The courses in religious education presented by Dean Taylor were referred to a special committee to be appointed by President McVey.

The request of seniors who complete their work in the summer session to be excused from final examinations this semester was referred to the University Council.

The Registrar asked the question, "Is the regulation regarding admission to the College of Law, passed April 6, to be interpreted that two years of college work means sixty-seven credits?" This question was referred to the Registrar and Dean Turck.

The request of William Hanratty, who has 27 credits in Arts and Sciences, to be transferred to the College of Law was referred to Dean Turck, Professor Scarborough and the Registrar.

The following recommendation from the College of Arts and Sciences was approved:

✓ Romance Languages 6a and 6b. French Novel and Drama. Three credits a semester. This is to replace Romance Languages 101a and 101b, so that the course will not be open to graduate students.

✓ Romance Languages 7a and 7b. Intermediate Spanish. Three credits a semester, to replace Romance Languages 103a and 103h, so that the course will not be open to graduate students.

✓ Hygiene 4. General Hygiene for Engineers. Credit to be increased from .3 to .6, time being increased to two hours a week for one semester.
