ABOUT THE LIBRARIES

CAN ANYONE HELP?

Martha Reinig, Circulation Department, still needs a ride to and from her home on Norway Street in the Southland area. Her hours are 8:00-4:30 and she particularly needs a ride at 4:30. She will be glad to share expenses. If anyone can help, please call her at extension 7-3788.

AGRICULTURE LIBRARY TOUR

The Educational Committee of ACTS invite all staff members to attend a tour of the Agriculture Library at 1:00 PM February 1.

EINSTEIN FILM AND EXHIBIT

A 45 minute film entitled "Einstein: Education of a Genius," will be shown in the AIDS Room, room 104, King South, on Wednesday, January 30th, at 12:00 noon. The film is produced by the Institute for Advanced Studies of Princeton, and is narrated by Peter Ustinov. It is part of the traveling exhibit on Einstein, partially funded by the Kentucky Humanities Council, that is currently on display in the Lobby of King South. Also part of this exhibit is a 60 minute videotape entitled "Working with Einstein" which can be seen at anytime in the AIDS Room.

ELECTRIC VEHICLES!

The Engineering Library is sponsoring an exhibit on the topic of electric vehicles. The exhibit will be held between February 11 and March 14 and will overlap with National Engineers' Week (February 18-23). During National Engineers' Week, the Commuta-Car by General Engines (an electric vehicle) will be on display inside the entrance lobby of Anderson Hall. Numerous articles, books, drawings and photographs will be on display in the Engineering Library regarding the state-of-the-art of electric vehicles. Some electric components will be exhibited demonstrating typical hardware that is used in electrical propulsion systems.

60 DAY TIME LIMIT FOR FILING GRIEVANCES

The following paragraph is a revision of the University Grievance Procedure first paragraph Stage I:

The aggrieved employee shall state his complaint to the immediate supervisor within sixty (60) days of the act aggrieved of or with sixty (60) days of the commencement of the act aggrieved of, if such act is of a continuing nature. In the event the aggrieved employee states his complaint after the sixty (60) day time limit has expired, the immediate supervisor shall notify the Director of Personnel who shall determine whether such extenuating circumstances exist as to warrant receipt of the complaint beyond the normal time limit. The Director of Personnel shall notify the immediate supervisor of the decision which shall be final.

MIDWEST ACADEMIC LIBRARIES CONFERENCE

Entitled: "New services: meeting more demands in an economic crunch." Write to MALC, Kellogg Center, Michigan State University, East Lansing, MI 48824. The Conference will be held May 29-31, 1980.

NEW ADULT STUDENT ORGANIZATION

The first meeting will be held Sunday, January 27 from 4:00-5:00 PM, Room 245, Student Center. Membership is open to all interested full and part-time adult students. For more information call the office of Student Services, 257-2881. (The editor was unable to contact them to find out when one ceased being a child student and became an adult student. Rumor claims age 30 is the dividing line!)

UKRF RESEARCH AWARDS, 1979-80

Four awards of $500 for outstanding achievement in research or creative arts will be given by the University of Kentucky Research Foundation. Nominations by members of the faculty are invited. Forms and criteria can be obtained from: The University of Kentucky Research Foundation, 105 Kinkead Hall, East Wing. The deadline for nominations is 4:00 PM, March 14, 1980.

SUPERVISORY MANAGEMENT CONTINUING EDUCATION

The Employee Development Center will again present the series of lectures via videotape about the dynamics of motivation. People with supervisory responsibility or who aspire to be supervisors are invited to attend. Each session is approximately one hour, 12:00 noon, weekly on Wednesday at 15 Memorial Hall, the Employee Development Center. Any or all sessions may be attended. Bring lunch and eat while you meet. This is not a training course. For further information call 257-1851.

PLEASE SUPPORT OUR BAKE SALE

On February 11, 1980 at 9:30 AM, the Ad Hoc Staff Lounge Committee is sponsoring a bake sale to raise funds to make improvements in our lounge areas. In particular these funds will be used to brighten and make more comfortable the new staff lounge area located in the faculty area of the basement in King South. If you care to bring a baked item, please indicate your name and contribution on the form below. If you have any suggestions for purchases for the lounge, please include them on the form. Some suggestions have been plants, posters, calendars, and a toaster oven. Return the form to:
