

Officials Say School Not Above Criticism, But Judge Street Unfair

Fuller Report To Be Made By University

By Dorman Cordell
"We do not contend that our record in this affair is above criticism. University officials said in a preliminary statement Wednesday answering recent charges by Judge Saul Streit.

However, the officials added, "We would offer the opinion that Judge Streit went to unnecessary lengths in blackening the reputation of a University that has commanded respect throughout the land for its scholastic standards, for the high accomplishments of its faculty and for its steady and sound development over the last three decades."

A fuller statement will be made later. It was announced.

'Never Again'

The statement made following a joint meeting of the executive committee of the Board of Trustees, the board of directors of the Athletics Association, and the executive committee of the Alumni Association, pledged:

"We are firmly resolved to make such reforms in our athletics program as will assure the people of Kentucky that never again will the scandalous behavior which has besmirched the name of their University."

The statement said much of the judge's statement was based on statements of fact, removed from context and taken together with his statements of opinion. This produced a distorted and untrue picture of the athletics program of the University.

Some of the charges which the statement discussed, and their answers:

Athletics Non-Profit

1. That the athletics scandal here is due to "the inordinate desire by the trustees and alumni of Kentucky University for prestige and profit from sports." The group said the Athletics Association is a non-profit agency, and all income goes for the support of the athletic program as well as for other educational and cultural purposes.

In the second charge, the group said for winning teams is not a characteristic of the program.

Dr. Donovan Invites Inquiries Of Program

An invitation to visit the University and investigate its athletics programs was extended this week to the National Collegiate Athletic Association, the Southern Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools.

President Herman L. Donovan said the telegram sent read:

"The integrity not only of Coach Berry but of administrative, faculty, trustees, alumni, faculty, and many Kentuckians has been attacked by Judge Saul Streit in his recent statement. We respectfully request that the NCAA (NSIC and SACSS) at your earliest convenience send to our campus representatives to investigate the truth of these charges and any violations by the University of Kentucky of the rules of the NCAA (NSIC and SACSS)."

May 17 Set As Award Day By AF ROTC

Air Force Plaque To Be Presented

Presentations of Air Force ROTC awards, including the Colonel Edward G. Davis Trophy, the Air Force Association Medal, and the ROAO medal, will be held at 9 a.m. May 17.

The Air Force ROTC Plaque, awarded to the officer who possesses to a marked degree those inherent qualities of an officer and a gentleman, will be one of the many to be given.

Reserve Officers Association, Central Kentucky Chapter, awards include the ROAO medal for the outstanding first year cadet and a second lieutenant insignia awarded to the outstanding graduating senior are to be given.

Other honors to be presented are the Lexington Herald Leader Trophy awarded to the member of the Air Force ROTC Rifle Team with the highest record for the year, and the Wolf Wile Trophy, which goes to the "best all around cadet," who is selected by secret ballot in the senior class.

Trophies will be presented to those students holding the highest scholastic average for the academic year. The donors of these trophies are the Phoenix Hotel, Air Science I; Purcell Company, Air Science II; Lafayette Hotel, Air Science III, and Stewards, Air Science IV.

The Public Relations Board will be presented to the outstanding aircraft maintenance engineer who will be selected by the AF ROTC.

All of these awards will be presented by Dean M. M. White, with the exception of the Colonel Davis Trophy awarded to the member of the Air Force ROTC Rifle Team with the highest record for the year, and the Wolf Wile Trophy, which goes to the "best all around cadet," who is selected by secret ballot in the senior class.

UK Judging Team Wins First Place In Livestock Contest

The University's livestock judging team placed first in the Southeastern division of the International Livestock Judging Contest at Mississippi State last Friday.

Series Offered In Sciences This Summer

A series of courses, entitled Atomic Sciences in Our Daily Lives, will be offered by the College of Arts and Sciences during the summer session.

Prof. George K. Brady, coordinator for the program, said, "Courses in atomic sciences are being offered by the University in order to clear up misconceptions about the dangers of the atom and to prepare the people for the time when atomic energy may be used in the home."

Nine Constitutionalists Win After 1622 Vote; Installation To Be Monday

United Student George Lawson and Constitutionalists Pat Patterson are the new president and vice president of the Student Government Association.

