JANUARY 15, 1996

VOL. 63

NO. 10

IN THIS CORNER...

Some thoughts for my friends at Temple Adath Israel while I am on my sabbatical:

- At the end of February, Temple Adath Israel will host The Hebrew Reading Marathon. This is an excellent opportunity to learn to read Hebrew. The program, run by its creator Rabbi Golinkin, is being used throughout North America to teach people Hebrew. It is only one day (with a few optional follow-up sessions.) Don't miss this opportunity. More information is available elsewhere in the bulletin or call the Temple office.
- This summer, the Union of American Hebrew Congregations (UAHC) is sponsoring a Social Action mission. Reform Jews from all over the country are being given the opportunity to gather in one place to participate in projects that will benefit others. Rabbi Joel Soffin from New Jersey is the coordinator for this project. The interesting aspect of this mission is that Lexington, KY, will be the gathering site. This project will take place the week of July 28. The work will occur from Monday-Friday. Members of this congregation may participate as well.

In coordinating this project, I agreed that our community would also help in some of the local details. I am looking for people to chair this project as well as work on the following:

1. Preparing dinner Monday and Tuesday;
2. Arranging for home hospitality on Thursday;
3. Making lunches a couple of days;
4. Coordinating a pot luck Shabbat dinner on Friday.

Rabbi Soffin says that we can expect 40-60 people.

- Finally, it is wonderful to know that I have so many people in this congregation that I can count on to do the necessary work in my absence. Thank you to those who lead and will lead worship, conduct Torah Study, teach my Hebrew and Confirmation classes, and visit those in the hospital.

See you in February!!!

B'nai Mitzvah Class to begin Feb. 13

Cost: $50

B'nai Mitzvah is a program of Hebrew enrichment, text study, and the opportunity to have a Bar/Bar Mitzvah as an adult. The class runs an hour and a half, beginning at 7:30 PM. The first part of class teaches Hebrew. (Introduction to Hebrew or the equivalent is a prerequisite for the B'nai Mitzvah class.) The second part of each class looks at the variety of Jewish texts from Tanach to Talmud to the literature of responsa.

Participation in the B'nai Mitzvah service includes several requirements including worship attendance and a short paper, as well as Temple Membership.

If you never had a Bar/Bat Mitzvah as a child and want the opportunity to fulfill this unique Jewish life cycle event, then sign-up for this course. Ask any of the people who have become B'nai Mitzvah in the past and I believe that they will all tell you what a special experience it was for them.

Class Dates are:

From the Rabbi's Library

I recently received the gift of a special new book. This isn't a Jewish book, but it is a book written by a Temple member. The book is called, I Can't Sleep, by Laura Loventhal, daughter of Dr. John and Connie Loventhal. Laura is currently a junior at Tulane University.

I Can't Sleep is a children's book concerning what a young child may think about in order to help him or her fall asleep at night. The illustrations are beautiful. The text is simple and rhyming. As a community, we should take great pride in Laura's accomplishment. As her rabbi, I certainly do. If you have a young child, then this book would make a great contribution to his or her library.

Mazal Tov Laura on this wonderful accomplishment!!

PLEASE LET US KNOW!

If you or someone you know is going into the hospital, please let the Temple office know so that the Rabbi can make a visit.

The hospitals do not always contact the Temple about Jewish patients, nor is religious preference always requested on the hospital intake. Your help in this matter will insure that every Temple member in the hospital is contacted by the Rabbi.

Adult Education in February to Survey Jewish History

February 8, 15, 22: God-Torah-Israel: The History of our People

This is an elective class for Adult Confirmation.

These three weeks will provide an outline and overview of Jewish history. The first week will survey the biblical period. The second week will explore the rabbinic period of Jewish history. The third week will look at the modern period. All classes begin at 7:30 PM. They are free and open to the public.

The Maurice A. Hymson Adult Programming Fund presents Scholar-in-Residence

Rabbi Norman J.
Cohen
Professor of Midrash
HUC-JIR in
New York
March 1-3, 1996

*"Confronting
Ourselves: Improving Our Family Lives: Struggling with
the Tradition"*

Friday evening, March 1 - "Midrash: Our Struggles as Parents and Children" - By dealing with selected passages in Genesis which show how characters act in the context of family life, we will learn not only about the biblical narratives, but also about ourselves as family members.

Saturday morning, March 2 - "Midrash: The Process of Making the Bible Come Alive" - Midrash is the literature through which the rabbis sought to respond not only to the times in which they lived, but also to the timeless questions we all face. Dr. Cohen will discuss how we can make the Bible come alive and help us shape our family lives.

Saturday afternoon, March 2 - "Abraham's Struggle as Father and Husband" - The patriarch Abraham is usually seen as the symbol of faith, commitment, strength, and loyalty. But how successful was he as a husband and parent? Dr. Cohen will use the texts to learn about these aspects of Abraham and, in so doing, help us learn about who we are as spouses and parents.

Sunday morning, March 3 - "Sibling Rivalry: A Fascinating Response to a Perennial Problem" - The relationship among siblings are among life's most complicated. Dr. Cohen will examine the story of Cain and Abel to provide us with guidance in our struggles with our own brothers and sisters.

THE CONTROVERSY AT SOUTHERN ELEMENTARY

First of all, I must say that I am very proud of the stand that my wife took at Southern Elementary School concerning the changing of the annual Christmas Program to a Winter Program. It took a lot of courage for her to stand up, speak her mind and heart, and work for what she believes in. What she accomplished is a model for all of us.

Lest you think that Sandy's goal was to remove Christmas from Southern as a way to damage those who are Christian, let me tell you that the sole purpose of Sandy's work was to make Southern Elementary a school which values every child and conducts ceremonies which are inclusive of all children, not particular for some even if they are a majority. Enough people valued her wisdom and the wisdom of the school principal, representatives of the Fayette County Central Offices, and other parents who spoke up to make the necessary changes. According to Sandy, the program was beautiful, meaningful, and everyone had a place.

There are many people in Lexington who believe that Christmas, Christological music, and Christianity should be an integral part of the Fayette County educational experience. Some of these people expressed their views at the Southern meetings that were held to decide this issue. Others called local talk shows to fan the flames burning with intolerance. One local talk show host called The Adland's "bullies" and "the enemy". "Removing Christmas celebrations from the schools is un-American," the callers would indicate.

Maybe I misunderstand Christmas, but I see it as a holy day for Christians. It is one of their High Holy Days. The celebration of Christmas should focus on spiritual messages. These same parents concerned with the celebration of Christmas in our schools should be working to enhance the celebration of this special day in their homes and churches. They should find the spiritual message in their communities of faith. I feel sad for my Christian friends who have lost sight of the meaning of Christmas and only focus on the commercial aspect and the parties.

I am not sure where this controversy will lead. Next year, I am sure, parents will work to bring Christmas back to the winter program by getting on the important decision making committees, rallying support, and working within the system. It is only too bad that they don't realize how many children feel excluded from this program, looking at it as strangers from the outside. Sandy will continue to be on the firing line. If you believe in what she is doing, she could use your support.

Mazel Tov Sandy on bringing sensitivity and enlightenment to a place where the feelings of all children should come first.

IN MEMORIAM

It is with profound sorrow that I announce the death of our former rabbi, Dr. Jacob Rader Marcus. He died November 14, 1995/22 Cheshvan 5756, in Cincinnati, OH. Rabbi Marcus served this congregation in 1919, returning in the late 1920's to conduct Confirmation services. Temple Adath Israel, Lexington, KY, is the only congregation Rabbi Marcus ever served. Until his death, he proudly used the pocket watch presented to him in appreciation of his service here by Skuller's Jewelers. He spent the remaining years, more than 70, as a member of the faculty of Hebrew Union College, Cincinnati, OH, teaching, researching, and writing until last year. His presence will be missed by every student who studied with him and every rabbi he called one of his "boys." Zecher Tzaddik Livracha - May his righteous memory be a blessing to us all.

"Confronting
Ourselves: Improving Our Family Lives: Struggling with
the Tradition"

Friday evening, March 1 - "Midrash: Our Struggles as Parents and Children" - By dealing with selected passages in Genesis which show how characters act in the context of family life, we will learn not only about the biblical narratives, but also about ourselves as family members.

Saturday morning, March 2 - "Midrash: The Process of Making the Bible Come Alive" - Midrash is the literature through which the rabbis sought to respond not only to the times in which they lived, but also to the timeless questions we all face. Dr. Cohen will discuss how we can make the Bible come alive and help us shape our family lives.

Saturday afternoon, March 2 - "Abraham's Struggle as Father and Husband" - The patriarch Abraham is usually seen as the symbol of faith, commitment, strength, and loyalty. But how successful was he as a husband and parent? Dr. Cohen will use the texts to learn about these aspects of Abraham and, in so doing, help us learn about who we are as spouses and parents.

Sunday morning, March 3 - "Sibling Rivalry: A Fascinating Response to a Perennial Problem" - The relationships among siblings are among life's most complicated. Dr. Cohen will examine the story of Cain and Abel to provide us with guidance in our struggles with our own brothers and sisters.

B'nai Mitzvah Class to begin Feb. 13

Cost: $50

B'nai Mitzvah is a program of Hebrew enrichment, text study, and the opportunity to have a Bar/Bar Mitzvah as an adult. The class runs an hour and a half, beginning at 7:30 PM. The first part of class teaches Hebrew. (Introduction to Hebrew or the equivalent is a prerequisite for the B'nai Mitzvah class.) The second part of each class looks at the variety of Jewish texts from Tanach to Talmud to the literature of responsa.

Participation in the B'nai Mitzvah service includes several requirements including worship attendance and a short paper, as well as Temple Membership.

If you never had a Bar/Bat Mitzvah as a child and want the opportunity to fulfill this unique Jewish life cycle event, then sign-up for this course. Ask any of the people who have become B'nai Mitzvah in the past and I believe that they will all tell you what a special experience it was for them.

Class Dates are:

Feb. 13, 20 & 27; Mar. 12 & 19; Apr. 9, 16, 23, & 30; May 14, 21, & 28. The B'nai Mitzvah service is scheduled for May 31.

CONTACT THE TEMPLE OFFICE TO SIGN UP. DEADLINE (IN ORDER TO HAVE THE BOOKS AVAILABLE AT THE FIRST CLASS) IS FEBRUARY 1.

TAI PRESCHOOL NEWS

It's hard to believe that the school year is more than halfway over. Our preschoolers continue to blossom in so many wonderful ways, thanks to Mrs. Tomko, Mrs. Danow Mrs. Frank, Mrs. Potter and Mrs. Gerall. February 2-March 1: Pre-registration for Temple and Synagogue members, with Temple members securing priority.

March 2 : Pre-registration open to the public.

Kroger certificates are always available through the Preschool. If you shop at Kroger, please help the Preschool by using "Kroger Scrip".

B'nai Mitzvah Class to begin Feb. 13

Cost: $50

B'nai Mitzvah is a program of Hebrew enrichment, text study, and the opportunity to have a Bar/Bat Mitzvah as an adult. The class runs an hour and a half, beginning at 7:30 PM. The first part of class teaches Hebrew. (Introduction to Hebrew or the equivalent is a prerequisite for the B'nai Mitzvah class.) The second part of each class looks at the variety of Jewish texts from Tanach to Talmud to the literature of responsa.

Participation in the B'nai Mitzvah service includes several requirements including worship attendance and a short paper, as well as Temple Membership.

If you never had a Bar/Bat Mitzvah as a child and want the opportunity to fulfill this unique Jewish life cycle event, then sign-up for this course. Ask any of the people who have become B'nai Mitzvah in the past and I believe that they will all tell you what a special experience it was for them.

Class Dates are:

Feb. 13, 20 & 27; Mar. 12 & 19; Apr. 9, 16, 23, & 30; May 14, 21, & 28. The B'nai Mitzvah service is scheduled for May 31.

CONTACT THE TEMPLE OFFICE TO SIGN UP. DEADLINE (IN ORDER TO HAVE THE BOOKS AVAILABLE AT THE FIRST CLASS) IS FEBRUARY 1.

Bar/Bat Mitzvah Date Setting for children born in 1985 scheduled for March 6, 1996

The annual Bar/Bat Mitzvah Date Setting meeting for the parents of children born in 1985 will be held March 6, 1996, beginning at 7:30 PM. It is important for parents to be present at this meeting. No dates will be pre-selected. If you cannot attend this meeting, then please schedule an appointment with Rabbi Adland at a time after March 6.

PLEASE LET US KNOW!

If you or someone you know is going into the hospital, please let the Temple office know so that the Rabbi can make a visit.

The hospitals do not always contact the Temple about Jewish patients, nor is religious preference always requested on the hospital intake. Your help in this matter will insure that every Temple member in the hospital is contacted by the Rabbi.

Tu B'Shevat is called Rosh Hashanah l'Ilanot - The New Year of Trees. They provide beauty to the land of Israel.

If you would like to buy a tree, please complete the form below. Checks can be made out to the Lexington Chapter of Hadassah, as Hadassah handles JNF business in Lexington. Trees are available year-round.

NEW MEMBER HIGHLIGHT

JAMIE SCHLOSS & CHERYL GERSCH-SCHLOSS

Jamie & Cheryl moved to Lexington from Los Angeles, CA to be in "Horse Heaven". They bought the former Crescent Farm and renamed it "Castle Rock Stud. They breed and race thoroughbred horses. Castle Rock Stud participates in all areas of the thoroughbred industry including boarding year round, breaking and training, broodmare management, international quarantine, marketing, sales preparation and racing management.

They have the joy of having "Count the Time", a grade 3 winner and grade 1 placed son of Regal Search to stand stud at their farm for the 1996 breeding season.

Besides their love of horses, Jamie and Cheryl enjoy playing golf. Jamie also enjoys painting and Cheryl enjoys reading.

The Temple welcomes them to Lexington and to the Temple congregation.

NEW MEMBER HIGHLIGHT

DR. MARTIN & GAYLE DORIO

Marty & Gail are both native New Yorkers, born in Brooklyn and raised on Long Island. They married while obscenely young, and have been together ever since. Determined to make an Italian-Jewish combination work, they produced two incredibly wonderful, cherished sons. Paul is now 25 and finishing medical school in May 96. He will then start his residency - internship, hoping to specialize in surgery. Jay is now 22 and working on graduate studies in Psyhology.

In their early married years, Marty was an officer in the Air Force and stationed at Laredo AFB in Texas. After leaving the service, Marty and Gayle headed to the University of Massachusetts where Marty earned his PhD in Physical Chemitsty and Gayle completed her BA in Art-Design.

Next they moved to Cleveland, OH where Marty worked for the Diamond Shamrock Corp. and General Electric. Gayle worked as an interior designer for a large furniture company until opening her own studio. While members of the Am Shalom congregation in Cleveland, Gayle became a Bat Mitzvah.

When Marty's career took them to Chicago, Gayle sold her business but became director of a large $2 million art gallery. She won many sales awards, contests and recognition she traveled around the United States to train other directors, their staff and set up major art shows.

