Typhoid Shots Available Free

With the river and the lake as popular as they are these days, it might not be a bad idea for students to drop around to the dispensary for a typhoid shot.

This service is free. Only one shot is required, and that might prove more than worth it some time this summer.

Alms, Please

An irritating question that's still being batted around the campus is "Where do we get checks cashed?"

Several suggestions have come in for a student bank, to be organized in part to give the Student Government Association something to do.

This plan has several obvious weak points. Somebody would have to take the job. Management would provide a big problem. The whole idea would be complicated, expensive, and perhaps out of reach.

Plenty of pros and cons could be brought up for the idea, but in the meantime, the question is still "Where do we get checks cashed?"

Surely some arrangement could be made to prevent cold checks at the Book Store, by requiring proper identification and by putting the clamps on offenders through the deans' offices.

Kentuckian Gets Congratulated

This year's Kentuckian staff deserves plenty of applause from everyone for the job they have done on the yearbook.

The amazing thing is that the book will go on distribution next week. For several years the Kentuckian has not been ready until mid-summer, and it has had to be mailed out, which was none too satisfactory.

Kernel staffers have gawked all year at the briskness and businesslike dispatch of their neighbors, and the efficiency of the Kentuckian people is now paying off the dividends for themselves, the students, and the business office.

This year's Kentuckian editor and staff have set a pace that will be hard to match in succeeding years, and they deserve warm congratulations.

Exams Are Ominously Near

It's usually the custom about this time of year to give warning that everyone should begin studying—or is the phrase "reviewing"—for examinations.

But there's really no point in bringing it up. All we can suggest is that you've got any new method for staying awake while cramming, pass it on to your friends and acquaintances. We could add such inspiring phrases as "Keep cool; this too shall pass even if you don't," and so forth, but what's the use?

Coronation Confusion

About the only thing that marred an otherwise typically successful May Day was the confusion at Stoll Field at the coronation.

A track meet had been set for the afternoon, and as usual, sports came first. Not only were the floats not presented on the field, but the judging allotment of the time for the coronation and the hurry surrounding it certainly detracted from May Day.

Strict No Smoking Penalties

The new Board of Trustees ruling that suspends any student for a semester from classes in the building where he was violating "No Smoking" regulations may seem somewhat severe at first glance.

But the students who were in inflammable old White Hall when it had a minor fire last week will probably take a second look at the Board's ruling and decide there's a point in it after all.

have Volumes III-IV and VI-VII by another.

And it is the same thing with us with any issues of The Idea called upon to about from time to time in order to get the class attention. If they can't hold it with an interesting lecture they resort to treachery.

I can see maybe how they'd feel with their classes nodding in a kind of stupor, but must they stoop to such methods?

You'd think they'd have a bit of humanitarian consideration for a kid who's trying to sleep.

Yawning yours,
J. F. and P. M.

Dear Editor:
Last week in your paper some letter-writer wrote a long message about the pretty new fence in front of the Administration Building's lawn.

How could he? Why, that fence is one of the brightest, shiniest, prettiest, and newest gadgets around the campus. It just lifts a man's spirit to see it in the dazzling sun.

Who cares about the remaining grass anyhow? If that writer wishes to see grass I suggest he take a look at the Agriculture Farm.

What's wrong with the fence? It's sure a pretty thing.

ZEEKE

Dear Miss Editor:
I would like forthwith to register a very vehement objection to a practice unfortunately prevalent on the campus.

Even if it only happened a couple of times, it would still be too prevalent for me.

It is nice at this precarious time to kind of ease into the day, what I mean is to avoid unnecessary shocks to the nervous system.

Well, this safe, sane, civilized method of approaching the horrible new day is denied up in all too many instances. It is denied us, and we are subjected to terrible shocks to the nervous system when some wide-awake professor starts pounding and beating on a table.

This pounding could not go on at a rhythmic rate, oh no, it has to be at irregular intervals so that just when we're recovering from one ear-blasting smash we are jarred

Dear Editor:
We notice in The Kernel the following: "No bound, complete file of these exists....." You may be glad to know that we have a complete file beginning with the first issue of "The Idea" in 1936 to the present. September 22, 1910; May 25, 1911; May 3, 1916.

