MacLeish Will Talk Tuesday

Archibald MacLeish, Boylston Professor of Rhetoric at Harvard and one of the three leading American poets, will speak at 8 o'clock Tuesday night in Memorial Hall.

Students who are interested in writing production should hear Mr. MacLeish at 3:30 p.m. Monday in the Guignol Theatre.

Mr. MacLeish is very different from most modern writers, Dr. Spivey said.

Written Volumes
MacLeish has written at least 16 volumes of poetry and nine volumes of prose since 1924.

His constant experimentation in his poetry with rhyme and verse forms caused these books to be greatly different from one another in content and style.

His book "Conquistador," which is a Pulitzer Prize winner, was written for the large public which likes fiction and color.

Among his other books are "The Land of the Living" and "The Land of the Dead."

Major jobs have been as Librarian of Congress, as Director of the U. S. Office of Facts and Figures, as Assistant Director of the Office of War Information, and as Executive Secretary of the Executive Board of UNESCO.

Born in Illinois
MacLeish was born in Illinois, and was graduated from Yale University where he was editor of the Yale "Literary Magazine."

After serving in World War I, he graduated at the Harvard Law School and taught there for a year.

When President Roosevelt nominated him as head of the Library of Congress, he said he was naming "a scholar and a gentleman."

There is first of all the Scot in him—sturdy, austere, exacting, humorous, and a little made up of mere dreams but of reality.

They are "The God Who gave us liberty; We have counted the cost . . . our cause is just; We fight not for glory or conquest; and I shall not die without a hope . . . Should the world obscure the science and liberties of Europe, this country remains to preserve and restore light and liberty."

The second phase of the program, to be given by Mr. Kinney, is composed of "Sonata in Opus 19" by Beethoven; "Sonata, Opus 19" by Rachmaninoff; and "Symphonic Variations" by Beethoven.

The last part of the program will feature tenor soloist Joseph Dennis. Songs include "Grant Us To Do With Zeal" by J. S. Bach; "Solemnity," Negro spiritual; and "Set Down Servant," also a Negro spiritual. The latter song is arranged by Robert Shaw.

SGA Posts To Jones And Deen

By Joe Coyle
The All-Student Party and the Constitutionalists fought out a closely contested SGA election Tuesday.

The victory was by no means a smashing one, but the election of All-Student candidates, Bruce Ferguson and vice president posts, plus seven representatives to the assembly, showed clearly that the Constitutionalists were in the mood for a change in the SGA.

The Constitutionalists placed ten candidates in the assembly.

The unofficial count for the election showed that 1963 votes were cast in all colleges. The membership college led all others with a turnout of 65 percent.

James Wins
The All-Student party candidates for president and vice president, Jerry Jones and Robert Deen, won by a substantial margin over their Constitutionalists rivals, Bruce Ferguson and Carol Chambers.

The breakdown of the vote for these two positions shows that Jones won by a 1077 to 747 margin over Ferguson, and that Deen would face his opponent, 1142 to 781.

The Constitutionalists were strongest in the College of Arts and Sciences. Their slate made a clean sweep there with the exception of one upper classman position. In regard to that post, there has occurred a situation that is unprecedented in the history of SGA elections.

Convention Weekend

The University will be examined closely today and tomorrow by some 400 delegates to two large meetings being held here. The ODK Province Conference and the state high school press convention are being held simultaneously.

At least the high school journalists will enjoy judging the Kernel and comparing it with their own papers. We'd like they got a chance to point out the mistakes in the Kernel at the same time their work is being criticized. No newspaper can be perfect and none can hope to escape some criticism.

Genuine criticism is an important step in the improvement of any undertaking, and we of the Kernel staff, as well as today's visitors, must be able to accept and encourage the opinions of others as a necessary part of our work in presenting news, ideas and advertising to our readers.

We extend a welcome to today's visitors from the entire student body at UK, and hope that their stay here will be both pleasant and profitable.

Song On The Campus

Each spring semester campus organizations begin looking forward to the All-Campus Sing with a vim and vigor which seemingly surpasses that of all previous years.

This event goes into the final round tonight and thus far this week has created the same spirit of competitive effort which has marked it in the past.