They left Chicago and moved to Paris, France for two years where Marty worked for the Case Corp. There he soon became the number two man in Europe helping in restructuring and enlarging the business worldwide. This in turn, led to the present opportunity, one that Marty has been looking forward to always - that of running a large company as its president and CEO. Marty assumed this position at Clark Material Handling Company in Lexington.

Gayle is a member of the ASID - the American Society for Interior Designers. She also belongs to ORT and has recently joined the Newcomers' Club in Lexington, the Hartland Homeowner's Associaton and has been asked to be on the board for the Lexington Ballet. Marty is a member of many professional organizations.

Both Marty and Gayle love to read and travel. They enjoy bridge, exercise, scuba diving, resting on the beach, wine, France, photography and Gayle also enjoys mahjong, knitting and horseback riding.

The Temple family welcomes the Dorio's to the Lexington Community and the Temple congregation.

Where have all the UNIONGRAMS gone?

They're still here -- they've just been taking a nap!

But now they are awake and ready to have your name inscribed for best wishes on a special occasion!!

UNIONGRAMS

help to finance the YES Fund (Youth, Education, Sisterhood) of the Women of Reformed Judaism which provides support for many worthwhile causes affecting Judaism worldwide.

UNIONGRAMS

will be delivered to members of the congregation who are celebrating special occasions:
significant birthdays or anniversaries,
bar/bat/bnai mitzvahs or confirmations, or other life cycle events such as a marriage or birth/naming of a baby.

Your name, along with the names of others, will be inscribed (at your request) on the UNIONGRAM

Your $1 contribution for having your name included on a UNIONGRAM helps not only the YES Fund, but also shows your friends within the Adath Israel community that you are thinking of them on their special day.

All members of the congregation are now included in UNIONGRAM celebrations (not just Sisterhood members as was previously).

You can set up an account by making a contribution (usually $10) from which each inscription will be credited $1. When your $10 is used up, put in some more! Or, you may wish to contribute only for each occasion.

Individual UNIONGRAMS

are also sold by the package of four in the Sisterhood Giftshop.

Why run out to Hallmark when you can keep on hand beautiful cards for whenever the need for a special note or message should arise? Please stop by and pick some up!

Look for the list of upcoming special occasions in the next bulletin. If you would like to set up an account, or have any questions call Judi Oer at 277-5161.

UAHC Adult Mitzvah Corps is coming to Lexington: We need your help!!!!

The Union of American Hebrew Congregations is sponsoring its first Adult Mitzvah Corps July 28-August 3. The Mitzvah Corps concept has been used in several of our youth regions for years. The idea is to gather individuals for an extensive Social Action project. The UAHC chose Lexington as its first site. This program is open to only 60 adults. The actual work is Monday July 29-August 2. The main project is the construction of a house for Habitat for Humanity.

Temple Adath Israel is helping the project by preparing dinner Monday and Tuesday evening, lunches for Tuesday and Thursday, and arranging for one night of home hospitality on Thursday, and hosting a pot-luck Shabbat dinner on Friday. If you can help with hospitality, contact Chas Hite 266-0246 or with cooking, contact Rose Rita Wurmser 277-0217. There are other time limited tasks as well. Contact Rabbi Adland if you can do any little thing that week to make the project a success.

More information in the next bulletin.

The National Conference to Honor Rose Rita and Jerry Wurmser

On Thursday evening, March 7, The National Conference will honor Jerry and Rose Rita Wurmser with their highest award: The Humanitarian Award. The entire Temple Adath Israel community celebrates with the Wurmser family on this special and holy moment.

Anyone who knows the Wurmser's is not surprised by this award. Jerry and Rose Rita give their heart and soul to this Temple, the entire Jewish community, and the community at large. It is impossible to name all the things that Rose Rita and Jerry do, but here is a partial list that is done by one or both:

- Prepare the Temple Seder;
- Build homes for Habitat for Humanity;
- Participate in Jewish-Christian dialogue;
- Always enough room at a holiday table for the new person in town;
- Resettle and care for the New American Jews;
- Always available when help is needed;
- Help families prepare for simcha celebrations;
- Serve on community boards;
- Always believe that whatever needs doing will get done;
- Examples to us all.

Rose Rita and Jerry, God bless you for taking part in Tikkun Olam, the repair of the world. By your deeds, we may be one step closer.

In This Corner...

With a gift $10,000.00 gift from an anonymous donor, a new restricted Temple Endowment Fund has been created. This new fund will be known as the OVFTY-tute SCHOLARSHIP FUND. The purpose of the fund is to provide every child, whose parents are members in good standing of Temple Adath Israel, with a one-time full scholarship to OVFTY-tute, in the year they complete the ninth grade of the TAI Religious School. This one week camp institute for 9th-12th graders is held in August at Goldman Union Camp Institutetime. The granting of the scholarship is dependent upon the beneficiaries' agreement to complete the Temple's 10th Grade Confirmation program. Temple Adath Israel thanks the Temple family who provided the necessary funds to begin this scholarship program. Many children will benefit from this exciting, rewarding Jewish experience.

As many of you are aware, this is not the first fund to be established in recent years by loyal Temple families. Judge Rosenstein, z"l, who recently passed away, created the ROSENSTEIN FAMILY FUND, in memory of Harriet L. Rosenstein. This fund provides:

- * Registration fees for "children in need" to attend TAI Religious School;
- * Fees for travel, youth at camps, retreats;
- * Scholarships or partial scholarships for Jewish or Jewish related activities;
- * Sponsoring special events geared to young people/youth to bring greater perception, breadth and dynamics to their understanding and appreciation of Judaism.

The ANITA AND HAROLD BAKER

TRUST FUND provides monies for programs and/or activities related to cultural and educational projects for Temple Adath Israel. This fund brought the singing duo Kol B'Seder to TAI last fall for an absolutely wonderful concert.

The DR SHERMAN E. AND FANNIE H. MILLER MEMORIAL FUND provides scholarships and funds to help our youth to:

- * Go to Jewish summer camp;
- * Attend various Jewish activities including conclaves and conventions;
- * Purchase Jewish educational materials.

Many children of our congregation have received money from this fund to attend Jewish functions when they otherwise would not have been able to go.

The final fund to be established in recent years is the MAURICE HYMSON ADULT EDUCATION TRUST FUND. This fund supports adult education programming sponsored by the Temple including, but not limited to, speakers of the faculty of Hebrew Union College. Our recent scholar-in-residence, Rabbi Norman Cohen, who presented three marvelous teaching sessions, came to our congregation under the auspices of this fund.

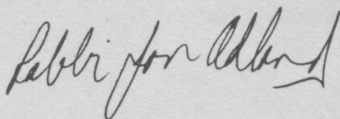

As I mentioned, all of the above funds were established within the last several years. Other Temple Endowment Restricted Funds include:

- The Abraham Music Fund which brings Jewish musical guests to our congregation;
- Adult Programming Fund which supports Adult Education at TAI;
- The Paritz Fund which purchases artwork including some of the beautiful artwork in the hallway and social hall;
- The Kessler Fund which supports the Religious School.

We are very lucky as a congregation to have members who care about the future of this congregation and can contribute the financial base necessary to start a restricted endowment fund. Along with some of the Auxillary Funds which include The Prayer Book Fund, Tzedakkah Fund, L'Chaim Fund, and Memorial Book Fund, we can attempt to service the needs of our membership. Whether it is programming, aesthetics, providing opportunities for our youth, or helping those in need, these funds help to insure a better future at TAI.

The work is not over though. We must all continue to contribute to these funds so that they will grow and provide more opportunities for the generations yet to come. There is a famous Talmudic story which tells about the old man who goes out to plant a fruit tree knowing that this will not benefit him, but it will benefit his children and grandchildren. We must plant the fruit trees, as well as monitor their sustenance so that our children and grandchildren will benefit.

Thank you to all who make this funds happen from the original donor to all the contributors. A ray of light is shining for tomorrow.

From the Rabbi's Library

In 1992, Rabbi Jeff Salkin wrote a book titled, Putting God on the Guest List: How to Reclaim the Spiritual Meaning of Your Child's Bar or Bat Mitzvah. Every rabbi who has read this book praises its content as it attempts to restore dignity, responsibility, integrity, and God to the Bar and Bat Mitzvah ceremony. The meaning of a child's Bar/Bat Mitzvah is not a party, but the coming of age of a Jewish adult and the inherent responsibilities that go along with this spiritual moment.

During my January Sabbatical, I finally read what I had heard about for some time and I couldn't put it down. Every rabbi has written this book in his head, as a sermon, in bulletin articles, or in his/her soul. Rabbis want the family to focus on the Erev Shabbat and Shabbat morning services. Rabbis want the meal following the service and other gatherings of friends and relatives to be filled with the spirit and presence of God, and not to reflect status in the community and wealth.

Rabbi Salkin helps us focus by teaching us what a Bar/Bat Mitzvah is. The book is divided into nine chapters. The first six chapters help us focus on the meaning of the ceremony. Chapter seven teaches us about the Shabbat morning service. Chapters eight and nine talk about family and the years after the Bar/Bat Mitzvah.

At Temple Adath Israel, we work hard to keep everything in the proper perspective. We try to make the ceremony the focus rather than the celebration. We invite the entire community to the Oneg (luncheon) after the service so that we can celebrate together as a community. We try to remind parents that what they do on the East and West coasts does not need to be the way we do it here. We try to encourage parents to remember that their child is only 13 and would like to celebrate in a manner consistent with other 13 year old children. And I believe that we maintain an air of spirituality at all times during the celebration of the Bar/Bat Mitzvah.

Yet, despite our successes, this book is a must read if your children or grandchildren are approaching this important day. You will find comfort and meaning in Rabbi Salkin's words.

UAHC Adult Mitzvah Corps is coming to Lexington: We need your help!!!!

The Union of American Hebrew Congregations is sponsoring its first Adult Mitzvah Corps July 28-August 3. The Mitzvah Corps concept has been used in several of our youth regions for years. The idea is to gather individuals for an extensive Social Action project. The UAHC chose Lexington as its first site. This program is open to only 60 adults. The actual work is Monday July 29-Friday August 2. The main project is the construction of a house for Habitat for Humanity.

Temple Adath Israel is helping the project by preparing dinner Monday and Tuesday evenings, lunches for Tuesday and Thursday, arranging for one night of home hospitality on Thursday, and hosting a pot-luck Shabbat dinner on Friday. If you can help with hospitality, contact Chas Hite 266-0246, or with cooking, contact Rose Rita Wurmser 277-0217. There are other time limited tasks as well. Contact Rabbi Adland if you can do any little thing that week to make the project a success.

For Lexingtonians interested in participating, there possibly will be a small fee. Most important, the leader of the project, Rabbi Joel Soffin from Succasunna, NJ, asks that anyone from Lexington who wishes to participate also attend the study sessions and group building exercises. If you wish to participate in the project, then contact Rabbi Adland at Temple.

EXPAND SENIOR BLOCK PROGRAM

In a significant and exciting move, Temple Adath Israel's Senior Block program is expanding into a community Senior Block program for 8th-10th graders. Beginning this fall, children who are Temple or Synagogue members, or unaffiliated Jewish families in the community will participate in the new community school. The funding for the school will come from tuition and an allocation from the Central Kentucky Jewish Federation. With this new school will come more contacts between the Jewish children of Central Kentucky.

The curriculum for this school will be created by a committee of Temple and Synagogue members, as well as representatives of the Federation. The school will operate three 9 week blocks with the children taking two 50 minute courses each block. Temple children will have a special Confirmation component during the last block of 10th grade. Rabbis Adland and Slaton will both teach in the school and classes will be held at the Temple.

For more information, contact Rabbi Adland or TAI Religious School Principal Judi Wurmser Higdon.

SISTERHOOD FASHION SHOW FUNDRAISER: WONDERFUL NIGHT FOR THOSE WHO ATTENDED!!

The recent TAI Sisterhood Fundraiser Fashion Show was wonderful, relaxing, and successful. Those who attended watched Temple members model a variety of outfits from a number of stores. The money raised will benefit our Temple Religious School.

One of the nice aspects to this evening was the cost (only $10) and the number of door prizes given away. Everybody left happy. If you missed this event, then you missed a chance to support the Religious School and do it in a relatively inexpensive manner.

Thank you to Martha Pearson and the many Temple women who organized this exciting evening.

PLEASE LET US KNOW!

If you or someone you know is going into the hospital, please let the Temple office know so that the Rabbi can make a visit.

The hospitals do not always contact the Temple about Jewish patients, nor is religious preference always requested on the hospital intake. Your help in this matter will insure that every Temple member in the hospital is contacted by the Rabbi.

It's That Time Again

In Spring, TAI Members' fancy turns to giving blood. And our blood drive is the only one east of the Mississippi where donors are fed bagels and lox.

So this is not only a chance to save a live, but a mighty fine breakfast as well.

Giving blood is easy, virtually painless, and only takes a few minutes.

If you are healthy and have not given blood since March 3, you will be eligible for...

TEMPLE ADATH ISRAEL BULLETIN

MAY 15, 1996

VOL. 63

NO. 18

26 IYAR 5756

IN THIS CORNER

Over the next several weeks, the Temple Adath Israel community will be presented with several opportunities to celebrate and worship together. It these moments of togetherness -- a simcha, a service, a special address -- that enhance our Jewish spiritual life at TAI and bring us into the realm of kedusha-holiness.

On May 17, the Temple Adath Israel Sisterhood, Women of Reform Judaism, will lead the Erev Shabbat Service. Each year we hold a Sisterhood Shabbat, but we never give much thought to the importance of this moment in Jewish life. We have taken for granted the role of women in Reform Jewish life to such an extent that women rabbis, cantors, educators, Temple presidents, officers, and leaders of the movement are accepted without question. Not that long ago women were not permitted on the bimah, to read from the Torah, to lead a service, even to sit with men during worship. Sisterhood Shabbat celebrates the important role women play in Judaism today. By joining with the women of our congregation at this service, you can affirm the wonderful new direction and opportunities for women in Jewish life.

Less than one week later is our annual ceremony of Confirmation on Thursday evening, May 23, at 7:00 PM. Confirmation is a culminating ceremony marking the completion of a child's formal religious education at the end of tenth grade. This ceremony is held on the holy Jewish festival of Shavuot, the feast of weeks, which remembers the moment of revelation on Mt. Sinai when Moses received the ten commandments, even the entire Torah, from God. Just as Moses receives and accepts the Torah, so do we ask our Confirmands to do the same.

It is very important that as a community we attend and support the children of our congregation at this moment of kedusha in their lives. For many of them, we attended a Bar or Bat Mitzvah ceremony when they came of age as an adult. We sent gifts to mark this moment. Yet, most of us neglect this even more important moment in their Jewish lives, the ceremony of Confirmation. We don't send gifts or attend the ceremony. It slips past unnoticed except by a few family members and friends.

