FROM WHERE I SIT

by
Rabbi Maurice Davis

What is a Temple Worker? A Temple Worker is a man..or woman..who takes upon himself a hard job in a good cause..who comes in for personal abuse..because of decisions honestly arrived at..whose motives..integrity..and judgement..are constantly..consistently..and inconsistently attacked.....

A Temple Worker is the kind of person who isn't satisfied to sit on the sidelines..and take pot-shots at others..but who gets into the center of things..and has pot-shots taken at him.....

A Temple Worker is a person who gives up one hour a week..or one day a week..or two or three..to do a job that must be done...It is a job that everyone wants done..and no one wants to do.....

A Temple Worker is a person who is never complimented for a task well performed..but who comes to mind..as soon as his work is to be criticized.....

A Rabbi cannot exist without help..no rabbi can...No Congregation is so small that one man can..or should..do everything.

A Rabbi knows this..and he struggles to instill in the hearts of some..the challenge..and the glory..and the need of Temple labor...After a while..if he is successful...he gathers a few people who are willing to work..These are Temple Workers.....

A Temple Worker is a person who heard that call..saw that need...and with sleeves rolled up...stepped into the world's most thankless jobs.....

A Temple Worker has many jobs..many problems..and many goals..but the most important of these is to remember the need that he saw..and the voice that he heard..and the greatness of the task...because...thankless or not...pleasant or not...the job is important..and it has to be done...

Our Temple has several Temple Workers..They continually amaze me with the enormity and the selflessness of their labors.....

Our Temple has several Temple Workers. I salute them.....Do you?

ON JANUARY 8, Rabbi Davis will address the Mother-Daughter Banquet at Temple Israel in Memphis, Tennessee. On January 9 he will meet with Temple Israel's Youth Group.

THE CONGREGATION records with sorrow the death of Edward Markhoff who passed away Monday January 3. We extend our deepest sympathy to his daughter Mrs. Warren Rosenthal.

CONTRIBUTIONS have been made to the Flower Fund in memory of the following whose Yahrzeits were observed last week: Benjamin B. Kaufman; father of Dr. Maurice Kaufman; Anna Romer, relative to Rubin and Rose Romer; Celia Kahn, sister of Mrs. Emanuel Meyers, and Louis Wenneker, brother of Al Wenneker.

THERE WILL BE A RECEPTION in honor of Sara Ann Stone and Erle Lawrence Levy, bridal couple elect, on Sunday January 9 from 8 to 11 P.M. This reception, given by Mr. & Mrs. Philip Gall and Mr. & Mrs. Hyman Levy, will be held at the Synagogue Center. The Congregation is cordially invited.

DO YOU REMEMBER THAT WONDERFUL party that NETTY put on last year? They supplied cards, Mah Jong, Scrabble sets and etc., for the Congregation..and served them food as well. This is just a hint to be prepared for another such affair in the very near future. Watch the BULLETIN for further details.

HADASSAH- Mrs. DeSola Pool will speak at a tea on Tuesday evening January 11 at 8 P.M., in the Temple Vestry. Hadassah members and their husbands are urged to attend. Mrs. Pool, former National President of Hadassah, and now an honorary Vice-President, has been an ardent Zionist throughout her life. She pioneered in bringing Youth Iliyah into Hadassah's program, and represented Hadassah for many years on the Youth Iliyah management committee in Israel. In recognition of her "untiring efforts on behalf of humanity", she was named the "Jewish Woman of Achievement" for 1954 by the Women's International Exposition. Mrs. Pool has studied at the University of Paris in Paris, France and at Columbia.

FROM WHERE I SIT

by

Rabbi Maurice Davis

Well...I'm back.....I had planned to travel some three thousand miles during the past few weeks...Instead..I travelled about three miles...to the hospital..and none of my prepared speeches seemed to fit the bill

Believe me...everything I said in the hospital was adlibbed.....

And yet...I did learn many things at the hospital..I learned the intense joy that can come merely from the absence of pain...I learned the great pride a man can take in being able to walk by himself..... I learned that in a hospital..a patient is served by hundreds of anonymous people who work together for his well-being...I learned that doctors rise early..and work late. I learned that friends are pretty wonderful people.....

I also learned that man makes many plans..and carries out only a few of them. And then, he makes many plans again. And that is how it has to be.....

Rabbi Tarphon said, "It is not incumbent upon thee to complete the work, but neither art thou free to desist from it altogether."

January was not at all what I had pictured it to be, or what I planned for it to be.....so I guess I will just have to start making plans for February.....

Incidentally....It was a strange feeling...coming back..and finding out how smoothly everything went during my absence

I always knew that you could get along without me...but I didn't want you to find out.....

THREE LEXINGTONIANS HAVE accepted invitations to participate in the National Convention of the UNION OF AMERICAN HEBREW CONGREGATIONS, it was recently announced. In 1952 he was recalled to duty in the Naval Air Force. He returned to Lexington in 1954 and resumed his practise. Bernice was born in Louisville, but moved to Somerset when a little girl. She received her masters in Business Education from U.K. and then taught at Morehead State College. The Hermans have 2 boys; David $4\frac{1}{2}$, and Larry, 14 months. They live at 536 Chinoe.

MESSRS. DAVID AND LOUIS ADES, will attend a testimonial dinner in honor of Felix Warburg, the new President of U.J.A. to be held in New York at the Waldorf-Astoria.

THE SISTERHOOD GRATEFULLY ACKNOWLEDGES gifts to the Silver Fund: a pair of silver candle sticks from Mr. & Mrs. Harold Baker, in honor of their daughter Gloria Ann, and a pair of silver composites from Rabbi & Mrs. Maurice Davis, in honor of their son, Michael Alan.

A CONTRIBUTION TO THE RABBI'S FUND HAS been made by Mrs. Al Nemeroff in memory of her mother, Libby Gershune.

THE SECOND ANNUAL NFTY CARD PARTY will be held on Wed. Feb. 2, at 8 P.M. in the Vestry Room. Food, cards, and tables will be provided. Just get up a game, and come ready to have a good time. You will be contacted about tickets by a NFTY member. It is going to be GREAT, so please come!!!!

The Annual Sisterhood Fun-d Raising Masked Ball
Is designed to unmask the repressions of all-

If you think you're too old to dress up for fun
You're revealing subconsciously - Your life is done!

If you feel that your dignity might be impaired
You'd be wiser to dress it - than have it bared!

If you're intellect sneers at these low brow pursuits
You can come garbed as Nietzsche or wear Einstein's boots,

Whatever your reason for not wanting to dress
If you searched your subconscious you'd have to confess

Down deep if the real you had just half a chance
You'd come masked in your dreams to the Sisterhood dance.

FROM WHERE I SIT

by
Rabbi Maurice Davis

We called off Sunday School last week... we were afraid of the weather..afraid it would be as bad as last Friday night..when a handful of faithful braved the roads... while the radios pleaded with people to stay home.....

There was no real storm...last Friday night..The roads looked fine..until you tried to drive on them..As usual..the danger lurked beneath the surface.....

You know...that's the trouble with coldness in nature...or coldness in people... the danger lurks beneath the surface.....

It seems to me that the quiet coldness in people is more to be deplored than the heat of anger...You might disagree..and say that this is the civilized way to hate..quietly, coolly...coldly.....

But there is no civilized way to hate... Hatred is not a mark of civilization..It is remnant of barbarism..no matter how polite it is...how correct in bearing and in manner.....

Because it looks like civilization it fools you...Its danger like the danger of an icy road..lies beneath the surface.....

When nature turns to ice and cold..we know what to do..Call off school..curl up at home with a warm television program... and wait it out.....

But when people turn to ice and cold..we don't know what to do..(at least I don't). We wonder what made them so..we wonder if the fault is ours..and we search continually for ways to thaw them out.....

For two weeks now..nature has made Lexington a very cold city..How long have we made it so? We are tired of ice and snow. We are tired of the coldness on the ground. Aren't we also tired of the coldness in the heart?

Let's break the cold wave..and thaw out the slickness..and the lurking danger of ice..I think we're ready for some real warmth.....

CONGRATULATIONS to Mr. & Mrs. Erle Levy, (Sara Stone) on their recent marriage.

CONGRATULATIONS to Kaye Francis Goldberg, and Harold Frankel on their recent engagement.

We are happy to announce that all three home study groups will meet during the month of February, with Rabbi Davis. Best of luck on this new venture.

Happy Birthday, Mr. Lincoln! This is the first year..in my lifetime..that I can say it to you..without feeling a vast hypocrisy..at the ways in which your words were forgotten..by those who spoke in your name.....

In all the years before last May 17, (Supreme Court Day)..to celebrate your birthday..was like celebrating the Armistice..when there was no Armistice..like observing Brotherhood Week..when there was there was no brotherhood.....

But this year..we can..for the first time..wish you a Happy Birthday..And feel that perhaps we are getting closer to that spot we should have reached 179 years ago, or 90 at the very least.....

The nation that could not endure..half-slave and half-free..has been trying to do just that..ever since you said we couldn't.

The nation..under God..that was supposed to have a new birth of freedom..had a miscarriage..and tried to hide it from the world..and from themselves.....

We couldn't quite believe you..when you said that by giving freedom to the slave... we would assure freedom to the free..This was too deep for us..too great for us to grasp.....

And so..for 90 years..we proved that you had not freed the slave...We proved it by every word we spoke..by every deed we did.. or did not do.....

And there were those among us who cringed to wish you Happy Birthday..who blushed for shame.....

But now...we dare to hope..We dare to see the time..when all the words you spoke will be made true.....

Happy Birthday, Mr. Lincoln! And may we...the people of the land..begin to have many happy returns of your day.....

ADATH ISRAEL SISTERHOOD FUN-D RAISING AFFAIR

MARCH 19, 1955

If you love to give up evenings for rehearsals

If you love to hire sitters-make disbursals

If you love to learn long lines-or practice routines

If you love to play with lights-or work behind scenes

then—

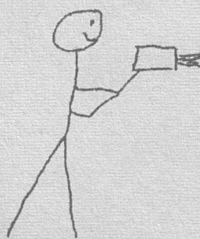

You'll not enjoy the evening we're planning

You'll be bored, 'cause "work" the only thing we're banning

You'll be plagued by all the gaiety and laughter

You'll just cringe-when you discover what we're after which is—

We are after what is known as "joy of living"

We are after that which comes from inner giving

We are after "FUN" - and this without misgiving

And we hope the lack of work won't set you grieving!

Happy Brotherhood Week!! It takes a good deal of ingenuity and 'know-how' to discharge a year's responsibilities...in a week of festivities.....

It takes a good deal of rationalization to achieve a warm glow of satisfaction... because our luncheon club invited the local clergy..or our civic club invited a tolerant speaker to extoll Brotherhood Week.....

It should fill us with something less than pride..to realize that it all consists of words..instead of deeds.....

What would happen if we should begin to take the words we speak..and the words we hear..and apply them to the realities of life...translate them into action..testify to them by the work of our hands?.....

What would happen to discrimination... both racial and religious?...What would happen to the COLORED WAITING ROOM at the bus and train depots?...What would happen to the civic life of Lexington?.....

At times it seems as if we live in a kind of inverted triangle..and what happens in Korea..Formosa..in every tension area of the world...depends somewhat upon what happens in America..And America is only a Lexington...many times multiplied.....

We complain about the mess the world is in..because the world is far away..we think. But the easy way we have of sloughing off the real problems makes me wonder.....

Do we really want Brotherhood Week..or do we prefer brotherhood weak?.....

I prefer brotherhood strong. All the labor...frustration..time consumed is worth the effort. We can do without Brotherhood Week...but we cannot exist without brotherhood.....

PURIM IS COMING...THE SUNDAY SCHOOL PURIM Party will be held on Sunday, March 6 at 2 o'clock. There will be plays and all kinds of games. Don't forget to come in your costume!