The sponsors of the All-Campus Sing, Phi Mu Alpha, Phi Beta, Mortar Board, and Omicron Delta Kappa, are to be lauded for their splendid efforts to give the students an opportunity to express themselves competitively in a cultural field void of the commercialism of most modern competitions.

The Smoke May Roll

Tuesday's election, which resulted in a two-party split in the Student Government Association, was most important from the standpoint that about 2000 students voiced their opinions at the polls.

This was the largest percentage of students voting in several years, and promises to increase the percentage in coming elections. Since the administrative and legislative positions are divided between parties, considerable fireworks can reasonably be expected to develop in future SGA meetings. We hope that the net result is a more news-worthy student governing body, and one which will be of more importance to the students.

THE NAKED AND THE DEAD

By Norman Mailer

"The Naked and the Dead", by Norman Mailer, is probably not the best book ever written, but it certainly is one of the most complete and comprehensive ones written in the modern realistic school.

The setting is World War II and the invasion by American forces of the South Pacific island held by the Japanese. The story concerns the present and past lives of the officers and men in the invasion from the lowest private, to a staff down to the lowest private. It is written in a style which is amazingly fresh, brutally realistic and breathtaking.

Mailer shows a keen insight into human nature in every walk of life which is an outstanding feature of this novel. The most amazing factor, however, is the complexity of the message presented. The main elements of Mailer's novel seem to be the inevitability of death, the survival of the fittest in mind or body, and the eventual and final dominance of nature's elements over man. Repeatedly, each of the characters almost achieves the success of his dreams only to be thwarted by the forces of nature when no normal human act could prevent the accomplishment.

As for the fictional presentation, the plot involves the thoughts and deeds of men in battle from their own viewpoints. They are frightened, obese, humorous, and sick. In each of them is a yearning for their homes, wives, or sweethearts as they remembered them or preferred to remember them beyond actuality.

Mailer's success in presenting every phase of man's thoughts in such a variety of characters is truly a work of art. He has an effective style of writing that can leave the reader completely limp and breathless when he reaches a climactic portion of the story. A typical passage which expresses the trend of the story throughout the book is a thought by the general. "He admitted that he had had very little or perhaps nothing to do with this tion may be wiped out and we may return to the conditions of the Dark Ages."

If the U. S. manufactures the bomb it will be only a short time until Russia manufactures the bomb also. The side which drops the first bomb will have a tremendous advantage. If the first blow struck is properly delivered there may be no opportunity of retaliation. We might be in the position of having to H-bomb Russia for fear that they were planning to H-bomb us.

Russia would probably feel the same way about it. They might attack us for fear that we were planning to H-bomb them. The time may come soon when Russia and we will each rush to drop the first H-bombs because they cannot afford to be second. This will mark the beginning of the great destruction which will return us to the Dark Ages.

We see that there is no hope if we manufacture the H-bomb. The alternative is for the U. S. to manufacture no H-bombs. Then Russia will not get an H-bomb attack from us and will not have to attack us for fear we are going to attack them.

We do not say that this is the infallible answer to the threatened world destruction. We do say that it is the way of hope.

The manufacture of the H-bomb by our country. We must not make the H-bomb! Let's save our country. The University of Kentucky

Local High School Grads Given Loans

Financial aid in the form of honor loans is again being offered under the terms of the Ernest B. Ellis Foundation.

Financial aid in the form of honor loans is again being offered under the terms of the Ernest B. Ellis Foundation. A perpetual scholarship fund valued at approximately $50,000, the Ellis Foundation was established by the late Major Ernest B. Ellis, Fayette County road contractor who died in 1923. Under the terms of his will the fund was not to become effective until after the death of his wife, Mrs. Mary L. Ellis. Mrs. Ellis died in October, 1948, and the scholarship fund was first made available last September.

All funds supplied by the foundation are to be regarded as interest-free loans to be repaid by the recipients when they become financially able. Persons to receive the loans are selected by a committee composed of the judge of the Fayette Circuit Court, the superintendent of the Lexington schools, and the dean of the College of Engineering at the University.

