WAX BEAN REVIVED

Well, here we go again. It looks like the WAX BEAN will be sprouting (or is that spouting) each month as long as the paper, printing machine and printer hold out. I have volunteered to do this job for the coming year but I can't do it without your help. To make the WAX BEAN a vehicle about the staff I need to know about you. If you have anything you would like to pass along to me please do not hesitate to do so. I want to know about you, your family, your trips, your professional activities or whatever you want to send along. I keep my ear to the grapevine but it does not always stretch as far as Agriculture. Please keep me in mind when you hear something (if you want to send something along about fellow workers please clear it with them first). I'll be grateful for any news items you have.

FROM LSO

REMINDER: March is membership month. Your $3 a year supports the many LSO functions and enables you to attend the LSO picnic and Christmas luncheon at no additional charge. The LSO needs your support. Last year we had 106 members. Let's top that for 1981.

COMMITTEES: We still need volunteers for the Staff Lounge Committee and the Social Committee. Become involved in LSO. Ideas are needed for the picnic and the Christmas party and we need your help. If you served on a committee last year and want to be on the same committee again or would like to help in some other way, please let us know. Contact Janis Pivarnik in GPD at 7-2639.

BOOK SALE: Want to do some spring house cleaning? Why not bring your paperbacks in for the LSO Booksale. Details in this issue of the Green Bean.

FROM DEPARTMENTS

THERE IS ONE IN EVERY CROWD: Rumor has it that the Agriculture Library staff have formed a chapter of the LSO called ALSO (Agriculture Library Staff Organization). A newsletter called the SOYABEAN is planned. So far it seems only to be a rumor.

FROM THE STAFF

WELCOME BACK to Ruth Brown after a brief stay in the hospital. We are glad to see you up and around.

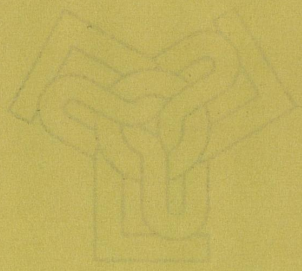

CONDOLENCES

To Vivian Hall on the recent loss of her father. On behalf of the Staff LSO made a donation to the appropriate charity.
