

Kennedy To Speak On Campus Oct. 8

A crowd in excess of 5,000 is expected to hear Sen. John F. Kennedy, Democratic nominee for president, speak on the UK campus Oct. 8.

The candidate will speak at 10:30 a.m. in front of the Administration Building, according to Ted R. Osborne, county campaign chairman and a member of the state legislature.

The appearance was originally scheduled for Thursday, Oct. 6.

Gov. Bert T. Combs, Lt. Gov. Wynn Wyatt, Keen Johnson, Democratic candidate for the United States Senate, and John Watts, congressman, will also be on the speaker's stand.

University President Frank G. Dickey will not be in town for the event.

One hundred newsmen traveling with the Kennedy party are also expected to be present, according to Osborne.

"Kennedy will be in Lexington one hour," Osborne said. "His schedule is planned so that he will have time to get from Blue Grass Field to the campus and back to his plane."

Kennedy will speak approximately 20 minutes, according to Osborne.

Lyndon B. Johnson, vice presidential nominee, will not accompany his running mate.

"He will be in Lexington at a later date," Osborne said.

Various Democratic leaders from the Sixth Congressional District of 20 central Kentucky counties will be present. A delegation from each county is expected, according to Osborne.

In case of bad weather Kennedy will speak in Memorial Coliseum.

Local members of the Young Democrats Club are planning campaign support for Kennedy's appearance.

"Since there will not be a motorcade, we can do nothing special," said Lessley Decker, club president. "However, we are trying to make sure that all members are present."

Kennedy will leave immediately after the speech for a similar

UK Officials Discuss Registration Problem

University deans and officials have held a special meeting to discuss the problems encountered during classification and registration, President Frank G. Dickey announced yesterday in a special statement to the Kernel.

"The meeting was held in order that we may be assured that this situation will not occur again," said Dr. Dickey.

"Complaints from the students were reviewed, and necessary action has been initiated to remedy the problems involved in the registration procedure," he added.

At the Thursday morning meeting a special committee was appointed to deal with the problems.

Dr. Doris M. Seward, dean of women; Dr. Leslie L. Martin, dean of men; and Vice President Leo M. Chamberlain were appointed ex-officio members of the committee.

On Tuesday Dr. Elton said his office was to blame for the confusion that reigned during classification and registration. He said poor planning and organization caused the chaotic situation.

ID Cards

Students who have not received their ID cards may pick them up from 11 a.m. till 4:30 today on the west concourse of the coliseum and tomorrow from 9 a.m.-4:30 p.m. in the lobby.

ID photos will be taken at the same time.

Students who are part time or intend to pay additional fees for added classes must report to Room 104 Administration Building. The room will be open from 9 a.m. till noon and from 1:30 till 4 p.m. today and from 8:30 a.m. till noon tomorrow.

To replace lost fee slips and ID cards students may go either to the office of the Dean of Women or Dean of Men.

Republicans To Sponsor Workshop

A campaign workshop will be held by the UK Young Republicans Club at 4 p.m. Oct. 4 in Room 128 of the SUB.

At the meeting, a film of speeches by President Dwight D. Eisenhower, Vice President Richard M. Nixon, Henry Cabot Lodge, Sen. John Sherman Cooper, and Howard Dickey Jr. will be shown.

Certificates signed by Sen. Thurston Morton will be given to those attending the workshop.

Any interested Republican, Democrat, or independent may attend the workshop and join the Nixon-Lodge Club or the John Sherman Cooper Club if he wishes.

The clubs are not directly affiliated with any political party.

IFC Figures Show 68 Have Signed For Rush

Figures released by the Interfraternity Council show 68 University upperclassmen and transfer students have signed for fraternity rush.

IFC president David McLellan pointed out, however, that it is not mandatory for anyone having a 2.0 academic standing or better and a minimum of 12 college hours to sign for rush in order to pledge.

Considering the many transfer students that are married, McLellan said he was "well pleased" with the number that had signed.

According to rules set up by IFC governing the informal rush period of upperclassmen and transfer students no one can be pledged until Monday. Pledge cards will be signed in the Dean of Men's Office October 7, 8, and 10.

A "silence" period is now in effect until October 15. Fraternity members are not permitted to talk to freshmen rushees until October 15 when informal freshman rush begins.

McLellan added that infractions of the rush rules will be dealt with by the IFC Judiciary Committee.

Upperclassmen and transfer students signed for rush include Toy.

Feeding Station

UK students take advantage of the new grill located in the rear of the Food Storage Building on Hilltop Avenue which stays open until 10:30 each night. Formerly used as a football locker room the space has been transformed into a 150-seat restaurant. A campus-wide contest is soon to be staged to find a name for the grill. Lawrence Roberts, a veteran of 15 years with the UK Food Service Department, is the grill manager.