Students who wish to apply for the funds, which will total approximately $2500, may obtain applications from the College of Engineering.

'Red Shoes' Acclaimed One Of All-Time Movie Greats

By Bob Cox
 "The Red Shoes," which opens Friday at the Kentucky Theater, is a triple Academy Award winner which has received the accolades of reviewers and critics all over the nation. Many of them rate it with the greatest movies of all time.

Filmed in technicolor, it is a very dramatic movie lightened by beautiful ballet selections. The story is the typical one of a girl who must choose between her lover and her art. The plot is tense and stirring, and ends in a wild frenzy of tragedy. The story is well-handled and Anton Walbrook, Moira Shearer, and Marius Goring performed well with the aid of a well-selected supporting cast.

Bureaucrator's Girl

Yvonne De Carlo is as to be expected the whole show in "Bureaucrator's Girl," opening Sunday at the Ben All Theater.

There is plenty of good background, including a supporting cast which Miss De Carlo keeps effectively under her thumb while the plot is her usual scintillating dance and love scenes.

Both the plot and the scenes are so similar, in fact, to "Schneherzade" and other cinema starring Miss De Carlo, that one is almost tempted to rebuke the title to see if this isn't a re-release of one of the earlier movies.

Conn-Cox-'Uns

By Earl Conn and Bob Cox

Greetings and salutations, all ye faithful! Once again we'll attempt to amuse you with a few of the jokes which we've picked up here and there. If you can't get even one laugh don't blame us too much for this spring fever is really upon us.

Which all goes to remind us that the girl who slaps you may not want to choose a wife—he certainly can see what he is getting."

And as the man down at the beach said: "A young man should make no mistake these days in choosing a wife—he certainly can see what he is getting."

A girl who was named Henrietta just loved to wear a tight swetta. The reason she had—
To keep warm—wasn't had.
But she had two that were Carina.

They said she was only a Communist. And she made a lot of concessions.

Voice from the rear of the taxi: "Hey, driver, what's the idea of stopping?"
Driver: "I thought I heard someone tell me to."
Voice: "Keep going, she wasn't talking to you."

This one is terribly clean but we like it just the same:
A gentleman in the optical business was instructing his young son in the art of choosing a fair and honest price out of a customer. He said, "Son, after you've fitted the glasses to the customer, and he asks, 'What is the charge?' you should say:
"The charge is ten dollars."
"Then pause and watch for the flinch."
"If the customer doesn't flinch, you say: 'That's for the frames. The lenses will be another ten dollars.'"
"Then you pause again—but this time only slightly—and again you watch for the flinch."
"If the customer doesn't flinch, you say: 'Each.'"

Treeman (in the kitchen with cake of lard): "Hello, Sonny."
Sonny: "When you say that, smile."

Speaking of definitions, how about this one: Papoose—Consolation prize for taking a chance on an Indian blanket.

One of the guests turned to a man by his side to criticize the singing of the woman soloist.
"What a terrible voice. Do you know who she is?"
"Yes," was the answer. "She's my wife."
"Oh, I beg your pardon. Of course it isn't her voice really. I wonder who she make her sing. I wonder who wrote that awful song?"
"I did," was the answer.

When a girl finds that she's not the only pebble on the beach, she generally becomes a little boulder.

"Ah wins."
"What you got?"
"Three aces."
"That's no good, ah wins."
"What you got?"
"Two eights and a razor."
"Yah sho' do. How cum yuh so lucky?"
He: "Did anyone ever tell you how wonderful you are?"

He: "Then where did you get the idea?"

LXA: "Did you know that we maintain seven homes for the feeble-minded?"

Fledge: "I thought you had more chapters than that."

Alum: "I hear one of the brothers died. How did it happen?"

And we'll close with this one: Professor (calling roll): "Jack Jordan."

"Hedy Smith."
"Here."
"Bill Wannemaker."
Chorus: "Yes."

Baseball Nine Travels To Georgia For Series

Coch Neil Moseley and his Wildcat baseballers leave Sunday morning via bus for Athens, Ga., where they will meet the University of Georgia Bulldogs Monday and Tuesday.