Becoming a Jewish adult happens when you turn 13. Fulfilling the responsibilities of Jewish adulthood may occur continuously throughout one's life. Confirmation is our chance to say to these young adults that formal Jewish (continued on page 2) education is important. It shouldn't matter whether we know someone in the class, being present at this simcha makes a statement to the class that the Jewish community cares that you went forward to Confirmation with your Jewish education. The members of this year's Confirmation Class are: Amy Crystal, Adam Goldstein, Sam McDonald, Jenna Meckler, Jenny Veal. We can create an even higher level of kedusha by being present and worshipping with the five members of this class.

One week after that, on May 31, there will be another special service. This will be the fifth B'nai Mitzvah service in my 10 years at Temple Adath Israel. This year's class of four will bring the total to 30 adults who have participated in B'nai Mitzvah. The members of this year's class are: Dale Jarvis, Judi Oer, Etta Pollan, and Betsy Poole. They have completed both Hebrew courses and Judaism courses as prerequisites to this ceremony. On May 31, they will lead the congregation in worship in Hebrew and English, as well as read from the Torah. Temple Adath Israel says Mazal Tov to the participants and their families on this upcoming special occasion. By gathering in support of these four adults, we gather in support of continuing Jewish and Hebrew education. It is a wonderful and meaningful simcha to celebrate together.

Finally on June 7, at the 8 PM Erev Shabbat service, we will honor and bless our graduating high school seniors: David Cantor, Emily Fried, David Johnson, Barbara Loventhal, Heather Mackey, Amy Nigoff, Michael Ravvin, Sofya Rozenzhak, Jennifer Silberman, Beth Veal, and Brandon Wides. (If we missed a graduating senior, please let the Temple office know immediately.) Just as we celebrated a Bar or Bat Mitzvah and/or Confirmation, it is important that we celebrate our children's completion of their secular education. During the service, Michael Ravvin will deliver the sermon about his participation in the "March of the Living" which took place in April. During the Oneg Shabbat, Sydney Scher, another participant in the "March of the Living", will answer questions and make available her pictures. "March of the Living" is a program which gathers together thousands of Jewish youth and takes them to Auschwitz in Poland for Yom Hashoah (Memorial to the martyrs of the Holocaust) and then to Israel for Yom Ha'atzmaut (Israel Independence Day).

As summer approaches, let us conclude the activities of the Temple by making community our highest priority. We can all work to make Temple Adath Israel a place of kedusha.

Rabbi Jon Adland

UAHC Adult Mitzvah Corps is coming to Lexington: We need your help with home hospitality on August 1!!!!

The Union of American Hebrew Congregations is sponsoring its first Adult Mitzvah Corps July 28-August 3. The Mitzvah Corps concept has been used in several of our youth regions for years. The idea is to gather individuals for an extensive Social Action project. The actual work is Monday July 29-August 2. The main project is the construction of a house for Habitat for Humanity.

Temple Adath Israel is helping the project by preparing dinner Monday and Tuesday evenings, lunches for Tuesday and Thursday, arranging for one night of home hospitality on Thursday, August 1, and hosting a pot-luck Shabbat dinner on Friday. If you can help with hospitality, contact Chas Hite 266-0246 or with cooking, contact Rose Rita Wurmser 277-0217.

From the Rabbi's Library

Rather than focusing on a particular book, please allow me to use this space to focus on our own Temple Library. First, let me thank Bobbi Fried who keeps our library organized and growing. Every Tuesday, she comes to work in our library along with some other volunteers: Anita Mersack, Vivian Shraberg, and Judy Hersh, who catalog and mark our new books. A big Todah Rabbah to all of the people who keep our library a library.

Our library is filled with Jewish knowledge, wit, and wisdom just waiting to be discovered. There are books and periodicals containing the latest information about Jewish life, as well as timeless books giving the reader a glimpse into Jewish life for all ages. There is a children's section waiting for a small pair of hands to open the cover of a book on holidays or heroes.

I encourage every Temple member to go to the library, browse the shelves, and check out a book or sit and read a magazine the next time you are in the building. Judaism and Jewish life may be quite old, but new thoughts are added each and every day.

There is now a box in the Temple foyer for collecting old eyeglasses. If you have any old eyeglasses, please bring them to Temple and place them in the box. This mitzvah will help those who can't afford to purchase eyeglasses for themselves.

PRESCHOOL NEWS

We've had an outstanding year at TAI Preschool, and regretfully, the school year is almost over. The children have grown in so many wonderful ways! Saying goodbye to our 4 Year Old Class will be difficult, but I am comforted by the thought that they are ready for kindergarten, and they will take fond memories of this year with them on their journey through life. Many of the students in the 2 1/2 and 3 Year Old Classes will return next year, coupled with several newcomers. Presently, out of a maximum of 15 students per class, there are eleven 2 1/2 year olds, twelve 3 year olds, and thirteen 4 year olds enrolled for the coming school year.

Our teaching staff for the 1996-97 school year is complete. Our 2 1/2 Year Old Class and our 3 Year Old Class will be taught by Linda Gerall. Linda's Assistant Teacher will be Donna Sullivan, whose son Max is in our 3 Year Old Class this year. Carol Tomko will return as our 4 Year Old Lead Teacher, and Sarah Danow will return as the Assistant Teacher for that class. With great sadness I announce that Terri Potter and Karla Frank will not return to our teaching staff next year. While they have loved sharing their mornings with our preschoolers, it is time for them to pursue other goals in their lives. All of us at TAI Preschool will miss them very much. I want to take this opportunity to thank all of our fine teachers for the love, spirit, expertise, time and effort that they have put into making our preschool a very special place to be.

The TAI Preschool Spring Program will be on Thursday evening, May 16th at 7:00p.m. The last day of class for the 2 1/2 Year Old Class is Thursday, May 23rd, and the last day of class for the 3 and 4 Year Old classes is Wednesday, May 29th. Kroger Certificates will be available throughout the summer. Sandy Adland is the contact person. Have a terrific summer!

LOOKING FOR FAFTY AND MSTYG ADVISORS FOR NEXT YEAR

In response to the message in the last bulletin and a letter that went to parents of next year's 4th-8th graders, 7 different families responded. Advising the MSTYG group for next year will be David and Chela Kaplan, Jane Burri and Peter Sapin, Starr Gantz, Sheila Biel, and Ilyce Lonsbury. At this time, Jane and Bill Grise, and David Leep have said yes to FAFTY. We could use a couple more volunteers for the 4th and 5th grade youth group.

THANK YOU TO THE ABOVE
MEMBERS WHO SAID YES!!!!

FROM THE HALLS OF THE RELIGIOUS SCHOOL

1ST GRADE Anita Mersack, Teacher

The first grade completed a unit on Shabbat. We discussed how Shabbat is traditionally observed and interviewed people to see how they would like to spend Shabbat. We particularly enjoyed making paper bag puppets for Purim. We had analyzed the character traits of people in the Purim story and how these characters would act in modern real-life situations.

We have recently been discussing Passover. We learned the Hebrew vocabulary for the holiday, the meaning of objects on the Seder plate and how Passover is observed today.

We have also been studying Israel Independence Day. We labeled a map of Israel with the cities and the Dead Sea. We saw slides of Israel.

FIFTH GRADE Jane Grise, Teacher

This article is by Joshua Adland, Cody Lonsbury, Hart Cole and Ben Schumacher.

This spring we have spent a great deal of time preparing the Passover Fair for the four year old class through the third grade. The kids had a lot of fun. During the Fair we played Passover Jeopardy, made matzah, had a Seder, and tasted charoset. In April, we studied the parashah, Torah portions, and looked up our Bar and Bat mitzvah Torah and Haftarah portions. We are also preparing our presentation for the family service in May.

Religious School and Hebrew School Teachers Needed for 1996-97

The Temple Adath Israel Religious School and Hebrew School are looking for individuals interested in teaching. In Religious School, up through 7th grade the classes run for 2:15. 8th-10th grades will have two 50 minute classes each morning. Each class is 9 weeks in length. As far as teaching Hebrew, we are in need of a teacher who will teach after Religious School from 12:30-1:30 PM. This will be a small, multi-level class.

If you are interested, contact Judi Wurmser Higdon, 276-3728, or Rabbi Adland, 269-2979.

YOU CAN'T PRAY AND CHEW GUM AT THE SAME TIME

The following is a reprint of an article written by Rabbi Dow Marmor, Senior Rabbi of Holy Blossom Temple in Toronto, Canada

This is not an assault on the intelligence of those who come to worship in our Temple. For we are all able to chew gum and do many other things at the same time. But are we willing to do it when it comes to prayer?

I have observed people chewing gum, rather than opening a Siddur. I have even seen someone "calming her nerves" with obsessive chewing in front of the Ark. It is not only visitors who do it. A lot of jaws move rhythmically during the most solemn moments of our High Holy Day services, when only our own members attend.

Piety, not dental hygiene

My concern is not aesthetic but religious. To chew gum during services is indicative of a lack of respect for what the synagogue represents. Those who have no sense of the sacred behave without dignity in places of worship. Chewing gum is a symptom.

They wouldn't do it in church. Not because they are closer to Christianity, but because they are more on their guard in the presence of non-Jews. Being a little more on our guard in the presence of God would do us all a lot of good.

Advertisements tell us that chewing gum assures a fresh mouth and thus success with people. My understanding of tradition suggests that God does not mind bad breath, as long as the mouth says the right words. dental hygiene is a poor substitute for piety.

THE PRESIDENT'S SPOT

On Thursday, May 23rd, five students from our Religious School will celebrate their Confirmation. This service is a wonderful culmination to their formal religious education, but should be viewed by them and their families as just another step in the continuous effort to learn about themselves and their religion.

Last year as I celebrated by daughter's confirmation, I reflected back on my education at Temple Adath Israel and my own confirmation in 1966. Way back then it was a community celebration and the sanctuary was packed. How different the attendance is today. Now, only the families, a few close friends and about 20 other members of the congregation attend.

During the quiet moments of last year's service, I thought back to my teachers. Thinking about Ethyl Paritz, Edith Weil, Sybil Stern (the principal for many years), Saul Rubin, Norman Wides, Larry Waldman, Fannie Miller, Mae Abraham, Charlie Schwartz and so many others who shaped my formative years. How fortunate I was. Yet, I never had the chance to say or show my appreciation. Thirty years later I wonder if we express our appreciation to our children's teachers. Under the able direction of our Principal, Judi Higdon, our teachers and aides have become excellent role models for our children.

May 12th will be the last day of this year's religious school year. Please let our teachers know that their efforts are appreciated. And on May 23rd, spend two hours at Temple, showing this year's Confirmation Class that what they have accomplished is important to all of us.

?? WHY UNIONGRAMS ??

In the past few years, many members of this congregation have asked about Uniongrams, especially when their special occasion has come and gone without their having received one. Sisterhood is once again attempting to make Uniongrams a reality, but the program will only exist if it is supported by YOU -- our Temple community!

Although Uniongrams extend your best wishes for an occasion, the underlying purpose of Uniongrams is to help support the YES Fund (Youth, Education, Scholarship) of Women of Reform Judaism, a national organization which which our Sisterhood is affiliated. In part, this fund supports scholarships for rabbinical students and makes available camping opportunities for our youth both in the US and Isarel.

Sisterhood's purchase of Uniongrams, which are in turn sent out to your fellow congregants, helps to make the YES Fund's efforts possible. Won't you include your name on a Uniongram? Only $1 puts it on! Great for Tzedakah! Just cut off the bottom and return to the Temple with a check made out to TAI Sisterhood or call Judi Oer at 277-5161 to give your request or to set up an account.

The due date for all June UNIONGRAMS is May 29th. Don't delay -- respond today!!

This produce is donated by area farmers and often spoils. Volunteers would be working on Sunday mornings as required. If you would like to have your name put on our list, please call Lowell Nigoff at 233-1173 (day time) or 278-5220 (evenings).

Do you have an e-mail address?? Many members of Temple Adath Israel do and Rabbi Adland wants to know. Every Shabbat, Rabbi Adland is sending out a special message to those whose e-mail addresses are on his distribution lists. (Presently over 40 people are on the lists.) In order to receive this message, he needs your address. Please send it to Temple or send an email to Rabbi Adland at JAdland@aol.com.

Also, Rabbi Adland only received email addresses of five of our Temple youth in college or graduate school. Please send this address along as well.

We Need Your Help!!!!

In order to welcome and offer hospitality to the members of the UAHC Mitzvah Corps coming to Lexington, Rose Rita Wurmser and Chas Hite need your help.

Rose Rita is coordinating the food. We are providing 3 lunches and 2 dinners. We need 6 people to help prepare lunches on July 28 and 30, and August 2. The time frame is to meet at TAI at 10:30 AM and deliver the lunches at noon to the work site. Also, for the dinners on July 28 & 29, Rose Rita needs 2-3 people to help her serve and clean. The meals are already taken care of. Also, if you can bake a homemade dessert, please let Rose Rita know. Her number is 277-0217.

Chas is coordinating home hospitality for the dinner on August 1. If you can generously open your home to these Jewish workers from around the country, it would be appreciated. The dinner does not have to be elegant. Chas' number is 266-0246.

Let us show these visitors our warmth and friendship. Please help.

The 13th Annual Older Americans Hall of Fame Awards were presented on May 14th at the Urban County Council work session. This year's winners are Carolyn Weinberger and Alfred Crabb, Jr.

YOM KIPPUR MEMORIAL BOOK

It is a tradition of long standing to honor the memory of departed ones and friends with special acts of kindness and Tzedakah during the High Holy Days. One opportunity for an act of remembrance is offered through the Memorial Book which is passed out to the congregation just prior to Yizkor.

Names on our Temple's memorial tablets as well as the names of those who died in the past year are automatically listed in the booklet.

A $25 per family donation is required. Memorial Book funds are used throughout the year for special Temple purposes including supporting the High Holy Days choir, printing new family services for Shabbat and Holy Days, and more.

All listings under a personal heading (i.e. "Remembered by...") will appear only by request. Detach this form and send it to the Temple office along with your contribution made payable to Temple Adath Israel Memorial Fund. Requests must be received no later than Monday, September 9, 1996.

NAME(s): _____

REMEMBERED BY: _____

There is now a box in the Temple foyer for collecting old eyeglasses. If you have any old eyeglasses, please bring them to Temple and place them in the box. This mitzvah will help those who can't afford to purchase eyeglasses for themselves.

PLEASE LET US KNOW!

If you or someone you know is going into the hospital, please let the Temple office know so that the Rabbi can make a visit.

The hospitals do not always contact the Temple about Jewish patients, nor is religious preference always requested on the hospital intake. Your help in this matter will insure that every Temple member in the hospital is contacted by the Rabbi.

SISTERHOOD NEWS

It is an honor for me to accept the office of President of Temple Adath Israel Sisterhood. When I first agreed to accept this position, it was with reluctance and great trepidation, but everyone has been so kind and so supportive that I am now truly thrilled about the prospects for the next two years.