We will appreciate your help in locating these three copies. Perhaps a notice in the Kernel to this effect might locate someone who has one or more of these copies. We have some duplicates if you need them to complete your files. I think it was in 1917, after I had collected two copies of each issue, that I gave one copy of each to the Kernel office.

While I was Registrar and since I have been in this office copies have been furnished by the Kernel. I want to express my appreciation for this service.

Frances White, University candidate for Queen of the Mountain Laurel Festival, poses informally for the photographer. The coronation of the queen is to take place Friday, May 27 at Pineville.

Pulchritudinous Intellect Seeks Mountain Laurel Queen Title

By Sarah I. Shaw

If any more evidence is needed to dispel the old saw about beauty and brains not mixing, an unbeatable exhibit A would be John Frances White, UK's candidate for Mountain Laurel Festival Queen. Frances, who will leave Wednesday for the Pineville festivities, has been chosen to compete with the top beauties from a dozen or so Kentucky colleges, and to balance this honor, she will be initiated Monday into Phi Beta Kappa.

Just to make the picture complete, she's also a member of Mortar Board, national women's leadership honorary. Frances was tapped for this organization for successfully handling such campus responsibilities as being vice president of the Student Union Board, vice president of Panhellenic Council, and president of Delta Delta Delta social sorority.

Folks familiar with the usual festival agenda say it's a good thing Frances is used to being on the go here on campus, because the heavy schedule at Pineville would daunt a less hardy soul.

Busy Days Ahead

To begin with, when Frances arrives on Thursday she'll register, then attend movies of past festivals. After this there's a formal dinner, followed by a square dance at which all the candidates will be presented in alphabetical order.

The next morning there's a parade, followed by a luncheon, followed by the coronation. That night things are still going strong with a dance honoring the new queen and her court.

Saturday is billed as a light, easy day of relaxation. The candidates take it easy until morning coffee time, when they and their escorts assemble again to honor the queen at a breakfast. The rest of the day came from her father. She says nobody calls her John except "friends, maons, or both," but she doesn't mind it. It's been responsible for innumerable mix-ups, she admits, "but it always provides a topic for small talk when all else fails."

Frances' dignified appearance belies a wry sense of humor that leads her to play clarinet solos at unusual moments for the amusement of her friends at the Tri Delta house. She says she has no hobbies, but claims a vast collection of bottles.

The daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John P. White of Cadiz, Frances was graduated from Tryck County High School in 1948. She came to the University after a year at Prebody in Nashville.

She's scheduled to graduate in industrial personnel in two weeks, and says she can't think of any way she would rather wind up her college career than representing UK at the Mountain Laurel Festival.

The annual Alumni banquet will be held Thursday, June 2, at 12:30 p.m. in the Student Union ballroom, with A. B. Chandler, '24, commissioner of baseball, as speaker. All alumni and former students are urged to attend, and reservations, at $2 per plate, may be made by phoning or writing the Alumni Office, Room 124, Student Union Building.

Typical American Boy Of 1939 Enrolled In Engineering College

By Bill Mansfield
Ever wonder what happens to the winners of the many nation wide contests that you're always hearing about?
Well, we've finally found a winner! Karl McCree, engineering senior at the University, was the winner of a Typical American Boy Contest in 1939.
In the ten years since winning the contest, Karl has changed his outlook on things quite a bit (maybe two and a half years in the Navy helped); but surprisingly enough, he still has the same ambition—to be an electrical engineer. Karl, who is a member of Tau Beta Pi and Eta Kappa Nu will fulfill this ambition in June when he graduates from the University and starts to work for General Electric.
Motherly pride was the main reason for Karl's being entered in the typical boy contest, for it was his mother who sent a snapshot of him to the sponsor of the contest. The judges liked his looks and sent him a questionnaire to find out such things as his hobbies, interest in school, and attendance of church. From the $5,000 entrants the judge selected six to spend a week in New York. At the end of the week Karl was chosen by a panel of judges, which included Dale Carnegie, as the most typical American boy in the group.
The Joe Love Company, makers of popicles, were so impressed with Karl that they offered him $500 for the use of his picture on their product. This added to the $1,000 he received for winning the contest, gave Karl the tidy sum of $1,500.
What time Karl has left after his studies is spent in WBKY, the University frequency modulation station where he works as transmitter engineer. "Working up at the studios" is what our typical boy says he enjoys most at the University.
Incidentally, Karl has no suggestions to offer about winning one of the super jackpots of today. If he did he'd probably be using them himself.

