"WITH THE COLORS"

Hello Mother;

Jan 4, 1919

You talked about buying that farm next to Hack's. Say that sounds good to me. If you can sell the house at 6,500 for goodness sake sell it. But in that direction is were all the millionaires are scouting. At least we can grow what is necessary for you to live on. They have a lot of civilian labor in camp now and the fellows sure will raise a rumpus if we don't get discharged soon. Say Stanley sure must have a swell printing machine as I was surprised to see that card. My first thought was you had had a lot printed. I wish I had a couple of trump's brandy as there is certainly a swell piano player at the piano. You know one of those tin pan alley experts. I have to laugh in the shops at the fellows the way they tear for the Latrine and sit down and read the morning papers. When they get up they had a big heavy imprint
