A Better Feeling From Giving

Campus "Brau Brummels" and those men who dress exclusively from the pages of Esquire...

Dean Jones has requested men students to bring their superfluous clothing to his office...

This is not funny. There are students on the campus who NEED clothes. They have fared all right so far, but winter is coming...

Out of the fifteen hundred men students on the campus there should be enough surplus clothing suits that are seldom worn...

We Want To Show "Southern Hospitality"

Tomorrow will be a great day at the University. From early morning on through the day...

You will see them walking on the campus, men of the class of '16, '23, '31, their collegiate smile a little tarnished by the bearding of the years...

Later in the afternoon they will stand and cheer with some 3,000 students for every Wildcat star to shine against the Crimson Tide of Alabama...

For undergraduates, here is a premiere of the future. Dare we scorn these men and women because they represent the old guard?

One Case For Syphilis Control

"Uno avulso, non deficit alter." "Usque adeo mori miserum est" A beautiful little mountain girl, 14 years old, spends her days drearily reciting Virgil hour after hour...

This brilliant girl, reared in the mountainous region of Eastern Kentucky, has been in the institution only a short time. Being of better than average intelligence, she attempted to push through high school in three rather than the usual four years.

Then, suddenly, the mind that had rated highest praises, snapped. Overwork was blamed for the illness until the real cause was discovered. She was found to be the innocent victim of syphilis: had contracted the disease after drinking from a public fountain frequented by a carrier.

Although it is now declared by the United States Public Health Service that comparatively few cases of venereal diseases are contracted through the media of common carriers, the chance is not worth taking. This paper does not intend to publish "scares" stories. An attitude of fear would avail nothing.

Behind The Eekdahl

By ANDREW C. ECKDAHL

Just what manner of school is this University of Tennessee? In their student newspaper, The Orange and White, we find the following headline: HOMECOMING PLANS FORTH: LSU BRINGING BAND; RALLY PLANNED; LECTURES FEATURED

Everything was going along fine and we were pretty much at peace with the world and the editor when in comes deonair, Sigma Nu James Howell wanting to know what would happen if a colorblind person happened to sit in the Suky card section at the game Saturday.

That started us worrying again. We can't figure how a colorblind person would work those colored cards. Now it may be easy for you to say they wouldn't be able to tell the color of the cards and let it go at that.

It has always been a source of interest to us to know how people go about clearing out buildings when the time comes for them to close. In the library a clap comes around and taps you on the shoulder, but in the new Union building no such plebiana procedure takes place.

Along with the identification tag that is a fraternity, supposedly come, for lack of a better name, "social advances." These are decidedly overstated, but do, nevertheless, exist.

No, you dumb alumnus, that's no vision. It's the Student Union building. We read with interest a recent news item in which some bishop said that swing was leading American youth straight to hell.

Fairly obvious is the fact that every column must go out of existence at some time or other. We have reached the stage where we must either quit writing a column or buy a new typewriter ribbon.

Stamp Out Syphilis!

CAMPUSCENE

By JIM CALDWELL

LAST WEEK there appeared in Clearing House a letter from a student wanting to know why he should join a fraternity. He was answered rather effectively by another student in Tuesday's issue, and so the incident may be regarded as closed.

Shy Freshmen, especially, are encouraged to meet and date fraternity-approved co-eds. Outside of giving "the brothers" a general good opinion, the chief reason for this is to introduce people to him, he must choose his own friends.

Other cases of boys joining lodges when there is no other alternative are the well-known "hot-boxes" or similar escape-proof situations. In some cases these situations turn out to be pressure brought to bear by good friends or "sadies."

X-Ray Machine Requires House Lined With Lead

By DIDI CASTLE

So powerful are the rays generated by the new 200,000 volt x-ray machine recently purchased for use by the department of mining and metallurgy that it has been deemed necessary to construct a separate lead-lined building in which to house the apparatus.

Blue Band To Show For Crimson Tide In Game Tomorrow

To continue Kentucky-Alabama competition, the "Best Band in Dixie" and Alabama's "Million Dollar Band" will parade...

Following the Alabama band's repertoire, the Big Blue band will first make its customary greeting to the north stand and march into "South" as the initial formation.