Eleven United Students and nine Constitutionalists also won seats in the assembly at the election, held Wednesday.

Installation of new officers and representatives will be held at 7 p.m. Monday in Room 125 of the SUB.

Lawson won over Jess Gardner, 846 to 746. He carried the Graduate School and the Colleges of Arts and Sciences, Agriculture, Commerce, and Law. Gardner carried the Colleges of Engineering and Commerce brought Miss Patterson victory. She also carried the College of Arts and Sciences, and while Neil had majorities in the other colleges and the Graduate School.

ES Get Both Seats

Both ES seats in the College of Arts and Sciences went to United Students. Dick Rushing received 269 votes and John D. Redden had 248 votes. William A. Gerhardt received 197 votes and Luther Howe received 207.

Zoe Parker, Constitutionalist, received 286 votes for Arts and Sciences underclassman. Her write-in opponent, Doris Morgan, received 139.

Jane Stockton, another Constitutionalist, won the lowerclassman seat in Arts and Sciences, 251 to 230, over Marguerite Magill.

College of Agriculture cast the second largest number of votes, 320. United Students swept every seat in the college. John C. Robertson beat Ward Crow, 167 to 148, for upperclassman. Fred D. Williams beat John Ernst, 189 to 128, for lowerclassman, and Pat Moore defeated Marlene Farmer, 180 to 124, for woman-at-large.

United Students also took all three seats in the College of Commerce. Where 224 votes were cast, Henry Maese received 150 votes to James Perry's 125 for upperclassman. Dick Hubbard beat Ken McGee, 183 to 89, for man-at-large, and Jane Trutt had 183 votes to Patricia Paul's 85 for woman-at-large.

Sweep Engineering

A sweep of the College of Engineering, where 218 votes were cast, went to the Constitutionalists Party. For upperclassman, James McCurry defeated Charles Campbell, 128 to 82. Edwin Berry won the lowerclassman seat over Norman Perry, 107 to 96. Arthur K. Liville took the man-at-large seat over Charles E. Deibel, received 58.

Davenport Wins Law

Constitutionalist Robert Davenport won the representative-at-large seat in the College of Law, usually a United Student stronghold. Davenport edged out Ted Igelhart, 48 to 45.

Jack Early and Abel Nour, both United Students, were unopposed in their races for man-at-large and representative-at-large in the Graduate School. Early received 57 votes and Nour received 54.

Abraham Clayton, Constitutionalist, won the Graduate School woman-at-large seat, receiving 21 votes. Her opponent, United Student write-in candidate Betty Century received 12 votes.

Observers said more campaigning was done by both parties this time than for any other election in recent years.

Final Examinations To Start May 27

Grill To Become More Popular As Semester's End Approaches

It won't be long now... that old clock is ticking away and pretty soon the semester will be over. All those girls on the roof at Jewell Hall are going to be sure they have a nice sun tan before they go home for vacation. The Grill will be full of lots of students from now on... trying to get old exams, skipping a cool limeade or just soaking up the atmosphere of the well-known place on the campus.

Jane Hoffman was selected as the Sweetheart of Delta Chi and Clara Calvert was selected Sweetheart of Tau Kappa Epsilon at the Carnation Ball held last weekend by the fraternities.

Robert Scherer is the newly elected president of Phi Delta Theta. Other officers include Louis Flowers, vice president; Leslie Morris, secretary; Stan Dickson, treasurer; and Don Smith, pledge master.

Leave it to those Kappa Sig's to think up the parties. Tonight they have planned a Backwards Party at the house. No comment!

The SAE's are having their annual spring formal tonight at the Lexington Country Club. All the "Sleep and Eat" boys say it will be a BALL!

Tomorrow of course is the annual SuK's May Day and what a day it will be. Most of the sorority girls and fraternity boys will be up at the crack of dawn to help decorate those beautiful floats for the parade in the afternoon. Tomorrow night the May Queen will be presented at the May Dance in the SUB and the winning floats will be announced.

Sunday the ADP's will honor their graduates with a picnic down at Herrington Lake. The Newman Club will also have a picnic and beach party Sunday afternoon.