A CONTRIBUTION to the Silver Fund, has been made by Mr. & Mrs. Ben Cohen in honor of their granddaughter, Betsy Deborah Brown.

THE CONGREGATION RECORDS WITH THANKS, the gift of a console radio, card tables and folding chairs, from the Civic Club.

MEET & WELCOME DR. & MRS. ERNST JOKL to the Temple Family. Dr. Jokl was born in Breslau, Germany, where he lived until 1933 when he went to S. Africa. The late General Smuts appointed him Chief Medical Research Officer in the Government Service and a medical consultant to the Army during the War. When Smuts resigned as Prime Minister, Dr. Jokl left S. Africa & came to the U.S. In 1952 he was asked to act as Medical Adviser at the Olympic Games in Finland, and subsequently he was appointed guest professor at the Sport-hochschule in Cologne. The Harveian Society of London awarded Dr. Jokl the Buckston Browne Prize, one of the highest medical distinctions in the British Empire. Now, he is settled in Lexington, having been appointed as professor of Physical Medicine and director of the Rehabilitation Center at U.K. Dr. Jokl has published numerous scientific papers and books. Mrs. Jokl, who is also German born, has worked for many years with her husband. They have two children, Marion 14 and Peter 12 who were both born in South Africa.

RABBI DAVIS IS HONORED BY YOUTH: At the Convention's Evening Service, held last Tuesday in L.A. the National President of NFTY, Robert Seltzer of St. Louis, in behalf of the National Federation of Temple Youth's Executive Board, cited Rabbi Davis. A Union Kiddush cup was presented to him carrying the inscription, "We Delight To Honor Rabbi Maurice Davis", also a framed picture of the two Davis' children, with an inscription addressed to Rabbi & Mrs. Davis: "May Your Saplings Be Like You." Rabbi Davis has served as Dean of the National Leadership Camp Training Institute for the past 3 years, and has also served as Counsellor for the Ohio Valley Federation of Temple Youth.

THE LEXINGTON COMMITTEE FOR THE AMERICAN JEWISH TRICENTENARY is composed of two representatives from every Jewish Organization in Lexington. A city-wide celebration is planned for April 4. Harold Baker is chairman. The guest speaker will be the famous author and orator, Maurice Samuel.

Have you been watching the announcements on the last page of our BULLETIN?.....

They tell the story of the coming SISTERHOOD COSTUME BALL. These announcements have been delightful..the poetry excellent..and the drawings wonderful.....

But they don't tell the whole story..... They can't..neither can I.....

Part of the story is the tremendous need for funds to support our Religious School. The Sisterhood has used the March Affair for this purpose for some time.....

The Ten Dollar admission fee helps to make money for the youngsters..but that's not enough.....

The Silver and Gold Donors..($25 and $50) represents the difference between success and failure.....

I have heard from the grapevine that some do not plan to continue as donors this year...They say that they have done it in the past..and that should be sufficient...

By a similar logic..I suppose that I should now tell the youngsters we have taught them in Religious School in the past and that should be sufficient.....

But Temple life..and Temple responsibilities...and Temple loyalties are continuing things..We don't have a magazine subscription type of membership.....

I don't want anyone who can't afford it, to be a donor..But those who have the means can't afford not to be donors.....

Anyone can find a reason not to give.... Let's find some reasons to give.....

1. It's going to be a wonderful evening of laughter and fellowship.....
2. There's going to be good food in abundance.....
3. The money spent is in the finest cause, for the advancement of our own children...
4. You will enjoy the above so much more.. with the realization that you are doing your complete share.....

The announcements can't tell the entire story... and neither can I.....

The final..complete..and entire story can be given only by YOU.....
What shall it be?

RESEARCH IS NOW BEING UNDERTAKEN to gather material of the history of the Jews in Lexington, for the city-wide Tercentenary meeting to be held April 4, 1955.

The newspapers have headlined the news.. Israel has been found guilty of an act of aggression against Egypt..The Mixed Armistice Commission has so voted.....

The Israeli members voted against it..The Egyptians for it. A tie. The U.N. members voted for it..and Israel stands before the eyes of the world as an aggressor.....

Israel also brought charges against Egypt..The Israeli members voted for it..The Egyptians against it..A tie. The U.N. member abstained..and Egypt was technically acquitted.....

In the past year and a half, this Mixed Armistice Commission has censured Egypt twenty-seven times for acts of aggression. Did you read about it in the papers? Neither did I.....

I hate these border incidents! I wish with all my heart..that they would not even occur..But they have..and they will..because they are symptoms of something else.

Egypt has declared officially that she will never rest until all of Israel is destroyed...that even if all of Israel consisted of Tel Aviv..even that must be destroyed.....

Both the domestic and foreign policy of Egypt rests in large measure upon anti-Israel sentiment.....

Against this background..it seems a little silly to treat each border incident as if it had no deeper roots than the immediate act.....

These incidents will occur until there is peace in the land..And there will be no peace until the Arab world recognizes the existence of Israel...It does exist!!

Israel is desirous of sitting around a conference table with the Arab world..to work out answers..But the Arabs refuse to recognize her..either to discuss a peace treaty..or the refugee problem.....

Let the U.N. speak of this! And let the papers tell the more complete story to the world.....

LAST WEEK'S BULLETIN CARRIED the final in a series of sketches on new members of the Temple. There were 19 such sketches, which represented people with brilliant, varied and interesting occupations. A group, of which any religious & civic community could well be proud. The congregation renews it's welcome and hopes they will find life in Adath Israel filled with happiness.

JUST WHAT WE'VE BEEN WAITING FOR! There will be a special meeting Saturday, March 12 at 10 A.M. at Temple for all children in the 6th grade, thru' high school interested in joining a Youth Choir. Mrs. Jay Abraham will direct the choir.

LETTER FROM THE PRESIDENT

I want to take this opportunity to explain the reason for a special Congregational Meeting. I realize how busy all of us are, and would not burden the the Congregation with a special meeting, if the Board of Directors did not consider the matter to be of utmost importance.

In the year 1950, we erected a separate wing to our Temple for the main purpose of providing adequate facilities for our Religious School. It was and is a beautiful addition, and I would like to pay public tribute to the men and women who labored to make it a reality.

The Religious School wing consists of nine rooms. One of these is the library. One of these is the Rabbi's study. And one of these is the Temple Office. During the past two years, we have been forced to use the office, as a class room; the Rabbi's Study as a class room....and in addition:

We use the stage, for a class room, the small room off the stage as a class room, and the sanctuary itself as a class-room.

Every available inch of space is used, and still we have not enough room. I would invite you to come on a Sunday morning, to see for yourself, but unfortunately there is no room for you on Sunday morning.

Three years ago, our Religious School had an enrollment of sixty-four children. This year we have enrolled over one hundred and twenty. This fact is not one to fill us with concern alone. It should also fill us with pride. The welfare of our children has always been uppermost in our hearts, and now the time has come for us, once again, to decide upon a plan of action.

Thanks to the way in which our finances have been handled, we will be able to add the additional space without a special drive. It is the feeling of the Board of Directors that the present dues structure will be able to handle the cost of the expansion on the same long term arrangement whereby we have steadily been reducing our mortgage.

On Sunday, March 20 we shall meet in the Temple Vestry at 2:30 P.M. to discuss this entire matter and to listen to the recommendation of the Board of Directors. I ask you to make every effort to attend. This is a very important matter, important enough in the lives of all of us, to warrant your attendance.

I look forward to meeting with you at that time, and I trust that when members meet with good will in their hearts, all problems can be solved.

Sincerely,

Ben Goldfarb
Ben Goldfarb

Wonderful meeting last Sunday!.....The Congregation did itself proud..The vote was an overwhelming victory for all who have progressive and forward thinking plans for our future.....

We met..not to discuss whether..but how, we should expand our facilities. The sense of the group gave us a head start on the future...There was optimism..there was confidence...there was belief.....

I did notice..however..that much of the discussion showed a lack of knowledge on the part of some..as to the problems and the reasoning behind the Board's recommendations.....

There are three people or groups of people to blame for that.....

First of all..the blame is mine..inasmuch as I have not used this column to bring enough of the pertinent matters before the entire Congregation.....

Secondly..the fault is the Board's which has not been diligent enough in reporting the important needs which face the Temple now and tomorrow.....

Thirdly..the fault is the Congregation's Too many members have given over to the Board..not only the power to govern the Temple...but the responsibility of being interested in its welfare.....

It then becomes difficult at a Congregational meeting to review for them, not only the decisions of the Board..not only the thinking behind the decisions..but also the entire discussions pro and con which have gone on for months.....

The moral is..that all of us must be much more conscious of the need for an informed Congregation..and find solutions for this problem.....

When information is adequately given and adequately received..I have found that the decisions are good decisions.....

After all...I don't want to fight.....
All I want to do is win.....

A MESSAGE FROM SYBIL STERN: "More than 20 members of the Sisterhood worked together in the planning, preparation, and ultimate success of the annual Inter-Faith program on March 16. The group co-operation was a tribute to the women of our Temple. Thank you all, for an excellent job. A basic understanding of our people helps to dispel suspicion and prejudice. Rabbi Davis, told the stories of the holidays, and opened a discussion with the teachers on Jewish children in the school system. With much thanks to Rabbi Davis, and renewed thanks to all of you who helped to make this meeting the success it was. Sincerely, Sybil Stern."

FROM WHERE I SIT
by
Rabbi Maurice Davis

In the spring an old world's fancy..turns to thoughts of a brighter day...The world is born again at springtime...There leaps a promise of things to come..and a hope... and a thankfulness for more than the tongue can mention..or the mind record.....

Pesach...to me..is all these things and more...Pesach is freedom..and springtime.. and rebirth of the world..and the world's finest dreams.....

Pesach is memories of slavery and escape of humble beginnings..and mountain peaks..

Pesach is memories of a slave people...
searching for God..and signing a contract with greatness for all eternity.....

Pesach is feelings of kinship..with brothers around a table..around the world.
A reaching out with the hand..to people we know only in our hearts.....

Pesach is promises..as yet unfulfilled.. but as real as promises can be.....

Pesach is promises of liberty throughout the land..unto all the inhabitants thereof.

Pesach is promises based upon memories..
based upon love...and based upon that religious confidence...that man will yet learn to live with man in quietness..in peace...and in dignity.....

Pesach is spring fever...and the silent dream of humanity.....

Happy Pesach, World!

Dear Friends:

Words alone cannot explain the tremendous and crucial importance of our observance of the American Jewish Tercentenary! Let me tell you what we have done to make that evening a success.

- 1) We have engaged one of America's outstanding authors and lecturers, DR. MAURICE SAMUEL.
- 2) We have invited the presidents, the faculties, and the student bodies of every College and University in Central and Eastern Kentucky.
- 3) We have invited every minister and every Congregation in Lexington.
- 4) Both the Mayor and the Governor have issued proclamations concerning our observance.
- 5) The University of Kentucky is actually co-sponsoring this event with us, because they feel so keenly the historic importance of it.
- 6) Every Jewish Organization in Lexington has contributed to the preparations of the details for this occasion.

In short, we have done everything in our power to make that evening a significant moment in the life of the Jewish Community, and in the life of the community in general.

Nevertheless, all of this work, and this great opportunity will be lost without YOUR help! Unless you come, and bring your non-Jewish friends, ours will have been a wasted effort. We cannot afford to let this happen. In a very real way, the Jewish Community is on trial. Don't let us fail!

All you have to do is this:

- 1) Be with us, MONDAY, APRIL 4, at 8:15 P.M. in MEMORIAL HALL,
- 2) Bring as many friends as you can, Jewish and non-Jewish alike. A reception following the meeting, in honor of Dr. Samuel will be held in the Home Ec building. The whole evening is open to the public without charge.

