As we kindle these lights, let us rededicate ourselves to the cause of peace which alone can bring dignity to all everyone.

Eighth Night - FAITH

Tonight we kindle all the candles of our Hanukah Menorah. Throughout the centuries the Menorah has been a symbol of our Jewish faith. Like the Maccabees, when they celebrated this festive holiday, we rededicate ourselves to the living of a more meaningful Jewish life. We pray that throughout this coming year, we may fulfill the ideals of freedom, Tzedakah, family, study, hope, shalom and brotherhood, all of which are symbolized by the candles of our Menorah.

Or come to re-awaken your knowledge. We'll converse and learn the alef-beyz so we can read simple texts, understand letters from relatives; sing songs; share jokes and proverbs. A variety of reproduced materials will be provided. The class will have the option of choosing textbook, if desired, after first few sessions. Elliot Gertel will be the instructor.

Classes will start Wednesday, January 10, 1990 and will continue for six weeks: January 10, 17, 24, 31 and February 7 and 14. Classes will be offered Wednesday evenings from 7:30-8:30 PM at Ohavay Zion Synagogue, 2048 Edgewater Court, Lexington (near Alumni Drive and New Circle Road.) To cover the cost of materials and instruction, we are requesting $30 tuition for the six week series. Scholarships can be arranged, of course. YOU MUST REGISTER IN ADVANCE BY CALLING THE SYNAGOGUE OFFICE AT (606) 266-8050. IF YOU HAVE ANY SPECIFIC QUESTIONS ABOUT THE COURSE ITSELF, PLEASE CALL ELLIOT AT (606) 268-4017.

GAN EDEN GARDENING CLUB

On January 10, at 7:30 PM, Temple Adath Israel will begin sponsorship of a new club called Gan Eden (Garden of Eden). The purpose of Gan Eden is for the many members of this congregation who are involved in home gardening (vegetables and flowers) to share their knowledge, their successes and failures, and their secrets about the soil and the green thumb.

Underlying the formation of Gan Eden is a way for creative gardeners to share their bounty with those less fortunate by contributing some of their produce to the hungry and homeless. Once this club is formed, we will bring in local experts on bugs, disease, soil, etc. to teach us better ways to overcome the bugs in our life.

Please join Rabbi (Farmer Jon) Adland on January 10, at 7:30 PM at Temple. As the first farmer said a long, long time ago, on a field far, far away, "May the soil be with you."

This year . . . Bring Chanuka Home.

Experience the joy and beauty of Chanuka in a home service specially created for the whole family.

Each day, the story of Chanuka unfolds with poetry, song, and prayer. Beautiful, full-page illustrations augment the story as it daily builds to its inspiring conclusion. An elegant retelling of the timeless struggle for dignity and religious freedom, a beacon of light and hope for every generation — for all mankind.

Haneirot Halalu includes nightly blessings in Hebrew and English (with complete transliterations), the dreidle-game, music — even a traditional recipe for latkes.

The text and liturgies, edited by Rabbi Elyse D. Frishman, plus nine vibrant watercolors by renowned artist Leonard Baskin infuse the story with warmth and rare beauty.

Purchase Haneirot Halalu for those you love — enrich your celebration of Chanuka for years to come.

TEMPLE ADATH ISRAEL BULLETIN

VOL. 57

NO. 9

DECEMBER 29, 1989

2 TEVETH 5750

IN THIS CORNER

Immediately following the Thanksgiving weekend, the wonderful Israeli who was the tour guide for the Temple Adath Israel 1988 Israel trip came to Lexington. As he visited with his friends from that tour, which was just about two years ago, Doron, our guide, and I discussed the next TAI Israel trip which will occur in June 1991.

There is no question in my mind that a trip to Israel can change or enhance an individual's Jewish identity. To walk back into the ancient past at any of the numerous archeological excavations, or to relive the 20th century as the land of Israel was reclaimed from swamp or desert to become farm land or new towns and villages is an emotional exciting experience. These same comments can be heard from almost any person who has made the trip.

For adults, a tour of Israel can help recall bitter or sweet memories for the Jewish people of this century. For teenagers, a trip to Israel can be the beginning of a wonderful voyage through Jewish history ending with a more solid understanding of the meaning of the State, the meaning of living a Jewish life, and how Jews are bound together across time and space.

Through our contributions to the Central Kentucky Jewish Federation, of which 70% is sent on to the United Jewish Appeal, as well as contributions from every other Jewish Federation in this country, the State of Israel continues to receive tremendous financial support from the American Jewish community. Yet, I am convinced that if we don't make bolder attempts to send more of our high school youth to Israel, the message and importance of the State of Israel will be lost on the next generation.