Tau Alpha Pi chapter here on the campus will soon be taken into the National Organization.

Now that the races and the Derby are over, everyone can settle down to some studying for all those exams that will soon be coming up... and of course there are all of those terrific beach parties and picnics.

Art Gallery Opens Professional Exhibit

The 25th annual Kentucky and Southern Indiana exhibition opened Sunday in the Fine Arts gallery. Edward Wanda Rannells, head of the Art Department, said this week the exhibition will continue through May 18.

This exhibition is the largest professional exhibition held in Kentucky. It is sponsored annually by the Louisville Art Center Association. It was shown at the J. B. Speed Art Museum in Louisville before being brought to Lexington. The current display includes 75 paintings and drawings, 16 sculptures, and 65 pieces of crafts. Lexington artists represented in the exhibit are Clifford Amys, Raymond Barnhart, Beverly Davis, Luis Eades, Anne Guerrant Green, Eugene Grissom, and Viktor Hammer. Hudson D. Walker of New York was juror of selection and awards for the exhibition.

Wildcat Nine Opens Vol Series Today With Possible Play-Off Spot In Sight

Lancaster Elects Bunky Gruner To Start On Mound

The UK baseball team plays the first of a two game series with Tennessee this afternoon at 2:15 on the Stoll Field diamond. The second game will be played tomorrow at 1:30 pm.

Developments in the Southeastern Conference pennant race have made this series a crucial one for the Cats. If Auburn loses one of four remaining games on its schedule and the Cats take both ends of the Vol series, Coach Harry Lancaster's men will cop the Eastern Division championship. Florida has already bottled up the Western Division and will meet the Eastern winners in a play-off for the SEC championship. Tennessee has the same chance as UK. If the Vols win today and tomorrow and Auburn loses, the defending champs will advance to the play-offs.

Auburn has left a duo of games with Florida and two with Georgia. Lancaster has selected Bunky Gruner to oppose the Volunteers in the game today. Gruner has won two and lost one for the season, one of those wins being over the Vols at Knoxville last week. He trilled a most five-hitter against the Tennesseans.

Williams Probable Starter

Gruner will probably be opposed by Don Williams who batted the Cats a week ago. Williams is pitching his first season for the Vols. After Williams, Coach Cy Anderson has several other top flight throwers to go against the Cats. John Huffstetter, whom Lancaster considers the best of the Vol mound corps, had an 8-0 conference record last year. Captain Billy Joe Bowman won five and lost one, and Billy Joe O'Kain had a 3-0 record.

Freshman Jim Day, who lost a decision to Tennessee although he pitched creditable ball all the way, will hurl for the Cats tomorrow.

Judge Joins Emphasis Critics; Did Someone Say Tennessee?; Now Batting For Harry—Larry

The University has answered the accusations of Judge Saul Streit and those who stood armed to blast the athletic program can put down their weapons. There's really nothing to shoot at.

After hearing both sides of the question one can see the bludge by the judge were unnecessary and uncalled for. After praising UK officials for complete co-operation in connection with the basketball scandals, Judge Streit then tore into the UK family for harboring illegitimate practices.

The University answered each of the judge's torts and on the basis of the prepared statement, the slams at UK athletics were unjustified. Members of the basketball squad repudiated the personal statements made about Coach Adolph Rupp.

Those intimately connected with athletics at UK knew from the start Judge Streit's accusations were exaggerated and untrue. Those who have traveled with the basketball team know the regulations imposed by Rupp and that he has never been guilty of sacrificing the welfare of his players. As for subsidizing players, the judge over-looked the fact that much of the publicity concerning high school players comes from the player, his family, or his coach who hope to attract attention through reports of contacts from the better-known schools.

After examining the issue, it seems Judge Streit has joined the group of critics who see nothing but evil in present athletic systems in the nation but can give no definite ways in which the programs can be improved. If the judge's altruistic moves were aimed to improve intercollegiate athletics and if he had spent his time studying the question, perhaps his report would have had more value than the destructive criticism thrown at Kentucky.

His statement did incite the NCAA to announce a pending investigation but the University has replied with an invitation to the membership committee to visit and examine its methods and practices.

That 'W' Name?