This is no time for excuses. Words will not explain. But the deed of your presence will speak more loudly than words, and will enable all of us to participate in a very wonderful event.

Can we count on YOU?

Sincerely,

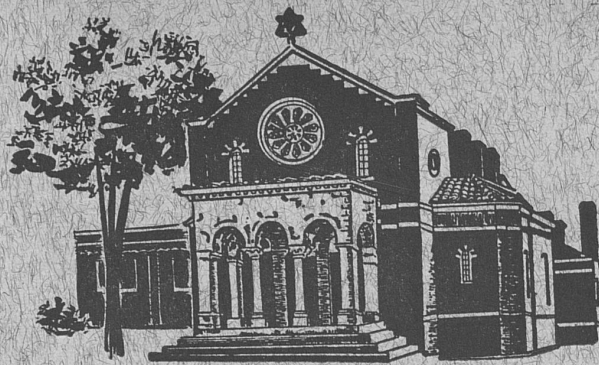

Harold Baker

FROM WHERE I SIT
by
Rabbi Maurice Davis

They tell me that 'the morning after' is supposed to be a terrible moment in the life of a man....Well....This is the morning after the Tercentenary Celebration...and if I have a hangover...it is a very wonderful thing.....

For I am still reliving the events of last night..and the many emotions that filled me then.....

There was a very wonderful speech last night...by a very wonderful person. Maurice Samuel has been a favorite of mine for many years..and each meeting with him only whets my appetite for more.....

There was a warmth and friendliness last night..shown by University friends.....by our Christian friends...and in the general atmosphere of the affair.....

There was beauty last night...in the decoration of the stage..and in the quality of the songs and the singers.....

There was dignity last night...in the way in which the Master of Ceremonies conducted the meeting...in the way in which the printed program was prepared...and in the way in which the entire meeting was conducted.....

The reception after the affair...with pleasant words still ringing in the head...and lovely food as symbols of friendship..will not be forgotten.....

'From where I sit' there was also a lesson learned last night.. It is a lesson that a united community can attempt ambitious projects so long as the community remains united.....

What we witnessed was the formation of this united community... For some time now...many of us have been advocating the formation of a Community Relations Council...and last night we saw it in action.

We saw in action how it can be....not if we all merge into one organization...or one House of Worship...but if....maintaining our separate affiliations...we affiliate also with an all-embracing group which would be....in reality.....the Jewish community of Lexington.

We had a fine chairman....He had fine committee heads...because all of the groups worked together.....

Behold how good and how pleasant it is...for brethren to dwell together in unity.....

SABBATH SERVICE

Immediately after service, through the good offices of the Ford Foundation of the Republic, we shall present a feature length film of MR. EDWARD R. MURRO interviewing DR. ROBERT OPPENHEIMER. FROM WHERE I SIT
by
Rabbi Maurice Davis

Many will ask why it was that I petitioned the Ford Foundation of the Republic for use of the Murrow-Oppenheimer film. Many will question the propriety of showing this film at Temple on Friday night.....

There are two main reasons why I want the Congregation to see this film.....

I want the Congregation to have a glimpse of the Princeton Institute for Advanced Studies...haven of the egg-head... and to witness progress wherever it may be found.....

But most of all...I want the Congregation to look at this man..and to listen to his words. He has been called many names.. by many people....There has even developed a taboo of mentioning his name in company.. The picture of Oppenheimer has become distorted...in an age when such controversial figures are talked about.....but never listened to.....

This film will allow us to see for ourselves...the man who has been called everything from Communist to naive.....

Our country has become divided over Oppenheimer...Our country has become divided over the concept of total security...Our country has become divided by fear.....

Fear is the sickness with which democracies die...The suspicion which it breeds...is the sign of a suffering country.

Religion and suspicion go not hand in hand...Because this is so..I want to show the picture of the man upon whom suspicion and fear has fallen.....

From Where I Sit..this is reason sufficient for presenting this film...I hope that every thinking member of our Congregation will come and ponder with me..the problems that it presents..and seek the religious answer..where political answers have failed.....

FROM WHERE I SIT
by
Rabbi Maurice Davis

It gives me a very strange feeling to be writing 'good-bye' in this column..... knowing that by the time you read this... I will be saying 'hello'.....

Marion and I are going away for a few days...We are going to Lake Cumberland... where it is very quiet..and peaceful.....

I understand that it is a 'fisherman's paradise'.....However...I am not looking for fish (I'd feel bad if I didn't catch any...and I would feel worse if I did)... And...for the time being at least....I am not looking for paradise.....

What I am looking for...however...is an abundance of fresh air..and abundance of silence..and a scarcity of telephones..

I shall be gone...by some strange coincidence..during National Noise Abatement Week. I shall be doing my bit both in Lexington...where I shall be absent..and at Cumberland...where I shall be silent...

We are going..because we are both a bit tired....therein lies a paradox..I have said that I am a people-lover..This is true..But nature and I are not enemies....

Every once in a while..it is good to visit with her...knowing that we shall leave her..as soon as strength is renewed. Then we shall return to people..whom we prefer..but who do use up our strength...

I suppose that this is how it must be. Our strength is taken by those we love, and renewed by that which we merely appreciate.....

THE FOLLOWING MEMBERS OF NFTY SPENT LAST week-end in Huntington, West Virginia, attending the Tri-State NFTY Conclave: Bobbie Levy, Linda Kanner, Marjorie Wikler, Susanne Krinsky, Joan Paritz, Bobby Miller and Stuart Goldfarb. Science..and the progress of science has been much in our minds of late...In less than seven days we saw that movie of Dr. J. Robert Oppenheimer..rejoiced at the discovery of Dr. Jonas Salk..and wept at the passing of Albert Einstein.....

Oppenheimer told of his work in an unknown world...Salk promised the end of a dread disease..and Winstein showed us the stature of the true scientist..concerned with the welfare of man.....

No one can say that our scientists have not performed well..the tasks allotted to them upon this earth..They have struggled against the frustrations of their profession..the ignorance and apathy of people..the resistance of nature against prying eyes and prying hands..and with it all...they have made superb progress.....

I always feel embarrassed..when I read of them...or think of them...The men of religion have done so little..in comparison.....

We...too...have to face the frustrations of our chasen profession..For us there can be no vaccine that will make man love his neighbor...no way of injecting kindness into the veins of school children..with a booster shot in seven months.....

We have the formulae..as thrilling as the ones that Einstein involved..but not the ability to prove them correct.....

Our formulae are unprovable. "It hath been told thee, O man, what is good..and what the Lord doth require of thee: Only to do justly..and to love mercy..and to walk humbly with thy God."

We can't prove it..Our only chance for success is not to prove it..and not to say it..but to live it..with all the world watching us for advice..or for mistakes..

by
Rabbi Maurice Davis

Aren't we lucky ones! Under the auspices of the Association of Florists and Candy-Makers, clothed with the sanctity of city, state, and nation, we shall soon be permitted to love our mothers.....

Mother's Day has become an institution in American life, whereby we concentrate in one hectic Sunday, all the love and affection we felt, and should have shown, throughout the year.....

The Torah states: "Honor thy father and thy mother."...It remained for American ingenuity and 'know-how' to add a footnote....."on the day set aside for that purpose".....

They even tell us how... "Say it with flowers!" "Say it with candy!" "Don't write - wire the flowers!" I wonder if all the flowers and candy in the world can suffice for one person to show his love for his mother?

We...none of us...are good children... We forget much that we ought to do...and still more that we want to do...It doesn't follow...however...that we enjoy having people tell us to love our mothers when they want us to...and in a manner prescribed by them.....

From where I sit...the thing that most bothers me...is the bland assumption that we can merchandise filial love and devotion...and package it for early delivery...

If it's all the same to you...I think I shall continue to love both my mothers, any time I please...in any manner that occurs to me.....

Conformity can go too far...The time is not too distant...when it will probably be subversive to love your mother...say in February...even if that means squeezing into Brotherhood Week.....

When that time comes...I think I shall hop off the band-wagon...and walk the rest of the way...even though I shall probably tuck a box of candy under my arm...for "sentimental" reasons.....

FROM WHERE I SIT

by
Rabbi Maurice Davis

Well...the Fifty-first Annual Meeting of the Temple is now ended..but the memories linger on.....

We thanked the old officers..and welcomed the new...We listened to plans for an enlarged Religious School..and thrilled to learn that work had already begun.....

We came to eat..the food was delicious... We came to laugh (are we getting a new house for the rabbi or a new rabbi for the house?). We came to learn..and most of us were amazed to learn how large and how rapidly we have grown.....

We came to conduct the business of a Congregation..and to do so openly..honestly and at times...quite informally.....

Nothing could be more informal than David Neil's suggestion...just before the meeting adjourned that we had neglected one small piece of business..that of re-electing the Rabbi.....

The fact that the budget had been mimeographed so that every member could follow it carefully..was just one more indication of the attitude with which the meeting was planned..and with which the meeting was received.....

But most of all..we met to testify to our belief and confidence in the continued growth of Adath Israel..We were prepared for that growth..we were waiting for that growth...and we were determined to cause that growth.....

We were...that night..a Temple Family... holding a family meeting..planning for some of the tomorrows.....

And planning for those tomorrows...we could not help but peer into the future....

I liked what I saw.....

CONGRATULATIONS

Heartiest congratulations to the newly elected officers of Temple Adath Israel: I. Allen Paritz-President; Dr. Irving Kanner Vice-President; Harold Baker, Secretary; James Frankel, Treasurer. We wish you health and strength and wisdom in your appointed tasks. Congratulations also to Ben Goldfarb for a job well done, and a rest well deserved, as he retires from the presidency, but not from active participation in the Temple welfare.

HIGHLIGHTS OF THE MEETING

Highlights of the meeting was the announcement that Perry Lumber Co., had signed a contract with Temple Adath Israel for the sum of $30,000, to build a wing to our Religious School which will give us a full compliment of class-rooms and facilities. This is to be ready for us by the High Holy Days. At that time there will be a dedication ceremony. It was further announced that a new home had been purchased for the Rabbi on Culpepper Rd., and that the Woodspoint home had been sold. The Rabbi and his family will move into their new home in June

FROM WHERE I SIT
by
Rabbi Maurice Davis

As you have read elsewhere in the BULLETIN we played host last week-end to a bunch of flighty teen-agers...They said that they came here for a delegate voting meeting..to conduct the business part of OVFTY (Ohio Valley Federation of Temple Youth)...but everyone knows what a teen-ager wants.....

He wants to dance..and laugh..and joke... He doesn't have a serious thought in his head..and he just can't assume responsibility..Everyone knows that.....

There were sixty-seven of them..representing almost forty different Congregations... They registered Saturday afternoon..then came into my study to listen to the record, THE WORLD OF SHOLOM ALEICHEM.....

Saturday night...there was a dance for them at the Country Club..but before the dinner dance began.....they conducted a Havdalah Service...If you don't know what that is...ask a teen-ager.....

Before the dinner...they said their blessings...and during the dinner they laughed and joked...just as teen-agers should.....

Then there was an open house..Sounds like fun! They danced..and sang until almost midnight...and then.....

And then..they sat on the floor and conducted a business meeting that lasted almost two hours.....

At nine the next morning they were back..to listen to two sermonettes given by the members...to elect officers...to plan for the summer camp...to conduct the business of OVFTY.....

They met without a break until lunch..... and continued throughout most of the afternoon.....

Then they went home...just a bunch of crazy teen-agers without a serious thought in their heads.....

God bless them!!!!.....

OUR SINCERE THANKS TO THE HADASSAH GROUP for their donation to the Temple.

FLOWER FUND

A contribution has been made to the Flower Fund in memory of Cecelia Molly Kaufman, mother of Dr. Maurice Kaufman, whose Yahrzeit was observed last Friday night.

