

jhs

ABBAY OF GETHSEMANI
TRAPPIST, KENTUCKY

Aug. 22, 1966

Dear Carolyn:

Many thanks for the Pavese books. I am well into one of them and he is a marvelous writer. I returned Suzuki on Mysticism Christian and Buddhist. I am not yet finished with Briffault, The Mothers which is marked for August 31. Could I perhaps have it a little longer? I notice that Muir's Autobiography seems to be marked for that date too, and I am still working on it.

Do you have these?

M. Harrington - The Accidental Century

E. Conze - Buddhist Meditation (I think I got that from you before.)

If these are available I would be very happy to have them.

When would you and Victor like to come over again? I still do not know if there will be new arrangements about doctors, and perhaps it would be best to ~~xxx~~ think of your coming here, say toward the end of September or the beginning of October. Please let me know what you think.

With all my best wishes and blessings to you both, in Christ

Tom