

1882
May 30.

Faculty met: Present, Pres. Patterson, Profs. Helzerli, Kirby, Kellenman, Peter, Neville, Shackelford, Penn and Vance

Invitation from the Cecropian Society of Kentucky University was read and accepted and the Secretary was instructed to invite said society and the Faculty of Kentucky University to be present at the Commencement June 7.

The Principal of the Commercial Department recommended forty one persons as worthy of some recognition of their proficiency and on motion it was ordered that certificates should be awarded to them to be signed by the Pres. and the Principal of the Dept. their names are as follows:

R. R. Bowling, J. Bush, W. G. Graves
J. H. Kastle, W. W. Jackson J. D. Mayes,
W. M. Duncan, W. T. Jewell, O. P. Troutman
W. H. Ryan, A. Seyer, W. L. Bartlett, J. B.
Smith, J. J. Parnell, J. W. Hambleton J. B.
Macconn, J. M. Lee, G. K. Graves J. S.
Jasper, R. J. de Rood, C. A. Samsworth W. J.
Young, J. C. Bosworth, A. M. Siebricht, J. S. Coons, G. C. Morgan, W. Gorman, C.
Gorman, W. P. Portwood, M. C. Jewell, S.
Hurdley, M. B. Hurdley, F. G. Sprake
J. S. Willmott, and Miss Nellie C. Woodruff, Leonora Horing Ida H. Proctor, Nannie D. Parra, Nannie J. Schmidt Eddie B. Cromwell, and Mittie Sloughton.

Bailey Walter Montjoy having completed the full course in the Cornell Dept. was recommended for graduation

On motion E. L. Rogus a graduate of this year was excused from delivering an address at the Commencement; his subject however to be printed on the program

Adjourned,

T. H. Vance Sec. Faculty