I believe that it is now time for our local Federation to rethink its policy of a 70/30 split and use some of the 70% to help finance youth tours of Israel. There is no question that these trips are costly. Families need financial assistance to get their children to Eretz Yisrael. At this time, a total of $1,000, two $500 Israel scholarships, is available. The Federation instead should reserve $5,000-$10,000 of the UJA allocation and thus increase to $1,000 per youth the scholarship money with no strings attached. If a high school youth from our community chooses to spend the summer in Israel on a legitimate program, we should support that youth's decision by helping to send the individual. We should give the money to the youth with our blessing. The Lexington Jewish community will feel pride in the youth's choice of spending a summer in Israel and we will benefit from a more intense Jewish identity. Israel will still get their share of the Federation pie, but this money will go to Israel in the form of tourist dollars e.g. air fare, gifts, food, tour guides, bus drivers, and so on.

This concept of redistributing the CKJF-UJA allocation will take a bold initiative on the part of the CKJF board. In the short term, certain conflicts may arise, but in the long term, all of the Jewish community will reap the rewards of this action.

HOW WE FINANCE OUR TEMPLE

(This is the first of a series explaining both the income and expenditure aspects of the Temple's finances.)

The Temple's financial support is met from six categories of sources: annual dues, special donations for current use, fees for special activities, income from endowed funds, and income from Temple properties.

Annual dues are paid by each membership unit--whether family or individual. The amount, based upon the member's financial ability, is established periodically through the joint efforts of the member and the Dues Review committee. Because the Temple follows the Jewish tradition of granting membership regardless of financial ability and because a number of members have very limited financial means, the remaining members have a responsibility to demonstrate an extra degree of generosity in responding to dues assessments. A little under 60% of the Temple's current expenditures are paid from annual dues. The Budget & Finance Committee chairman estimates that a sound financial structure requires that annual dues provide at least 70% of our current level of expenditures. The second largest source of the Temple's finances, about 25%, is paid from endowed funds predominantly the Levy-Mt. Tabor Fund.

Fees for special activities such as the pre-school, religious school, and adult education classes help to defray the costs of those specific activities.

These fees constitute about 12% of the total costs of the congregation's entire program.

Special donations for current use--e.g., flower fund, library fund, unrestricted donations, and fund raising activities by Sisterhood--are used to help finance special aspects of the Temple's environment and programs but pay less than 5% of the total expenses.

Finally, the Temple receives a small amount of income from its rental properties, usage fees for the auditorium, and interest from bank accounts holding funds available for current use. Of this money, only the rental fees are substantial but this income is largely (sometimes entirely) offset by the expenses of maintaining the properties (which are being held to meet future expansion needs).

BEGINNERS YIDDISH

Prior knowledge of Yiddish not necessary. Have fun learning NAME-LOSHN, the mother tongue your parents used so "you wouldn't understand!" Share it with your children so they WILL understand! Or come to re-awaken your knowledge. We'll converse and learn the alef-beyz so we can read simple texts, understand letters from relatives; sing songs; share jokes and proverbs. A variety of reproduced materials will be provided. The class will have the option of choosing the textbook, if desired, after the first few sessions. Elliot Gertel will be the instructor.

Classes will start Wednesday, January 10, 1990 and will continue for six weeks: January 10, 17, 24, 31 and February 7 and 14. Classes will be offered Wednesday evenings from 7:30-8:30 PM at Ohavay Zion Synagogue, 2048 Edgewater Court, Lexington (near Alumni Drive and New Circle Road.) To cover the cost of materials and instruction, we are requesting $30 tuition for the six week series. Scholarships can be arranged, of course. YOU MUST REGISTER IN ADVANCE BY CALLING THE SYNAGOGUE OFFICE AT (606) 266-8050. IF YOU HAVE ANY SPECIFIC QUESTIONS ABOUT THE COURSE ITSELF, PLEASE CALL ELLIOT AT (606) 268-4017.

ADVANCED HEBREW TO REPLACE B'NAI MITZVAH THIS YEAR

Beginning February 26 - May 14, Rabbi Adland will lead an advanced Hebrew class. The course will meet from 7:30 PM to 8:45 PM on Monday evenings for ten (10) sessions. The objective of the class is to further develop Hebrew skills in the area of prayer and reading Torah. The cost is $30 per person which will cover the cost of materials. February 5th is the deadline for sign-ups. Call the Temple office or Rabbi Adland to register.