Macmillan's Speech Met With Protests

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y., Sept. 29 (AP)—Britain's Prime Minister Harold Macmillan presented the United Nations today with a calm, measured assessment of key world problems, and sent Nikita S. Khrushchev into a fury of heckling shouts and table-banging protest.

Reaction to Macmillan's speech split sharply along East-West lines. Asian comment was reserved, and there was criticism from Africans that Macmillan sought to defend colonialism.

Cease-Fire Ordered In Laos

VIENTIANE, Laos, Sept. 29 (AP)—Premier Souvanna Phouma said today orders have gone out for a cease-fire throughout Laos.

The rightist rebel followers of Gen. Phoumi Novosan had just suffered a significant defeat in the north as the general engaged in peace talks at Luang Prabang, the royal capital, with military representatives of Souvanna's neutralist government.

A combined meeting of Leaders and Keys will be held at 6:30 p.m. Monday in Room 128 of the SUB.

Group Urges Freshman Attendance

A movement urging more freshmen to attend the annual Leadership Conference at Camp Bingham is underway, according to Kris Ramsey, publicity chairman for the conference.

Miss Ramsey pointed out that the freshman attendance at the conference in previous years had not been up to expectations. "This is an excellent chance for freshmen to meet upperclassmen and fellow freshmen interested in campus life and leadership," she added.

More recreation has been added in order to entice freshmen to attend, Miss Ramsey stated.

Another change in the conference this year is the location. It will be held at Camp Bingham instead of Camp Daniel Boone. She added that the accommodations at Camp Bingham were "much nicer."

"Freshmen can get a good start in campus leadership by attending the conference and meeting many campus leaders," she added.

An IBM computer programming short courses will begin at 2 p.m. Monday in Room 204, Anderson Hall.

The course consists of six two-hour sessions scheduled on Monday and Wednesday from 2-4 p.m. during the weeks of October 3, 10, and 17.

There is no charge for the course and no prerequisites. Those wishing to enroll should contact the Computing Center.

Cosmopolitans Planning Magazine

The Cosmopolitan Club is planning to publish an international magazine containing articles by foreign students on their first impressions of the United States, its president said.

Nick Ghassomins, club president, said the publication would depend on cooperation of the members. It will be discussed at the club's first meeting of the semester at 7 p.m. today.

The Cosmopolitan Club is designed, according to its constitution, to promote international good will and world brotherhood through social and cultural activities. Its membership, open to all students, includes representatives of several countries and a number of American students.

Dr. Kenneth Harper, assistant dean of men, will give the welcoming address at the meeting tonight.

On the organization's schedule this semester, to be discussed tonight, are a picnic, United Nations Day, and the annual International Dinner. For the latter event, club members from various countries prepare some of their native dishes.

Fulbright Applications Must Be In By Nov. 1

Two Planes To Telecast To Schools

Applications for Fulbright scholarships for the 1961-62 academic year will be accepted until Nov. 1, the Institute for International Education has announced.

Approximately 800 scholarships for graduate study or research in 30 countries are available. Nov. 1 is also the deadline for applying for Inter-American Cultural Convention awards for study in 17 Latin American countries.

Fulbright scholarships for study in Europe, Latin America, and the maintenance, and roundtrip travel expenses.

IACC scholarships pay for transportation, tuition, and part of the maintenance costs.

General eligibility requirements for both scholarships are U.S. citizenship at the time of application, a bachelor's degree or its equivalent by 1961, knowledge of the language of the host country, and good health.

Applicants are expected to have a demonstrated capacity for independent study and a good academic record. Preference is given to those under 35 who have not previously lived or studied abroad.

Applicants will be required to submit a plan of proposed study that can be done profitably within the scholarship's one-year term. Those who receive scholarships must affiliate with approved foreign institutes of higher learning.

Interested UK students should see Mrs. Christine Wein, assistant foreign advisor, in Room 116 of the SUB. Mrs. Wein's office phone number is 2309.

The second of two aircraft slated to telecast courses to schools in six Midwest states has left Indianapolis to be equipped with television and other electronic devices for the Midwest Program on Airborne Television Instruction.

MPATI will use the two DC6 aircraft to offer taped television courses to a potential audience of 13,000 schools and five million students in Illinois, Indiana, Kentucky, Michigan, Ohio, and Wisconsin.

A full semester of telecasts is scheduled to get underway Jan. 30, 1961, when the aircraft, flying at 23,000 feet over north central Indiana, will beam the courses to schools within a 200-mile radius.