That word "Tennessee" is being mentioned again today and as a result the largest crowd of the season is expected at the Stoll Field diamond. Ticket manager Harvey Hodges commented last week that this year has been one of the worst in recent years at the gate for baseball games.

Cat Golfers Play Today In Tri-Meet

Coach John Owens' Kentucky golfers will be out after their sixth and seventh victories of the season against Cincinnati and Xavier in a tri-meet at Cloverbrook Country Club in Cincinnati today.

The Cat linksmen hold close decisions over Cincinnati, 16-11, and Xavier, 15-12, so far this year and will be favored to cop the meet.

This is the first engagement for the Cats since returning from the SEC meet at Athens, Ga. last week where they finished ninth in the SEC. Handicapped by the loss of Crabtree and Hardy, who were unable to play due to an attack of the flu and food poisoning, the Wildcats only had four entrants in the tournament, Smith, Riddle, Stoll and Kloecker.

Smith had rounds of 79, 89, 94 and 81 over the Athens Country Club layout; Riddle fired a total of 313 on rounds of 76, 79, 78 and 81. Stoll and Kloecker failed to qualify for the last 36 holes as they had 75, 83 and 83, 85 respectively the first two days.

Georgia won the team championship and John Hill of Alabama was the individual champion of the SEC with a 290 total, two-over-par for the 72 holes.

AGR Leads In I-M Fraternity League While Men's Dorm Paces Independents

AGR posted two victories for the best effort in Division One softball play this week. Monday saw them down the Deits 5-2 and then come back on Tuesday night to post a 7-5 victory over the Barristers.

In other games of the division, ASP and the Barristers staged quite a slugfest with ASP getting a little better of it for a 2-16 win. The following night saw ATO turn the tables on ASP and down them 13-4 in a well played ball game for both sides.

Only one game was played as of this writing in Division Two. PKA outlasted SAE in this single contest for a 15-11 victory. The game score is a good indication as to the progress of the contest. Both teams were ranged in the field but made up for it with their bats.

Phi Delta Xi Two
Three games were played in Division Three. The Phi Delta Xi team were fore being called on time. Lambda Chi beat ZET 15-8 in the other game in that division. This contest was a good game from the spectator point of view but would hardly appeal to the critic in the same way since both teams lacked fielding strength but the spirit and hustle kept things moving right along until the final inning.

probably begin late next week since play is over for the round robin this week. Four teams from each division will be chosen for the playoffs and the winner will play the independent champ for the intra-mural title.

In the independent division, BSU downed the Newman Club 17-10 in a free scoring affair. BSU followed with another win over Scott Street 10-5 in the final contest of the round play in this contest was good intra-mural activity.

Keller Rejects Offers To Play College Ball

Charley Keller came to UK in 1951 to try out for Coach Adolph Bupp's basketball team. In addition to making the grade for the nation's number one basketball team, the 18-year old freshman has added considerable punch to the Wildcat baseball team.

Keller hails from Jonesboro, Arkansas, a town of some 20,000 baseball happy people. At the ripe old age of 13, the Kentucky first baseman started playing semi-pro ball around his hometown. His talents were recognized by a New York Yankee scout and the club changed a major league contract in his favor. During the five years that followed, Charley had offers from other major league teams, but refused all of them. The Brooklyn Dodgers, Boston Red Sox, and the St. Louis Browns had Charley working out with their clubs before coming to UK.

A Fixtue At Initial Sack
Coach Harry Lancaster put Charley to work as soon as baseball appeared this spring. He opened the season on first base and has held down that position since then.

In the 13 games played by the Wildcats so far, the Kentucky first baseman has appeared in all of them. He has seen to the plate 54 times and has garnered 16 hits and as many runs. Larry Jones is the only other performer on the team with as many runs to his credit. He and Keller are tied in that department.

Keller's eight RBI's place him fourth on the team in the matter of clutch hitting. He has been more potent than any other member of the team with 104. He has yet to make an error and his fielding percentage is a glossy 1.000.

Teammates have dubbed Charley with the nickname, "King Kong," after the famous "King Kong" killer of the New York Yankees a few years back. During his tryout with the Brooklyn Dodgers, many of their top stars thought Charley was far advanced in his fielding for his age.