OUTREACH MEETING - JANUARY 17TH

What do you think of when you see a cross? What does the word Holocaust mean to you? When Jews & non-Jews marry, they bring to their relationship different religious, cultural, and social experiences. We'll discuss these experiences and how they affect inter-faith relationships at the next Outreach meeting on Wednesday, January 17, at 7:30 PM at the home of Bill & Jane Grise' 3295 Gondola Ct., Lexington (In Harrods Hills).

Attendance was good at the December meeting, when we discussed the many ways non-Jews can participate in Temple life. Anyone wanting more information on this topic can call Rabbi Adland at the Temple.

If you would like to be added to the Outreach mailing list, please call Sandee at the Temple.

We are pleased that so many Blood Donors showed up on Friday, October 27th, so we could honor them on this, their special day. They all received Certificates of Appreciation. And thanks to Sisterhood, a beautifully decorated sheet cake was there for them to share.

I am certain that all of us had a warm, loving feeling for all who gave of themselves. You can do it also.

Go to the Blood Bank on Waller Ave., and say that your blood donation is for Sisterhood of Temple Adath Israel. It will give you a good feeling to donate blood. So, go and do it!!!

FROM THE HALLS OF THE RELIGIOUS SCHOOL

1ST GRADE

Anita Mersack, Teacher

The class has been very busy this year. The first week of religious school we decorated a Karen Ami box with Jewish symbols. We then studied all the Jewish holidays that occur during the beginning of the school year. For Rosh HaShanah, we blew the shofar and baked round challahs. For Yom Kippur, we made New Year resolutions. We made lulavs for Sukkot and hung fruit in the Sukkah. On Simchat Torah, we made a Torah.

We have begun the study of Mitzvot which we will continue through the year. We have discussed the mitzvot of honoring your parents, telling the truth, and returning lost property.

Jewish Book Month was the subject of our program on December 8th. Each child chose a library book to read, draw a picture of, and share with the congregation. We also sang a song about Jewish books.

The children are very interested in Hebrew and we have been learning the Hebrew Alef-Bet, the names of the letters, and their sounds.

Our program is enriched by having music and Israeli dance on alternate weeks. Thanks, Melinda and Shayna.

2ND GRADE

Sandy Adland, Teacher

Our class of nine boys and one girl began the Religious School year with the study of Rosh HaShanah, Yom Kippur, Sukkot, and Simchat Torah. We also gained an awareness of the Jewish objects and symbols that surround us in our homes. Cheri Rose visited our class and shared her views on what it is like to be a Jew-by-choice. We've discussed joy and bravery and their relationship to Judaism.

Last week we began learning the Hebrew aleph-bet, beginning with א (bet) and ש (shin). The students also enjoy using their Bible People workbooks. Thus far, we have discussed the Story of Creation, B'rachot (blessings), and the story of Adam and Eve. Shayna Lerner and Melinda Mersack have added so much by bringing Jewish music and Israeli dance to our class each week.

THIRD GRADE

Sheila Biel, Teacher

The class has just finished a unit on the Torah. We learned why we must value the Torah, discussed the different parts of the Torah (including their Hebrew names), went to the sanctuary to see our Torahs, and discussed the honors associated with the Torah.

We also studied about Mitzvot and how we can apply it to our lives daily to those of our family (including our mother, father, sisters, brothers, grandparents, etc.)

Learning about Bible stories is a favorite part of our class. The students enjoy watching the videos and participating in the discussions that follow, making learning fun as well as educational.

FOLK DANCING AT TAI

Every Monday at 8 PM, Israeli and other types of folk dances are taught at Temple Adath Israel. This is a fun group and all are welcome to participate.

G.U.C.I. CAMP

"The Myron S. Goldman Camp Institute at Zionsville, Indiana has what you'd expect at any good camp and much more... Excellent counselors, all types of sports, cookouts, overnights and canoeing. Arts and crafts, drama, music and dance. All in a delightful summer camp setting.

In addition, as a Union of American Hebrew Congregations' camp, G.U.C.I. offers more. Join us in creating an exciting and dynamic Jewish community of young people. Come celebrate with us the joys of Reform Judaism. GET THE SPIRIT. GET G.U.C.I.

If you are entering the fourth grade or higher next fall, find out about Goldman Union Camp Institute.

For further information and a copy of the 1990 G.U.C.I. brochure and application form, call the Temple office, or contact the Camp Director, Rabbi Ronald Klotz, 9349 Moore Road, Zionsville, Indiana 46077 (317) 873-3361.
