

April 11th

The Faculty met as usual.
Mr. Davenport was before the Faculty on account of absence from classes and drill, and also for swearing. His case was referred to Drs. Lattinon. F. D. Norton, being unable to hear the bell for reveille on account of the location of his room, was required to change his quarters.

The general conduct of J. J. Deeth and H. Deeth was reduced 10 of each for visiting Lexington, at night, without permission. C. C. Gatham, having for sometime been absent from drill and some other duties, presented a certificate, from Dr. Sweeney, of his inability to discharge these duties. This was of course satisfactory to his instructor. John H. Radley was present to account for his long continued absence from all of his duties. His plea of sickness was not accepted, the Faculty having abundant reason for thinking that his sickness did not necessitate the neglect of duties. He was therefore required to withdraw from College. An honorable discharge was granted to Bailey, provided, he bring an excuse, satisfactory to his teachers, from his father, for absence from classes the past two weeks. Mr. Daniels was allowed to withdraw.

On motion the Faculty adjourned

Jas. G. White,
Sec. of Faculty.
