ABBAY OF GETHSEMANI TRAPPIST KENTUCKY 40073

Oct. 8, 1966

Dear Carolyn:

Many thanks for your note of the 3rd telling me of the exhibit of Stanbrook books there at the library. I would very much like to get to see it, but as matters stand I think it is impossible for me to plan on it. If I were going to see a Doctor in Lexington it might come under consideration: but I am still seeing the man in Louisville, and it would not be possible for me to get permission to go to Lexington just to see the exhibit. I really wish I could. I presume it is not going to Louisville...?? If it is, then perhaps I might catch it there.

Can you help me with the following books?

Any volume of verse by Laurie ~~Lee~~ Lee

B. Rajan- Paradise Lost and the 17th Century Reader London 1947

E.M.W Tillyard Studies in Milton London 1951

I don't know if these are badly needed for courses, but if they are there and are available I would much appreciate having them for a while.

Good, let's plan on some Saturday in November then. I think that October is now a bit crowded for me anyhow, and November would be better. So far all the Saturdays in Nov. are clear as far as I am concerned. If any hitch comes up I will let you know, but write me first which day you prefer when the time comes to prefer it.

All best wishes to you and Victor, and blessings,

Tom