Has Parental Support

both basketball and baseball. Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Keller visited the campus early in the season to see the two-game series between the Wildcats and Georgia. After traveling 450 miles the series was rained out and the family had the long trip for nothing. However, they are determined to see their son play this year and plan to make the trip for the Tennessee series this weekend.

During his high school days at Jonesboro High he served as captain for the All-State basketball team for four straight years. He scored 37 points in one game to establish a high school record for a single game in Arkansas. Charley was chosen as the best baseball prospect in Arkansas by a scout from the St. Louis Cardinals in the National League.

Charley says that one of his biggest thrills in baseball came in a game played against Harry Walker's Major League All-Stars. In five trips to the plate he was credited with two base hits and two walks. Not bad for an amateur against major league pitching.

If the arm stays away from his door, the Wildcat first-sacker plans to enter the pro ranks. He ticks the scales at 172 and plans to weigh 175. Kentucky has his services for three more years.

Wiley Cracks Another Mark As Two-Miler

Al Wiley set a school record in the two mile run by bettering the old mark of 10:04.4 by three seconds in a losing cause as the Volunteers of Tennessee beat the Cats 77-55 at Knoxville in a dual track meet last Saturday.

The old mark was held by Dave Rogan, the Kentucky flash of the 1926-27 seasons. Actually, the mark was bettered by Wiley last week in Huntington against Marshall but it wasn't recognized.

Wiley's performance and that of Bill Vallesau, hurdler, were two of the few bright spots in the loss. The two Jones boys, Larry and Harry, took time out from a baseball game being played a few miles away to participate in the broad jump. Larry proceeded to jump 22 feet-9 inches to take first place. Harry wasn't too far behind his brother to take second. Skip Whittaker rounded out Kentucky's only sweep of the day.

Swedish Star Sets Record
Actually the main attraction of the day was the running of Tennessee's Swedish star, Alf Holmberg, as he set another meet record in the mile run. He then took part in the mile relay to help set another school record in that event. The time of 3:27.7 broke the old school record of 3:28.

High point man for the Cats was Bill Vallesau with a double win in the high and low hurdles. Ed Morgan of Tennessee was honors man for the host school with wins in the 100 and 220 dashes.

Skippy Whittaker just couldn't get out of the third place rut as he garnered four of them, one in the broad jump, high jump, javelin and the 100-yard dash.

Tennessee gathered nine first places to Kentucky's six and out-scored the Cats 52-31 in the field competition and 44-34 in the track events.

The results are:
100-yard dash—Morgan, T. Byrd, T. Whittaker, K. Wiley, 10.4
220-yard dash—Morgan, T. Rishel, K. Wiley, 2:28.0
440-yard dash—Rishel, K. Hill, T. Tidwell, T. Time 51.4

School Is Not Above Criticism In Sports 'Affair,' Officials Say

The statement says a check of University bulletins, together with high school transcripts and college records of the two, will show they were technically qualified to enter the University.

3. That cribbing was "encouraged and tolerated by University officials." The charge was based on statements by Beard, Groza, and Balfanz that when they had been absent from examinations they were permitted, in some cases, to take the same examination which had previously been given to the class. This gave them opportunity to talk with others and learn about the test. Other students had the same opportunity, the statement answered. This practice was confined to a few faculty members whose trust was sometimes betrayed.

Answers Point Spread Charge

4. That Coach Rupp discussed point spreads with his teams.

Most coaches use information about how they are favored to win to stir their teams to greater efforts, the group answered.

5. That Rupp associated with a gambling bookmaker.

The statement says the bookmaker was not a member of Rupp's party at any night club, but happened to call at the table while there. The only association of the two in Lexington was when Coach Rupp called on the bookmaker to secure a contribution to the Shrine Crippled Children's Hospital.

Physical Welfare Discussed

6. That Rupp "deliberately sacrificed the physical welfare of the players."

The statement says the group knows of no incident which would justify such a charge.

7. That certain players received money beyond the legitimate scholarship allowances of the Southeastern Conference.

According to the group, a new rule now requires all athletes to make affidavit that they have received no inducements nor will receive any beyond the legitimate scholarships.