OVFTY ELECTS BOB MILLER

At the OVFTY Delegate meeting held here this past week-end, Bob Miller was elected President of the organization. This is the highest office in NFTY a Kentuckian has ever held. Also at this meeting, Stuart Goldfarb was elected to the Regional Board of OVFTY. For making this meeting the success it was we want to thank the following: All the parents of Temple Youth Group members for the planning and the work of making this meeting a success and to all those parents who provided home hospitality to the out-of-town delegates. The entire Youth Group of Temple Adath Israel for the superb way in which they handled all the mechanics of the meeting: registration, transportation and all of the other details that make an occasion such as this a successful one. Mr. & Mrs. Louis Ades for the use of their home as an open house for all of the delegates after the dinner-dance Saturday night.

TO:

Mrs. Harold Baker who has recently been elected Vice-President of Ashland School P.T.A.

The following who made the Honor Roll at Henry Clay Hi: Linda Kanner, Barbara Levy and Dickie Munich.

FROM WHERE I SIT

by
Rabbi Maurice Davis

I write this last column of the year with mixed emotions. Actually..it is a mixture of joy and.....ecstasy! And yet..with all the strain..we have had a good year.....

It has been a year of material progress, a year of improved education..and a year of increased awareness of spiritual values.... and the BULLETIN has tried to report all three.....

We have had our share of bickering and littleness...but, From Where I Sit, it seems that our share is getting smaller.....

I should like to thank all those who have labored in behalf of the Temple..and in behalf of all the ideals for which this Temple stands..Their reward has come from their labor.....

Those who have not so labored..have been cheated of a wonderful experience...and I pray that they shall never be cheated again.

About the BULLETIN now...I should like to thank Charline McCoy..our Temple Secretary who....serving as the BULLETIN staff..... worked long hours here..and at home...to get the BULLETIN together and out to you.....

My thanks to Freda Roos..the Editor...for her countless hours and immeasurable devotion which she has given to the BULLETIN.

My thanks to I. Jay Miller..who as Chairman of the Publicity Committee was..in the name of the Temple..the Publisher of our BULLETIN.....

We tried to make it readable..We shall try this summer..to plan for its improvement... If you have any suggestions...there is a BULLETIN BOX in the hall...and it will take suggestions in the summer as well as in the winter.....

You drop them in..and we'll put them out, into the kind of BULLETIN you will want to have and to read.....

A LETTER FROM THE BULLETIN STAFF

Dear Members:

The Temple officers and I will soon meet to appoint Committee Chairmen. We will then assist the Chairmen in the selection of their Committee members.

We are now past the stage where every member's name is automatically placed on some Committee. We want only those who are willing to take an active interest in the work. To be a member of a Committee is not an empty honor.

Every member of the Congregation (male and female) who would like to be on a committee, will be placed on a Committee. All you have to do is call the Temple office, and tell us of your willingness to serve.

If we don't hear from you, the Committee lists may appear without your name. We hope to hear from you. The Committees are as follows:

- Adult Education Membership
- Auditing Membership Retention
- Boy Scouts Nominating
- Budget Out of Town Membership
- Building Publicity
- Building & Grounds Reception
- Choir Religious School
- Election Resolutions
- Finance Social Action
- Hospitality Worship

Sincerely,
I. Allan Paritz, President

WE POINT WITH PRIDE TO:

BESSIE WEIL, who was one of 6 former Ky. Society for Crippled Children' board members to receive special certificates of appreciation for their services at a KSCC luncheon recently held in Louisville. The awards were given "in recognition of outstanding leadership and dedicated service in behalf of the physically handicapped of Ky., as members of the society's stated board of directors".

SAM MILNER of Paris, who was elected President of the Paris Chamber of Commerce.

HAROLD FRANKEL who was elected Vice-Pres. of the Winchester Optimist Club.

STUART LOVENTHAL who received his letters in Swimming, Band and Tennis.

William Wencker who received his letters in Swimming and Jr. High Basketball.

Dear Readers:

With this issue, the Bulletin folds its pages for the summer. In the very first copy of the Bulletin last September the Publicity Committee announced, that, because it had no pattern by which to be guided, it would be "feeling it's way". In "feeling our way", we were subjected to several adverse criticisms, which type of criticism is usually wholesome. The staff recommends certain changes in policy to the succeeding Bulletin Staff, primarily to provide space for a sick column, and the means by which such items would reach the Editor. There are other suggested changes, but space does not permit listing them at this time.

Without Charline McCoy, the Rabbi's most efficient secretary, there would have been no Temple Bulletin. Thru' out the year she has prepared all covers, and all illustrations, seen in the Bulletin. Those for the Sisterhood Fund raising affair were most appropriate and attractive. The staff, therefore, gives public recognition to the work that Charline has done.

AND, "FROM WHERE I SIT" IS THE TEMPLE BULLETIN! Inspiring, spiritual, sincere and meaningful, the Rabbi's own column is the real reason for the Bulletin. To him, our deepest gratitude.

The Bulletin Staff in closing it's first year, as such, earnestly asks that during the ensuing year, the Publicity Committees of both Temple and Sisterhood, as well as the full membership, gives their whole hearted support to, and cooperate with, the new Bulletin Staff.

Sincerely,

Freda Roos and I. Jay Miller

THE FOOL

Who was it who jumped on his horse, and rode off in all directions? Whoever else it might have been..it also applies to me. This summer..I tried to do all the things I wanted to do..and in the three months between then and now..I did most of them.

This Congregation may get tired of hearing about youth..but in my book..there is nothing quite so exciting..I worked with Christian Youth in Hazel Green..with Negro Youth in Louisville..with NFTY in Oconomowoc..and with OVFTY in Ohio.

Perhaps I tried to do too much..I did get tired at times..Perhaps I was a fool..not to have rested this summer...But whatever I was...I did see great beauty.. I did see the meaning..and the relevance of religion..I did peer into the future..and it is good future..If that is being a fool I'm glad.

THE RABBI

We are going to be crowded during these High Holy Days..We have not yet solved our problem of growth..The result is that some of you are going to have to sit in the vestry..and hear the services over a loud speaker..We will fill the Temple..in the order in which you arrive..and then the doors will be closed..and others will be asked to enter into the vestry..I'm terribly sorry...but there appears to be no other solution..for the time being.

One small request from your Rabbi..... Don't wait for me to begin the services.. Let them begin when you enter the sanctuary..Let there be quiet..and reverence.. and solemnity...Let there not be the babbling of conversation..and of gossip. Last year the Temple sounded..for all the world..just like a zoo...When we arrive.. let there be a 'warm-up' period..to get us in the mood for worship...Remember..the person next to you might want a moment of silence...Our's is a House of Worship.... Let there be worship.

THE PAPA

Tomorrow morning I head, once again, for Cincinnati. This time to bring back to the Blue Grass, my enlarged family. It hasn't been much fun..commuting back and forth this summer..shuttling between my two loves...This congregation..and my family Tomorrow..they shall be re-united..and with a whole family (complete with a number two son)...I will be able to continue my work as fool, as Rabbi, and as an inordinately proud papa.

PUBLICITY COMMITTEE

Mr. I. Jay Miller, and Mrs. Ben Roos, Chairmen of publicity for the Temple and Sisterhood respectively, with Mrs. M. Baer, Mrs. B. Cohen, Mrs. K. Hart, Mrs. S.E. Miller, Mrs. S. Rose, Mark Halleck, Harry Miller, Harold Pressman, and Al Strauss, as the 'reporters', is to assemble and dispense news of common interest to our membership through the medium of the Bulletin, and to utilize ourselves of newspaper and radio publicity, locally and in counties in which members reside at such times and upon such occasions as we see fit. The Committee's function is actually an innovation in the Temple organizations, and we need your assistance to have it function properly. A box will be found on the Temple Bulletin Board. All news should be placed in the box, or relayed to Mrs. Roos, or any member of the Committee. The workings of the Committee will be detailed in a letter next week.

One can find birthday, anniversary, and plain old "need-it-yourself" gifts, such as personalized stationery, matches, coasters, napkins, guest towels, and book plates. There are many beautiful Israeli items; ash trays, candle sticks, bon bon dishes, and mazuzos. See next week's Bulletin for a complete price list. Place your orders with Mrs. Harold Baker at 3-5710.

by
Rabbi Maurice Davis

I read an article recently that told of a woman in Manhattan who died several years ago.....and willed her entire estate to God.....

In order to settle the estate.... a case was filed....naming God as a party thereof.....

A summons was issued...and the court went through the motions of trying to serve it.....to no avail...

The final report stated: "After due and diligent search...God cannot be found.....in the city of New York."

I wonder.....can He be found in Lexington?.....

We are in the process....during our High Holy Days...of issuing a summons for God.....I only hope that we know where to look.....

It is my personal prayer...that our High Holy Day Services...will help us find.....at least....the proper pathways....along which to walk....as we continue our search....together.....

Please make all checks payable to either Mrs. David Bolotin, R R 5 Mt. Tabor Rd., or Mrs. Sam Davis, 503 Culpepper. When mailing your checks, be sure to state your preference dates. Do so, at once, as first checks will be given priority.

CONGRATULATIONS TO OHAVA ZION CONGREGA- tion, one of 500 congregations to receive citations, at a convocation at the JEWISH THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY OF AMERICA in New York City. Edward Greenfield accepted the scroll on behalf of the congregation. The scroll commends the contribution of the synagogue to establishing religious freedom in America, and to the furthering of human brotherhood.

IN A RECENT JEWISH PUBLICATION, PICTURES of three prominent Rabbis appeared. DR. SAMUEL GOLDENSON, RABBI EMERITUS of Temple Emanu-El, who at 76 years, 'is engaging in one of the most remarkable series of preaching missions, in the 300 years history of American Judaism.' Lexington was Dr. Goldenson's first pulpit, he was Rabbi from 1904-1907. RABBI SAMUEL THURMAN, who with Mrs. Thurman (Hattie Weil of Lexington) was pictured with former President Harry S. Truman, when Rabbi Thurman was guest of honor at a dinner honoring him for 40 years of service to the UNITED HEBREW CONGREGATION OF ST. LOUIS. Rabbi Thurman served Lexington in 1907-1908. Our present (and beloved) RABBI DAVIS was photographed with a group of regional rabbis whose duties it will be to increase service of the UNION to congregations throughout the length and breadth of our country. It was said, many years ago, that Lexington was the 'proving ground' for young, and newly ordained Rabbis. If this be true, then Lexington can truly burst with pride, for these men have 'proven' to be men of righteousness; men whose vision and prayers are for peace and justice for all peoples.

FROM WHERE I SIT

by

Rabbi Maurice Davis

Lexington has growing pains. What are you going to do about it? This is not the first time in the history of our town, that Lexington has had growing pains. And it is not the first time that the question of ANNEXTION has been brought up.

The problem is centered upon that group of people who are neither urban, nor rural. The very name we give them, suburban, shows our dilemma. The county says that they are rural. The city claims that they are urban. And they, themselves, would like to remain a little bit of each. Because they are urban minded, they want the advantages that come from city life, but because they live outside the city limits, they prefer to be governed by county rules, and county laws and county taxes.

And so, there is bickering, and rancor, and misunderstanding. Statements are made by both sides that cannot be substantiated, and we, the people, are more than a little confused. What are you going to do about it?