For the Kentucky stands, a huge wildcat, forty yards long and 30 yards high, is the fourth formation and the best band's featured trick.

Kentucky Educators

The secondary section of the Kentucky association will meet at the same time as the college section, in the auditorium of the College of Education, with P. E. Barber, principal of Garth high school, Georgetown, and chairman of the association, presiding.

Sectional meetings will be held Friday afternoon and Saturday morning, and Friday will include conferences on art education, attendance officers' problems, elementary school principals and supervisors, city and county administrative problems and philosophical education.

President McVey will preside at a dinner-meeting Friday night, and the Rev. George O'Bryan, chaplain of St. Joseph's hospital, Lexington will give the invocation.

Saturday morning the executive committee of the association will meet for breakfast in the Colonial room of the Lafayette hotel.

A general session of the Kentucky association will follow at 9:30 a. m. in Memorial hall, with the Rev. Garrett presiding. Speaker at the general session Saturday will be Dr. W. S. Taylor, dean of the College of Education, who will discuss "Educational Situation in Europe."

At noon Saturday the new executive committee of the association will meet for luncheon in the Green room of the Lafayette hotel. Sectional meetings also will be held Saturday morning on business education, elementary education, physical education, school library problems, music education, and the work of the registrar.

The Kentucky Association of Physics Teachers will hold its annual meeting Saturday morning at the Kentucky Academy of Social Sciences, the Kentucky Association of Supervisors of Student Teaching, and the Social Education Association, which will hold a general session Friday and Saturday.

Home W. Nichols of Frankfort, director of the division of special education of the State Department of Education, will preside at the opening meeting of the Social Education Association at 10 o'clock Friday morning in the auditorium of the Education building. The afternoon sectional meetings of the group will be held to discuss the physically handicapped nursery education, adult education, home economics education, and agricultural education.

Lexington Forum Hears G. B. Oxnham

Dean W. S. Taylor Introduces Dr. J. Fara Van Meter, Group President

Speaking before approximately 600 members of the Lexington Public Forum Monday night, on the subject of "Culture and the Preservation of Democracy," Bishop G. Bromley Oxnham, a prelate of the Methodist Episcopal church, said that the surest way to attack the dictatorship is to demonstrate within our own nation that we can keep our own freedom and still gain economic justice.

Bishop Oxnham was introduced by Dean W. S. Taylor, Dr. J. Fara Van Meter, president of the forum association, presided and announced that the next speaker would be Dr. Emil Lengay, noted foreign correspondent and political observer, who will talk Monday night, November 7, at the Henry Clay High School in the second of the series of six lectures.

Hamilton To Discuss Syphilis Problems

Prof. Brooks Hamilton of the hygiene department will speak on the problems of syphilis at a meeting in the American Student Union Monday night, Oct. 21, in Room 205 of the Union building.

This is the first of a series of lectures on matters of student interest sponsored by the ASU during the school year. The organization will hear lectures on student health problems, general educational problems, peace, and foreign policy.

Prof. Olney Speaks At Frosh Assembly

Prof. A. J. Olney, head of the department of horticulture of the College of Agriculture was the speaker at an assembly of agriculture freshmen Thursday morning, October 20 in Memorial Hall.

Prof. Olney explained the work of the department of horticulture and pointed out the opportunities in the fields of landscape gardening, floriculture and fruit production.

WILLIAMS IS SPEAKER

Director J. D. Williams of the University high school was the principal speaker at the fall conference of the Seventh district, Kentucky Parent-Teacher Congress yesterday at Garth high school at Georgetown.

At 9:30 o'clock Saturday morning the association will reconvene in the gymnasium of the Education building for a general session. The home economics and agricultural education sections will also hold group meetings Saturday morning.

The Educational Conferences and the Kentucky Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools meeting will both adjourn Saturday morning.

The National Youth Administration will have headquarters in the College of Education building during the two days, and NYA representatives will be present to talk to superintendents and principals about any problem which has arisen in connection with the NYA student-aid program.

During the conference the Kentucky chapter of the American Association of Teachers of French will meet for luncheon at 12:30 Friday morning in the Student Union building; the Kentucky Speech Arts group will meet at 9 o'clock Saturday morning in Room 111, McVey hall, and the Eastern division of the National Council of Teachers of English will meet at 10 o'clock Saturday morning in Room 211, McVey hall.