Student To Visit Hawaiian Islands

Georgia Pruden, education senior, has been selected as one of three Kentuckians who will go to Hawaii this summer under the sponsorship of the Kentucky Baptist Student Unions.
Students selected will work as assistants to regular missionaries in Vacation Bible schools, youth revivals, and summer camps in the Islands. Miss Pruden expects to do most of her work in Vacation Bible schools because of her training in elementary education. She will remain to accept a position as a teacher in the fall.
The UK crew will leave Los Angeles June 10 by plane, arriving in Honolulu the next morning. She will spend one week at an orientation session at Camp Kokohala before joining a team which will tour the Islands.
1949's in each state in the Southern Baptist Convention have sent students to Hawaii as summer missionaries for the past three years. This is the first time a UK student has been sent to the Islands to work. Miss Pruden is a member of Kappa Delta Pi, education honorary, and has served on the Baptist Student Union for three years.

Bacteriologists Attend Cincinnati Meeting

Members of the staff, graduate students, and 30 undergraduates of the department of bacteriology are attending the national meeting of the Society of American Bacteriologists in Cincinnati this week.
Several of the staff and graduate students presented papers before the Society.
Most classes in the bacteriology department have been dismissed this week.
Jan Cook, an avid St. Louis University fan, says there is really little difference in that school's basketball team and the one that represents the University of Kentucky, an institution located in Lexington, Ky. He concedes, however, that the UK team is faster, cleverer, and are better shots.

Cats Maul Vols Twice In Stoll Field Finale

The Kentucky Wildcats, leaders in the Eastern Division of the Southeastern Conference baseball race, added two more notches to their free-swinging bats, downing Tennessee, 5-1 and 8-3, Friday and Saturday on Stoll Field.

The twin-killing raised the Wildcat record to 11 victories against two defeats in over-all competition, and their conference record to 10-2.

Ford Homers
Pitcher Roy Ford won his own game Friday, with a ninth-inning home run that broke a 4-4 tie. Ford went the route in winning his third SEC game against no defeat. Struck out in his first two times at bat, Ford tripled to center, in the sixth inning, but was out because he failed to touch first base. Tennessee forced ahead 2-0 in the first inning and led 3-0 when Kentucky finally broke into the scoring column with one run in the third.

It was first baseman Dale Powell's consecutive homers in the first and fourth innings that gave the Vols all of their early runs.

The Cats added three runs in the fifth to lead 4-3, but the Vols tied it up in the sixth.

The score remained tied until Ford's last-inning four-bagger. The Cats outrean the Vols, 11-5. Hirsch, Hamilton, Ramsey and Ford setting two hits each.

Powell's two hits, both home runs, paced the Tennessee efforts.

Cats Win Second
In the Saturday fray, the Cats turned on their hitting prowess for an 8-3 victory over the undermanned, but game Vols. Among Kentucky's 12 hits were four-masters by Dick Ramsey and Walt Hirsch.

The visitors got to starter Ray Mignerey for three runs in the second, but the masterful right-hander handuffed them the remaining seven innings on just two hits, one a fluke single to rightfield that took a crazy hop over Hirsch's head. It was Mignerey's fourth conference win without a loss.

The Cats hopped on Tennessee's Irv Pierce for five runs in the third.

THE BRECK HALL softball team, undefeated in its first three games this season and favorites to win the Intramural championship Monday, is shown above. In the bottom row, left to right, Zoellers, Eickenback, the team's mascot, Dutch, Fenton, Maloney and Reed. In the back row, Hanna, Lawson, Milman, Kaufman and Hill. Olympians To Meet Wreckers, Western All-Stars Next Week

The Kentucky Olympians will make what will probably be the last appearance for the "Fabulous Four-some" in Lexington when they play a two-game exhibition set at the Trotting Track.

Tuesday the Olympians play the Wreckers, the Lexington Independent champions, in a game scheduled to start at 7:30 p.m.

Then on Wednesday the Olympians meet the Western All-Stars of Coach Eddie Diddle in a contest which promises to be a thriller all of the way. Only this Wednesday it was announced that the All-Stars had added Jack Kerris, the great center from Loyola of Chicago.