Sisterhood plays an important role in my life and it is my hope that it will touch the heart and soul of every member. I take great pride in being a part of our Sisterhood. I am proud of its many past accomplishments. Our Sisterhood is rich in values, tradition and passion. I am proud to be a part of this community of women so devoted to Torah, the Temple and acts of living kindness.

Last April, I was fortunate to attend the District 9 Biennial Convention in Canton, Ohio. The theme was "into my hands...the future of an entire people." I would like us to adopt this credo, for it is our responsibility as members of Sisterhood, through our work, our deeds, our acts of loving kindness and our compassion to safeguard the future of Judaism. The Talmud teaches "The person that has saved one life...it is as if that person has saved an entire world." Each of us has a valuable role but collectively we can be a mighty force. I would like to share this reading with you.

There was a woman whose hands were empty of purpose and Sisterhood made them full

There was a woman whose burdens were great and Sisterhood helped to lighten them.

There was a woman who yearned to express her joy in Judaism...
her love for her family...
as well as her concern for the human family and Sisterhood gave her the tools.

for Sisterhood can be the instrument in our hands...
the sensitive pen with which we write our message.

Let us dedicate ourselves to that purpose to do good, to do more, to do it NOW as Jewish women in a changing world
...while unchanged...

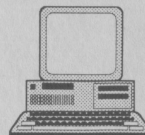

deep within us...
is our faith...
the faith of our fathers and mothers...
our beloved Judaism.

I am looking forward to an exciting productive term as your president. Thank you.

Judy Hersh, Sisterhood President 1996-1998

THIS WEEKLY MESSAGE

Do you have an e-mail address?? Many members of Temple Adath Israel do and Rabbi Adland wants to know. Every Shabbat, Rabbi Adland is sending out a special message to those whose e-mail addresses are on his distribution lists. (Presently over 40 people are on the lists.) In order to receive this message, he needs your address. Please send it to Temple or send an email to Rabbi Adland at JAdland@aol.com.

Also, Rabbi Adland only received email addresses of five of our Temple youth in college or graduate school. Please send this address along as well.

There is now a box in the Temple foyer for collecting old eyeglasses. If you have any old eyeglasses, please bring them to Temple and place them in the box. This mitzvah will help those who can't afford to purchase eyeglasses for themselves.

YOM KIPPUR
MEMORIAL BOOK

It is a tradition of long standing to honor the memory of departed ones and friends with special acts of kindness and Tzedakah during the High Holy Days. One opportunity for an act of remembrance is offered through the Memorial Book which is passed out to the congregation just prior to the Yizkor service Yom Kippur afternoon.

Names on our Temple's memorial tablets as well as the names of those who died in the past year are automatically listed in the booklet.

A $25 per family donation is required. Memorial Book funds are used throughout the year for special Temple purposes including supporting the High Holy Days choir, printing new family services for Shabbat and Holy Days, and more.

All listings under a personal heading (i.e. "Remembered by...") will appear only by request. Detach this form and send it to the Temple office along with your contribution made payable to Temple Adath Israel Memorial Fund. Requests must be received no later than Monday, September 9, 1996.

TEMPLE ADATH ISRAEL FALL ADULT EDUCATION PROGRAM

INTRODUCTION TO HEBREW

MONDAYS 7:00-7:55 PM

Cost: Members $50
Non-members $65
(cost covers books, materials,
Hebrew Marathon)

Many Jews desire to add depth to their Jewish soul and substance to their Jewish knowledge. Introduction to Hebrew can be an important step in fulfilling this aspiration. This course teaches the Alef-Bet, beginning reading, and introduces the student to Biblical and prayer book Hebrew. No prior knowledge of Hebrew is required.

The goal of this course is to bring the non-Hebrew reader into the world of the Hebrew reader. At the end of this course, a graduate will be able to follow the Hebrew readings at services and, with a little practice, begin reading with the congregation.

The class will meet on 10 Monday evenings and one all day Hebrew Marathon session on Sunday, November 3.

THE HEBREW MARATHON IS PART OF THE CLASS.

Class dates are:
September 30
October 14, 21, 28
November 4, 11, 18, 25
December 2 & 16

BASIC JUDAISM

MONDAYS 8:05-9:00 PM

Cost: Members - individual $45
couple $70
Non-members - individual $50
couple $75
(cost covers books and materials, couples
may share books)

Basic Judaism introduces the student to a slice of the Jewish experience. The course will survey Jewish values, holidays and life cycle celebrations, worship, Jewish ideas of God, and the long road of Jewish history. This course is designed to refresh the Jewish memory of the religious school graduate, teach those with no knowledge of Judaism, and encourage further Jewish study by everyone in the areas mentioned above.

This course is a survey course. The remaining programs on the Adult Education calendar are a supplement to what is taught in Basic Judaism.

Class dates are:
September 30
October 14, 21, 28
November 4, 11, 18, 25
December 2 & 16

To register for either or both of these courses, please contact the Temple office, 269-2979.

The Sukkah Project

בסבת תשבו שבעת ימים

You shall dwell in sukkot seven days...in order that future generations may know that I made the Israelite people live in sukkot when I brought them out of the land of Egypt. I the Lord your God. Leviticus 23:42

THE OPPORTUNITY TO BUILD YOUR OWN SUKKAH IS HERE WITH THIS EASY TO BUILD, EASY TO STORE SUKKAH KIT.

Many Temple families have inquired about fulfilling the MITZVAH of building their own Sukkah. This kit makes it easy and affordable.

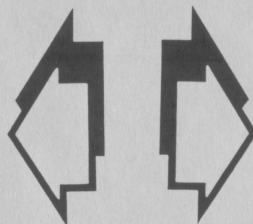

Over the past five years, North Carolina woodworker Steve Henry Herman has developed a simple, do-it-yourself Sukkah kit. You buy the hardware for only $36 from the Temple and purchase the lumber, approximately another $36 from any lumber yard.

The kit includes an illustrated assembly book which has been developed with the assistance of a top instructional designer to render the project...totally klutz-proof. The kit contains all the heavy-duty steel braces and self-drilling screws. The only tool you need is a screwdriver. The length of 2-by-4's and 2-by-2's you buy (8, 10, or 12 feet) will determine your Sukkah size.

Creating the sides is up to you. You can use tarps, burlap, whatever to finish the Sukkah and make it your own.

The Temple will have seven sets of the hardware available for purchase. As soon as the hardware arrive, a Sukkah will be built in the Temple courtyard for everyone to see.

If you are interested in purchasing the hardware, contact Rabbi Adland.

SHABBAT AT HOME

It's Here! It's time to mark your calendars and make your reservations for the very first Shabbat at Home on Friday evening, September 27th. Rabbi Adland has prepared a beautiful service that will be available to each family who is hosting. The idea of the evening is to share...share the beauty of Shabbat...share in our worship as a community...and share in the first ever Shabbat at Home!

Not only will it be a meaningful event...it will be fun! If you're interested in hosting, or attending...please call Beth Engel at 269-6555 or the Temple office at 269-2979. PLEASE CALL ASAP so we can track attendance and make sure everyone has a home to go to.

PLEASE LET US KNOW!

If you or someone you know is going into the hospital, please let the Temple office know so that the Rabbi can make a visit.

The hospitals do not always contact the Temple about Jewish patients, nor is religious preference always requested on the hospital intake. Your help in this matter will insure that every Temple member in the hospital is contacted by the Rabbi.

TEMPLE ADATH ISRAEL BULLETIN

AUGUST 15, 1996

VOL. 64

NO. 1

IN THIS CORNER

There are two very different issues that I want to consider in this August message. The first concerns two recent gifts left to the Temple.

The first gift of $15,000 was from the estate of Carolyn Straus who passed away this spring. An endowment fund is being created with this money in Memory of Herman and Carolyn Straus. The money will be used to support benevolent activities at the Temple and in the community.

The second gift is a $50,000 bequest from the estate of lifetime Temple member Jayne Bolotin who passed away in the late spring. Her money is to be used for improvements to the Temple. The early idea of an addition to the Religious School for art education, music education, and a playroom being considered. This money will certainly allow us to move forward.

It is certainly wonderful to know that these individuals cared about the Temple and the future of Judaism to bequeath this money. Let me take this opportunity to encourage all our Temple members to remember the Temple now and in their will. These gifts and others to the Temple will afford us the opportunity and means to do the important work of building a Jewish today and tomorrow.

The other concern is with the recent statements made by the Southern Baptists at their convention in New Orleans in June. Their desire to focus on homosexuality as a sin is frustrating and narrow minded. The Southern Baptists hold up to the world the notion of the inerrancy of the Bible and that in this Bible, in Leviticus, it says that homosexuality is a sin. It is hard to refute the words of Leviticus. Yet, if we are going to take the Bible as inerrant, what do we do with the following passage:

Deu 21:18-21 If someone has a stubborn and rebellious son who will not obey his father and mother, who does not heed them when they discipline him, 19 then his father and his mother shall take hold of him and bring him out to the elders of his town at the gate of that place. 20 They shall say to the elders of his town, "This son of ours is stubborn and rebellious. He will not obey us. He is a glutton and a drunkard." 21 Then all the men of the town shall stone him to death. So you shall purge the evil from your midst; and all Israel will hear, and be afraid.

I don't believe that any of us would respond to a child in this manner, yet the Hebrew Scripture tells us to do it this way.

Our Southern Baptist friends seem to find it convenient to use some passages from the Hebrew Scriptures as the inerrant words of God, but are probably more than willing to ignore the inerrancy of others if they don't fit their way of thinking. As Reform Jews, we see Torah and the rest of the Hebrew Scriptures as moral and ethical guides to life. Reading the words literally produces too many conflicts and too many inconsistencies in our thought and practice. Reading the words of Torah in a liberal, not literal fashion, allows us to find the truths the heart knows and to search out the hidden meanings of the text as it applies to us today.

Not only do the Southern Baptists have a phobia about homosexuality, but now they are refocusing their energy on converting Jews. The response by national Jewish leaders and even within our local community to this desire to convert Jews has been strong and direct. This is an attack on Jews, Judaism, our tradition and our history. We have been this route before whether it was the Spanish Inquisition with the choice to convert or die, the centuries of anti-Judaism in Europe, or the Holocaust's desire to rid the world of Jews. In the eyes of the Southern Baptists, and other Christians as well, Jews are not complete without Jesus in our lives.

So how do we combat missionary efforts like those of the Southern Baptists?? I don't believe there is any path of confrontation that will be successful. I do believe that the best response is to be a Jew. Don't just say "I am a Jew"; be a Jew. Live a Jewish life. Celebrate the holy days and holidays. Observe the ethical and moral commandments of the Torah. Teach the next generation about living as a Jew. If we are strong in our Jewish lives, then no effort of a missionary will be successful.

As we move toward another exciting Temple calendar year, I urge you to make Temple life a priority and not an after-thought. By putting it at the front end of your life, there will be no need to think about the Southern Baptist's desire to convert all of us.

Rabbi Jon Adland

TAI RELIGIOUS SCHOOL CHILDREN CONTRIBUTE $1,750 TO LOCAL AND JEWISH CHARITIES DURING THE 1995/96 SCHOOL YEAR

During the 1995/96 Religious School year, our Temple children collected and disbursed $1,750 to local and Jewish charities. Below is the disbursement list:

- * $350-UAHC disaster relief for St. Thomas
- * $300-UK Children's Hospital
- * $250-God's Pantry
- * $250-Lexington Humane Society
- * $200-Habitat for Humanity
- * $200-Jewish National Fund
- * $200-ARC of the Bluegrass

The decisions are made to distribute the money by representatives from each class, kindergarten-sixth grade, who meet a few times during the year. Suggestions are brought to the meeting by the representatives and voted on by everyone present. We should be very proud of the decisions made and the amount of money are children contribute.

WOULD YOU LIKE TO READ TORAH THIS YEAR???

Torah readers sought for the coming year. If you are interested in reading the Torah at an Erev Shabbat service, please contact Rabbi Adland at TAI. This could be your Bar/Bat Mitzvah portion or a new portion. Plenty of time will be allowed to learn the section.

Second Annual Tashlich Ceremony and Picnic at Jacobson Park Saturday, September 14, beginning at 4 pm

תשליך

On Saturday afternoon, after Rosh HaShana services, Temple Adath Israel again will offer the opportunity to participate in the ancient Jewish ceremony of Tashlich. Tashlich is an opportunity for an individual to symbolically cast off his/her sins/transgressions by tossing bread crumbs into a body of water. Tashlich is from the Hebrew word "to send off" or "throw". Many Reform Jewish congregations participate in this ceremony as a community or group experience. Coastal congregations go to the ocean. River congregations go to the river. In Lexington, we go to Jacobson Park.

Everyone is invited to pack a picnic supper and go to Jacobson Park Shelter #5 (last year we were at #1) which is reserved for TAI. Bring some bread crumbs, and together we will cast off last year's sins and transgressions in anticipation of the year to come. The shelter is reserved for 4 PM. At 5 PM, we will perform Tashlich and Havdalah.

WRJ CALENDARS

September will soon be here and the new and beautiful WRJ Sisterhood calendars are almost depleted.

We have only 10 left, so if you wish to have one of these lovely pocket calendars to keep up with your busy life, call Sandee at the Temple office to reserve one of the few left. The cost is $7.00. Make your check to Sisterhood.

YOM KIPPUR MEMORIAL BOOK

It is a tradition of long standing to honor the memory of departed ones and friends with special acts of kindness and Tzedakah during the High Holy Days. One opportunity for an act of remembrance is offered through the Memorial Book which is passed out to the congregation just prior to the Yizkor service Yom Kippur afternoon.

Names on our Temple's memorial tablets as well as the names of those who died in the past year are automatically listed in the booklet.

A $25 per family donation is required. Memorial Book funds are used throughout the year for special Temple purposes including supporting the High Holy Days choir, printing new family services for Shabbat and Holy Days, and more.

All listings under a personal heading (i.e. "Remembered by...") will appear only by request. Detach this form and send it to the Temple office along with your contribution made payable to Temple Adath Israel Memorial Fund. Requests must be received no later than Monday, September 9, 1996.

WELCOMING ROSH HASHANAH: A SERVICE FOR THE HOME

Lighting of the Yom Tov (and Sabbath) Lights (Light Candles)

With the setting of this evening's sun, united with Jews in every place and every time, we will proclaim a new year of hope. May the light of God show us the paths we can follow to do good and create a world of peace. Let the fire we kindle be a warming flame that brings our family closer together and leads us into a year of health and wholeness.

Blessed are You, O Lord our God, Ruler of the universe, who has made us holy with commandments and commands us to kindle the lights of (Shabbat and) this "Yom Tov" Festival.

BLESSING OF CHILDREN

(At this point parents may wish to bless their children. A traditional prayer follows, although any words - even a silent prayer - can suit the moment. Some parents might want to place their hands on their children's heads. Others might hold their children's hands.)

May the Lord bless you and keep you.
May the Lord look kindly upon you and be gracious to you.
May the Lord bestow all blessings upon you and give you peace. Amen.

KIDDUSH FOR ROSH HASHANAH

We praise You, O God, and give thanks for the year that is gone: for life, health, and strength; for home, love and friendship. May our cup of life be filled with blessings in the year ahead. We praise You, O Lord our God, Ruler of the universe, Creator of the fruit of the vine.

BLESSINGS OF THE MEAL

(A round challah is used to symbolize the continuously unfolding cycle of life.)

In a world of famine we have been blessed with plenty. In a world of hunger we have been blessed with sustenance. May this be the year in which we share the blessing of bread with all who are in need.

Blessed are You, O Lord our God, Ruler of the universe, who brings forth bread from the earth.

(Slices of apple are dipped in honey and before eating the following is said.)

Lord our God and God of our people, may the new year be good and sweet for us.

בְּרוּךְ אַתָּה, יי אֱלֹהֵינוּ, מְלִךְ הָעוֹלָם,
בוֹרֵא פְּרֵי הָעֵץ.

Ba-ruch ata Ado-nai Elo-hei-nu melech ha-olam bo-rei pri ha-etz
Blessed are You, O Lord our God, Ruler of the universe,
Creator of the fruit of the tree, Creator of the sweetness of life.

(After the meal Birkat Hamazon can be said. The text is available in the Temple office.)

WELCOMING YOM KIPPUR: A SERVICE FOR THE HOME

(Rosh HaShana and Yom Kippur are the great festivals of the Jewish year. They draw us to the synagogue with their promise of repentance and new beginnings, although each festival also offers opportunities to bring something precious into our homes. The meals that precede services can themselves also become special, and it is in that spirit that this pamphlet is offered to you and your family. The blessings and readings below (Hebrew and/or English) are yours to use as you wish in welcoming the New Year. Shana Tova!)

Lighting of the Yom Kippur (and Sabbath) Lights

The holiest day of the year is about to begin. Let us use it well. May it be for each one of us a day of renewal. May it help us overcome what is evil in us and strengthen what is good. May it bring us closer to our real selves and make us more loyal to our people and our traditions.

בָּרוּךְ אַתָּה, יְיָ אֱלֹהֵינוּ, מֶלֶךְ הָעוֹלָם, אֲשֶׁר
קִדְּשָׁנוּ בְּמִצְוֹתָיו וְצִוָּנוּ לְהַדְלִיק נֵר שֶׁל

Ba-ruch Ado-nai Elo-hei-nu melech ha-olam asher ki-de-sha-nu be-mitz-vo-tav ve-tzi-va-nu le-had-lik neir shel (Shabbat ve-she'l) Yom ha-Kippurim.

Blessed are You, O Lord our God, Ruler of the universe, who has made us holy with commandments and commands us to kindle the lights of (Shabbat and) Yom Kippur.

SHE-HE-CHE-YA-NU

בָּרוּךְ אַתָּה יְיָ אֱלֹהֵינוּ מֶלֶךְ הָעוֹלָם,
שֶׁהַחַיִּינוּ וְקִיְּמָנוּ וְהִגִּיעָנוּ לְזֶמַן הַזֶּה.

Bar-uch A-tah Adonai E-lo-hei-nu, Melech ha-olam, she-he-che-ya-nu, v'ki-ye-ma-nu, v'hi-gi-ah-nu laz-man hazeh.

Blessed are You, O Lord our God, Ruler of the universe, who has kept us alive, sustained us, and enabled us to reach this moment.

May each of us be sealed in the Book of Life for a good year!

MOTZI - Before the meal

According to Maimonides (of the twelfth century), "Free will is given to every human being. If we wish to incline ourselves towards goodness and righteousness, we are free to do so; and if we wish to incline ourselves towards evil, we are also free to do that. By our own faculty of intelligence and understanding we can distinguish between good and evil, doing as we choose. The power for this choice between good and evil is altogether in our hands."

As we approach Yom Kippur we pray for the power to make worthy choices all through this year. May our hands do good. May our hands always lead us towards blessing.

בָּרוּךְ אַתָּה יְיָ, אֱלֹהֵינוּ מֶלֶךְ הָעוֹלָם,
הַמוֹצִיא לֶחֶם מִן הָאָרֶץ.

Ba-ruch a-ta, Ado-nai Elo-hei-nu me-lech ha-olam, ha-motzi lechem min ha-aretz.

Blessed are You, O Lord our God, Ruler of the universe, who brings forth bread from the earth.

TEMPLE ADATH ISRAEL FALL ADULT EDUCATION PROGRAM

INTRODUCTION TO HEBREW

MONDAYS 7:00-7:55 PM

Cost: Members $50
Non-members $65
(cost covers books, materials,
Hebrew Marathon)

Many Jews desire to add depth to their Jewish soul and substance to their Jewish knowledge. Introduction to Hebrew can be an important step in fulfilling this aspiration. This course teaches the Alef-Bet, beginning reading, and introduces the student to Biblical and prayer book Hebrew. No prior knowledge of Hebrew is required.

The goal of this course is to bring the non-Hebrew reader into the world of the Hebrew reader. At the end of this course, a graduate will be able to follow the Hebrew readings at services and, with a little practice, begin reading with the congregation.

The class will meet on 10 Monday evenings and one all day Hebrew Marathon session on Sunday, November 3.

THE HEBREW MARATHON IS PART OF THE CLASS.

Class dates are:
September 30; October 14, 21, 28
November 4, 11, 18, 25;
December 2 & 16

BASIC JUDAISM

MONDAYS 8:05-9:00 PM

Cost: Members - individual $45
couple $70
Non-members - individual $50
couple $75
(cost covers books and materials, couples
may share books)

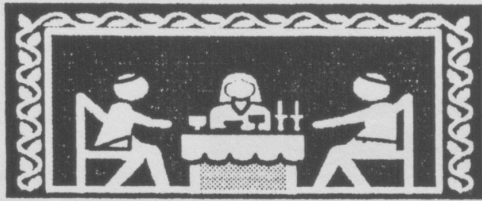

Basic Judaism introduces the student to a slice of the Jewish experience. The course will survey Jewish values, holidays and life cycle celebrations, worship, Jewish ideas of God, and the long road of Jewish history. This course is designed to refresh the Jewish memory of the religious school graduate, teach those with no knowledge of Judaism, and encourage further Jewish study by everyone in the areas mentioned above.

This course is a survey course. The remaining programs on the Adult Education calendar are a supplement to what is taught in Basic Judaism.

Class dates are:

September 30
October 14, 21, 28
November 4, 11, 18, 25
December 2 & 16

To register for either or both of these courses, please contact the Temple office, 269-2979.

DO YOU BUILD A SUKKAH?

If you build a Sukkah, then please let us know. In fact, don't just let us know, send us a picture of your favorite Sukkah to Rabbi Adland.

ARE YOU INTERESTED IN BUILDING A SUKKAH?

The TAI office has plans for an easy to build wood sukkah from a west coast congregation. We are not yet sure of the cost, but if you are interested in building your own sukkah, call Temple and we will let you know what to do.

ARE YOU INTERESTED IN PURCHASING YOUR OWN LULAV AND ETROG?

Orders for a lulav and etrog set must be in to John McDonald by no later than mid-September. The cost for the lulav and etrog set runs around $40.

ARE YOU INTERESTED IN A TAI TOUR OF TEMPLE MEMBERS' SUKKOT?

Contact Rabbi Adland and if enough sukkot are available and, enough people want to go, then we will arrange a tour.

The Sukkah Project

בַּסֻּכּוֹת תֵּשְׁבוּ שִׁבְעַת יָמִים

You shall dwell in sukkot seven days...in order that future generations may know that I made the Israelite people live in sukkot when I brought them out of the land of Egypt. I the Lord your God. Leviticus 23:42

THE OPPORTUNITY TO BUILD YOUR OWN SUKKAH IS HERE WITH THIS EASY TO BUILD, EASY TO STORE SUKKAH KIT.

Many Temple families have inquired about fulfilling the MITZVAH of building their own Sukkah. This kit makes it easy and affordable.

Over the past five years, North Carolina woodworker Steve Henry Herman has developed a simple, do-it-yourself Sukkah kit. You buy the hardware for only $36 from the Temple and purchase the lumber, approximately another $36 from any lumber yard.

The kit includes an illustrated assembly book which has been developed with the assistance of a top instructional designer to render the project...totally klutz-proof. The kit contains all the heavy-duty steel braces and self-drilling screws. The only tool you need is a screwdriver. The length of 2-by-4's and 2-by-2's you buy (8, 10, or 12 feet) will determine your Sukkah size.

Creating the sides is up to you. You can use tarps, burlap, whatever to finish the Sukkah and make it your own.

The Temple will have seven sets of the hardware available for purchase. As soon as the hardware arrive, a Sukkah will be built in the Temple courtyard for everyone to see.

If you are interested in purchasing the hardware, contact Rabbi Adland.

UNVEILING OF MILNER STONE

UNVEILING OF MILNER STONE

The unveiling of the stone for Samuel Milner will be at 10 AM on August 18, 1996 at the Lexington Cemetery.

CONDOLENCES TO...

Ben Kaufmann & Janet Zusman on the death of Janet's father, Saul Zusman on July 28, 1996.

Frieda Shraberg, Emily Shraberg and Vivian Shraberg on the death of their husband, father and brother-in-law on June 23, 1996.

PLEASE LET US KNOW!

If you or someone you know is going into the hospital, please let the Temple office know so that the Rabbi can make a visit.

The hospitals do not always contact the Temple about Jewish patients, nor is religious preference always requested on the hospital intake. Your help in this matter will insure that every Temple member in the hospital is contacted by the Rabbi.

There is now a box in the Temple foyer for collecting old eyeglasses. If you have any old eyeglasses, please bring them to Temple and place them in the box. This mitzvah will help those who can't afford to purchase eyeglasses for themselves.

ברכת תשבן שבועת ימים

You shall dwell in sukkot seven days...in order that future generations may know that I made the Israelite people live in sukkot when I brought them out of the land of Egypt. I the Lord your God. Leviticus 23:42

THE OPPORTUNITY TO BUILD YOUR OWN SUKKAH IS HERE WITH THIS EASY TO BUILD, EASY TO STORE SUKKAH KIT.

Many Temple families have inquired about fulfilling the MITZVAH of building their own Sukkah. This kit makes it easy and affordable.

Over the past five years, North Carolina woodworker Steve Henry Herman has developed a simple, do-it-yourself Sukkah kit. You buy the hardware for only $36 from the Temple and purchase the lumber, approximately another $36 from any lumber yard.

The kit includes an illustrated assembly book which has been developed with the assistance of a top instructional designer to render the project...totally klutz-proof. The kit contains all the heavy-duty steel braces and self-drilling screws. The only tool you need is a screwdriver. Depending on the length of 2-by-4's and 2-by-2's you buy (8, 10, or 12 feet) will determine your Sukkah size.

Creating the sides is up to you. You can use tarps, burlap, whatever to finish the Sukkah and make it your own.

The Temple will have seven sets of the hardware available for purchase. As soon as the hardware arrives, a Sukkah will be built in the Temple courtyard for everyone to see.

If you are interested in purchasing the hardware, contact Rabbi Adland.

TEMPLE ADATH ISRAEL FALL ADULT EDUCATION PROGRAM

INTRODUCTION TO HEBREW

MONDAYS 7:00-7:55 PM

Cost: Members $50
Non-members $65
(cost covers books, materials,
Hebrew Marathon)

Many Jews desire to add depth to their Jewish soul and substance to their Jewish knowledge. Introduction to Hebrew can be an important step in fulfilling this aspiration. This course teaches the Alef-Bet, beginning reading, and introduces the student to Biblical and prayer book Hebrew. No prior knowledge of Hebrew is required.

The goal of this course is to bring the non-Hebrew reader into the world of the Hebrew reader. At the end of this course, a graduate will be able to follow the Hebrew readings at services and, with a little practice, begin reading with the congregation.

The class will meet on 10 Monday evenings and one all day Hebrew Marathon session on Sunday, November 3.

THE HEBREW MARATHON IS PART OF THE CLASS.

Class dates are:
September 30; October 14, 21, 28
November 4, 11, 18, 25;
December 2 & 16

BASIC JUDAISM

MONDAYS 8:05-9:00 PM

Cost: Members - individual $45
couple $70
Non-members - individual $50
couple $75
(cost covers books and materials, couples
may share books)

Basic Judaism introduces the student to a slice of the Jewish experience. The course will survey Jewish values, holidays and life cycle celebrations, worship, Jewish ideas of God, and the long road of Jewish history. This course is designed to refresh the Jewish memory of the religious school graduate, teach those with no knowledge of Judaism, and encourage further Jewish study by everyone in the areas mentioned above.

This course is a survey course. The remaining programs on the Adult Education calendar are a supplement to what is taught in Basic Judaism.

Class dates are:
September 30
October 14, 21, 28
November 4, 11, 18, 25
December 2 & 16

To register for either or both of these courses, please contact the Temple office, 269-2979.

TEMPLE ADATH ISRAEL BULLETIN

SEPTEMBER 15, 1996

VOL. 64

NO. 3

2 TISHRI 5757

IN THIS CORNER

Shana Tova u'metuka, may this new year be filled with the holiness of God, the sweetness of a life filled with the beauty of the world, and the commitment to make our world a better place. The High Holy Days are upon us. This is always an exciting time of year. Temple is cleaned and prepared to receive old friends and new into our sanctuary. The cantorial soloist and choir, and our TAI Makhela rehearse with fervor and determination to prepare the music for the holy days. I absent myself from my office a little more often to prepare my sermons. All of the above are very important in making the High Holy Days that special time of year at Temple Adath Israel.

In order for the holy days to fulfill their purpose, there is one other component that must be readied: you and me. We must be prepared to open up our souls and turn inward to look at who we were during the last year. We must ask ourselves the questions Jews have asked for centuries between the first and tenth of the Hebrew month of Tishri: what have I done wrong during the past year, to whom do I need to apologize for my transgressions; and what can I do to make next year a better year, a more spiritual year, a year filled with purpose?

As Jews, we live our lives grounded in this world. Our purpose is to make the world a better place. We must strive to heal the world's wounds and bring shalom into the lives of all people. We know this as Tikkun Olam: the repair or perfection of the world. Before we can go into the world to attempt to bring the world closer to the Messianic era of peace, we must turn inward and bring peace to ourselves, our souls, minds, and hearts. Judaism offers many paths to walk in this inward turning. The sign posts of the rituals and commandments help guide us. Prayer and celebration of holidays and holy days nourish us. The final process on this inward journey is knowing yourself. This is the completion of the journey and we must each reach this end on our own.

