

December 17, 1942

Dear General Rankin,

Congratulations, sir, on your recent promotion. I read of your success in the Lexington papers. You are doing a fine job and all who know you are proud of you.

I am in Lockport, Illinois, at the Lewis School of Aeronautics studying to be a Naval Flight Instructor.

Hope I get to see you some time.
Curtis L. Willmott