In addition to Kerris, Diddle's team will feature Odie Speers and Dee Gibson, two members from the 1947-48 Western Hilltopper crew; Johnny Oldham and Charley Parsley from the 1948-49 Western team; and Jack Coleman from the University of Louisville among the others.

Except for Kerris and Coleman, the team will be practically the same club which the Olympians defeated twice earlier by the same identical score of 80-65.

Sponsored By Kiwanis
All Kentucky fans of course remember Kerris from Loyola. He was the sparkplug of the Chicago team which stopped the Kentucky Wildcats in the first game of the NIT tournament 67-56 in one of the greatest upsets of the year. Kerris, playing the pivot, tallied some 23 points for the Loyola club in that game.

Both of the games are sponsored by the Lexington Kiwanis Club which will use the proceeds of the games toward its youth program.

Olympian Caper Duets
Tickets for the two Olympians' games next week are now on sale. Prices for the duets, which was set by the sponsoring Kiwanis Club, range from $3 for box seats to $2 for general admission. Reserved seats are priced at $2.

Box seats, which were practically all gone on Wednesday, are on sale at Letts, Inc., 101 East High Street (Phone 102).

Reserved seats and general admission tickets are available at Williams Drug Store, Main and Lime, and Graves, Cox & Co., on West Main Street.

Proceeds of the games will be used for the Kiwanis Home For Boys fund.

The winner of the LXA-SN game yesterday will meet at 4 p. m., the survivor of the Breck Hall vs. Scott Street Barracks tilt, which was also played yesterday after the deadline for Kernal copy.

In the other bracket, Kinkaid Hall will take on the winner of the SFE-Golden Eagles fray 5 p. m. today.

Pitchers Have Hot Week
During the past several days of play, the IM pitchers have really come into their own. Two no-hit-ers were turned in this week.

Breck Bombers won 10-1 last Tuesday.
At Pracko, of the Scott Barracks, turned in one of them against the Kappa Sigis, as his team won 3-0, to advance into the quarterfinals.

Dorms Have Strong Teams
Ray Zimmerman, Kinkaid Hall's swift southpaw, hurled the second no-hit contest on Tuesday against the Triangles. In this game, Out-Holder Dean Hahn elected a homer in the final inning to win for Kinkaid Hall 1-0, and the only hit of the game. Nell Jetted despite his one-hitter, was the losing moundsmen for the Triangles.

Gene McMurray, of the Sig Eps, did all right for himself as he bludgeoned the Phi Delta, 5-0, allowed the losers only one safety for the five-inning contest.

Fred Lawson, of the Breck Hall aggregation, continued his fine pitching and allowed the Pi Kaps just three hits and one run as the

Two of the top softball pitchers in the IM softball competition this season have been RAY ZIMMERMAN, of Kinkaid Hall, above left, and FRED LAWSON, of the Breck Hall team. Zimmerman hurled a no-hitter Tuesday against the Triangles, winning 1-0, and came back the next day to beat the SAEs, 5-1, allowing them four scattered hits. The speedy left-hander is leading in strike outs for this season. Lawson, the right-hander for Breck, has allowed only two earned runs in beating Delta Chi, Tau Kaps, and the Pi Kaps this spring.

Students To Present Graduation Recitals

Two graduation recitals were presented by student members of the University music department in Memorial Hall next Tuesday and Wednesday at 8 p. m.

Tuesday night's concert featured Roberta Spicer, contralto, and Jo Ann Talley, soprano, with Rayma Dean Purdon and Mary Carolyn Carver, accompanists.

Dis Kintucky Sports Review

— By Tom Diskin, Sports Editor —

Regardless of the outcome of the Kentucky Wildcat baseball game this week with the Georgia Bulldogs and the Tennessee Volunteers, this season has been a good one for the Big Blue. Their record is the best compiled by a Kentucky baseball team in many years.

The squad's batting average is a healthy .296. Going into this recent series, Dom Pucci was leading the team in individual batting with a mighty .482 average with 14 hits for 29 attempts.

Alan Hamilton is next with .377, while Dick Ramsey and Ben Zarran had .368. Walt Hirsch was carrying a .350 mark, while John Stough had a .320 mark and Jay Cummins completed the select group with an even .300.