Pay Same, Win Or Lose

8. That when the team lost, "We were lucky to get something to eat."

The same subsistence allowance was paid all players on all trips, the statement said. The amounts were adequate but not excessive.

9. That the University is spending an excessive amount of money on basketball.

The statement says much of the budget of $107,000 was used for travel, guarantees to other teams, sending Suky and the band to the SEC tournament, and other such items.

All From Gate Receipts

Not a dollar of taxpayers' money was spent on this program, but all came from gate receipts, the statement continued.

10. That athletics are "highly systematized and commercialized enterprises" at Kentucky.

They are "highly systematized," the group agreed, but they "see no reason why this should be condemned. Our teams are superbly coached and equipped and are well organized."

Athletes are commercialized to be self-supporting, they said.

Judge In Error

11. That the University illegally recruited.

Judge Street is in error about this, the statement charges.

12. That subsidies paid to players came from monies collected in 1948 for the Olympic Committee.

This is not true, the statement replied.

13. That UK has no scholarships for students who work their way through college.

This is untrue, the group stated. Approximately 200 scholarship and fellowships totaling in value more than $75,000 are offered.

Truants of the University recently approved appointments, resignations and other staff changes. The following major changes received board action:

Tree East Of Miller Hall Planted By Class Of 1901

By Leona Hranman

While hurrying madly across campus to that next class, you may remember having seen a small marker inscribed, "Class 1901."

This square piece of stone lies at the foot of a large pin oak tree just east of Miller Hall. It was the first in a series of 14 memorial trees planted by graduating UK classes.

On Arbor Day, 1901, a class of about 42 planted this tree. It came from Hillemeier's Nursery and was approximately six feet tall, including roots. Dr. William S. Webb, retired head of the UK Physics and Anthropology Departments, recalls that each member of his class took a turn at the shovel during the ceremony. Frank G. Cutler was president and Mrs. William S. Webb was vice president. A speech and a prophecy closed the service.

Fifty-one years have passed and the tree is now about 40 feet tall. Time has also had its effect on the class of '01. At least four members have become millionaires, several were killed in World War I, and one of the life expectancy of a pin oak tree is about 175 years.

Some have never been heard from. According to the last records there are now 19 living members.

Last year a home-coming ceremony was held around the tree to celebrate the 50th anniversary of its planting. Six graduates attended. They were Dr. and Mrs. William S. Webb, Philip L. Kaufman, mechanical engineer, Chicago; Henry T. Bewley, electrical engineer, Akron, Ohio; George Halsey, civil engineer, Frankfort; and Frank T. Siebert, mechanical engineer, Merion, Pa.

These six also became members of the Century Club, and received additional diplomas at commencement services last June. To qualify, a former student must have been graduated from UK at least 50 years ago.

The class of '01 was also the first to wear caps and gowns at a UK commencement.

Dr. Webb, who had the tree marker made and placed in 1932, says that the life expectancy of a pin oak tree is about 175 years.

Winkle Back From Student Conclave

The senior class of the College of Pharmacy, accompanied by several faculty members, was the guest of three major pharmaceutical companies last week.

The students visited Abbott of Chicago, Upjohn of Kalamazoo, Mich., and Parke-Davis of Detroit. The trip, which lasted a week, was the first three-way trip planned at the college.

Vernon Winkle, a delegate to the district American Pharmaceutical Association student branch convention, has returned to report on the convention held April 27-28 in Chicago.

The University of Illinois, as hosts, took the students on a tour of their medical extension in Chicago.

The district covers five states: Wisconsin, Michigan, Illinois, Indiana, Ohio, and Kentucky.

The average standings of two professional fraternities at the College of Pharmacy were released last week. Phi Delta Chi has a 1.8 standing; Kappa Psi has a 1.8 standing.

Faculty Club Shows Barnhart Paintings

Ten paintings, by Prof. Raymond Barnhart of the Department of Art, are on display in the Faculty Club. These works were painted during 1949 and 1950. They are chiefly Mexican in subject and are done in oil, vivinole, and lacquer. The exhibition will remain throughout May.

Dr. Donald L. Wetmann, head of the UK Art Department, will go to Louisville Tuesday to judge the year's Student Art work produced by the University of Louisville and the Art Center Association of Louisville.