From there, the UK nine will travel to Atlanta for another two-game series with Georgia Tech, Wednesday and Thursday.

Those expected to make the trip are as follows: Pitchers C. M. Newton, Guy Strong, Bob Hatchett, Roy Wiseman, Al MacLeod, and Frank Tucci along with Catcher Roy Turner.

Outfielders Jim Ryan, Frank Clegg, Harry Stille, Tom Whisman; Bill Smithers and Roy Seese and infielders Walt Hirsch, Hammy Yesin, Johnny Sough and Jay Cummins will round out the traveling team. Cummins is also listed as a catcher.

Some Question Marks

The outfield is strictly a question mark. None were on the 1949 squad. Reports are that Ryan might be a better hitter. Clegg is a former Wildcat diamond performer.

As far as the infield, it lacks depth. Hirsch and Sough are definitely better than average players. Cummins is a big question mark at the hot corner.

Turner, who is the No. 1 backstop, showed possibilities at times last season but is rather weak with the field.

The pitching staff will probably give Moseley some restful nights before the season has been completed. Newton is said to be top-drawer. Strong has had some previous experience and possesses the potential of being a good pitcher.

Hatchett has been laboring for the Johnny Owens, Wildcat No. 1 man and Roy Colton, his first foursome partner, had a very bad day. Owens needed 79 strokes to get around the Paris Road course. His opponent, Brown Cullen, shot a 73 to win by 2.

In the foursome low-ball department, the visitors won by 8 1/2-1 1/2.

Colton (1), 75, defeated Owens (K) 79, 21-1/2.

Louisville won low ball, 29-17.

Gain, Jamerson Named As 1950 Grid Captains

The Kentucky Wildcat football team in high school at Henderson. He said this week selected the biggest and the smallest man among the 15 players on the team to captain the 1950 eleven.

They are 6-3, 230-pound Bob Gain, tackle from Weston, West Virginia, and 5-8, 168-pound Wilbur (Shorty) Jamerson, halfback from Henderson, Ky.

The co-captains, who have one more season of eligibility remaining, were two of Kentucky's top players last season. Although the Big Blue has had a captain and an alternate captain, as last year, records indicate this is the first time that UK will have had co-captains.

Gain has been brilliant during the three seasons he has performed for the Cats, usually turning in his best games against the toughest foes, such as Tennessee and Mississippi.

Both he and Jamerson came to UK in the summer of 1947 and were thus eligible to play on the varsity during their freshman season.

"Shorty" was an outstanding leader

K Club Trounces SX For I-M Championship

By Lewis Donohew

Sparked by the play of 6-3 Al Bruno, the K Club scored an easy 65-45 win over Sigma Chi Monday night in Alumni Gym for the 1950 Intramural basketball championship.

The versatile Bruno, who has been at times a member of the varsity basketball, baseball and track teams and is an end on the football eleven, turned in a fine performance as did Bill Leskovar, Jerry Claiborne and Nick Ollivak.

High scorer for the K Club quintet, composed mainly of footballers, was Leskovar with 16. Bruno had 15; while Claiborne tallied 11. The winners went through this season without a setback. Last March they were upset in the finals of their division.

As a result of the win, it marked the first time in a year that Doc Wall's Dorn team did not take the first-place I-M honors. His teams won the basketball, softball and football titles in 1949, but both Kinkead and Brock Hall were upset in tournament play last week trying to extend their records to four straight I-M crowns.

Sigma Chi was paced by John Henne's 16 points, while Wynn Mosley was next with nine. The scrappy Sigs were no match for the bigger, taller K-Clubbers, who led all the way.

Ollivak hit a long 40-foot set shot midway in the first half to give the winners a 20-9 lead and SX never threatened seriously again. Halftime score was 22-17.

Two surprise teams met in the consolation game, the World Walkers and the Phi Delta Theta first five. Both teams at the season's start were expected not to go very far but PDT upset SAE and the Walkers took Kinkead Hall to move into the finals of their respective leagues. The Phi Delt then lost to the Sigs, while the World Walkers, composed mostly of frosh and soph footballers, were taken by the veteran K Club team.