Engineers are already at work on one of the airplanes at an electric corporation in Baltimore. The second plane is joining its twin after a one-week stopover at Indianapolis where an MPATI air crew familiarized itself with the plane's flight characteristics.

Let's Start Planning

Homecoming, the biggest social event of the fall semester will be upon us in little more than a month and, if everything is running true to form, no one has yet begun to plan for it.

Events of last year showed just how little advance planning is done for Homecoming. Last year's Homecoming Committee Dance Committee got a late start and was not able to contract for a well known orchestra. It was finally forced to hire a Cincinnati band which was little known outside the Cincinnati area. The end result was a lack of student interest in the dance and the loss of $600 by Student Congress, sponsor of the dance.

While it is probably too late to hire a nationally known orchestra or combo, it is not too late to begin hunting for an acceptable substitute—one that will be received more enthusiastically by students. If Homecoming is to be an all-campus event, it must have a dance or concert that will attract all students—both Greeks and independents.

It is not too early to also begin planning for Greek Week, another of the fall's major social events, which will be Dec. 8-10. Last year's Greek Week Steering Committee proposed several uses for the profits of its Louis Armstrong Concert. One of the proposals struck our fancy and we hope it has not been discarded.

Greek Week Cochairman Jerry Shaikun recommended that part of the $1,300 profits be used to bring a national figure to the campus to speak at the convocation which officially opens the week.

The benefits of having such a speaker would be many. All students and faculty members would benefit from being able to hear such a person; independents attending the concert would gain a greater appreciation of the worthwhile aspects of the Greek system; and the Greek system would gain stature and prestige.

When the Greek Week Steering Committee begins its work, it should give Shaikun's proposal its serious consideration. December is not too far off and we would hate to see such a good idea die.

"That's funny. I requested Donovan, too."

Freedom And The Frog

From the Seattle Post Intelligencer comes this news of interest to frog-jumping fans and philosophers:

Mike Stebley, 12-year-old owner, trainer, and manager of the champion jumping frog of Black Diamond, Ore., decided after his entry had swept the field (or leapt the field) that he was going to set the frog free. "He did such a good job today," said Mike, "I guess I'll turn him loose."

We don't recall an event of this kind in the sports world for a long time. It's as if a rookie batting .400 in the minor leagues were to be turned loose by the parent big league club because he might be able to help his dad bring in the hay crop. Or some boxer's manager, having brought his protege to the point of a million-dollar gate, suddenly turned him loose to go back to his violin lessons.

Best of all, we are glad to note that the champion frog is responding in kind to his owner's generosity. Despite having become a big frog in a big puddle—a kind of Escamillo-Babe Ruth figure, presumably pelted with flowers and adulation—Mike's champion is willing to retire to being that sometimes scorned figure, the big frog in a little puddle.

It's a sacrifice. But there he can be his own master and make his longest jumps not for dollars (to which frogs are strangely indifferent) but for mosquitoes.

Liberty and the pursuit of happiness aren't determined by the size of the puddle.

Rushing Season Sparks Social Weekend

By ALICE AKIN

Kernel Society Editor

Well, here we are at the little University again and here I am at the little typewriter reporting to you on the social highlights on campus.

The campus repopulated itself again about two weeks ago when the sorority girls arrived for the rushing season. After spending some time with their little charm courses, "How to Win Pins and Influence Rushees," they at last ended last night with preference parties.

Everyone will be chewing their nails until Sunday, the official Panhellenic bid day. By the way this event has been moved to Funkhouser instead of the traditional Guignol production. (Guess this way will be more effective in letting everyone out of their cages.)

But enough of the rush gush for now . . . as if you weren't sick of hearing about it anyway. Let's talk about this weekend and who's doing what (or what's doing who!).

Anyway things are looking lively. First of all I had a mysterious phone call rendering a tip that there will be a jam session this afternoon out at Joyland. I will say that the information seemed valid enough, so scoot on out if you're able.

As for this eve there are a few parties on the schedule. The Fiji's are having a stag party for rushees and the Phi Sig's say they're having a swinging party. (Needless to say the latter will probably include the other gender.)

Danceland has lost none of its crude charm over the summer and it's still the spot for the Friday night masses. Kappa Alpha is the first to admit that they'll be there en masse tonight.

Since this is supposed to be a ballgame weekend, the Wildcats have decided to accommodate us by playing ball tomorrow night at Stoll field.

Fraternities are organizing their members to sit in groups and of course there'll be plenty of open houses after the game. Then too there are some pregame activities such as various buffets honoring the alums, etc.