The High Holy Day services are model of this journey. We start out on Erev Rosh HaShanah. We are excited about the new year. We taste the honey of sweetness and it brings a smile to our faces. We look at the round challah taking note of the cyclical nature of life and the coming around of the seasons. On Rosh HaShanah morning, we hear the sound of the Shofar calling us to wake up and search for God, search for goodness, search ourselves, and atone for what we have done wrong in order to make the year right. Although the ceremony of tashlich allows us to cast off our sins symbolically, it also admonishes us to think about how we transgressed against others and God, and about how to atone for those sins.

The days pass and Kol Nidre arrives. The melody fosters contemplation driving us further inward in our thoughts. The words of the prayers Erev Yom Kippur are contemplative and reflective.

Yom Kippur day we can spend entirely in the sanctuary or at least in Temple. We continue to walk the path of looking inside ourselves until we finally reach the service of Yizkor when we remember. We remember our parents and children, cousins and friends who preceded us in death. We think about their dreams for us. We think about the lives they lived. We ask ourselves about what we have done. The concluding service begins to bring us back. At the end of the service we recite words of God's oneness and then the final tekiah gedolah, the final blast of the shofar to awaken us to this world.

As we move to break our fast, we embrace friends feeling contented that the journey was good, the soul cleansed, the mind ready to move on. In our hearts we commit to being more faithful members and better Jews, as we look forward to a good year.

Shana Tova to all my friends in this community.
May this year be as sweet as that taste of honey on the apple.

TAI PRESCHOOL NEWS

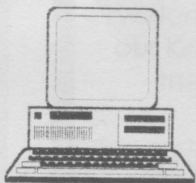

Temple Adath Israel Preschool is off to a great start! Our outstanding group of teachers did a terrific job preparing our classrooms and daily activities which made the beginning of school run smoothly. Teaching our 2 1/2 and 3 year old classes are Linda Gerall, Lead Teacher and Donna Sullivan, Assistant Teacher. Our 4 year old class is taught by Carol Tomko, Lead Teacher and Sarah Danow, Assistant Teacher. Our substitute teachers who will assist us throughout the year are Karla Frank and Tina Simpson.

We have a school of wonderful, happy, enthusiastic children! Our 2 1/2 year old class is full, and only a few space remain open in the other two classes. Extended Day for the 4 year olds, taught by Donna Sullivan and Sandy Adland each Thursday, begins in September. On the day throughout the year, our 4 year old students have the option of staying until 2:30 PM. They eat a sack lunch, have some extra playtime, and participate in an enrichment activity. We're looking forward to this ongoing special event.

As always, thanks to those people who continue to support our Kroger Certificate project. A supply of "scrip" s on hand at all times and is readily available to you by calling Sandy Adland at Temple, 269-2979, or at home, 271-3568. In addition, it will always be available at Religious School. A little bit of your participation make a big difference to our preschool!

Second Annual Tashlich Ceremony and Picnic at Jacobson Park Saturday, September 14, beginning at 4 PM

On Saturday afternoon, after Rosh HaShanah services, Temple Adath Israel again will offer the opportunity to participate in the ancient Jewish ceremony of Tashlich. Tashlich is an opportunity for an individual to cast off his/her sins/transgressions symbolically by tossing bread crumbs into a body of water. Tashlich is from the Hebrew word "to send off" or "throw". Many Reform Jewish congregations participate in this ceremony as a community or group experience. Coastal congregations go to the ocean. River congregations go to the river. In Lexington, we go to Jacobson Park.

Everyone is invited to pack a picnic supper and go to Jacobson Park Shelter #5 (last year we were at #1) which is reserved for TAI. Bring some bread crumbs, and together we will cast off last year's sins and transgressions in anticipation of the year to come. The shelter is reserved for 4 PM. At 5 PM, we will perform Tashlich and Havdalah.

SHABBAT AT HOME

It's Here! It's time to mark your calendars and make your reservations for the very first Shabbat at Home on Friday evening, September 27th. Temple Adath Israel's congregants will be able to participate in celebrating the joyous occasion of Shabbat in a Temple member's home. Rabbi Adland has prepared a beautiful service that will be available to each family who is hosting. The idea of the evening is to share...share the beauty of Shabbat...share in our worship as a community...and share in the first ever Shabbat at Home!

Not only will it be a meaningful event...it will be fun! If you're interested in hosting, or attending...please call Beth Engel at 269-6555 or the Temple office at 269-2979. PLEASE CALL ASAP so we can track attendance and make sure everyone has a home to go to.

THE OPPORTUNITY TO BUILD YOUR OWN SUKKAH IS HERE WITH THIS EASY TO BUILD, EASY TO STORE SUKKAH KIT FROM:

THE SUKKAH PROJECT.

(SUKKAH IN COURTYARD BUILT FROM SUKKAH PROJECT KIT)

Many Temple families have inquired about fulfilling the MITZVAH of building their own Sukkah. This kit makes it easy and affordable.

Over the past five years, North Carolina woodworker Steve Henry Herman has developed a simple, do-it-yourself Sukkah kit. You buy the hardware for only $36 from the Temple and purchase the lumber, approximately another $50 from any lumber yard.

The kit includes an illustrated assembly book which has been developed with the assistance of a top instructional designer to render the project...totally klutz-proof. The kit contains all the heavy-duty steel braces and self-drilling screws. The only tool you need is a screwdriver. The length of 2-by-4's and 2-by-2's you buy (8, 10, or 12 feet) will determine your Sukkah size.

Creating the sides is up to you. You can use tarps, burlap, whatever to finish the Sukkah and make it your own.

The Temple has ~~seven~~ five sets of the hardware available for purchase.

High Holydays 5757/1996
Jewish Tradition Teaches That "Silence is Agreement"

Silence is appropriate, even useful, as we look inward at this sacred time of year. During the High Holydays we reflect, gaining perspective and seeking forgiveness; washing away the sins of the past and beginning anew. Throughout the rest of the year, we speak up, letting others know what we stand for and what we won't stand for.

How can we reconcile this quiet period of self-examination with our Jewish tradition of speaking out in pursuit of justice for the poor and the stranger?

Millions who live among us struggle under the crushing weight of poverty and hunger. Many are children who have not yet gained control of their lives; many others are elderly and have lost the ability to care for themselves. Others are simply too weak, too sick or too deeply disillusioned to rise above their poverty — unless we help them.

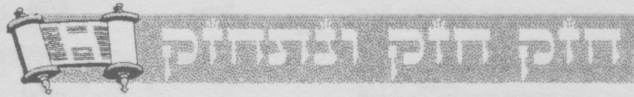

How can we keep silent about their plight when Jewish tradition teaches us that "silence is agreement"?

As you look inward during these High Holydays, MAZON asks that you reach outward to those who are hungry by contributing the dollars you and your family save by not eating on Yom Kippur — or by giving whatever amount you deem appropriate. Your one day of fast, and your momentary silence, will speak volumes as you help MAZON feed those so desperately in need; those whose fast will not end at sundown.

TEMPLE ADATH ISRAEL FALL ADULT EDUCATION PROGRAM

INTRODUCTION TO HEBREW

MONDAYS 7:00-7:55 PM

Cost: Members $50
Non-members $65
(cost covers books, materials,
Hebrew Marathon)

Many Jews desire to add depth to their Jewish soul and substance to their Jewish knowledge. Introduction to Hebrew can be an important step in fulfilling this aspiration. This course teaches the Alef-Bet, beginning reading, and introduces the student to Biblical and prayer book Hebrew. No prior knowledge of Hebrew is required.

The goal of this course is to bring the non-Hebrew reader into the world of the Hebrew reader. At the end of this course, a graduate will be able to follow the Hebrew readings at services and, with a little practice, begin reading with the congregation.

The class will meet on 10 Monday evenings and one all day Hebrew Marathon session on Sunday, November 3.

THE HEBREW MARATHON IS PART OF THE CLASS.

Class dates are:
September 30; October 14, 21, 28
November 4, 11, 18, 25;
December 2 & 16

BASIC JUDAISM

MONDAYS 8:05-9:00 PM

Cost: Members - individual $45
couple $70
Non-members - individual $50
couple $75
(cost covers books and materials, couples
may share books)

Basic Judaism introduces the student to a slice of the Jewish experience. The course will survey Jewish values, holidays and life cycle celebrations, worship, Jewish ideas of God, and the long road of Jewish history. This course is designed to refresh the Jewish memory of the religious school graduate, teach those with no knowledge of Judaism, and encourage further Jewish study by everyone in the areas mentioned above.

This course is a survey course. The remaining programs on the Adult Education calendar are a supplement to what is taught in Basic Judaism

Class dates are:
September 30
October 14, 21, 28
November 4, 11, 18, 25
December 2 & 16

To register for either or both of these courses, please contact the Temple office, 269-2979.

LET'S LEARN 1996-97

7:30 - 9:00 pm

Tuesdays: October 8, 15, 22: The History of Israel/The Land of Israel/The State of Israel Today
This is an elective class for Adult Confirmation.

We will explore "The History of Israel" by looking at how Israel came into existence, the peoples who lived in Palestine when the Jewish settlers arrived, and the competing Zionist philosophies that helped form the modern political parties. The second week will look at the land of Israel today. We will conclude with an investigation of where Israel is today and where it may be tomorrow.

Thursdays: February 6, 13, 20: Torah and other Sacred Jewish Texts
This is a required class for Adult Confirmation.

These three weeks will provide an outline and overview of Sacred Jewish Texts. We will look at Torah, Tanach and Midrash. The purpose of these classes is to see how Torah is used in interpretation, the role of the rest of Tanach in Jewish life, and the importance of Midrash.

Adult Education Committee is looking for a few good teachers

The TAI Adult Education is interested in learning if there are any members of this congregation interested in teaching Jewish adult education courses at some time in the future. If you are interested in teaching a course, leading a discussion group, or have an interest in a particular aspect of Jewish life or thought that you could share with others contact Rabbi Adland at 269-2979 or Mark Simpson at 268-0005.

Thursdays: April 10, 17, 24: Torah and other Sacred Jewish Texts

This is a required class for Adult Confirmation.

These three weeks will look at the contents of Mishnah, Talmud, and the genre of responsa literature in Jewish life.

KOLLEL: A study group on meaning, purpose, cosmic vision. What does God expect from me? What do I expect from God?

9:30 AM on Shabbat morning

What is a Kollel? Kollels were centers of Jewish study in Jerusalem from the 13th century onwards. The embryonic study group at TAI cannot match the intensity of study within these centers. But a start can be made on questions which Jews have struggled with for several thousand years.

Those who delight in matters of the mind, and who wish to be a part of an effort to develop Reform Judaic thought will be most welcome.

The dates are as follows: October 5 & 19; November 9 & 23; December 14; January 11 & 25; February 15; March 1 & 30; April 19; May 10; June 7.

THE SPIRITUALITY STUDY GROUP ACQUIRES A NEW NAME: KOLLEL

During the past year, on alternate Saturdays, when Torah Study was not in session, a "Spirituality" study group met in the Temple library. This group will continue to meet this coming year, it new name "Kollel."

What is a Kollel? Kollels were centers of Jewish study in Jerusalem from the 13th Century onwards. The embryonic study group at Temple Adath Israel cannot match the intensity of study within these centers. But a start can be made on questions which Jews have struggled with for several thousand years: What does God expect of us? What do we expect of God? What, in a cosmic perspective, can be the purpose and meaning of human existence? Beyond the myriad of traditions and rituals which our ancient religion has accumulated, what is the core of our heritage? What revelations of the more recent past need to become an organic part of our existence?

Those who delight in matters of the mind, and who wish to be a part of an effort to develop Reform Judaic thought will be most welcome. Please check the Temple calendar for the dates of Kollel meetings.

PLEASE LET US KNOW!

If you or someone you know is going into the hospital, please let the Temple office know so that the Rabbi can make a visit.

The hospitals do not always contact the Temple about Jewish patients, nor is religious preference always requested on the hospital intake. Your help in this matter will insure that every Temple member in the hospital is contacted by the Rabbi.

Tuesdays: October 8, 15, 22: The History of Israel/The Land of Israel/The State of Israel Today

This is an elective class for Adult Confirmation.

The second week will look at the land of Israel today. We will conclude with an investigation of where Israel is today and where it may be tomorrow.

Adult Education Committee is looking for a few good teachers

The TAI Adult Education is interested in learning if there are any members of this congregation interested in teaching Jewish adult education courses at some time in the future. Temple members, families from the community, and professionals from the University of Kentucky Human Development Institute as well as state government agencies will guide the children through awareness exercises and thought provoking dialogues as they consider what it's like to have a disability, how society treats people with disabilities and the gifts and contributions we ALL have to offer.

If any member of TAI would like specific information on programs and supports in our community for persons with varying special needs or would like to be a volunteer or community advocate for persons with disabilities, contact Cookie Wenneker at 269-4221.

Britt Lincoln will usher in Abilities Awareness weekend by addressing the congregation at Erev Shabbat Services on October 18th.

TEMPLE ADATH ISRAEL BULLETIN

OCTOBER 15, 1996

VOL. 64

NO. 5

2 HESHVAN 5757

IN THIS CORNER...

No sooner did the High Holy Days conclude with the final sound of the shofar, then Israel jumped into the center of our attention. The senseless violence and needless casualties which occurred in Israel near the end of September left me, and, I am sure, many of you with doubt as to the future of the peace process in the Middle East. Since the election of Prime Minister Netanyahu, Jews and those who closely observe the State of Israel have held their collective breath waiting to see what direction Mr. Netanyahu would take. What Mr. Rabin, z"l, and Mr. Peres accomplished in negotiating and signing a plan with the Palestinian Authority was curtailed by Mr. Netanyahu's hard-line approach. Face to face talks, open lines of communication, freezing of the building of settlements, and withdrawal of troops from occupied territories gave way to deaf ears, new settlements and roads, and maintaining troop presence in occupied areas. The new government took its narrow political victory as a mandate to change and overhaul what already existed. Not surprisingly, tension mounted and finally escalated into full-blown violence.

The pretext for this violence was the opening of the tunnel that allegedly ran under the Temple Mount on which is located a Muslim shrine, the Dome of the Rock, and the Al-Aksa Mosque. It turns out that the tunnel doesn't run under the Temple Mount or threaten any Muslim holy sites; rather the tunnel now opens into an Arab business area which would certainly benefit from increased tourist traffic. Ironically, the tunnel was opened and closed several years ago as it was this past September for the same reason: the perception of human intrusion into Muslim holy areas. The business owners will forego economic gain in favor of principle. The truth of the tunnel's non-invasive nature is less important than perception. Yet, let's be honest, the riots which led to the deaths of Israelis and Arabs were not the result of this tunnel's opening. That was only the pretext to express the rage existing for many other reasons, rage which may or may not be valid depending on to whom you speak.

By the time you receive this bulletin, Mr. Netanyahu and Mr. Arafat may have reached some agreements to quell the violence and offer a more hopeful future. We can only hope and pray for wisdom.