Bunky Gruner broke loose for two baskets in the final minute to win the game for the Walkers. Jim Howe and Dave Cheek were high for the Phi Delt, while Gruner's 14 topped the winners, who captured the game by a 23-22 count.

The football season, if winter decides to give up, will open on the first day of school after Easter vacation. A new policy on formation of rosters is being put into effect this year, allowing no new names to be added to the original list after the deadline date of April 5. Twenty men may be carried on each roster.

FRIDAY ENTRY DEADLINES—Golf (singles and doubles), Tennis (singles and doubles), Badminton (doubles).

Badminton singles started Tuesday night. Forty-eight matches are being played this week. Competing in the sport are 180 men.

An all-star intramural basketball team may be named next week. Intramural Director Bill McCann said. No players have been named for it yet.

In the opening round of the bowling tourney, PKT defeated LXA, 2293-2156; SN beat PDT, 2208-1723; and ASP dumped DTJ, 2407-2228.

Second round games: PKT 2310, 2283; 2290; AGR 2277, SN 2242; ASP 2442, SX 2120; ATO 2556, SPE 2234. Finals will be at 4 o'clock this afternoon.

Entering into the story of the Big Nine at an early date is Amos Alonzo Stagg—the "Grand Old Man" who guided the early University of Chicago teams. One interesting aspect is that Stagg was held in such high regard that he was often requested to referee games in which his team played.

Other great names find their place in the story of the Big Nine when they are mentioned.

One of the members of the WORLD WALKERS grabs a rebound off the boards away from the outstretched arms of Bill McCann, of the PHI DELTA THETA quintet. The World Walkers, made up mostly of freshmen and sophomore gridlers, defeated the Phi Delt, 35-22, in the above consolation game of the tournament. Over 50 teams participated in I-M basketball this season.

In 135 games for the Big Blue, Jim Lane tallied 1041 points. He scored 384 points for the 1949-50 season, including 21 big ones against Vanderbilt in the last varsity game that will ever be held in the ancient Alumni Gym.

Dale Barnstable played in 131 games for UK, scoring a total of 635 points. His high for one season was in his junior year, when he scored 208 points in 34 tilts.

There is Fielding Yost and his point-a-minute team at Michigan (who beat U of Buffalo 128-0). Also Willie Heston who alone scored 600 points for Michigan and Bob Zuppke, former coach of Illinois.

Later in the story appear Harold "Red" Grange, the "Galloping Ghost" of Illinois, and Bernie Shively, All-American guard of the Illini, now UK's athletic director, as well as Nile Kinnick, the great Iowa player.

The book closes with the Big Nine's entrance into the Rose Bowl past. Another interesting feature is the complete Conference standings from 1896 until 1947.

WAA News

By Anne Boyd

Badminton doubles tournament is on its last lap. One of the semifinals matches has been played, moving Siler and Watson, Alpha Xi Delta, Meier and Ruelshover, Alpha Gamma Delta, meet defending champions, Honaker and Graham, Kappa Delta. Winners of this game play Siler and Watson for the 1950 Badminton Doubles Championship.

WAA practice periods have as their future plans—softball. All who are interested in playing softball either from the advanced, intermediate or beginners level are welcome to join in the fun. Check the bulletin board in the women's gym for the exact place.

Meetings of WAA council are to be held in the next few weeks for the time is here for the election of new officers. The present officers are about to finish a wonderful job. Their positions are going to be hard to fill. All members are reminded to watch the WAA bulletin board the first of next week for information on the candidates.

Some 40 girls representing Fayette County high schools were in the WAA-sponsored High School Play Day last Saturday morning. Some represented were Henry Clay, Lafayette, Athens, Morton, University High, and St. Catherine's.

Volley ball, table tennis, and basketball games were scheduled. A total was taken of the results of the contents and when the results flashed across the board, Fairplay was the winner.

After the games, refreshments were served and Dr. Martha Carr, head of Women's Physical Education Department, talked with the girls about their organizing a Girls' Athletic Association in their high schools. Wholehearted co-operation of the UK WAA was offered to aid in their GAA organization and administration.

The highest number of points ever scored in Alumni Gym for a regulation game was during the 1948-49 season, when Bill Spivey & Co., then playing for the UK freshmen team, racked up 111 points while Campbellsville Junior College was getting only 57.