The Phi-Delts plan to swing out in a big way for the occasion with a jam session tomorrow afternoon. The House Rockers will be on hand to offer the downbeat. After everyone is beat down they're going to the game together and then back to the house for more dancing.

Also doing a bit of swinging tonight, the Pershing Rifles are having an initiation party at 8 o'clock in Barker Hall. Joe Mills and Bob Miller are furnishing the music.

The Sig Eps have chartered a bus to take them all the way to Stoll Field tomorrow night for the game. The evening will begin at 6 o'clock at the house with a "warm-up party." After the game they will board the bus for the long trip back to the house for a party complete with Hawaiian music and a grass skirt floor show.

A busy weekend scheduled, the Mills and Miller music makers will be playing records for the Phi Taus Saturday night following the UK-Auburn game.

You'll have to admit that the weekend looks good and I'm sure it would look even better if everyone would turn in their social tidbits to the Kernel office. Also we would like to know if you get pinned, married, or anything else along the romantic line.

Wildcats Clash With Tigers In Home Opener

By NEWTON SPENCER
Two revengeful football teams—Kentucky and Auburn—clash at Stoll Field tomorrow night in the home opener for the Cats.

Vengeance is sought by the Tigers because of their poor showing against Tennessee last Saturday. The Wildcats were more impressive against Ole Miss, but Kentucky players still recall the 33-0 fiasco last year at Birmingham.

The oddsmakers are calling the game even with any possible edge to UK because of the home field advantage and an injury to Auburn's number one fullback, Ed Dyas.

Coach Ralph Jordan said this week that Dyas would be available only for kicking duties. Dyas' only appearance in the Tennessee game resulted in a successful field goal.

Kentucky has two players on the injury list. Guard Mel Chandler is definitely out with a dislocated elbow while tackle Bob Hunt is a doubtful performer.

For the third straight week, UK must face a top quarterback. The man this week is senior Bob Hunt. Hunt, fourth in the SEC last year in rushing, will attempt to amend for a poor showing against Tennessee.

The two teams have been concentrated heavily this week on faults uncovered last Saturday.

The Auburn problems are twofold. One is finding a solution to Kentucky's passing attack and the second is developing a scoring punch.

The Tigers were within Tennessee's 10-yard line three times Saturday, but couldn't push the ball across.

The Wildcats have perplexed Coach Blanton Collier with their impotent running game.

This phase of the game, considered the team's strongest point, has produced only 131 yards in 57 rushes for an average of 2.3 yards.

Particularly puzzling has been the showing of Calvin Bird. Considered UK's top candidate for All-American honors, Bird has accumulated an average of minus four yards in 11 carries.

As in the first two games, the Cat linemen will be outweighed. Auburn's starting line averages 211 to Kentucky's 206.

The Colliermen have a slight advantage in the backfield, their backs averaging 189 to the Tigers' 183.

The home team will start three sophomores, three juniors, and five seniors while the Plainsmen will counter with two sophomores, six juniors, and three seniors.

Linemen starting for UK will be David Gash and Dickie Mueller, ends; Junior Hawthorne and Bob Butler, tackles; Jerry Dickerson and Lloyd Hodge, guards; and Irv Goode, center.

Woolum leads the team at quarterback with Bird and Charlie

Sturgeon at halfbacks. Jimmy Poynter opens at fullback.

Jordan will start Dave Edwards and Joe Leitchnam at ends, Winky Giddens and Ken Rice at tackles, Jimmy Putnam and Jerry Gullledge at guards, and Wayne Frazier at center.

In the backfield will be Hunt at quarterback, Jimmy Burson and Bobby Lauder at the halfbacks, and John McGeever at fullback. The Tigers will arrive this afternoon and will stay at the Phoenix Hotel.

This Week In Sports

10 Years Ago

Vito (Babe) Parilli, released from the infirmary the day before, led Kentucky to a 14-0 victory over LSU. Parilli sneaked for one score while Bill Leskovar tallied the other.

Coach Paul Bryant used the single wing formation to provide protection for Parilli.

Five Years Ago

Bob Hardy, Woodie Herzog, and Bob Daugherty starred as the Wildcats upset Mississippi, 21-14. Hardy passed to Daugherty for one score and sneaked across for the second while Herzog scored on a run from five yards out.

Meanwhile, Calvin Bird, now a UK star, scored the only touchdown as Corbin beat Manual, 7-0.

One Year Ago

The Cats muffed a scoring chance at the start of the fourth quarter and Mississippi went on to win, 16-0.

Trailing 6-0 and resting on the Rebel's 27-yard line, Lowell Hughes fumbled on first down to end UK's last threat.

Kentucky had held Mississippi to a scoreless tie at halftime.

Pep Rally Tonight

There will be a Pep Rally at 7:30 o'clock tonight in front of Memorial Coliseum.

The UK band will provide the music and short speeches will be made by President Frank G. Dickey, Coach Blanton Collier and Co-Captains Jerry Elsaman and Lloyd Hodge.

Spence Says

By Newton Spencer

Unless you are deaf or in hibernation this weekend, you'll "hear" from the Auburn followers.

These fans are perfectly normal six days a week, but come Saturday and football, they let loose with their famous cry of "War Eagles."

They shout it on the streets, in restaurants, at the stadium and any other time the spirit moves them.

The spirit first started moving Auburn fans in 1892, but the cry goes back to the time of the Saxons who called hungry buzzards "War Eagles."

The Saxons, watching buzzards circle over their fallen warriors, adopted this name for them. The term soon became their battle cry.

The story of how Auburn adopted it dates back to the Civil War. It is reported that three students at East Alabama Male College (now Auburn) left school to join Gen. Robert E. Lee's troops.

In a battle with the North's Army of the Potomac, all three soldiers were wounded and left for dead. One survived and retreated to southern lines where he found a baby eagle whose mother had been killed.

The soldier brought the eagle, now grown, back with him after the war. He named it "War Eagle."

When Auburn fielded its first football team in 1892, this ex-soldier and his eagle were present.

Late in the game, an Auburn back broke loose and ran for a touchdown. The yelling and excitement of the crowd provoked the eagle (now a very old bird) into a fit of fury.

He flapped his wings and flew up and down the sidelines. Later that day, the eagle collapsed and died. But his antics aroused the crowd into chants of "War Eagle."

Those chants have continued to this day.

Having survived registration, we are ready to try anything. Thus, the SEC predictions for Saturday:

Alabama-Vanderbilt—Alabama is mad after being held to a tie by Tulane and Vandy is too weak to play in Alabama's class. Alabama by two touchdowns.

Florida-Georgia Tech—The Engineers should be down after two rough games. The Gators should be ready for a good performance before a home crowd. Florida in an upset.

Georgia-South Carolina—South Carolina hasn't a chance here.

LSU-Baylor—The Tigers in a close one.

Tennessee-Mississippi State—The Volunteers should continue toward their finest season in years with an easy victory over the Maroons.

Mississippi-Memphis State—Guess who?

Kentucky-Auburn—Tired of "moral" victories, the Cats should win—scorewise—Saturday, 13-14.

Hockey Practice Set

Dr. Martha G. Carr of the Physical Education Department announced yesterday that the opening practice for the women's hockey team will be held at 4 p.m. Tuesday on Stoll Field.

Hockey sticks will be furnished. All interested are invited to attend the first session.

Kentucky's schedule for 1961 calls for six SEC games and four against non-conference foes. The Cats open their season against Miami.

Wildcat Runners Face Miami Redskins

Kentucky's cross country team, described by its coach as mediocre, opens its season against Miami (Ohio) Saturday.

The team will leave late this afternoon for its 11 a.m. encounter with the Redskins. Coach Don Cash Seaton expects to take six runners.

Gone from last year's teams are Press Whelan, Buddy Gum, and E. G. Plummer—UK's top runners for the last three seasons.

Seaton seeks to rebuild the 1959 SEC championship team around John Baxter, Allen Cleaver, Dave Purdy, and Danny Jasper.

"We'll have a mediocre team because of our losses. We've had plenty of practice, but some of the boys aren't in shape, Seaton said.

He stated that he knew little about the potential of the Miami team which has beaten the Cats the last two years.

Last year, the Redskins beat Kentucky even though Whelan ran first and Baxter third. Miami Tech.

Charlie Sturgeon, UK halfback, has averaged 36.7 yards on 13 punts this year. His longest punt was 49 yards against Georgia.

Kennedy Speaks

campaign speech in Covington and a dinner meeting in Cincinnati.

His Kentucky appearances are scheduled the day after his second nationally televised debate with his Republican rival, Vice President Richard M. Nixon.

Kennedy's wife, Jacqueline, will not accompany the group. His mother, Mrs. Joseph P. Kennedy, and Mrs. Lyndon B. Johnson, will be in Lexington for a tea Monday afternoon in Convention Hall at the Phoenix Hotel.

Mrs. Ben Combs, Fayette County campaign chairwoman, said the tea and reception would be open to everyone.

"Mrs. Kennedy and Mrs. Johnson will be in a receiving line with state party dignitaries and will shake hands with everyone who attends," she said.
