

A & M. College of Kentucky, March 30-1906.

The faculty assembled in the president's office at 4 P.M. those present being Mrs. Patterson, professors, W. K. Patterson, Pryor, Anderson, Mathews, Miller, Pence, Wernicke, Brooks, Farg, Burt, M. White and Palmer.

The minutes of the last meeting were read and approved.

Prof. Milford White reported on behalf of the Bulletin of course having in charge the issuing of a Summer School school bulletin, reported that the committee had elected Prof. Davis editor of the bulletin, and that it would soon be issued.

On account of the absence of Prof. J. G. White it was deemed best to defer the discussion of the proposed changes in the Scientific course until he could be present, and the meeting therefore adjourned.

The faculty met in the president's room those present being President Patterson, Profs. J. G. White, J. H. Neville, W. K. Patterson, Pryor, Anderson, Mathews, Pence, Wernicke, Brooks, Markunzie, Nowood, Burt, M. White and Palmer.

The minutes of the last meeting were read and approved.

W. H. Durham reported for Discipline

Mr. W. H. Durham appeared before the faculty on the charge of disobedience of orders given by Prof. Wernicke, having previously appeared before the Board of Discipline, which Board had recommended to the Faculty that Mr. Durham be suspended until examination week.

Prof. Wernicke stated that he was greatly disturbed in his class work by loud noises in the chapel at the second hour.

Prof Wernicke went to the chapel, found the men who were causing the disturbance and who ceased at his request.

Upon his return to his room, the noises were resumed. He went to the chapel again and ordered everybody to leave the room.

W. H. Durham
reported for Discipline.

This order was complied with after some hesitation by all except Mr. Durham, who declined to leave or to give his name to Prof Wernicke. Prof Wernicke therefore remained by Mr. Durham until Pres. Patterson arrived and identified him (Durham). Prof Wernicke also stated that he ordered Mr. Durham to go to Pres. Patterson's ^{but he refused.} with him.

Mr. Durham stated to the faculty that he was in the chapel at the time referred to, because his class had been dismissed by Prof. Neville, and attendance at chapel was the college duty next in order. He had made no disturbance and declined to leave the room because he considered it his right and duty to be there. He admitted having refused to give his name to Prof. Wernicke.

A discussion relative to the penalty to be inflicted showed considerable diversity of opinion and resulted in several votes upon various propositions, a compromise being at length effected by a vote to suspend Mr. Durham until Apr. 15th. votes recorded as follows.