It is not only the political situation in Israel that concerns me, but the increasing power and visibility of the Orthodox Jewish community. Reform and Conservative Judaism have a presence in Israel, albeit a small one. The liberal Jewish communities continue to fight for religious rights. The courts seem disposed toward religious pluralism, but the acceptance and implementation of religious pluralism are slow or blocked by the Orthodox controlled Religious Authority at every opportunity. Prime Minister Netanyahu and the Orthodox Jewish community are wedded to each other on a political level. This may lead to restrictions on any type of religious pluralism, as well as a reconsideration of the question of "Who is a Jew?". Right now, any person who is Jewish, whether by birth or by choice -- regardless whether the conversion is Reform or Conservative -- may move to Israel (make aliyah) and receive citizenship immediately. The Orthodox Jewish community would like to amend the law to make it fit their legal perspective, cutting out those not converted by Orthodox Rabbis.

I am very concerned about this direction. It is important that we watch the developments carefully. It means watching the allocations of the United Jewish Appeal to Israel so that everyone in Israel benefits equally without supporting communities that seek or call for the death of Reform Jews. It may mean, at some point, encouraging direct support of Reform Judaism in Israel. It certainly means joining ARZA -- Association of Reform Zionists of America. (Contact John McDonald at the Temple office to arrange for this membership.)

Israel is a significant part of my life. I love hearing that people want to go and visit. I love hearing that our youth want to travel there to enhance their Jewish lives. Israel, the State and people, is a part of us. May the coming months find a return to peace, enlightened wisdom by our leaders, and a toleration of a variety of beliefs that are a part of the big picture we call Judaism.

SISTERHOOD NEWS

FROM THE PRESIDENT...

We have a fun and exciting year planned for our Sisterhood and we hope the women of TAI will join us for our monthly events throughout the year.

If you are currently a member of Sisterhood, we look forward to sharing another great year of friendship, study, worship, gemilut chasadim, and of course, eating and laughing together. If you are not yet a Sisterhood member, please join us and share in the fruits of our labors by attending our Newcomers program on Wednesday, October 16 at 7 PM at the Temple.

I wish to once again express my appreciation to the congregation for your patience and understanding while we made the appropriate adjustments to this year's Shabbat oneg list. Thanks to Rabbi Jon and Sandy Adland for revising the Oneg list. A special thank you to Linda Gerall and Donna Sullivan for their ongoing job on the Oneg Committee which is to oversee the weekly kitchen supply of juice, hot beverages and extra goodies. Their job has just begun!

Many kudos to Beth Engel, Cheryl Jonas and all the Sisterhood members that helped to present us with such an outstanding Break-The-Fast.

This was a delightful way to culminate the High Holy Days together as a Temple community.

6TH GRADE

Adam Danow, Teacher

The 6th Grade Religious School class wanted to take this opportunity to share their feelings on the importance of "Respecting Other People".

- Joshua - You shall do unto others as you would want them to do unto you. If you make fun of people and call them names, it will haunt you in the future.
- Mark - Golden Rule. treat other people the way you want to be treated.
- Madison - If you treat people with no respect it will come back to you in one way or another.
- Ross - If you hurt someone's feelings, it's not just hurting them, it doesn't make you feel good either.
- Cody - You could hurt other people's feelings when you say mean things.
- Jeremy - Treat people with respect so they will treat you with respect. Treat someone bad and feelings could be hurt.
- Abby - If you have something positive to say, say it. If it is negative, keep it to yourself.
- Ben S. - If you don't treat people with respect everyone will be mad at each other.
- Ben M. - If people treated each other with respect we could get things done.
- Bennet - It's important because other people will treat you the same way right back.

ABILITY AWARENESS SUNDAY

This fall on Sunday, October 20th, our Religious School children from pre-Kindergarten through 7th grade will have the opportunity to participate in a morning of activity and discussion.

Temple members, families from the community, professionals from the University of Kentucky Human Development Institute, and state government agencies will guide the children through awareness exercises and thought provoking dialogues as they consider what it is like to have a disability, how society treats people with disabilities, and the gifts and contributions we ALL have to offer.

If any member of TAI would like specific information on programs and support in our community for persons with varying special needs or would like to be a volunteer or community advocate for persons with disabilities, contact Cookie Wenneker at 269-4221.

SHABBAT AT HOME

On September 27, a group of Temple families celebrated Shabbat at the home of Starr, Bruce, and Jeremy Gantz. A short service, with the Sukkot theme, included prayers and songs and was followed by a Shabbat dinner consisting of food contributed by each family. The families who participated in this special Shabbat celebration included the Fredmans, Simpsons, Lonsburys, Sogins and the Biels. All families agreed that this was a wonderful way to celebrate Shabbat.

WEB SITE ON CONVERSION TO JUDAISM

A new Web Site has been established on the subject of conversion to Judaism. The Conversion to Judaism Home Page includes information and advice for people considering conversion to Judaism. The site includes information about conversion from all movements in Judaism. Subjects covered include: Should I Convert to Judaism? The Conversion Process, Conversion to Judaism: some True Stories, and many others. Links to other sites are included. the URL for the site is:

<http://members.tripod.com/~epst>

The site was created by Dr. Lawrence J. Epstein, author of three books on conversion, including Conversion to Judaism: A Guidebook (Jason Aronson Inc., 1994).

JUDAISM ONLINE ON THE INTERNET.

Judaism is online all over the internet. I certainly encourage you to go looking. As I learn about or discover various sites, I will list their addresses in this column of the TAI Bulletin in every other issue.

On AOL, I know that you can access a Jewish area by typing in Jewish.com. Http://www.shamash.com is another area which can lead you to any number of Jewish areas of interest.

A wonderful new magazine titled "Jewish Family & Life" is now online. The address is <http://www.jewishfamily.com>.

Some of you have sent me addresses for discovered Jewish sites in recent months, but I may not have them all. Email them to me at jadland@aol.com and I will check them out and possibly include them in upcoming bulletins.

TEMPLE ADATH ISRAEL MISSION STATEMENT

Adath Israel Congregation is a Reform Congregation, affiliated with the Union of American Hebrew Congregations (UAHC). הַחֹדֶשׁ הַזֶּה לָכֶם

A WORD ABOUT ROSH CHODESH.....

Rosh Chodesh, the celebration of the new moon, is a biblical holiday that greets the return of light to the night heavens. Not only did Rosh Chodesh mark the calendar, but the first sliver of moon from the mountaintops was considered a symbol of renewal and hope. Modern Jews had all but forsaken this ritual, but it being reclaimed in our time, flowing back into the collective Jewish consciousness. Rosh Chodesh has been claimed as a woman's holiday, although not to the exclusion of men, because the commandments granted more leisure to women than to men. Midrash has it that this was a reward to the women who refused to contribute their jewelry to the making of the golden calf.

For the past two decades, women have begun to gather on Rosh Chodesh to celebrate, study, and talk about their relationship to Judaism, to their families, and to all humanity. To date, there are more than 100 such groups, and the numbers are constantly growing. As reform Jewish women we have taken our place in the re-emergence of this age-old rite, to mark the cyclical nature of our lives and to refresh ourselves with hope and commitment.

This year at TAI, our Rosh Chodesh Women's Spirituality Group will meet on Wednesday evenings at 7:30 PM in the Temple library on the following dates: November 13th, January 8th, February 5th, March 5th, April 9th and May 7th.

All women of Temple Adath Israel are welcome and encouraged to be a part of this study group.

Rosh Chodesh

*a Jewish women's spirituality study group will meet at
T.A.I., at 7:30 PM
on Nov. 13*

All women are invited to attend

VOTE: IT IS A PRIVILEGE

Election Day is November 5. It is important for every citizen of the United States to register to vote and to fulfill this privilege. Voter registration forms will be available in the Temple office. The last day to register is Oct. 7.

P.S. You may vote absentee from 10/7-11/4 at 200 E. Main. Students, Military, and Handicapped individuals can call 255-8683 to request ballots and vote by mail.

SOCIAL ACTION NEWS

TAI's Social Action Committee has designated November to be the "MONTH OF HOPE." During the month of November, to support the Lexington Hope Center, a container will be placed in the Temple's hallway to take contributions.

Besides monetary donations, the Hope Center needs for men: white socks, gloves, sock hats, deodorant, combs and brushes, towels, razors, toothbrushes, toothpaste. Bicycles are needed for basic transportation as well as pots and pans and other kitchen items.

If you have any questions regarding the Hope Center, please call Lowell Nigoff at 233-1173 days or 278-5220 evenings.

BLOOD AND BAGEL COMPETITION

MARK THE DATE: Sunday, December 15
9 AM to 1 PM
at Ohavay Zion Synagogue

Let's get together to give blood and at the same time help win the trophy for our Temple or Synagogue. The congregation with the highest percentage of donors will be the winner.

A REMINDER - After October 15th you must not donate blood if you wish to be eligible for this important event.

Adult Education Committee is looking for a few good teachers

The TAI Adult Education is interested in learning if there are any members of this congregation interested in teaching Jewish adult education courses at some time in the future. If you are interested in teaching a course, leading a discussion group, or have an interest in a particular aspect of Jewish life or thought that you could share with others, contact Rabbi Adland at 269-2979 or Mark Simpson at 268-0005.

LET'S LEARN 1996-97

7:30 - 9:00 PM

Tuesdays: October 22: The History of Israel/The Land of Israel/The State of Israel Today

This is an elective class for Adult Confirmation.

We will explore "The History of Israel" by looking at how Israel came into existence, the peoples who lived in Palestine when the Jewish settlers arrived, and the competing Zionist philosophies that helped form the modern political parties. The second week will look at the land of Israel today. We will conclude with an investigation of where Israel is today and where it may be tomorrow.

THIS WEEKLY MESSAGE

Do you have an e-mail address?? Many members of Temple Adath Israel do and Rabbi Adland wants to know. Every Shabbat, Rabbi Adland sends out a special message to those whose e-mail addresses are on his distribution lists. (Presently over 90 names are on the list.) In order to receive this message, he needs your address. Please send it to Temple or send an email to Rabbi Adland at JAdland@aol.com.

Also, Rabbi Adland only received email addresses of five of our Temple youth in college or graduate school. Please send this address along as well.

HANUKA STAMPS AVAILABLE THIS WINTER

On October 22, 1996, the US Post Office will start issuing Hanukah Stamps. This will be the first time in history that stamp honoring a Jewish holiday will be issued by the US Postal Service.

A recent correspondence from the Postal Department said that "customer demand plays a part in the stamp selection process. The US Postal Service will certainly consider the sales of this year's stamp in future deliberations."

Friends, it seems to me that we should go out and purchase the Hanukah Stamps for our use at a time when other stamps will also be filling our mailboxes.

Are you interested in writing
Creative Shabbat Services?

The TAI Worship Committee is interested in exploring Jewish worship and creating some new Shabbat services for use in our congregation on Erev Shabbat. If you are interested in pursuing this agenda, please contact Rabbi Adland at Temple.

TEMPLE ADATH ISRAEL BULLETIN

NOVEMBER 15, 1996

VOL. 64

NO. 7

4 KISLEV 5757

IN THIS CORNER...

There are several things that I want to share with you in this month's message. The first is the announcement of new staff position at Temple Adath Israel. As a result of a very special yearly gift from Alan Bloomfield and his family, we are creating a new part-time position which for the present time is called, "Program and Activities Coordinator." For a further description of this position as well as the application procedure, please see inside the bulletin. Suffice it to say that the position this gift is funding will make a tremendous difference in the quantity and quality of programs held at this Temple. On behalf of this congregation, let me say thank you to Alan and his family for their generosity.

As you will see in the flyer inside this bulletin, on November 27, at 7 PM, at 2nd Presbyterian Church, Temple Adath Israel will participate in the 4th Annual Interfaith Thanksgiving Eve Service. We ask every family coming to bring canned food items for God's Pantry and during the service a collection will be taken for the HOPE Center.

Though the service is well-attended and successful, the largest number evident among the congregations each year is always from the host congregation. I hope that this year, more of our community, beyond the usual 10-15 people, will decide to come to this spiritual and meaningful service. We all have so much to give thanks for in our lives. Thanksgiving is a time to be thankful with people not only from our own community, but from other faiths as well. Without question, the service does not have a Jewish feel in its style, but the message of the service is certainly Jewish -- Tikkun Olam -- helping to repair God's world. Please mark the date on your calendar and make an effort to attend.

The next item is a continuing source of irritation to me. Over the last couple of years at Hanukah, the leader of the Kentucky Hasidic group known as Chabad (Lubavitch) has come to Lexington and held a public lighting of the menorah at Lexington Mall. What bothers me is not the idea of a community gathering to light the lights of the Hanukah menorah, but that Chabad, which doesn't have a real presence here, comes in from Louisville and does this ceremony in a shopping mall. Hanukah menorahs don't belong in shopping malls. They belong in our homes, in our front windows for all to see. They belong in our Temple, in the sanctuary on Shabbat to enhance the celebration of Shabbat Hanukah. If we had a JCC, then it would be appropriate to light the menorah in a public place, but certainly not in a shopping mall which only reeks of commercialism. Some of you may disagree with me, but I certainly won't be present if they choose to do it again this year. I will be in my home or a friend's home. I hope that you won't be present either.

On the other hand, let me wish all of you a Happy Hanukah. I hope that the celebration of this minor, but important holiday will bring you as much joy as the shining lights of the menorah and an opportunity to remember how our ancestors fought and won their religious freedom.

Finally, I want to announce the dates of my Sabbatical for this winter and what I plan to do with the opportunity this congregation has granted me. I will be on my Sabbatical from Dec. 29 - Jan. 20. Last year, I spent the time studying and reading. This year will be very different. I will spend the time preparing for a class that I will be co-teaching at Lexington Theological Seminary, with Dr. Michael Kinnamon titled, "Christian-Jewish Dialogue." The class will begin January 7 and conclude January 24th. The class runs from 8:30 AM - 12 noon, Tuesday-Friday for the three weeks.

Since 1988, I have been an Adjunct Professor at LTS teaching a course titled "Contemporary Judaism." I feel very privileged to have this position on the LTS faculty. In my nine years there, I have taught basic Judaism to over 150 students. Most of these men and women were preparing for lives as ministers. It is a great responsibility and challenge to teach these future spiritual leaders. I hope that the students have benefitted as much from the experience as I have learning from them.

For several years, Dr. Kinnamon, dean at Lexington Theological Seminary, and I have discussed co-teaching a course on Christian-Jewish dialogue. About a year ago, we settled on this January as our first experiment. I am very excited. The first week of my Sabbatical will be spent in preparation for the course and then the teaching itself. In the long run, I hope not to teach the late May/early June period, but to switch to what they call the "J" or January term, teaching Contemporary Judaism one year and the dialogue course the next.

As I did last year, I ask your indulgence during my Sabbatical. Temple members will lead services and fill in for other duties. Last year, as I asked, almost no one called me, allowing me much needed time with my family. I hope that this will be the case this year. If you need something call the office. If you have a problem, contact a Temple officer or board member. Otherwise, I will be teaching, enjoying my family, and nourishing my soul.

