Linlee Parent-Teacher Association met Friday. Mrs. Melbourne Mills, the president, read the message of the state president, Mrs. C. A. Schroeter, in the Kentucky Parent Teacher, and told the group about the Pack-horse library project. A contribution of one cent per member will be sent to the librarian of the Kentucky Congress of Parents and teachers to aid this cause. Mrs. John Rutledge, publications chairman, discussed the National Parent Teacher magazine and the state bulletin. Mr. W. J. Hale, the principal, discussed school libraries which are built up by the voluntary effort of teachers and patrons.

The organization voted a gift of $5 to the library and will sponsor the Linlee Boy Scout troop. Mrs. Melbourne Mill and Mrs. John Rutledge gave interesting reports of the district conference. The third grade, Mrs. Verna Boots, teacher, and Mrs. Wellington Moore, room mother, won the prize for having the most parents present. The membership has been increased to 56.

Following the business meeting, Mrs. Henry Moore, program chairman, introduced Mr. O. B. Wilder, executive secretary of the Fayette Community Council, who led a discussion on "A Rural Recreation Program." Mr. Wilder defined recreation as that activity engaged in which relieves the body and mind of the strain upon it, and compared the value of various forms of recreation according to the type of person. He explained the plan of the Fayette Community Council, which includes playground recreation for young people, also physical type recreation for adults, such as baseball and soft ball; dramatic production, in which the aim is recreation; picture shows, educational or for entertainment; community singing, pie and ice cream suppers, parties for children, parties for adults, clubs and organizations. Mr. Wilder said the circulating library could assist the school library.

Mr. W. J. Hale, the principal, expressed a desire to co-operate with the circulating library, and to promote a feasible recreation program for the Linlee community.

Fayette County Council of Parent Teacher Associations met Tuesday in the Y. W. C. A. club rooms. Mr. O. B. Wilder, executive secretary of the Fayette Community Council, led a round-table discussion of "A Plan of Rural Recreation." Mr. Wilder described the kinds of recreation that are feasible in Fayette county. Although country children have the opportunity for exercise in fresh air, playgrounds are necessary to develop citizenship. For adults he suggested baseball and softball for physical recreation.

Dramatic productions in which the aim is recreation, picture shows, community singing, parties, clubs and organizations are all within the reach of rural people. Much interest was shown in this discussion.

Mrs. A. H. Mattmiller, seventh district magazine chairman, gave a report of the state magazine conference which she attended in Louisville, and presented two magazine skits which are available to all local magazine chairmen. Mrs. Mattmiller, who is also council magazine chairman, was assisted in presenting the skits by Mrs. J. R. Johnson and Mrs. Henry Moore.

Col. D. Y. Dunn told the group of provisions made by the county board for playground space on school premises, and that he was in favor of music festivals in the county schools.

Those present were Mr. David Young, Council president; Mrs. McKinley King, Mrs. Claude Wiley and Mrs. Lonnie Wilson, all of Athens; Mrs. J. P. Sharp, Shelby; Mrs. C. A. Arnall, Mrs. D. J. Jones, and Miss Jessie Yancey, Kenwick; Mrs. G. C. Wilcoxen, Bryan Station; Mrs. George Antle, Russell Cave; Mrs. J. R. Johnson, Mrs. Fred Beeler, Mrs. George Gard, Mrs. Bryant Carmichael and Mrs. A. H. Mattmiller, all of Picadome, and Mrs. Henry Moore, Linlee and Bryan Station.

Mrs. Hammond Dugan, supervising librarian of the Fayette County Circulating Library, told the council of the plan for a story telling hour for children twice a week over the radio.