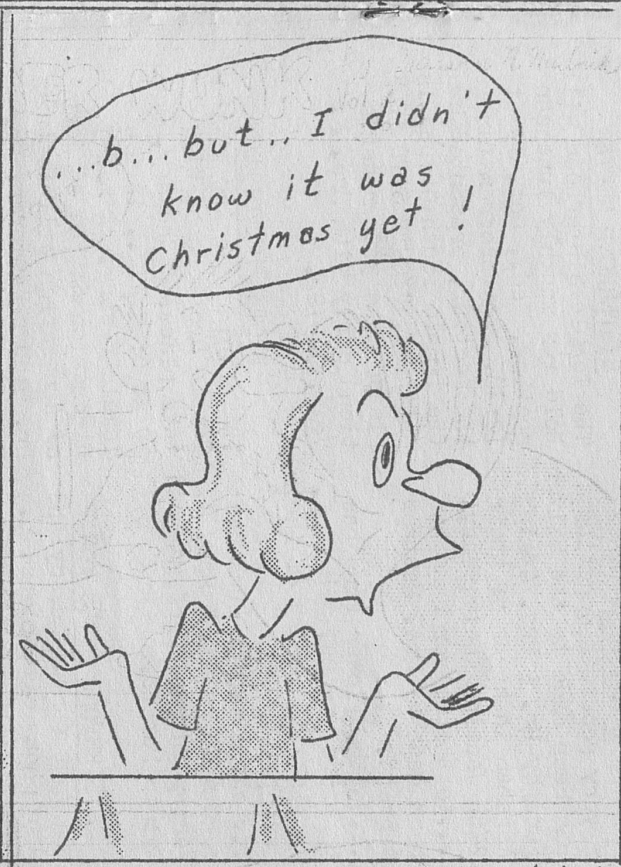

I know what the Temple Brotherhood is going to do about it. The Temple Brotherhood has invited the outstanding advocates and opponents of Annexation, to come and tell their story to us. The opening meeting of the Brotherhood, to which the wives are cordially invited, will feature this panel. The Brotherhood hopes that our Congregation will be a little better informed because of it, and perhaps, better citizens as well.

The Brotherhood has provided the program. The BULLETIN has provided the information. And what will you provide? Will you provide the interest necessary to come to that dinner meeting on Wed., Oct. 19 at 6:45 P.M., or will you not? You're welcome to attend, even if you have not yet signed up for Brotherhood.

FROM WHERE I SIT, the Brotherhood is rendering all of us a great service. Lexington has growing pains. And what are YOU going to do about it?

FROM WHERE I SIT

by

Rabbi Maurice Davis

Well...they are over now..The High Holy Days of the year 5715....and I..for one..am sad to see them go..There was a note of greatness in them..this year..You could feel it in the service..You could sense it in the people..almost as if there were a yearning in us all..that somehow found the words it needed.....

Perhaps we needed those days..more than we know..Perhaps we needed the intensity that came with them...Perhaps we were hungrier for nobility than any of us have ever realized.....

I know that we don't live in an Utopia....I know that neither the world nor we can be made over in a moment..But..once in a while..it's good to look as far as we can into the distance..to catch a glimpse of the goals that seem so very far away.....

The music was superb...Our undying gratitude to Anita Baker..the choir..and the organist...who did so much to create the proper setting for those few moments of greatness which were ours.....

Our thanks to Leslie Aberson..for the piercing notes of the shofar..to all the men who sat on the pulpit..blessed the Torah..and prayed in the sight of the people.....

Our thanks to Fernand Weil..and his Reception Committee for the dignified way in which the people were welcomed...and ushered in..even as we ushered in..the New Year.....

Our thanks to the Sisterhood..and Helen Paritz for the Rosh Ha-shono reception...to the Flower Committee...and the flower donors.....

But...most of all...our thankfulness for the High Holy Days...They are ended now...but they were with us for awhile...and it may be that we are all the better..kinder..nobler...because of them.....

THE NEW OFFICERS OF OUR GIRL SCOUT TROOP #64 are: President, Adatha Weil; Vice-President, Joanne Wides; Scribe, Delores Levy; Treasurer, Judy Goldfarb, and Reporter, Susan Munich. Congratulations girls, you'll do a good job, we know!

DURING THE HOLIDAYS, OUR LOST & FOUND DEPARTMENT HAS ACQUIRED SEVERAL ITEMS. IF YOU are the owner of any of the following items, please contact the Temple Office 2-4606. 1-lady's white hat; 2-men's hats; lady's gloves; man's rain coat, 1-umbrella, and A PAIR OF EYE GLASSES.

WE SEND OUR DEEPEST SYMPATHY TO AL FOGEL on the death on his brother-in-law, Edward M. Solomon.

THE CONGREGATION WISHES TO THANK MRS.SIEG Bing for her donation to the RABBI'S FUND.

CONTRIBUTIONS HAVE BEEN MADE TO THE FLOWER Fund in observance of the Yahrzeits of Lena Moses and Max Munich.

IT IS WITH PLEASURE THAT WE WELCOME INTO the Congregation Mr. and Mrs. H.S. Marcus and trust that they will find peace and joy within our Temple Family.

AT THE REQUEST OF SEVERAL (FEMALE) MEM-bers of our Congregation, Rabbi Davis will inaugurate a Beginner's Class in Hebrew, which will take place on Wednesday mornings at 10:30. This will allow the women to meet with him prior to the luncheon meetings which take place on Wednesdays. Anyone interested in this course should contact the Temple Office.

THERE WILL BE THREE HEBREW CLASSES CON-ducted during the week for members of the Sunday School. There will be a Beginner's Class, an Intermediate Class, and an Advance Class. Anyone interested in joining our week-day series should contact the Temple Office.

THANKS TO THE GOLDFARB FAMILY FOR SERVING such a delicious meal last Sunday for our Hillel Group, and making everyone happy.

BECAUSE OF THE CONFLICTING DATES OF THE Holidays, the BROTHERHOOD will hold its monthly meeting on Tuesday, October 19. A delicious meal will be served promptly at 6:30 P.M., followed by a Quiz program conducted by Dr. Charles Schwartz with audience participation.

THE MONTHLY MEETING OF THE SISTERHOOD WILL take place on Wednesday October 27.

AND AGAIN, ADA GAIL, CONGRATULATIONS UPON the talk you made before the PILOT CLUB in celebration of the club's 33rd anniversary. The talk was well received, and excellently given.

FROM WHERE I SIT

Rabbi Maurice Davis

When I was a kid, I went to Temple Beth El in Providence, Rhode Island. In those days it was at the corner of Broad & Glenham Streets, and my Rabbi was William G. Braude.

We used the old Union Prayer Book (Revised), and I remember when we switched to the more modern Union Prayer Book (Newly Revised). Some members of our Congregation considered this to be an extravagance. Some members wondered what we could do with our old books. There isn't much of a market for old Prayer Books, even in good condition.

But my Rabbi was a man who saved books. It was (and is) almost impossible for him to throw any book away. The printed word, and especially the printed Word of God, is not a dispensable item for him.

Well, time passed. I left Providence to begin my wanderings. The old Temple on Broad and Glenham was sold, and a magnificent new building was erected.

In this modern House of Worship, everything was sparkingly new. There were new rooms, new supplies, new materials. But deep in the hidden recesses of the new library, were those old Union Prayer Books (Revised). My Rabbi still kept them.

Last summer I visited with my Rabbi. We talked of many things. And when I told him about my patients at the Narcotics Hospital, and how our Prayer Books are tattered and torn, he had the answer.

My Rabbi has sent me all of those old Union Prayer Books (Revised) that he had been saving these many years. And now my patients in Lexington pray from books I used twenty years ago, and a thousand miles away.

This column is dedicated to Rabbi William G. Braude, with my very sincere thanks.

I left Providence over fourteen years ago, but Temple Beth El is still my Temple, and William Braude is still my Rabbi. And the tie that binds, is symbolized among other things, by some old Union Prayer Books (Revised), that my Rabbi saved.....for me.

I see by the Temple Bulletin we're going to have a "College of Jewish Knowledge" ... has possibilities sure, an' guess who'll be coach!

Geo, Pop, are they gonna have a college football team too?

... and he'd say: "...and you, you think you're the only one in the congregation who has a brain so you'll be quarterback... and you, you schlemiel you'll have to stop fumbling..."

... and you guys, always trying to block everything, can be the blocking backs and run interference, since you're so good at interfering anyway...

... you men will be the halfbacks because you carry the ball so well...

... "you "second the motioners" can back up the line... and you problem-tacklers natcherly will be tackles....

... "and the enthusiastic club women are qualified to be cheer-leaders..."

... since you object to every thing, you can be the kicker...

... you slobs who never do anything can sit on the sidelines... the grandstanders can sit in the grandstand... and the "I-told-you-so's" will be the Monday morning quarterbacks.

... but all youse guys remember this: IF YOU'RE GONNA BE ON MY TEAM, YOU GOTTA STUDY AND STAY ELIGIBLE IN THE COLLEGE OF JEWISH KNOWLEDGE!"

CORRESPONDENCE

The following is an open letter from the President of the Temple, to the President of the Temple Sisterhood.

Dear Ruth:

I am in receipt of the Sisterhood's very fine and generous donation of $1,000 to be used to help furnish our Religious School. On behalf of the Congregation, I want to thank the entire Sisterhood. Down the years, our Sisterhood has always understood both the problems and the dreams of our Temple. It has consistently labored for a better religious education for our children. From the Sisterhood we have drawn financial and moral support for this all important undertaking.

It must be a great source of pride to all of you, that our new Religious School wing will completely meet the needs of our children. Let it be a further source of pride that your donation will see to it that the beautiful rooms are beautifully equipped.

We have come to expect much from the Sisterhood, but, more important than the gift is the realization that all of us together are working for so noble a cause.

With deep gratitude, I remain

Sincerely yours,

I. Allen Paritz, President

B'NAI B'RITH

B'nai B'rith's monthly dinner meeting will be held in the Temple Vestry Room on Wednesday, Oct. 26 at 6:30 P.M.

COMMITTEE NOTES

As mentioned elsewhere, the ADULT EDUCATION COMMITTEE, chaired by Drs. Charles Schwartz and Lloyd Mayer, has been busily preparing for an educational series. THE WORSHIP COMMITTEE, under the chairmanship of Sol Levy and Elliott Marcus has had several meetings. This committee prepared the setting for the High Holy Day Services, and now is working on a Dedication Ceremony for our Religious School addition. We are happy to see the progress that Lloyd Mayer's BOY SCOUT COMMITTEE has made in reorganizing our Temple Troup. THE GOLDEN JUBILEE COMMITTEE with Maurice Hymson, at the helm, has been trying to get every member of the Congregation to contribute. The fine progress this committee has made is due to the donations of less than half of the Congregation. If the other half would join in, the result would be superb. David Bolotin's SOCIAL ACTION COMMITTEE has announced its opening meeting for Thursday, November 10, at David's home. This committee has already some exciting plans for the Congregation. Matt Barrett's RECEPTION COMMITTEE has already proven its worth in the fine way it handled the difficult situation of seating more people during the High Holy Days than this Temple has ever seen before. THE MEMBERSHIP COMMITTEE, with Louis Ades and Ben Goldfarb as chairmen, has continued its diligent work of bringing new members into our Temple Family.

All of this is just another way of saying that our Temple is active. It is more active than it has ever been. And somewhere in all of this activity, there is a place for YOU. If you want to belong to any of the Temple Committees, only a portion of which is mentioned in this issue, merely call the Temple Office. We'll take it from there.

FROM WHERE I SIT

by

Rabbi Maurice Davis

A vacancy occurred on the Temple Board. The President, Iz Paritz, was charged with the responsibility of selecting a replacement. According to the Constitution, he is permitted to use his own judgement in this matter, and may choose anyone he wishes.

But Iz did not want to choose someone arbitrarily. He wanted to listen to the wishes of the Congregation. He went to the files to look at last year's election returns. You see, he had decided to appoint the person who had received the next highest number of votes. He felt that in this way he would be listening to the voice of the Congregation.

But it didn't work. There had been a tie, and two people had received the next highest number of votes. They were Stanley Scher and Norman Wides.

What could Iz do? To choose one of them would be an arbitrary thing. To choose neither would be to ignore the voice of the Congregation. He had the right to do either, and the desire to do neither. What would you do?

Iz called each of the men, and told them the situation. He told them to flip a coin, and to inform him of the result. He did not even want to be present when it happened.

As I understand it, Norm called Stan on the phone. Stan had his secretary flip a coin. Norm said heads, and....it was heads.

Both men have thanked Iz for his impartiality. At the Brotherhood Meeting, they were last seen walking through the new Religious School building, arm in arm.

Congratulations to Norm Wides on his selection to the Board of the Temple.

Congratulations to Stan Scher for his good sportsmanship.

But most of all, congratulations to Iz Paritz, who was determined to listen to the voice of the Congregation. (DEMOCRACY TRIUMPHANT)

OVER HERE HOMER!

Homer's idea about our 'College Course' is not quite what we had in mind. The Adult Education Committee has planned a Survey Course on Judaism, dealing with both the history and the literature of our people. The first meeting for this study series will take place at the Temple, Monday, Oct. 31 at 7:30 P.M. The purpose of this opening meeting will be to discuss the aims of the course, and the dates on which it will meet. Aside from those who have already signed up, any member of the Congregation who would like to join, may do so by being present Monday, Oct. 31 in the Temple Vestry. The Adult Education Committee wishes to report that it had also planned to begin home study groups, and a Jewish Art and Cultrure series. However, the response for these two was inadequate, while the response for the College Course was enthusiastic. Under those circumstances, the Committee decided to begin with the College Course and temporarily to abandon the other two projects.

MANY THANKS

The Congregation accepts with gratitude the gift of floor covering for the new Max Berman Library-Conference Room. This gift was given by I.H. Stern, Charles Stern, I.H. Stern, Jr., and their families.

thanks also to Mr. & Mrs. J. Wolken and Mr. & Mrs. B. Koppel for their donation to the RABBI'S FUND.

thanks to Max Kowinow for his gift of ash trays, and to Ada Wikler for the delicious meal served to the Hillel group last Sunday.

CONDOLENCES

to the Abraham-Miller families upon the death of their sister-in-law Mrs. Louis Abraham of Louisville. Mrs. Abraham is well remembered in Lexington as she lived here severel years ago.

FROM WHERE I SIT

by

Rabbi Maurice Davis

(This column is addressed to those members of the Sisterhood who have requested that Uniongrams not be sent to them on the occasion of birthdays, anniversaries, etc. The rest of you can read it if you want)

Dear Non Union(gram) Members:

First of all, let me say that I know your request is not based on any dislike for the goals of the Uniongram. Some of you have contributed to the Uniongram Fund, along with your request that they not be sent. You did this so that the Fund would not suffer. Your request is probably based on two other matters.

First of all, you don't want to have your friends obligated to send you a message. You feel that they are somehow forced to send it.

Secondly, you feel that the Uniongram has become too impersonal, and has lost some of its meaning. Now let's take a look.

Neither you nor the Uniongram Chairman can force your friends to send you a message. It is our affection for you which obligates us. And you can't change that. If you deny us the right to send you a Uniongram, will we be any the less obligated? No. We shall just have to go down town and buy a commercial card. And I suppose that THAT is personal!

With the Uniongram, we have the right to compose our own message, or sign our name to a message that was written just for you, with only you in mind. Is that so impersonal?

Moreover, with that Uniongram, we have a chance to support all the worthy causes of Sisterhood and the Y E S Fund, in which you believe along with us.

Since you can't stop us from showing our affection, won't you please permit us to show it in the way of our own choosing? I understand how you feel. Won't you try to understand how we feel? I hope you will reconsider.

THE CONGREGATION POINTS WITH MUCH PRIDE TO:

The Board of Directors of the Temple, and Mrs. I.H. Stern, Jr., Director of Education for the Blue Grass Association for Mentally Retarded Children. This group found itself without available class room space in Lexington. Mrs. Stern put the problem before the Board who voted unanimously to provide the necessary class rooms, in the new building. On Oct., 24 the class for educably retarded children was started under the auspices of the Fayette County Schools. On Oct., 31 a class for trainable children was started with a teacher furnished by the City Department of Recreation and Parks. The parents of some 12-14 children are deeply grateful to Mrs. Stern and the Board of Directors of Adath Israel for the heart-warming gesture of interest, good will and co-operation.

A LETTER FROM THE PRESIDENT OF THE SISTERHOOD

Dear Friends:

The Rummage Sale is over and results went far, far beyond my expectations. This was due, of course, to the combined efforts, and hard work of many people. To every member of Sisterhood who sent rummage, to every person who served on the committee, to merchants and manufacturers of Lexington and surrounding towns who gave merchandise and loaned fixtures, to Mr. S.E. Drake who gave the room rent free, my sincere thanks. Additional thanks to Mrs. Sol Levy for her generous financial contribution to the sale. This was a big job, well planned well organized and well executed and one which will "swell" the Sisterhood's treasury. Who could ask for more?

Gratefully,
Ruth Barrett

Look, Homer! We're getting new neighbors. They look like they might be Jewish. Wonder how we can find out?

Why don't you go ask her if she plays Mah-Jongg?

or you could find out if he plays gin

you might go see if they have wall-to-wall carpeting. That's a good way to find out.

..or I could watch and see if they have a part-time or full-time maid.

or if they have Miami Beach stickers on their luggage.

FROM WHERE I SIT

by

Rabbi Maurice Davis

All the copybook maxims warn me about pride. Pride goeth before the fall, and all that sort of thing. Nonetheless, I confess to an overwhelming pride...in this Congregation.

As you know, the Kentucky-Tennessee Council of the Union of American Hebrew Congregations met last week-end in Louisville. We were allowed three delegates. We sent twenty-two!

But more important than the quantity, was the quality of our delegation. Herschel Weil, Charles Schwartz, Irving Kamer all spoke beautifully, sensitively, and courageously in their sessions. Iz Paritz was elected Secretary of the region, Maurice Hymson was appointed to the Regional Board as our representative and Herschel Weil was appointed to the Regional Board by virtue of his position on the National Executive Board of the Union.

On the new Regional Board, our Temple will be represented by three members. The Sisterhood Regional Board will have Joan Stern who was elected Treasurer.

Wherever I went that week-end, people stopped me to say how wonderful were the members of this Congregation, how they looked to us for leadership, how they read of the work we have done.

I know that we are only a small Congregation, but I know, also, of the impact we are beginning to make in the region, and in the nation.

If only we can continue to grow; not only in numbers, but in that deeper understanding of all for which our religion stands, and all for which our Congregation speaks.

I want 124 N. Ashland to be the headquarters of many things, and choicest among them is the inspiration given and received by men and women who dare to speak (and act) for Judaism.

I suppose it is wrong, but I just can't help feeling tremendously proud.....of you.

FROM WHERE I SIT

by

Rabbi Maurice Davis

DIED - October 24, 1955, in Kansas City, Mo., of a heart attack - Edward Jacobson. Occupation: Haberdasher.

What does that announcement mean to you? I'll tell you what it meant to me. I was once asked who was the most important Jew in the United States, and I answered "Eddie Jacobson".

I first met him a few years ago in Somerset, Ky. He had come to a wedding at which I officiated. When I told him of the statement I had made, he protested. He said, "I am only a simple haberdasher."

Perhaps it was the finger of destiny that tapped his partner on the shoulder. His partner's name was Harry Truman.

When that happened, Eddie Jacobson became the back door to the White House, and many of us believe that this had more to do with the establishment of the State of Israel than many other more publicized events. Mr. Jacobson denied this, but the State of Israel thought so, and so do I.

Mr. Truman has always been a man of strong friendship and strong enmities. His love for Eddie Jacobson was very powerful, and his attitude toward Israel and related subjects was flavored by his friendship.

Mr. Jacobson said to me, "I am only a simple haberdasher." But what might have happened if that partnership had ended in bitterness, in accusations, in re-creminations?

It is not given to every man to become the confident of Presidents. But Mr. Jacobson has shown us by his life precisely what we can do. We can, in our separate occupations, strive to represent to all the world, the highest dictates of our religion.

In the final analysis, the greatness of Mr. Jacobson rested upon....the goodness of Mrs. Jacobson. In this may his bereaved family and friends, find comfort.

THE CONGREGATION POINTS WITH PRIDE TO:

Mrs. A.J. Winters of Paris. In a recent issue of "The Paris Daily Enterprise", Mrs. Winters was honored as one of the oldest and best beloved citizens of Bourbon County; with one exception: She is the oldest Jewish Citizen. Straus of Lexington. In the five column interview, Mrs. Winters said her philosophy of living was practicing the "Golden Rule". It can truthfully be said of "Miss Fanny", a "Woman Of Valor Is Hard To Find; Her Price Is Far Beyond Rubies"to Barbara Levy, Linda Kanner and Michael Ades who were on the Henry Clay Honor Roll this month.Joe Miller who took the part of Tad Luncoln in the University School production of "Love Is Eternal". Two of the leads in this play were taken by Barbara Hymson and Bob Miller.

BROTHERHOOD

Attendance at the Brotherhood meetings is growing by leaps and bounds. Last week's meeting was featured by a delicious steak dinner followed by a most interesting and stimulating program. A social period followed which was enjoyed by everyone. Why not attend Brotherhood's next meeting? You will be glad you did and will come back for more.

SISTERHOOD'S ACHIEVEMENTS

Outstanding among the Sisterhood's many worthwhile committees is the Braille committee, headed by Mrs. Jay D. Weil. At present the committee is recording 5 books for Charles Pursinger and Rafene Randall, who are attending Georgetown College. Recently a request came from Louise Roger, a student at Transylvania for whom books were recorded last year, asking that additional work be done for her.

This committee has received local and state-wide commendation through Lexington papers and the Courier Journal. Three machines are needed to carry on this great humanitarian service.

It is not only an expensive but a very difficult undertaking. The books are very technical and much research is needed for pronunciation, etc. Among the books being recorded, are: "A Complete Course in Freshman English"; "Introduction To The Theatre"; "Survey of European Civilization" and Musical Acoustics" Those making these books are Mrs. Milton Baer, Mrs. S.I. Rose, Mrs. H. Bloomfield, and Mrs. Max Kavinow. Many members have volunteered and are anxious to have a part in this work, but there are not enough machines available, because of the rental cost, which is very high. Individual contributions to the Braille Fund have been $106.50, but this amount can in no way underwrite this activity. Please remember the Braille Fund, upon any occasion and send checks to Mrs. Jay D. Weil, 1824 Richmond Road.

INVITATION

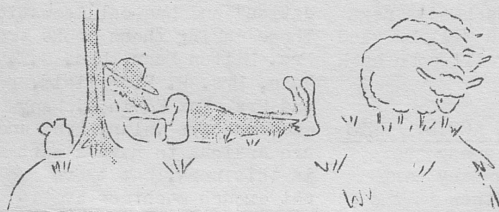

Rose Katherine Fred of Mt. Vernon & Marvin Jacobs of Miami Beach will be married Sunday, Nov. 27 at 2 P.M. in the Temple. The Congregation is invited to the ceremony and reception following in the Vestry.

Presenting Nudnik's "Story of Chanuko for Juvenile Delinquents"

The Adventures of HOMER WUNK

by Marvin N. Nudnik
Vol 2 No 6

While tending his flock, HIGH on a hill in ole Palestine, one of the McAbee brothers, Judah, namely, is interrupted by a messenger, . . .