Entire Kernel Staff To Meet For Tests

All members of the Kernel staff are to meet in room 53 of McVey hall at 3 p. m. Monday, October 31.

Those members of the staff who are unable to attend the meeting are to notify the editor, according to an announcement made yesterday. Approximately 25 students are expected to represent the Kernel in officially opening the Anti-Syphilis campaign.

Other organizations taking the tests on the same day are Omicron Delta Kappa, the Men's Student Council, the Association of Women Students, Mortar Board, and the Kentuckian staff.

FOOTBALLER CRACKS LEG

Grant Lewis, 18, resident of the Kappa Alpha fraternity house, was attending his classes at the University of Kentucky on crutches today because of a broken right leg he received in a tough football game.

Lewis said he received the injury during a physical-education-class game Wednesday morning on Stoll field. He tripped when he came in contact with another player, he reported. The leg was set at the University dispensary.

CUBAN IMPORTS

Cuban imports of American cigarettes totaled 27,366,420 units during the first six months of 1938, a drop of one per cent as against the corresponding period of 1937, but a 22 per cent advance over the first six months of 1936.

Calling 'Em Wild

By JOE CREASON

PARAPHRASING Snow White: "Over the seven jeweled hills, beyond the seventh fall, in a cottage hewn by Alabama's Capstone, dwells Frank Thomas, luckiest coach of all."

It's not because Thomas, who will tomorrow pour his Alabama Crimson Tide onto Stoll field, carries a rabbit's foot or avoids black cats that he is considered lucky, his good fortune comes from the calibre of grid timber handed him with which to construct his teams. Year in and year out Thomas, as maestro of the Tide, gets clete-wearing material that would awe any coach fall on his knees and praise Allah; but he, like an expert chef, knows exactly what to do with his ingredients to obtain the best.

And a lot may happen tomorrow through the air. In the Tennessee game the Tide showed a marked weakness for aerials and this may prove to be the vulnerable spot for Kentucky.

No team can click all the time even a customer misses a click at times, so some day the Alabama voodoo will be ended. And remember my checks, don't overlook the chances of any team in this crazy game called football. Upsets do happen, for example—Davis and Goliath.

P-S—Don't forget the pep rally tonight. Enthusiasm is the key which preceded the Vanderbilt game really helps.

From The Record Book Looking over Alabama teams of the past, attention is drawn to the edition of 1936, the bunch that maulled our Bow-bound Cats by 4-0. You surely recall the team of that year, they nailed up a terrific record, only eight wins and one scoreless tie with Tennessee. The most potent factors in the defense attack that year were three gaudily-clad water boys and a snake-huffing halfback entitled the Riley, who after a first secondary knock-kneed chastity.

After a scoreless first half, the Tide won by 14-0 but only after seeing their scoring drives repelled six times with the ball planted within the 10-yard line.

Last season's result is one to be forgotten: Alabama 41, Kentucky 6. The game was played in Tusculoo under Turkish bath climatic conditions with the thermometer registering 90 degrees of heat. When the time was ripe to nominate the last season Alabama, despite two close decisions, was unopposed and was given the nod. There they found that Roses also has horns and were sadly beaten by California. Western defender of the picturesque Pasadena Bowl.

Already this year Alabama has hopes for another perfect year and another shot at the gold and glory of the Rose Bowl line with Tennessee, who upset the Tide by 13-0 two weeks ago. The defeat does not detract from the strength of the team, considered by experts to be one of the Alabama grid annals. Reports sent in so far concerning their strength contain so many pluses that they read like a racing form. It is rumored that the "Bama" are leading the Great Wall of China look like a beaver board partition, with 200 pounds the rule and 400 the exception. But three members of last season's eleven were missing this fall when the motor walk was shaken out of the uniforms—Leroy Pooksky, Jim Rubin, and Ken Grogan. The main stumbling block in the forward wall are Captain Lee Bostick, Walter McNeill, and Fred Warren. Person Shoemaker, and Fred Dack. Possibly the strongest point is the ends where Shoemaker and Warren stand guard. The ground game, however, is handled by a corps of letter luggers, including Mosley, Heim, Zivich, Bradford, and Boswell.

