

November 6th

The Faculty met as usual.
The general conduct of Messrs H. B. Thompson, Foytensend and Gray was reduced 10 ¢ each for throwing into our fruit trees. On motion the Faculty adjourned
Jan. 4. White,

Sec. of Faculty.

November 13th

The Faculty met as usual, all being present except Dr. Peter. Coleman was present charged with committing a nuisance in Krippenstaple's case.
Coleman denied the charge, and there being no evidence at hand, except that given by the two boys interested in the case, the investigation of the matter was postponed. Riplette's request for a change of board was granted provided he procure his father's consent.
Mr. J. E. Thompson's general conduct was reduced 10 ¢ for visiting Lexington at night without a pass. Mr. Stephend was reduced 10 ¢ in general conduct for throwing into our fruit trees.

There being no further business, the Faculty adjourned
Jan. 4. White,

Sec. of Faculty.

November 27th

The Faculty met at the usual time and place.
Messrs Coleman, Wilson, and Doanard were admonished for neglecting their studies. Further evidence having been obtained in the Coleman and Krippenstaple case, mention in minutes of Nov. 13th, Coleman's general conduct was reduced 20 ¢.

On motion the Faculty adjourned

Jan. 4. White,

Sec. of Faculty.

Dec. 1st

This meeting was called by Pres. Patterson to consider the actions of Chas Turner who matriculated in this College only a few days ago. Pres. Patterson stated that he (Turner) had been under the influence of whiskey for several days and had engaged in a street fight in which deadly weapons were used. Mr. Turner having been cited to appear before the Faculty that he might state any saluting circumstances in the case, if there were any, and having failed to be present it was resolved that he be publicly and dishonorably dismissed from this College. The Executive