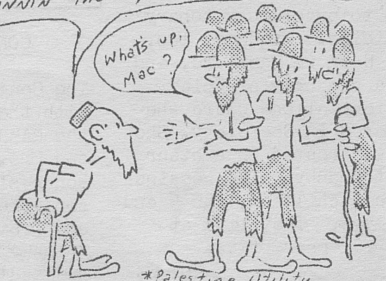

Judah, yore granpap Snazzy, macher of the Temple Board, wants all you McAbee brothers should come see him

I'll git all my 19-year-old brothers

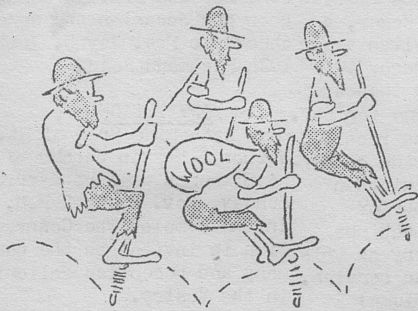

Boys, P.U.* is gonna cut off our juice in 8 days less'n we pay our bill. Iffen you'uns don't rake up the dough, we'll hafta go back to RUNNIN' the lights on castor oil!

What's up, Mac?

*Palestine Utility

... So the Brothers, once again united by a common enemy (Castor Oil) hop astride their cool pogo sticks and start their trek to town to sell some wool for the needed Do-Re-Mi.

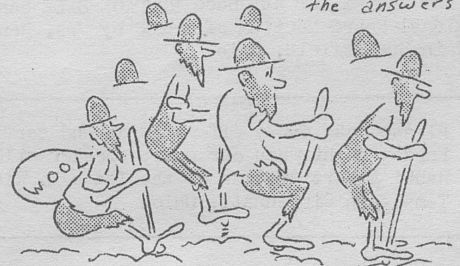

Meanwhile, however, officials of the Syrian Division of P.U. and the Dupont Castor Oil Co. meet and conspire to prevent our boys from selling the wool and/or returning with any loot... So they water a low place in the road where the McAbee's must pass...

.. and lo and behold, the McAbees are stuck!

Do the fearless McAbees give up?
Do they remain stuck-in-the-mud?
Or can they continue on their important journey?
Give Nudnik 2 weeks to think up the answers.

MEET AND WELCOME Dr. and Mrs. Arnold G. Pessin to the Temple family. Arnold was born in Hartford, Conn., and is a graduate of Texas A & M where he received his D.V.M. With his family he came to Lexington 2 months ago to practise veterinary medicine. Frances, too, was born in Hartford, and is a graduate of Colby Junior College where she majored in Sociology. FROM WHERE I SIT

by

Rabbi Maurice Davis

I'm going home. With those three words, I tell you all there is to say. Each year, near the last Thursday in November, my family and I migrate in a northeasterly direction.

I'm going home, to Providence, R.I., in order to pity those unfortunates who have to celebrate Thanksgiving outside of New England.

I'm going home to say "Happy Birthday" to my mother, whose natal day, by family fiat, now falls each year on Thanksgiving.

I'm going home to preach from the pulpit of Temple Beth-El, where so many of my memories, and so much of my heart still reside.

I'm going home to introduce my Number Two Son to the Providence Clan, and place him in that Thanksgiving seat of honor reserved for the youngest grandchild.

I'm going home to say "Hello" to my eight brothers and sisters, to my five neices and nephews, and to assorted relatives.

I'm going home to look at faces of friends who used to be, and wonder what the passage of time does to those eternal bonds of friendship schoolboys talk about.

I'm going home to talk about the Blue Grass, the beauties of Kentucky, the Lexington life which has become so much a part of me.

I'm going home to brag about this Congregation, the support it gives to its Rabbi, the progress made, and the progress anticipated.

I'm going home to laugh, and loaf; to eat New England food, to look at two dollar bills, to listen for that New England accent that seems to be slipping away from me.

But, when the week is ended, I'm coming home
.....to you.

The ADVENTURES of WOMER WUNK by Marvin N. Mudrik Vol. 2, No. 7

It has been 2 weeks since the gallant McAbee brothers were stuck in the mud. Since then, the mud dried and the boys were able to hop out and resume their perilous journey...

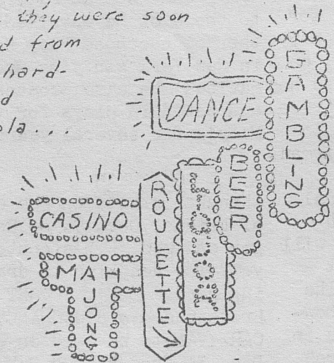

Through miles of desert they hopped until they reached an oasis, owned and operated by a cousin, Moisha Meccabee. There they were able to mooch a meal off Moisha...

The boys had minny, minny other hardships (besides Moisha's food), but they finally reached their destination of Eeny Meeny, a mining town of the Mo Valley, where they sold their precious burden to an old wool gatherer...

But Alor! It had been a long time since the McAbees had been to town. They were tempted by the bright lights of the Gaza Strip, where they were soon parted from their hard-earned Mazaala...

But Judah wasn't a McAbee for nothing. He was able to appear on the "Welcome Traveler" program where he won the 64,000 shekel question. Brother Sam, meanwhile, won a "Donkey for Life" with push-button drive!

* it cost money most of the time.

Then the boys bought a controlling interest in P.O. so they wouldn't have to pay their bill for the juice they owed and so that there would be light forever in Palestine. Then they rode Sam's donkey to the Brotherhood Carnival where they all won home-made cakes from Jean's. And there, if you are good boys and girls, you will find them still!

MORAL: There will always be juice in Palestine.

SISTERHOOD ACHIEVEMENTS

In 1947, the Sisterhood learned of the need for dressings to be made for indigent cancer patients thru' the Cancer Clinic at Good Sam Hospital. Mrs. Barney Miller and 3 Sisterhood members answered the call. Now 8 years later, 10 women meet on Tues. mornings in the basement of the nurses' home, working hard and diligently for this truly humanitarian cause. This committee is part of the Surgical Dressing Unit, My. Branch of the American Cancer Society. Dressings are supplied for indigent cancer patients in 57 counties in Ky. In 1953-54 10,500 dressings were made; 267 packages, containing from 30 to 120 dressings and gauze are measured, cut and folded and made ready for the mail by Mrs. E. Miller, Mrs. H. Aberson, Mrs. D. Ades, Mrs. M. Daer, Mrs. J. Frankel, Mrs. L.K. Frankel, Mrs. W. Michalove, Mrs. Jonas Weil, Mrs. F. Weil, and Mrs. A. Rabiner. The congregation may well be proud of these "Good Samaritans" and the wonderful service they are rendering. More workers are needed and anyone interested may call any of the above.

Chanukah is here! An ecstasy of ready-making, house cleaning, candle-lighting; with gaiety and glue and gift-giving. All these, because Chanukah is for children.

Chanukah is here! A series of house parties, a carnival in the Temple; with prizes and presents and crepe paper. These, too, because Chanukah is for children.

Chanukah is here! The stories of Judah Maccabee, of war, of heroes, of victory; because Chanukah is for children.

Chanukah is here! Our mid-winter laughter with stars and sparkle and shields, with elephants and holy oil, all blended together because Chanukah is for children.

Now, I have nothing against children. But it seems to me that Chanukah is also for us. As grown-ups, we may not be quite so excited about the tinsel and the toys, but Chanukah means more than that.

Chanukah means dedication, and this is where we come in. Now is the time to dedicate ourselves anew to our Temple. Now is the time to dedicate our Temple to God.

Not only the Temple on North Ashland, but that tiny one we carry in our hearts. This, too, has to be cleaned out, of all the dross and sludge which a year of daily living has gathered together.

Children observe Chanukah with decorations. Grown-ups CAN observe Chanukah with dedication.

And you know....it may be that this dedication may yet turn out to be the finest Chanukah gift we can ever bestow upon our children.