In home runs, Hirsch and Ramsey held the tops with four each, while Pucci punted out three. For the all-important RBI (runs batted in), it was a five-man race, among Ramsey (16); Hamilton (13); Hirsch and Pucci (14 each); and Stough (10).

Ramsey is leading in triples (with five) and doubles (three) and tied with Hirsch for the highest number of hits (21).

In stealing bases, Hirsch (12) and Stough (11) are top for the club.

The Olympians game Wednesday night with the Western Kentucky All-Stars on the Lexington Trotting Track should be a terrific game. We were fortunate enough to see the first meeting of these two teams last April in Louisville's Armory and without a doubt, it was one of the best we have ever seen, despite the rather large difference in the final score (40-45, Olympians on top).

Very probably, it will be Alex Groza versus Jack Kerris; Ralph Beard versus Doc Gibson; and Wah Jones versus Jack Coleman, which should be worth the price of admission alone.

In the other two meetings, the weakest spot for the Western team was the pivot spot. None of their men, which included Towery, Spears, and McKinney, were able to hold down the high-scoring Groza.

But this time it might be a little different with Kerris. Big Alex is probably anxious to battle the ex-Loyola star again. We don't think Groza will be outscored by Kerris this time.

Before leaving this topic, we would like to clear up a few misunderstandings that students might have acquired by reading Larry Shropshire's column Down in Front this past week, in the Lexington Leader.

First of all, Mr. Shropshire was

The Cat cinder track will end the season this weekend in the annual SEC meet at Birmingham.

Trackmen Defeat Louisville, 67-54 On Stoll Field

Kentucky's Wildcats ended their dual competition for the 1949 season last Saturday by whipping the University of Louisville 67-54 on Stoll Field. The Cats' record for the year is three wins against only one defeat — at the hands of Tennessee.

However, Kentucky was rather hard pressed in gaining their third win. They had to depend upon the field events as the Cardinals from Louisville won the track events 40 to 27.

The Wildcats' strength in the track events came almost entirely from the dashes and the hurdle events. Johnny Meihaus captured both the century dash and the 220. Then the Cats made grand slams in the hurdle runs with Tony Dallas, Guy Weeks, and Dale Barnstable finishing 1-2-3 in the high and Weeks edging out Dallas with Barnstable again third in the low.

Dallas Leads With 18 Captain Dallas also captured firsts in the high jump and the broad jump to lead the Cats with 18 points. Meihaus garnered 13 points with his two firsts in the dashes

Seven Entered By University In SEC Meet

Coach Don Seaton took seven Kentucky Wildcats to the annual Southeastern Conference track meet to be held at Birmingham Friday and Saturday. He took Track Captain Tony Dallas, Guy Weeks, John Meihaus, George Kirchner, Al Bruno, Dick Griffith, and Frank Smotherman.

The men left UK Thursday morning to compete in the meet, while Coach Seaton left for an SEC meeting at Birmingham.

Dallas and Weeks will compete in the hurdle events while Dallas probably will also enter the broad jump and high jump. Johnny Meihaus will be entered in the dashes and also in the broad jump. George Kirchner is expected to be entered in either the 440 or 880-yard run. Al Bruno will enter the javelin throw. Dick Griffith will run in the mile and two mile runs while Smotherman will compete in the discus throw and shot put.

The SEC meet will close Kentucky track competition for the season. The Cats won three dual meets and dropped but one to Tennessee.

Louisiana State University is expected to once again be the power in the SEC meet. The boys from the Bayou country have been the perennial power during the past 15 years.

Polittle To Head Engineers Group James Polittle was elected president of the American Society of Civil Engineers Tuesday.

Other officers elected are Ross Habelte, vice president and Barbara Beam, secretary-treasurer.

Coach Don Cash Seaton will take seven men to the SEC meet at Birmingham this weekend to close the Kentucky track season.

Four matches have been rained out, including both matches on a southern road trip to Georgia Tech and Tennessee. Both scheduled matches with the University of Cincinnati have been determined a draw on account of the rain.

Friday afternoon, the 13th, proved unlucky for the Xavier tennis squad as the UK netters copied their second victory over that same group of Musketeers by a score of 5-1. UK's number one man, Rayle, had