THE LITTLE THINGS COUNT

Temple Adath Israel needs everyone to pitch in a little bit in order to make this congregation function and run smoothly. Not everyone has time to do the long term volunteer jobs such as planning a major fund-raiser, teaching religious school, serving as a board member or officer in one of the Temple's groups, running the gift shop, etc. There are many activities that need volunteers that are less time intensive and still make a big difference. Here is a Chai (18) list:

1. Set tables for Shabbat dinner
2. Volunteer as a Religious School substitute
3. Serve on Temple Committee (most committees meet 3-5 times a year)
4. Drive for a youth group event
5. Volunteer to be a Religious School room parent
6. Usher at a Shabbat service
7. Be an Oneg Shabbat host/hostess
8. Participate in a Temple Social Action project such as serving at the HOPE Center one Monday
9. Serve on a major Temple project by agreeing to do one specific job
10. Volunteer to do clerical work in the Temple office one hour a month
11. Take new member baskets to someone's home
12. Shop for a Temple function
13. Visit an elderly Temple member at home
14. Call Temple and see what time limited things can be done
15. Deliver pulpit flowers to someone who is ill, a shut-in or in mourning
16. Attend services
17. Invite a new family in town to dinner
18. Say YES!!!

WEB SITE ON CONVERSION TO JUDAISM

A new Web Site has been established on the subject of conversion to Judaism. The Conversion to Judaism Home Page includes information and advice for people considering conversion to Judaism. The site includes information about conversion from all movements in Judaism. Subjects covered include: Should I Convert to Judaism? The Conversion Process; Conversion to Judaism: some True Stories, and many others. Links to other sites are included. The URL for the site is:

The site was created by Dr. Lawrence J. Epstein, author of three books on conversion, including Conversion to Judaism: A Guidebook (Jason Aronson Inc., 1994).

JUDAISM ONLINE ON THE INTERNET.

Judaism is online all over the internet. I certainly encourage you to go looking. As I learn about or discover various sites, I will list their addresses in this column of the TAI Bulletin in every other issue.

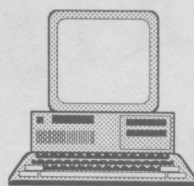

On AOL, I know that you can access a Jewish area by typing in Jewish.com. Http://www.shamash is another area which can lead you to any number of Jewish areas of interest.

A wonderful new magazine titled "Jewish Family & Life" is now online. The address is <http://www.jewishfamily.com>.

Some of you have sent me addresses for discovered Jewish sites in recent months, but I may not have them all. Email them to me at jadland@aol.com and I will check them out and possibly include them in upcoming bulletins.

JOIN THE SHABBAT SHALOM CLUB
SEND IN YOUR E-MAIL ADDRESS

OVER ~~80~~ 90 PEOPLE RECEIVING
THIS WEEKLY MESSAGE

Do you have an e-mail address?? Many members of Temple Adath Israel do and Rabbi Adland wants to know. Every Shabbat, Rabbi Adland sends out a special message to those whose e-mail addresses are on his distribution list. (Presently over 90 names are on the list.) In order to receive this message, he needs your address. Please send it to Temple or send an email to Rabbi Adland at JAdland@aol.com.

Also, Rabbi Adland only received email addresses of five of our Temple youth in college or graduate school. Please send this address along as well.

There is now a box in the Temple foyer for collecting old eyeglasses. If you have any old eyeglasses, please bring them to Temple and place them in the box. This mitzvah will help those who can't afford to purchase eyeglasses for themselves.

FROM THE HALLS OF THE RELIGIOUS SCHOOL

1ST GRADE

Anita Mersack, Teacher

The first graders have been busy studying all the holidays that come at the beginning of the year. For Rosh HaShanah and Yom Kippur we ate apples and honey, tried to blow the shofar and made New Year resolutions in order to make the next year a better year.

We made a collage of the things for which we are thankful for Sukkot.

THIRD GRADE

Linda Noffsinger, Teacher

The third grade has been studying Sukkot and Simchat Torah. Sukkot is when the Jews traveled in the desert for 40 years. They had seven clouds of glory for shelter. They had one on the bottom of them, one on the top of them, one in the front of them and one in the back of them and one to lead the way. They had a sukkah for shelter also.

In the third grade we have been studying about the High Holy Days, Rosh HaShanah and Yom Kippur.

We talked about Joseph and his coat of many colors. We are weaving his coat of many colors with paper. Joseph was one of Jacob's sons.

JEREMY GANTZ'S MITZVAH TWINNING PROJECT

My Bar Mitzvah twinning project is helping out with the Storybook Christmas. The main idea of it is to give books to children in Lexington and other parts of Kentucky.

My mom works with kids at the University of Kentucky who do not have any books at all. I feel if I get them some books I will make a big difference in their lives because reading can be fun and exciting.

I will put a box in the foyer in November to collect books for children up to five years old. I hope you will donate books for these kids.

Thank you, Jeremy Gantz

A HANUKKAH GLOSSARY

HANUKKAH - A Hebrew word meaning "dedication". When the Jews had sent the Syrians down to final defeat, their first act was to cleanse the Temple in Jerusalem and remove the various pagan symbols and idols from it. They then held a ceremony dedicating the Temple once again to God. The holiday derives its name from the ceremony.

JUDAH MACCABEE - The name comes from the first letters of the Hebrew prayer Mi Kamocha Ba-elim Adonai ("Who is like Thee, O Lord!") inscribed on the Maccabean battle banner. Another reason that Judah was called the Maccabee is that he struck with the force of a mighty hammer. The Hebrew word for hammer is "makav". Judah became known as "The Hammer" or The Maccabee.

MACCABEES - Hebrew soldiers who fought the Syrians. Named after their leader, Judah the Maccabee.

MENORAH - Hanukkah candle holder. Contains places for 8 candles and a 9th candle, the shamus, is raised above the others. Each of the 8 candles represents one of the 8 days of Hanukkah.

DREIDEL - A four-sided top used on Hanukkah. Each side has a different Hebrew letter: nun, gimmel, hay, and shin. This stands for "Nes gadol ha-ya sham" ("A great miracle happened there").

SHAMUS - Helper candle used to light all the other candles.

LATKES - Potato pancakes. Traditional Hanukkah delicacy.

MATTATHIAS the Hasmonean - Priest who started revolt against the Syrians. Father of Judah Maccabee.

THE STORY OF HANUKKAH

After the death of Alexander the Great (323 B.C.E.) his Empire was divided into two smaller kingdoms - Egypt to the south and Syria to the north.

In the year 175 B.C.E. there arose a new king in Syria - Antiochus IV. He was a harsh ruler and treated all those whom he conquered cruelly.

Antiochus sent officers to the cities of Judea to proclaim, "The king has ordered all his kingdom to become one people and that everyone should forsake his own laws and his own religion." The king commanded the people to break the Sabbath and ignore the holy Jewish festivals. He instructed the Jews to ignore their prayers and religious practices. An idol was placed on the altar of God and incense burned in its honor.

The king's officer came to the city of Modin and said to Mattathias, a priest who dwelt in Modin, "You are a great man and well-known in the city. Come and fulfill the king's command and you shall be counted among the king's friends." But Mattathias turned to the officer and answered in a loud voice, "Neither I or my sons nor any faithful Hebrews will ever worship an idol."

The Syrian officer called for another volunteer. When, in the sight of all the people, one of the Jews came forward to sacrifice to the idol, Mattathias was filled with anger, and struck him down.

Then Mattathias leaped to the top of the altar and shouted, "All those who are faithful to the Lord, follow me."

One of Mattathias' sons, Judah (called "The Maccabee"), became the commander-in-chief of the Hebrew army and led the people into battle. Never did people fight more bravely against such odds. Because they were dedicated to their religious heritage and to the principles for which it stood, they were filled with the courage and strength to achieve the final victory.

Judah, his brothers and all loyal Jews came to rededicate the Temple in Jerusalem. However, when the people gathered to celebrate the "rededication" the High Priest could find only one small jar of Holy oil with which to light the Ner Tamid (the Eternal Light). This was just enough oil to burn for one day. Then it was that a wondrous thing occurred. For the oil in the lamp burned for eight days!

In remembrance of this great occasion, Hanukkah - the Feast of Dedication - is observed every year for eight days, beginning with the twenty-fifth day of the month of Kislev.

Since the time of the Maccabees the battle for religious freedom has been fought over and over again throughout the world. After each victory, grateful men, women and children have dedicated themselves to their traditions and kept alive the remembrance of the struggle for religious freedom. As we celebrate the festival of Hanukkah, this year and every year, let us always give thanks for the freedom which our ancestors won so bravely. May we always treasure this precious possession, and ever seek to build a world in which all people may live in freedom and peace.

The candles are placed in the Hanukkah Menorah from right to left and kindled from left to right.

la-ze-man ha-zeh.

Blessed is the Lord our God, Ruler of the universe, for giving us life, for sustaining us, and for enabling us to reach this season.
(On the first night only)

As the Shamus (servant) candle is kindled, we say each day: As one candle may kindle many others and yet lose none of its own light, so Judaism has kindled the light of truth for many religions in many lands and still shines brightly through the eyes.

FIRST NIGHT - FREEDOM

We kindle these Hanukkah lights in memory of the dedication and courage of the Maccabees. Believing that they should be free to worship God as their hearts and minds dictated, they willingly gave their lives for freedom. Now, kindling these candles, we rededicate ourselves to work for the equal rights of all people, and for the realization of a society of democracy and freedom.

SECOND NIGHT - FAMILY

Tonight as we celebrate Hanukkah together we are conscious of our precious gift of family. So often we take one another for granted, forgetting to express our love and devotion. Let us, now, as we kindle these festive lights rededicate ourselves to sharing our interests and time with one another. Like the Maccabees of old, let us always face the tribulations and the joys of life united by our family bonds. Kindling these lights, we pray that through kindness and thoughtfulness, our love for one another will increase from strength to strength.

THIRD NIGHT - TORAH

On the third night of Hanukkah, we rededicate ourselves to the study of our tradition. As the Maccabees courageously fought to preserve our faith, we, too are duty-bound to sustain our heritage by deepening our understanding of it through study. By increasing our knowledge of Judaism we have become more sensitive to its abiding values, more aware of our responsibility to realize these values in our society. Study opens our minds and fortifies us against tyranny. Learning secures our freedom. Let us, then, as we kindle these candles rededicate ourselves to the study of our tradition.

FOURTH NIGHT - HOPE

Our ancestors have taught us that in hope a person's future is illumined and made creative. Ours are times when many people live in fear and great despair. Like the Maccabees, we need to build our lives on hope. Hope that ultimately, truth will triumph over superstition and confidence, that trust and understanding will finally depose superstition and tyranny. Now as we kindle these Hanukkah lights, may our eyes be directed to the loftiest visions of our faith.

FIFTH NIGHT - CHARITY

Our tradition tells us that during the Maccabean war for freedom, all Jews, both children and adults, contributed toward the cause of defeating the oppressor. There are many forms of oppression still existent in our world today. There are people afflicted by sickness, hunger, ignorance and prejudice. Tonight we, like our ancestors, put aside gifts of Tzedakah in order that we, too, may help to bring an end to oppression. We pray that the humble gifts we offer will provide food for the hungry, medicine for the sick, knowledge for the ignorant, and equal opportunity for those afflicted by prejudice. Now as we kindle our Hanukkah lights, let us rededicate ourselves to the ideal of Tzedakah, righteousness and justice, found in our Jewish tradition.

SIXTH NIGHT - SHALOM

The candles of Hanukkah remind us of our chosen mission as Jews. Like the Maccabees we seek to rededicate ourselves to the service of God. Today one of our foremost tasks is to secure peace in our troubled world. When we end disagreements through mutual understanding, when we seek to mend hurt and wounded feelings, we make peace a living idea. Then let us, as we kindle our Hanukkah candles, rededicate ourselves with renewed strength to the task of securing peace.

SEVENTH NIGHT - BROTHERHOOD & SISTERHOOD

Brotherhood and Sisterhood is founded upon a total respect for the liberty and freedom of all people. The Maccabees of old sought to protect themselves when their rights were violated. Our Hanukkah lights serve as a reminder that peace is secure only when we honor the precious liberty and property of our fellow neighbor. As we kindle these lights, let us rededicate ourselves to the cause of peace which alone can bring dignity to all everywhere.

EIGHTH NIGHT - FAITH

Tonight we kindle all the candles of our Hanukkah Menorah. Throughout the centuries the Menorah has been a symbol of our Jewish faith. Like the Maccabees, when they celebrated this festive holiday, we rededicate ourselves to the living of a more meaningful Jewish life. We pray that throughout this coming year, we may fulfill the ideals of freedom, Tzedakah, family, study, hope, shalom, brotherhood and sisterhood, all of which are symbolized by the candles of our Menorah.

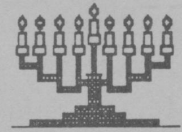

HANUKKAH SONGS

MAOZ-TZUR - ROCK OF AGES

Ma-oz tsur y-shu-ati l-cha na-eh l-sga-be-ach
Ti-kon bet te-fi-la-ti v'sham to-dah n'za-be-ach
L'et ta-chin mat-be-ach mi-tzar ham-na-be-ach
(Az eg-mor be-shir niz-mor cha-nu-kat ha-miz-be-ach) 2

Rock of Ages, let our song Praise Thy saving power;
Thou, a-midst the raging foes, Wast our shelt-'ring tower.

Furious, they assailed us, But Thine arm availed us,
And Thy word... Broke their sword...
When our own strength failed us.

O HANUKKAH, O HANUKKAH

O Hanukkah, O Hanukkah
Come light the menorah!
Let's have a party,
We'll all dance the horah.

Gather 'round the table,
We'll give you a treat,
Dreidels to play with,
And latkes to eat.

And while we are playing
The candles are burning low
One for each night
They shed a sweet light,
To remind us of days long ago.

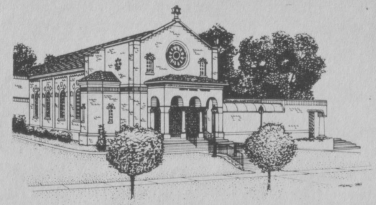

MY DREIDEL

I have a little dreidel,
I made it out of clay;
And when it's dry and ready
Then dreidel I shall play.
O dreidel, dreidel, dreidel,
I made it out of clay;
O dreidel, dreidel, dreidel,
Now dreidel I Shall play.
It has a lovely body,
With leg so short and thin;
And when it is all tired,
It drops and then I win.
O dreidel, dreidel, dreidel,
With leg so short and thin;
O dreidel, dreidel, dreidel,
It drops and then I win.
My dreidel is always playful,
It loves to dance and spin.
A happy game of dreidel,
Come play, now let's begin.
O dreidel, dreidel, dreidel,
It loves to dance and spin,
O dreidel, dreidel, dreidel,
Come play, now let's begin.