In This Corner Meanwhile in the Kentucky corner for the fight, odds on the Cats' chances of winning the game have risen like the curve on a pneumonia fever chart. The only persons not dependent over the W. K. are chances are Kirwan and the team, who go ahead with their prep for the game without any show of the jitters. Obviously basting optimism on the behalf that a team plays better ball against good than the Blues are working hard to develop some wrench to counter the well-oiled Alabama attack. And don't sell their chances too short. Not that even the most optimistic look for an upset, but the Cats are due for a good game. After two dismal defeats, following a grand performance against one of the South's finest teams in which they demonstrated their true ability, what if they should bounce up and claw the Tide like Vanderbilt knows they can? Tennessee went into the Alabama ill-favored by at least 20 points but rose up to outstep the Crimson and won the game. For Cats team favored by as many points as Alabama will be Saturday to get behind is disastrous. If Kentucky can fight off their every charge and by some miraculous source push over a touchdown, the game may not be into the net, everyone on the team seems to expect.

Pass The towel If ever a coach deserved to be handed the towel and allowed to take down his hair and have a good wash it is Kirwan. The grid gods that are supposed to look over football coaches have evidently favored Kentucky's new dynasty and nothing but bad breaks have fallen for the Cats this year. But in the face of this ill fortune Kirwan refuses to give in another premonitory unknown, trait for a Kentucky coach.

As a whole the rapidly-improving squad is in top condition with the exception of John Elbert, who received a badly strained neck in the Xavier game. "Hoo!" Combs, who has been doing his playing on the side lines due to a bad cold for the past two games, is ready to share the left half responsibility with Dave Zoeller. The passing offense that clicked so well in the Andy scrimmage has been replaced by an overhauling this week in practice.

CAT-BAMA

Line Leaky In an effort to better the sagging front wall, Line Coach Bernie Shively this week moved Larry Speas, 200 pound sophomore end, back to the tackle he occupied at the outset of the year. The starters at the tackle, now, that Elbert is out of the picture, probably will be Reid and Brown. Ed Ghoslin, 185 pound center, end, has been seeing plenty of action at the flank in sessions and will probably see plenty of action tomorrow but McCubbin and Hardin are expected to cop on the nose. The guards will be Tom Spickard, who turned in a fine game against Xavier, and Emmett Wilkourby or Bob Palmer. As usual Captain Sherman Hinkeben will add his vocal inspirations to the Cats play from the center post. Partially recovered from a severe ankle sprain, "Hoo" Combs is expected to share the left halfback load with Dave Zoeller, with Chester Mason holding down the right half. Shepherd, the iron man who has played 75 minutes of the last three games, and either Elbert or Gurnes will round out the starting eleven. Damonson Davidson, the Conference's second leading point guard, is still hampered by bruises sustained by Washington and Lee but is expected to see action.

The game is due for a 2 p. m. kickoff at Stoll field. The game will be the 10th of the Student Activity book.

Boxing, Wrestling 'Murals' Entrants Must Take Classes

Starting at 4:30 p. m. Monday afternoon compulsory tutoring classes for all entrants in Intramural boxing and wrestling will be held five times per week at the Gym Annex, according to a bulletin from the Intramural office.

The necessity for entering in the sports is November 22 with matches due to open November 29. Each entrant must attend a minimum of classes at least three times each week and failure to comply with the rule means disqualification. As a result there will be eight weight divisions in both boxing and wrestling.

The boxing classes will be conducted by Ralph Winchester and will consist of regular training. The wrestling classes will be under the supervision of Bill Jones.

Meanwhile, SAE, Phi Kappa Tau and Sigma Chi, survivors of three weeks of eliminations, face the final test in the touch football tournament. Today SAE and Sigma Chi, finalists, will play the winner of the SAE and Phi Kappa Tau, undefeated league title. In a previous meeting Sigma Chi barely edged out SAE in the last minute 6-5. To arrive at the finals Phi Tau pulled a Frank Riverview to defeat Sigma Chi by 6-0 in a game played under the lights at Woodland Park.

The defeat automatically advanced Sigma Chi into the finals of the defeated bracket. SAE, relying on first downs, defeated Delta Tau Delta 6-3 and ATO by 3-2 to reach the finals.