SISTERHOOD ACTIVITIES

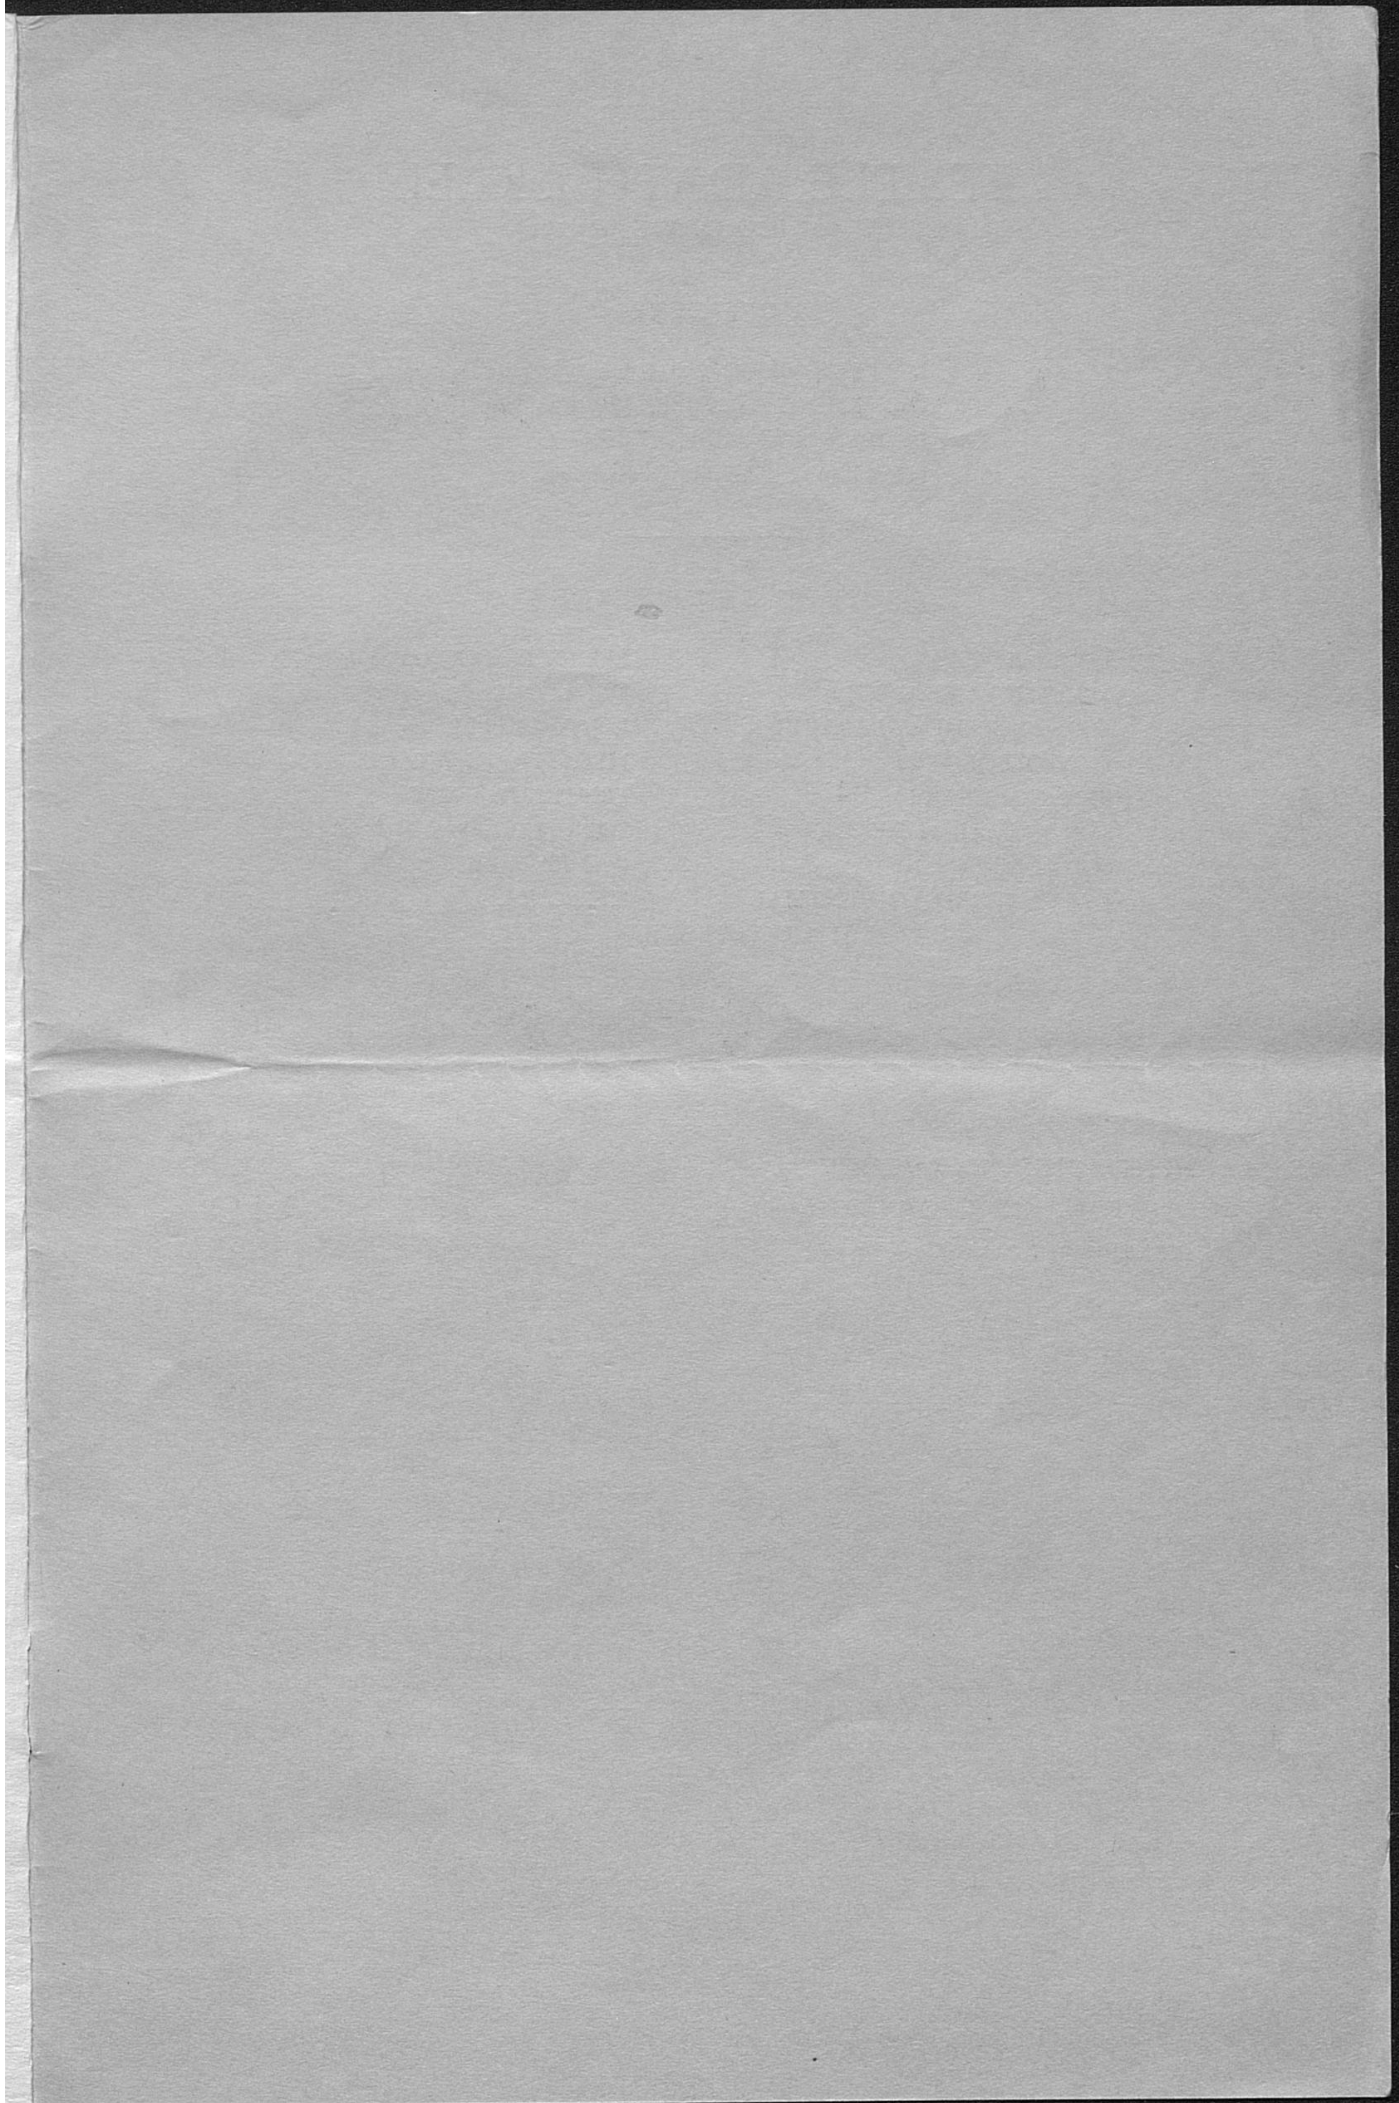

The most staisfying work done by any of the Sisterhood committees, is that done for the Crippled Children's Convalescent Home at Cardinal Hill. Bi-monthly, from Oct. thru June, this committee, under the chairmanship of Mrs. Eugene Straus, gives parties for a group of 35 children ranging from the very young to early teens. Sisterhood furnishes ice-cream, cake and candy for all and gift for those who have birthdays during the 2 months. Everything is done to make these parties as festive and gay as possible. Various types of entertainment is provided: Movies, singers, dancers and magicians. Bobo the Clown (Al Strauss) is a great favorite and has made many repeat performances. At the conclusion of these parties, children in cribs, beds and wheel chairs return reluctantly to their respective wards. This is a most heart warming experience for Mrs. Straus, and her committee: Mrs. I. Jay Arraham, Mrs. H. Baker, Mrs. J. Frankel, Mrs. M. Halleck, Mrs. J. Lederer, Mrs. M. Meyers, Mrs. W. Michalove and Mrs. Jay D. Weil.

How would you children like to enter the Chanuka Home Decoration contest? I'll be glad to buy the decorations and decorate the room with you. It would be lots of fun for all of us!

Oboy, yes! (Yay!)

We could hang crepe paper! All colors and Dreidels and Menorahs and Rabbits
and we could paint pictures!
and color things!
and put up lights!

SISTERHOOD ACHIEVEMENTS

Foremost among Sisterhood's committees, is the Interfaith Committee, headed by Mrs. I.H. Stern, Jr., and assisted by all members of the Sisterhood Board. This committee, for years has done much to promote understanding and fellowship among Jews and non Jews of our community. The annual Interfaith Tea has become an outstanding event to the educational leaders of the public school system. At these teas, beautifully set tables, depicting our religious holidays, and an enlightening talk by Rabbi Davis, has done much to encourage and foster a good relationship among all faiths. Delicious refreshments make these teas and social hour very pleasant.

William B. Bankhead said....

"Until the one-man nations of the world can produce greater military leaders and strategists than Joshua; or point within their own circle to men who have stood closer to God than Moses; until some Aryan is wiser than Solomon or a sweeter singer of lyrics than Davis; until they can produce a greater moral philosopher than Jesus let them beware of asserting that no good can come out of Palestine, that there is no heroism or genius among the fellow citizens of Isaiah, no heritage of character left to the decendants of the Maccabees"....

THE BRAILLE COMMITTEE

has achieved a great step in its ultimate goal for recording for the sightless. Through the generosity of Mr. and Mrs. Adolph Abraham, a new tape recorder and tape, have been given to the Sisterhood. A group of Ed Munich's friends, in honor of his 50th birthday, have contributed toward the purchasing of a sound-scriber. Many thanks to the Abrahams, and many happy returns to Ed!

COMING EVENT

Mr. Herschel Weil will address the Congregation next Friday night, Dec. 30. He will share with us some of the highlights of his recent trip to Israel. The entire community is invited to attend.

WE HAVE A CHRISTMAS TREE IN OUR TEMPLE

Now, that's a headline you won't often see. Nevertheless it is true. We do have a Christmas Tree in our Temple, and I am glad.

The other day I received a phone call from a lady who asked my permission in the matter. And I said that I could see nothing wrong in having a Christmas Tree placed in our Temple.

Now, before you get excited, read the rest of the column!

The lady who called, represented the Blue Grass Association for Mentally Retarded Children. We had given them two rooms in our Religious School wing for their trainable and educable children. These youngsters meet here five days a week.

They do not meet here on the Sabbath. They do not meet on Jewish Holidays. In every way, they respect our religion; and I respect theirs.

Well, the lady who called, mentioned that Christmas was on its way, and she wondered if we would object to a small Christmas tree being placed in their room. She said that it would be taken down each day. She said that it would not remain in the building over the week-end. She said that the halls would not be decorated. In fact she made more concessions than I would dream of asking.

My part of the conversation consisted mainly of assuring her that I had no objection.

It is not so strange that I, who want you to celebrate Jewish holidays, would also want my Christian neighbors to celebrate their holy days. Anyway, I thought you might like to know that we have a Christmas tree in the Temple.....And I'm glad we do.

RING OUT WILD BELLS!

In a few days it will all be over. The clock will tick its final tick; and bells will sound; and the voice of shouting and tumult will be heard in the land. Men will hold aloft their glasses, and scream in strained excitement, "Happy New Year!"

In a few days it will all be over. And so many things will suddenly be out-of-date. Last year's calendar will be out-of-date. We shall have to learn how to write 1956, after fifty-two weeks of writing 1955.

In a few days, WHAT will be all over? Will those resolutions we made last year be as out-of-date as the calendar on which we wrote them? Will we be so very different in a few days, than we are now?

My dreams haven't changed that much, that now I must re-write them for the coming year. They have not come so completely true, that I may now forget them; nor have they been proven false, that I might now discard them.

I still dream of a world that will live in peace. The number by which we shall count that year, when it comes to pass, is not so terribly important...so long as it comes to pass.

I dream of this Temple; that its families will grow together in love, and its members in mutual respect. I dream of this Temple; that its followers will be drawn together by what they love, and not by what they dislike. I dream of this Temple; that you who worship here shall plant and reap a surplus crop of love, of well-being, and of peace.

SISTERHOOD PERSONALITIES

Jayne Weil Bolotin, Sisterhood's 2nd Vice President was born in Lexington. We want to thank the Ohava Zion Synagogue for arranging their Friday night service, December 30 in such a way as to make it possible for their members also to attend our service. The Worship Committee is particularly pleased that in this way a larger number of people will be able to hear Herschel Weil's description of Israel.

We also wish to thank the Lexington Chapter of B'nai B'rith for co-sponsoring this service.

SISTERHOOD ACHIEVEMENTS

A comparatively new comer to the Sisterhood program is the committee who works at Kentucky Village (Greendale). This group has visited and toured the institution to manifest to the officials, the interest of the Sisterhood in the boys and girls who live there. The Sisterhood has contributed financially toward the purchase of a motion picture projector to be used for teaching. This follows along the modern theory that visual education is so effective. A party was also given, where gifts, refreshments and entertainment were provided and paid for by the Sisterhood. About 45 youngsters attended this party. Present plans are to distribute holiday gifts and entertainment, together with more activity during the coming year. Mrs. Irving Rosenstein is chairman and is assisted by Mrs. Wm. Michalove, Mrs. Louis Rosenberg, Mrs. Alfred Strauss, Mrs. Jos. Weltman and Mrs. Matthew Barrett.

NOTICE

Will all members of the Congregation who have taught in our Religious School for five years or more, please notify the Temple Office, and give the years in which they taught.