Track Team Shaping Up For Opener With Vandy

By Bob Gorham

The track team got the feel of the cinders Tuesday for the first time this season, which will officially get underway Saturday, April 15th when Vanderbilt comes to Stoll Field.

Absent are Cliff Lawson, Emory Clark, John Ignaraki and Tom Fililton, all of whom are now laboring at the griddon sport. Remarks is needed for the shot put and the discus, while the other three are potentially outstanding dash men.

Al Bruno, who handles the javelin, might join the track squad at the conclusion of spring football unless he decides to go out for the basketball nine.

Two Javelin Squad

The Cats hope for a good season took a leap forward last week when George Kirchner, 440 and 680-yard man, reported for practice. In addition, Lucian Skippy Whitaker joined the cindersmen and will specialize in the discus and javelin.

Probably the farthest advanced as far as training for the coming season are Anthony Toney, Dallas and Guy Weeks, two top hurdlers. Both boys participated in Purdue Relays last Saturday.

Dallas, top scorer last spring, is counted on for the 220-yard low hurdles, the 120 high hurdles, the broad jump, the high jump and in the relays.

Harold Hochstetler, a transfer from an Illinois junior college, has been showing up well in the discus and the javelin events.

The freshman squad shapes up as one of the best in many years.

Several boys with the possibilities of becoming good track men include Dwight Price, Jim Bradberry, Paul

Schnittker, Unruh And Cousy Unanimous All-American Picks

By Earl Conn, Assistant Sports Editor

A composite of the five major 1950 basketball teams selected this season shows that two Eastern players, two Midwestern players, and one West Coast player received the most nominations.

The composite 1950 All-American as picked by the Collier's, Look, INS, AP and UP show that the following players were the choices of the experts for first team berths:

Dick Schnittker, Ohio State
Bob Cousy, Holy Cross
Paul Arizin, Villanova
Paul Unruh, Bradley
Bill Sharman, Southern Cal

The second team of the composite All-American would be as follows:

Charles Cooper, Duquesne
Don Eckhardt, Wisconsin
Bertie O'Shea, Notre Dame
Don Lofgran, San Francisco

This composite team was selected by awarding 20 points for first team berths and any of the five selected All-American teams, and 10 points for second team positions.

Three Unanimous Choices

Of the five players who make up the first team, three received votes on all five of the All-American teams — Bob Cousy of Holy Cross, Dick Schnittker of Ohio State, and Paul Unruh of Bradley. Paul Arizin was placed on the second team by Colliers, while Bill Sharman was placed on the second team by both the UP and AP and did not make Look's first or second string.

Of the five All-American teams only the INS club had all five members of the composite All-American. They listed Schnittker, Cousy, Arizin, Unruh, and Sharman as their first team.

On the UP team Sharman was replaced by Kevin O'Shea and the AP also replaced Sharman with O'Shea. The Look team had Charlie Cooper on its first team replacing Sharman while the Collier's team left off Arizin and placed Sherman White of LNU on the first team.

Spivey Gets Mention

Other players getting second-string berths on at least one of the five teams included John Pich of Wyoming, Chuck Giernak of Williams and Mary, Whitney Skog of Minnesota, Gene Melchiorre of Bradley, Bill Spivey of Kentucky,

New Football Captains

Bob Laylor of Western Kentucky, and Dick Dickey and Sammy Ranzino of North Carolina State.

Several other players and coaches around the nation received recognition as outstanding basketball performers.

The Metropolitan Basketball Writers Association named Nat Holman of CCNY, as the coach of the year; Paul Arizin of Villanova, as the top collegiate player of the year; and George Mikan of the Minneapolis Lakers was named the best of the pro players by both groups.

Arizin finished as the top scorer for major schools for the year with a total of 735 points on 269 field goals and 215 free throws. George King of Morris-Harvey was the top collegiate scorer for all schools with 967 points on 354 field goals and 279 free throws.

Nate DeLong of River Falls, Wis., finished the year with 861 points to be second and closed out his college career with a total of 2362 points for a new record.