THETA SIGMA PHI PLEDGING Theta Sigma Phi women's honorary journalism fraternity, will hold formal pledging services for new members at 4 p. m. Tuesday, November 1, in the Union building, according to an announcement made yesterday by Leslie Lee Jones, president.

In order to be eligible for membership in Theta Sigma Phi, the student must have an average standing of 1.8, be a major in journalism, and must have a junior standing in the University.

Wildcat Coach

Coach Ab Kirwan, after weeks of preparing his Wildcats for Alabama, will watch them try again to stem the Crimson Tide when it invades Kentucky tomorrow afternoon.

GRID TICKETS ARE PLACED ON SALE

All-Star State High School Grid Elevens To Rally on Stoll Field

Tickets for the East-West all star state high school football game to be played on Stoll field December 3 between two selected teams were placed on sale this week. It was reported by the committee in charge of arrangements for the game. For the fracas the state has been divided into an Eastern and a Western section with Highway 31 as the division line and from these sections two squads of 22 players will be selected to meet in the test. The proceeds of the game will be donated to the Lexington unit of Shriners hospitals for crippled children to aid in the work being done by the organization. Into the Western section will fall the three Louisville high schools and the Lexington Sixteen Conference. The Eastern squad will contain stars from Lexington, Ashland, Covington, Dayton, Hazard, Corbin, Newport, and other Eastern and Central Kentucky. The game, first of its kind ever attempted in the state, is expected to attract approximately 12,000 customers. One head coach and three assistants will be named to coach the teams for one week prior to the game. Players will be asked to furnish their own shoes, shoulder pads, and pants, with jerseys being supplied.

Coach Adolph Rupp's Team Faces Ambitious Schedule For '38 Season

By JOE CREASON Kernel Sports Editor Faced by one of the most ambitious schedules ever booked for a University basketball team, Coach Adolph Rupp will hold the first meeting of the 1938 Wildcat squad Monday afternoon in Alumni Gym.

The necessity for uncovering a high scoring forward to replace the graduated Joe Hagan will be Coach Rupp's first headache. Other graduation victims last June include Captain J. Rice Walker and Charley Combs. Included in the squad of approximately 20 that is expected to answer the first call will be Captain Bernie Oppor; All Conference guard Layton Rouse; Marlon Clugish, "Tub" Thompson, Elmo Head, Fred Curtis, James Goodman, Harris Walker and Walter Hodges, all experienced netters.

From last season's freshman team will come Orme, Huber, Clugish, White, Parsley, Jackson and others to bolster the hopes.

Included in the present fitness game schedule are games with Cincinnati at the end of the year on December 17, Washington and Lee, Centerville, Notre Dame, Tennessee, Alabama, Madison Square Garden and Mississippi State. Highlight of the season will be a return visit to New York's Madison Square Garden for a game with Long Island University and a game in Philadelphia with St. Joseph College.

FORMER CO-ED FILIES WEST Marjorie Weaver, screen actress and former UK co-ed, left her home in Louisville yesterday by plane for Hollywood after a three-week visit. She said that she hoped to "get to rest in the movie capital after her recent stay in Kentucky.

Frosh Basketball Team Asked To Report

The first draft for freshman basketball material will be held in the Alumni gym Monday afternoon at 5 p. m., according to an announcement made yesterday afternoon by Coach Paul McBrayer. With the inevitable record of last year's team to defend the first year men will get down to serious work in a short time. Last season the Kittens lost but two games, one to the strong semi-pro Edendale team of Louisville and the other to the Cumberland Junior College quintette. In a previous game with Cumberland Kentucky had handed the Mountaineers their only defeat in 18 games.

HE'S GIVING HIS NERVES A REST

... AND SO IS HE

HAVE you noticed how a dig, in the midst of play, suddenly stops and rests? His nerve system—as complicated and high-strung as our own—has signalled that it's time to relax. Man, unfortunately, is less sensitive to the warnings of his nerves. Though nerves may need a restful pause, we are inclined to press on in our absorbing tasks—relentlessly—forgetful of mounting nerve strain. When we find ourselves tense, irritable, upset, we may not even realize why. Don't let tension tie your nerves in a knot. Make it your pleasant rule to break nerve tension often through the day —TO LET UP—LIGHT UP A CAMEL!
